DATE: 6/16/78

FROM : Danny O. Coulson

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA); MISCELLANEOUS REFERENCES FILE OF ELOY GUTIERREZ MENOYO

PURPOSE:

To record events surrounding the transmittal of above referenced file by SA Parks H. Stearns from SA Orley Leeson of the Identification Division to SA John S. Giaquinto of the Records Management Division.

DETAILS:

Shortly before 4:00 p.m. 6/15/78, Mr. Orley Leeson, Assistant Section Chief of the Technical Section, Identification Division, telephonically inquired of SA Parks H. Stearns of the Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Legal Counsel Division, as to whether that Unit handled liaison with the HSCA. SA Stearns advised that that Unit did have liaison responsibilities with the HSCA. SA Leeson then indicated that one of the employees under his supervision had located a file apparently relating to work done in connection with that Select Committee outside the building earlier that day.

SA Stearns then went to SA Leeson's office and inspected a 3 or 4 page heavily excised Bureau file with the cover reversed bearing a white 3X5 tag reading " [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C) Miscellaneous References HSCA: 3/14/78."

Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA);
MISCELLANEOUS REFERENCES FILE OF ELOY GUTIERREZ

Realizing that that was not a Legal Counsel Division file, SA Stearns took the file to John S. Giaquinto of the Congressional Inquiry Unit who recognized the file as one maintained by that Unit for review by the staff of the Select Committee. The file was left with SA Giaquinto and the circumstances involving its recovery were explained to him.

PURPOSE: To alert each division within FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) of the circumstances surrounding a missing enclosure consisting of certain pages from the Manual of Instructions prepared in response to a request from the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) dated February 15, 1978.

DETAILS: The CIU handles requests from the HSCA pertaining to information in Bureau files concerning the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. An HSCA request dated February 15, 1978, requested certain sections from our Manual of Instructions in use during 1962-1968. This material was prepared in a communication dated May 26, 1978, directed to the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, and the excised manuals were attached as enclosures. The original and yellow copy of the outgoing communication together with enclosures, were last seen in the Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Room 3658, approximately May 30, 1978. The enclosures apparently became unattached as the original and yellow copy of the outgoing communication were located and have never left the Bureau.

The excised portions of the Manual of Instructions are in two bound Bureau file jackets and together are approximately three inches thick. The cover of the file jackets reads as follows: "Manual of Instructions, Table of Contents, HSCA request February 15, 1978". They were then placed in a bulky enclosure folder which was labeled "Manual of Instructions, Table of Contents, Requested Sections, HSCA request of February 15, 1978". Attached to this memorandum is a photograph of the Manual of Instructions prepared by CIU and the bulky enclosure folder.

NOTE: Delay in completing response to this request was a result of negotiations with the HSCA on 3/13/78, and 5/3/78, to determine which Sections of the Manual were pertinent to the HSCA's investigation and should be delivered. The identification and assembly of revised pages for each Section delivered was a lengthy process. This was followed by the necessity to coordinate excisions with all the various substantive Divisions responsible for each Section. The HSCA was advised telephonically concerning the status of Manual preparation and its representatives did not express any concern regarding the length of time necessary to complete this response.

Regarding excisions in the material delivered, the Congressional Inquiry Unit coordinated with the following FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) representatives: H. N. Helterhoff, Civil Rights Section, Criminal Investigative Division (CID); R. Connolly, Fugitive Unit, CID; M. V. Hale and J. J. Jamar, Top Echelon and Criminal Informant Unit, CID; P. E. Nugent, Domestic Security and Terrorism Section, CID; R. Hildreth, Intelligence Division; and H. W. Arendt, Personal Crimes Unit, CID.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Reference is made to the letter to the Attorney General from G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, dated February 15, 1978, which, in connection with the HSCA's investigation into the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr., requested delivery of certain material from the files of FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ).

By FBI memorandum dated March 20, 1978, you were furnished a partial response to referenced letter and advised that a response to the item concerning "FBI Manuals of Instruction (MOI) in use during 1962-1968" was being prepared.

On March 13, 1978, Mr. Blakey modified the above item requesting FBI Manuals, stating the HSCA desired only those Sections pertaining to security informants, extremist informants, civil rights, fugitives, murder, and conspiracy for the years, 1962-1963 and 1967-1968. It was also agreed to provide a table of contents for the entire Manual for these years. On May 3, 1978, HSCA representative, Peter Beeson, requested that the Section of the Manual concerning "Assaults and Threats Against the President" also be furnished to the HSCA.

In response to the above request, Attachment 1 contains the table of contents beginning on January 1, 1962, for the entire FBI MOI, followed by revisions for each year through 1968.

Attachment 2 contains the Base Manual for the following Sections:

Section 27, Civil Rights, beginning in 1962;

Section 28, Civil Rights Act of 1964, beginning in 1964;

Section 28, Conspiracy, beginning in 1962;

House Select Committee on Assassinations

Section 49, Fugitives, beginning in 1962;

Section 107, Security Informants, beginning in 1962;

Section 130, Racial Informants, beginning in 1964;

Section 134, Assaults and Threats Against the President, beginning in 1966.

After the Base Manual for each Section are revised pages for each following year up through 1968. Revised pages were issued periodically throughout any given year. Therefore, by appropriately inserting excised pages, the HSCA can reconstruct each Section of the Manual as it would have existed for any month or year of the HSCA's interest. The HSCA should note that the MOI Section concerning murder was not added as Section 146 until June 13, 1973, and is, therefore, outside the period of HSCA's interest. The HSCA should also note that Section 28, Conspiracy, was changed in 1964, with Section 28 becoming the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 29 becoming Conspiracy. There were no revised pages for Section 29 for the years, 1963 to 1968.

This letter completes response to HSCA's letter of February 13, 1978.

Enclosures (2)

Enclosures (Manual of Instructions) became separated from letter while in channels. It was last reported intact leaving office of D. O. Coulson, Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Legal Counsel Division (LCD) enroute to LCD front office on the approximate day letter was dated. Memorandum, Mr. Ryan to Mr. Bassett dated June 13, 1978, captioned "Missing Enclosure, Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU), Document Classification and Review Section, Records Management Division" requested all Divisions of FBI Headquarters to search for missing enclosures. On June 16, 1978, Gerald Hamilton, HSCA Staff Member advised the missing enclosures arrived at the HSCA attached to an FBI memorandum responding to an unrelated request.

Original letter enclosing the Manuals was hand delivered to office of Mr. Keuch 3:30 p.m. June 16, 1978. Routing slips sent to all Divisions advising to discontinue efforts to locate enclosures.

FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) and Ms. Jacqueline Hess, HSCA, wherein Ms. Hess was advised that since the majority of the named photographs available in Headquarters files would have been made available to the HSCA. Ms. Hess was advised that if the HSCA was desirous of obtaining photographs from our Identification

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Enclosed are the original and two copies of a memorandum responding in full to an HSCA request of May 11, 1978, which asks for delivery of "[REDACTED]"

HSCA

The Committee is making this request at the FBI's suggestion in lieu of a request for all President John F. Kennedy assassination files in both Field Offices.

Several weeks ago, HSCA Staff Member Robert Genzman informally inquired regarding the feasibility of obtaining all assassination files from the FBI's Dallas and New Orleans Field Offices. He was then advised that the sheer volume of such files (approximately 4196 volumes or 170,000 pages) would create a severe burden on the FBI to obtain, reproduce and process them for HSCA access or delivery.

REC-5 62-117290-958

It was pointed out that such an undertaking should be approached with judicious consideration since, as the Department is aware, in a case such as the assassination of President Kennedy, all substantive information being reported and recorded by intra and interoffice communications was ultimately included in reports or communications furnished to FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ). The HSCA has already had access to or delivery of all such reporting from the FBIHQ files on the President John F. Kennedy and Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., assassinations. Furthermore, the HSCA has also received delivery of the Memphis Field Office files in the King assassination and these should amply demonstrate FBI reporting procedures. If the Committee has found anything to the contrary during a review of these files, it should, perhaps, be requested to identify such a specific instance in order to show cause why it requires review of the voluminous Field Office files pertaining to the assassination of President Kennedy.

FBI/DOJ

Assistant Attorney General
Criminal Division
Attention: Mr. Robert L. Kauch

In order to assist the Committee, it has been suggested to Mr. Genzman that the Committee make this present request so that upon delivery of the preassassination documents, it might thoroughly analyze and compare the Field Office documents to the FBIHQ documents already furnished. By so doing, it should become apparent to the Committee that no substantive information bearing on the course or outcome of the Lee Harvey Oswald investigation was omitted from reports or communications ultimately directed to FBIHQ.

In addition, it has been suggested to Mr. Genzman that, once the HSCA has had ample opportunity to thoroughly digest the contents of the preassassination Field documents as compared to the FBIHQ documents, should it have further reservations about the type of information residing in Field Office files and not sent to FBIHQ, it might then consider requesting documents from the Dallas Field Office post-assassination files for a very narrow time frame. If this fails to satisfy Committee requirements and if you concur, the Committee would then be offered a copy of the Freedom of Information Act release on the Dallas Field Office President John F. Kennedy assassination files, which will be produced in response to a pending request from Mr. Harold Weisberg. However, it is estimated that at least 90 days will be required to process the Dallas Field Office files requested by Mr. Weisberg.

In short, an existing court order requires production of the Dallas and New Orleans Field Office files for Mr. Weisberg. Absent a compelling reason not presently in evidence, it is felt that a Committee request for a separate production of all Dallas and New Orleans Field Office files would create an undue burden on the FBI's already strained resources in this area and should be resisted strenuously.

You are requested to furnish a copy of the memorandum to the HSCA.

Assistant Attorney General
Criminal Division
Attention: Mr. Robert L. Keuch

NOTE: This response had been coordinated with the Freedom of Information - Privacy Act Branch and Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Legal Counsel Division. It is felt that this response should be used as a vehicle to acquaint Mr. Keuch with the HSCA's overtures toward obtaining the massive Dallas and New Orleans Field Office files. Upon review at FBIHQ, it was noted that no Serial 4 exists in the New Orleans file on Oswald. New Orleans airtel to FBIHQ, dated 5/12/78, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald," advised that "there was a mistake in the original serialization of this file, and there is no serial numbered four."

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to the May 11, 1978, letter to the Attorney General, signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, wherein he requested [REDACTED]

HSCA

[REDACTED] This request was received by the FBI on May 15, 1978.

The two volumes of documents prepared in response to this request will be delivered to a Committee representative in Room 8988, FBI Headquarters.

The Committee's attention is invited to Serial 5 of the New Orleans Field Office file on Lee Harvey Oswald. The Committee will note that this serial was originally marked Serial 4, which was later crossed out and marked as Serial 5. Recent inquiry conducted in the New Orleans Office of the FBI discloses that this was apparently done in error and that there was and is no Serial 4.

Where information or a document is not provided, it is either not retrievable from FBI Headquarters files or is not produced pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Reference is made to letter to the Attorney General from G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, dated May 12, 1978, requesting access to material in the files of the FBI pertinent to the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation.

Retrievable information in FBI Headquarters files relevant to this request has been prepared for the Committee's access subject to the usual excisions and deletions. Where information is not provided, it is either not retrievable or not being produced pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding. It is noted that the individuals named in items 18 and 22 were previously requested by HSCA on April 28, 1978, and will be responded to within that request.

This additionally confirms a conversation of May 26, 1978, between Ms. Johanna Smith, HSCA, and Special Agent John S. Giaquinto, wherein Ms. Smith limited the scope of the request to the period 1957-1965.

DATE: 6/19/78

FROM : Legal Counsel am

SUBJECT: FBI RETENTION OF HANDWRITTEN NOTES OF G.R. BLAKEY, CHIEF COUNSEL AND DIRECTOR, HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)

PURPOSE:

To furnish advice as to whether handwritten notes made by Mr. Blakey during his review of certain FBI files and retained at FBIHQ per Mr. Blakey's request, are "agency records" subject to the FOIA.

DETAILS:

The reach of the FOIA is restricted by the language of the statute to the Executive Branch of the Federal Government. Congress is clearly not an "agency" within the meaning of the statute, and therefore records compiled by Congress or Congressional employees do not fall within the scope of the FOIA. Nor does it appear that Congressional records are brought within the FOIA by virtue of being within the possession of an "agency" whose records are in fact accessible under the statute. In Goland v. CIA, et al., (No. 76-0166, D.D.C. 1976), the Court held that a Congressional document, released to the CIA for limited purposes "as a reference document only," was still within the control of, and retrievable by, Congress and, therefore, not subject to disclosure under the FOIA.

Mr. Blakey's notes were made pursuant to his duties as Chief Counsel of HSCA. Apparently, for reasons of security or convenience, or both, Mr. Blakey requested that the notes be retained at FBIHQ until he has further need of them in preparing HSCA's final report. Therefore, the notes should not be considered agency records but rather Congressional documents within control of, and retrievable by, the Congress.

Memo to Assistant Director - Records Management Division

As a precaution and to further clarify the status of Mr. Blakey's notes, consideration should be given to confirming, through correspondence with Mr. Blakey, that the notes are not records of the FBI but were developed to assist in the preparation of a Congressional subcommittee report, that the FBI exercises no control over them beyond that necessary to safeguard them pursuant to Mr. Blakey's request and that they are retrievable by Mr. Blakey at his discretion.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Mr. Blakey's notes be treated in every respect as Congressional documents temporarily retained by the FBI, subject to retrieval by the Congress, and that consideration be given to confirmation of this position by appropriate correspondence with Mr. Blakey.

PURPOSE: To advise that the attached letter was delivered to Mr. Robert L. Keuch, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, U. S. Department of Justice, and of his response to same.

DETAILS: On June 30, 1978, Special Agent (SA) John S. Giaquinto, Congressional Inquiry Unit, and SA Ronald Heller, Legal Liaison Unit, delivered the original of the attached letter to Mr. Robert L. Upon review of the attached, Mr. Keuch's questions concerned the nature of the material contained in the unaccounted for sections of the file regarding [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] length of service with the HSCA and her veracity when interviewed by SA Giaquinto on June 16, 1978. (b)(7)(C) (b)(6)

Mr. Keuch then advised that he agreed with the Bureau's position in giving [REDACTED] the benefit of the doubt regarding the unaccounted for sections of the file regarding [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that no further action need be taken. Additionally, he advised that as a [REDACTED] (b)(6) (b)(7)(C)

Dear Mr. Keuch:

The purpose of this letter is to advise that a file folder containing cover pages for two deleted third agency documents prepared for the House Select Committee on Assassinations' (HSCA) access was found by an FBI employee in a public telephone booth outside the J. Edgar Hoover (JEH) Building. Additionally, this advises of the status regarding our inquiry.

At approximately 12:20 PM, on Thursday, June 15, 1978, an employee of the Identification Division recovered an FBI file folder in a public telephone booth located on 10th Street, Northwest, across from the JEH Building. The file folder contained unclassified and innocuous cover pages for two deleted State Department documents prepared in response to a request from the HSCA for material regarding an individual named [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C)

The employee turned the file over to his supervisor, who in turn passed the material on to Legal Counsel Division. The file was subsequently turned over to the Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU), which processes all requests from the HSCA. A review of CIU records revealed that the file folder, as well as five Sections of the Internal Security Investigation file on [REDACTED] had been Xeroxed in response to an HSCA request dated March 14, 1978, regarding 64 individuals and anti-Castro groups. The material was subsequently made available to [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C)

[REDACTED] for the HSCA, on June 13, 14, and 15, 1978. A review of the material prepared for HSCA access indicated that excised staff copies of Sections 1, 4 and 5 of [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C)

JSG:mel (8)

ENCLOSURE

main file could be accounted for; however, excised staff copies of Sections 2 and 3 could not be. The Sections contain the results of investigation conducted by our Miami Division regarding [REDACTED] during the period 1959-1964. A thorough search of the CIU space proved negative regarding the whereabouts of the excised staff copies of Sections 2 and 3. (b)(7)(c)

In view of the fact that [REDACTED] was the only HSCA staff member to have access to the material, it was deemed imperative that she be interviewed regarding this matter. [REDACTED] was subsequently interviewed on June 16, 1978, regarding her knowledge of the recovered file folder, as well as the unaccounted for Sections of [REDACTED] file. (b)(6) (b)(7)(c)

It is specifically noted at this time that Mr. C. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel, HSCA, invoking Congressional privilege, refused to make [REDACTED] available for interview until he personally interviewed her regarding this matter. Mr. Blakey interviewed [REDACTED] upon her return to the House Annex Building and then, only with the approval of Committee Chairman Louis Stokes, did he make [REDACTED] available to the FBI. (b)(6)

[REDACTED] was subsequently interviewed in a conference room at the House Annex Building. She advised that she had, in fact, charged out material regarding [REDACTED] on June 13, 14, and 15, 1978, including the recovered file folder. She advised, however, that her records indicate she had reviewed only Sections 1, 4 and 5, and had no knowledge of the whereabouts of Sections 2 and 3. She had no explanation as to how the file folder was found in the phone booth just 15 minutes after she departed the JEE Building on June 15, 1978. She speculated that it may have been accidentally gathered up with her work papers and newspaper, and then, unbeknown to her, carried out of the building. [REDACTED] was interviewed at length, but the matter could not be resolved. A search, by consent, of [REDACTED] desk and work area at the House Annex Building proved negative. (b)(6) (b)(7)(c)

Administratively, a review of the original five Sections of [REDACTED] file indicates that each Section had been Xeroxed and prepared for excising by the CIU. A (b)(7)(c)

review of the HSCA request for access to this material indicates that a total of 64 individuals and anti-Castro groups were included in this request. Material compiled was voluminous and the processed material stored in two file cabinets in secure CIU space. A review of the excised material prepared for the HSCA on the individuals and groups named in the request indicates an absence of a control file containing red line serials, which correspond to the original serials in Sections 2 and 3.

It is noted that the term control file pertains to the Xeroxed copy of the original file, which is subsequently reviewed by a CIU analyst. The analyst, using a red "El Marko" flaired-tip pen, will excise certain information from each serial, such as informant symbol numbers, et cetera. Additionally, third agency documents are deleted and replaced with a cover sheet, which describes the document and accounts for the serial.

Subsequent to the analyst's review, the control file, with the red "El Marko" deletions, is then processed through a Kodal machine, which blacks out the "El Marko" so that it is illegible.

The second copy, with its illegible excisions, is designated as the "staff copy" and made available to the HSCA. The control file with the "El Marko" excisions, is designated as the "red line copy" and is not made available to the HSCA.

Although it can be established that original Sections 1 through 5 of the file, as well as the recovered folder, were Xeroxed, it cannot be positively established that a staff copy of Sections 2 and 3 were in fact made available to the HSCA. The support personnel, who regularly charge out the material to the HSCA, cannot positively state that she had in fact provided staff copies of Sections 1 through 5, as well as the recovered folder. She can only assume that they were made available. Also, [REDACTED] notes indicate that she reviewed only Sections 1, 4 and 5 and has no recall of being given Sections 2 and 3 or any reference as to having reviewed them. The facts indicate that there is little doubt that [REDACTED] removed the file folder from the JER Building on June 15, 1978. However, because the (b)(6)

material in the folder was of no value to [REDACTED] or the HSCA, we have to assume that she may have inadvertently picked up the recovered file folder with her work papers and then, unbeknown to her, dropped the folder on 10th Street, outside the JEM Building. (b)(6)

Based upon the above facts, as well as the Bureau's experience in dealing with the HSCA and its personnel during the past 18 months, it is our position that [REDACTED] be given the benefit of the doubt regarding this matter and that no further action be taken by this Bureau, unless the Department so directs.

Sincerely,

Harold N. Bassett
Assistant Director

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to the July 7, 1978, letter to the Attorney General signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Staff Director, HSCA, which asked for [REDACTED] HSCA

A search of FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) records indicates that FBI document 105-82555-456, page 291, was delivered to the HSCA on February 4, 1978, in response to its request of January 17, 1978, for that specific document, among others. That document is responsive to this current HSCA request. It is also noted that this same document and others referring to Frazier were delivered to the HSCA on February 22, 1978, as part of the Freedom of Information Act release of the President John F. Kennedy assassination files.

Where a document or information is not provided, it is either not retrievable from FBIHQ files or is not being furnished pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding.

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

PURPOSE: To advise that a file folder containing cover pages for two deleted third agency documents prepared for the HSCA's access was found by a Bureau employee in a public telephone booth outside the J. Edgar Hoover (JEH) Building. Additionally, this advises of the status regarding our inquiry to date.

SYNOPSIS: At approximately 12:20 PM, on Thursday, 6/15/78, an employee of the Identification Division recovered an FBI file folder in a public telephone booth located on 10th Street, Northwest, across from the JEH Building. The file folder contained unclassified and innocuous cover pages for two deleted State Department documents prepared in response to a request from the HSCA for material regarding an individual named [REDACTED] (b)(7)(c). The employee turned the file over to his supervisor, who in turn passed the material on to Legal Counsel Division. The file was subsequently turned over to the Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU), which processes all requests from the HSCA. A review of CIU records revealed that the file folder, as well as five Sections of the 105 main file on [REDACTED] had been Xeroxed in response to an HSCA request dated 3/14/78 regarding 64 individuals and anti-Castro groups. The material was subsequently made available to [REDACTED] (b)(6) for the HSCA, on 6/13, 14 and 15/78. A review of the material prepared for HSCA access indicated that excised staff copies of Sections 1, 4 and 5 of [REDACTED] main file could be accounted for; however, excised staff copies of Sections 2 and 3 could not be. The Sections contain the results of investigation conducted by our Miami Division regarding [REDACTED] (b)(7)(c) during the period 1959-1964. A thorough search of the CIU space proved negative regarding the whereabouts of the excised staff copies of Sections 2 and 3.

In view of the fact that [REDACTED] was the only HSCA staff member to have access to the material, it was deemed imperative that she be interviewed regarding this matter. [REDACTED] was subsequently interviewed on 6/16/78 regarding her knowledge of the recovered file folder, as well as the unaccounted for Sections of [REDACTED] file. (b)(7)(c)

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

It is specifically noted at this time that Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel, HSCA, invoking Congressional privilege, refused to make [REDACTED] available for interview until he personally interviewed her regarding this matter. Mr. Blakey interviewed [REDACTED] upon her return to the House Annex Building and then, only with the approval of Committee Chairman Louis Stokes, did he make [REDACTED] available to the FBI. (b)(6)

[REDACTED] advised that she had, in fact, charged out material regarding [REDACTED] on 6/13, 14, and 15/78, including the recovered file folder. She advised, however, that her records indicate she had reviewed only Sections 1, 4 and 5, and had no knowledge of the whereabouts of Sections 2 and 3. She had no explanation as to how the file folder was found in the phone booth just 15 minutes after she departed the JEH Building on 6/15/78. She speculated that it may have been accidentally gathered up with her work papers and newspaper, and then, unbeknown to her, carried out of the building. [REDACTED] was interviewed at length, but the matter could not be resolved. A search, by consent, of [REDACTED] desk and work area at the House Annex Building proved negative. (b)(6)(7)(c)

Administratively, a review of the original five Sections of [REDACTED] main file indicates that each Section had been Xeroxed and prepared for excising by the CIU. A review of the HSCA request for access to this material indicates that a total of 64 individuals and anti-Castro groups were included in this request. Material compiled was voluminous and the processed material stored in two file cabinets in secure CIU space. A review of the excised material prepared for HSCA on the individuals and groups named in the request indicates an absence of a control file containing red line serials, which correspond to the original serials in Sections 2 and 3. (b)(7)(c)

It is noted that the term control file pertains to the Xeroxed copy of the original file, which is subsequently reviewed by a CIU analyst. The analyst, using a red "El Marko" flaired tip pen, will excise certain information from each serial, such as informant symbol numbers, et cetera. Additionally, third agency documents are deleted and replaced with a cover sheet, which describes the document and accounts for the serial.

CONTINUED - OVER

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Subsequent to the analyst's review, the control file, with the red "El Marko" deletions, is then processed through a Kodak machine, which blacks out the "El Marko" so that it is illegible.

The second copy, with its illegible excisions, is designated as the "staff copy" and made available to the HSCA. The control file with the "El Marko" excisions, is designated as the "red line copy" and is not made available to the HSCA.

Although it can be established that original Sections 1 through 5 of the file, as well as the recovered folder, were Xeroxed, it cannot be positively established that a staff copy of Sections 2 and 3 were in fact made available to the HSCA. Additionally, the support personnel, who regularly charge out the material to the HSCA, cannot positively state that she had in fact provided staff copies of Sections 1-5, as well as the recovered folder.

OBSERVATIONS: A review of the above facts indicates that two viewpoints could be considered regarding the unaccounted for Sections.

The first view addresses the fact that all five Sections of [redacted] main file were Xeroxed for the HSCA. The CIU charge out logs indicate that "all Sections" or "all volumes" were signed for by [redacted] on 6/13, 14 and 15/78. Additionally, the file folder charged out to [redacted] was found by a Bureau employee outside the JEH Building approximately 15 minutes after [redacted] departure on 6/15/78. The facts indicate that [redacted] returned only Sections 1, 4 and 5 on this date and that an administrative review reflects that staff copies of Sections 2 and 3 of [redacted] main file are unaccounted for. Additionally, corresponding red line serials for Sections 2 and 3 are unaccounted for. (b)(7)(C) 7 (b)(6) (b)(7)(C)

The second view addresses the fact that although five Sections of the main file were Xeroxed for the HSCA, no corresponding red line serials can be located for Sections 2 and 3. Therefore, the possibility exists that these two Sections, although Xeroxed, may not have been excised and made available to the HSCA. Furthermore, the employee who charged out the material to [redacted] cannot positively state that she had in fact provided staff copies of Sections 1-5, as well as the recovered file folder. She can only assume that they were made available. Also, [redacted] notes indicate that she reviewed only Sections 1, 4 and 5 and has no recall of being given Sections 2 and 3 or any reference as to having reviewed them. The facts indicate that there is little doubt that [redacted] removed the file folder from the JEH Building on 6/15/78. However, because the material in the folder was of no value to [redacted] or the HSCA, we have to assume that she may have inadvertently picked up the recovered file folder with her work papers and then, unbeknown to her, dropped the folder on 10th Street, outside the JEH Building. (b)(6)

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

It is specifically noted at this time that as a result of the above situation, security measures and administrative controls within the CIU have been increased so as to preclude this situation from arising again.

RECOMMENDATION: It is the recommendation of the CIU, based upon the above facts, as well as the Unit's experience in dealing with the HSCA and its personnel during the past 18 months, that [REDACTED] be given the benefit of the doubt regarding this matter, that a letter be prepared for Mr. Robert L. Keuch, U. S. Department of Justice, who is Special Counsel to the Attorney General regarding HSCA matters, and that no further action be taken by the Bureau at this time. (b)(6)

DETAILS: At 12:20 PM, on Thursday, 6/15/78, George Anderson, III, a Fingerprint Examiner, Identification Division, while on his lunch break, proceeded to a pay telephone booth located on 10th Street, Northwest, directly opposite the entrance to the JEH Building. Upon entering the booth, he noticed a Bureau file folder propped up on the shelf of the booth. His inspection of the folder revealed that it was FBI property, which contained unclassified and innocuous cover pages for two deleted State Department documents. The folder was mounted with the file cover reversed, bearing a white 3x5 tag reading [REDACTED] Miscellaneous References, HSCA, 3/14/78." Upon reentering the JEH Building, Anderson turned the file over to his supervisor, Mr. Orley Leeson, Assistant Section Chief, Technical Section, Identification Division. Mr. Leeson, upon examining the folder and its heavily excised contents, turned the item over to SA Parks H. Stearns, Legal Counsel Division, who in turn brought the item to SA John S. Giaquinto, CIU. The CIU has the responsibility of preparing all material for the HSCA. A review of CIU records revealed that the material regarding [REDACTED] had been prepared in response to an HSCA request of 3/14/78 for access to our files regarding 64 individuals and anti-Castro groups. The [REDACTED] material consisted of the recovered folder, as well as five Sections of a main 105 file, which covered the period 1959-1964. CIU charge out logs indicate that the only HSCA staff member to request access to [REDACTED] material was [REDACTED] who has been granted appropriate security clearances. (b)(7)(C) (b)(6)

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

On 6/13/78, [redacted] charged out and signed for "all Sections" of [redacted] material. On 6/14/78, she again charged out and signed for "all volumes" of [redacted] material. On 6/15/78, she again signed for "all Sections" of [redacted] material. The support personnel, who regularly charges out the material to the HSCA, although not absolutely positive, is quite certain that all five Sections of [redacted] main file, as well as the recovered folder, were presented to [redacted] when the notation of "all Sections" was made on 6/13/78. Additionally, our personnel did not recall [redacted] making reference to the fact that Sections 2 and 3 were missing from the material charged out to her. However, the fact remains that our employee cannot positively state that in making the notation "all Sections" on 6/15/78, that she provided Sections 1-5, as well as the recovered file folders. She assumed that all were available. (b)(7)(C) (b)(6)

CIU records indicate that on 6/15/78, [redacted] arrived at the JEH Building at approximately 9:35 AM and departed at 12:07 PM. As previously stated, she charged out and signed for "all Sections" of [redacted] file. However, at 12:07 PM, she turned in Sections 1, 4 and 5. The material was logged in by SA Eugene Hatfield. SA Hatfield did not raise the question regarding the missing Sections as other HSCA staff members were still present and reviewing files in their work area adjacent to the CIU space. (b)(7)(C)

A preliminary search for staff copies of Sections 2 and 3 was conducted on 6/15/78 with negative results. A second search was conducted on 6/16/78 and all file cabinets, desks and work areas, including the area utilized by the HSCA, were searched with negative results. In view of the fact that FBI property was found outside the JEH Building and two Sections of [redacted] file could not be accounted for, it became imperative that [redacted] be interviewed regarding any knowledge she may have regarding this matter. (b)(7)(C) (b)(6)

On 6/16/78, Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel, HSCA, was contacted by SA Danny O. Coulson, Congressional Liaison, and an appointment was made with Blakey for 2:00 PM that date in order to advise him of the facts and interview [redacted]. Mr. Blakey was contacted at the House Annex Building Number 2 by SA's John S. Giaquinto, CIU, and Ronald Heller, Congressional Liaison. Mr. Blakey, after being advised of the nature of the inquiry, indicated that the HSCA was most interested in a possible breach of security by an HSCA staff member and would assist in the return of FBI property if, in fact, one of the staff members was responsible. Mr. Blakey insisted, however, that he was invoking "Congressional privilege" and additionally, in accordance with the rules of the HSCA, would not make [redacted] available for interview until he personally had the opportunity to speak with her. He advised that the rules of the Committee were such that [redacted] could not be interviewed by the FBI without the personal approval of Louis Stokes, Chairman, HSCA. (b)(6)

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

The interviewing Agent's objected to Blakey's approach indicating the "Congressional privilege" and the Committee's rules applied only to the substance and nature of the Committee's work and not to an official investigation being conducted regarding FBI property. However, in view of Blakey's insistence and in order to avoid a continuing stalemate, appropriate authority was obtained by the interviewing Agents to allow Blakey to interview [REDACTED] prior to her being interviewed by the FBI.

[REDACTED] was summoned to Blakey's Office where she was interviewed by Blakey and other members of the HSCA staff. Upon completion of the interview, Blakey advised that [REDACTED] was given the Miranda warning, that she understands her rights and has no objection to being interviewed by the FBI. Blakey refused to comment on the results of his interview with [REDACTED] or whether or not she in fact admitted to having any knowledge regarding the [REDACTED] files. Blakey then contacted Mr. Louis Stokes, who offered no objection to the interview.

[REDACTED] was subsequently interviewed by SA John S. Giaquinto in a conference room at the House Annex Building.

[REDACTED] was advised of her constitutional rights as set forth in a waiver form, as well as the nature of the interview. She indicated that she was familiar with the material in question and had reviewed the material at FBI Headquarters on 6/13, 14 and 15/78.

She identified the recovered file folder as being part of the material she signed for on the above dates. However, she denied having any knowledge regarding the whereabouts of the staff copies for Sections 2 and 3. She indicated that she signed for all the material charged out to her without checking to see if in fact all the Sections were actually there.

She advised that a review of her notes indicated that on 6/13/78 she reviewed Section 1 of [REDACTED] main file, Serials 1 through 74. On 6/14/78, she reviewed Section 5, Serials 163 - end. On 6/15/78, she reviewed Section 4, Serials 137 through 162. She advised that she had not made an inquiry regarding the whereabouts of Sections 2 and 3 as she planned on returning to FBI Headquarters on 6/16/78 to complete her review.

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

She advised that when she charged out the material on 6/15/78, the recovered file folder was in fact with the material; however, she does not believe that five Sections of the main file were given to her. She indicated that she again signed for the material without specifically checking for all Sections.

She advised that at approximately noon, on 6/15/78, she gathered up her work papers, newspaper and a manila legal-style folder and carried the [redacted] material to the front desk of CIU, whereupon she was checked out by SA Hatfield. She did not recall having the recovered file folder in her possession when she left the JEH Building. (b)(7)(c)

She stated that she exited JEH on the 10th Street side, crossed the street and proceeded to a fruit vendor on the corner of 10th and E Streets, Northwest. She stated that she did not notice or recall dropping anything while on 10th Street or while proceeding to the Metro stop at 11th and G Streets. She speculated that she may have accidentally gathered up the file folder with her work papers and newspaper and subsequently lost it on the street without her knowledge. Continuing interview of [redacted] failed to reveal any additional information regarding staff copies of Sections 2 and 3. (b)(6)

Administratively, a review of the original five Sections of [redacted] indicates that the Sections, which contained the results of investigation conducted by our Miami Division, were Xeroxed and prepared for excising by the CIU. A review of the excised material for the entire 64 items request indicates that there are red line serials which correspond to the serials contained in Sections 1, 4 and 5 of [redacted] file. However, no red line serials could be located which correspond to the serials in Sections 2 and 3. (b)(7)(c)

It is noted that the term control file pertains to the Xeroxed copy of the original file, which is subsequently reviewed by a CIU analyst. The analyst, using a red "El Marko" flaired tip pen, will excise certain information from each serial, such as informant symbol numbers, et cetera. Additionally, third agency documents are deleted and replaced with a cover sheet, which describes the document and accounts for the serial.

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Subsequent to the analyst's review, the control file, with the red "El Marko" deletions, is then processed through a Kodak machine, which blacks out the "El Marko" so that it is illegible.

The second copy, with its illegible excisions, is designated as the "staff copy" and made available to the HSCA. The control file, with the "El Marko" excisions, is designated as the "red line copy" and is not made available to the HSCA.

Although it can be established that original Sections 1 through 5 of the file, as well as the recovered folder were Xeroxed, it cannot be positively established that a staff copy of Sections 2 and 3 were in fact made available to the HSCA.

Dear Mr. Keuch:

The purpose of this letter is to advise that a file folder containing cover pages for two deleted third agency documents prepared for the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) access was found by an FBI employee in a public telephone booth outside the J. Edgar Hoover (JEH) Building. Additionally, this advises of the status regarding our inquiry.

At approximately 12:20 PM, on Thursday, June 15, 1978, an employee of the Identification Division recovered an FBI file folder in a public telephone booth located on 10th Street, Northwest, across from the JEH Building. The file folder contained unclassified and innocuous cover pages for two deleted State Department documents prepared in response to a request from the HSCA for material regarding an individual named [REDACTED]

The employee turned the file over to his supervisor, who in turn passed the material on to Legal Counsel Division. The file was subsequently turned over to the Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU), which processes all requests from the HSCA. A review of CIU records revealed that the file folder, as well as five Sections of the Internal Security investigation file on [REDACTED] had been Xeroxed in response to an HSCA request dated March 14, 1978, regarding 64 individuals and anti-Castro groups. The material was subsequently made available to [REDACTED] for the HSCA, on June 13, 14, and 15, 1978. A review of the material prepared for HSCA access indicated that excised staff copies of Sections 1, 4 and 5 of [REDACTED]

main file could be accounted for; however, excised staff copies of Sections 2 and 3 could not be. The Sections contain the results of investigation conducted by our Miami Division regarding [redacted] during the period 1959-1964. A thorough search of the CIU space proved negative regarding the whereabouts of the excised staff copies of Sections 2 and 3. (b)(7)(c)

In view of the fact that [redacted] was the only HSCA staff member to have access to the material, it was deemed imperative that she be interviewed regarding this matter. [redacted] was subsequently interviewed on June 16, 1978, regarding her knowledge of the recovered file folder, as well as the unaccounted for Sections of [redacted] file. (b)(6) (b)(7)(c)

It is specifically noted at this time that Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel, HSCA, invoking Congressional privilege, refused to make [redacted] available for interview until he personally interviewed her regarding this matter. Mr. Blakey interviewed [redacted] upon her return to the House Annex Building and then, only with the approval of Committee Chairman Louis Stokes, did he make [redacted] available to the FBI. (b)(6)

[redacted] was subsequently interviewed in a conference room at the House Annex Building. She advised that she had, in fact, charged out material regarding [redacted] on June 13, 14, and 15, 1978, including the recovered file folder. She advised, however, that her records indicate she had reviewed only Sections 1, 4 and 5, and had no knowledge of the whereabouts of Sections 2 and 3. She had no explanation as to how the file folder was found in the phone booth just 15 minutes after she departed the JEH Building on June 15, 1978. She speculated that it may have been accidentally gathered up with her work papers and newspaper, and then, unbeknown to her, carried out of the building. [redacted] was interviewed at length, but the matter could not be resolved. A search, by consent, of [redacted] desk and work area at the House Annex Building proved negative. (b)(6)

Administratively, a review of the original five Sections of [redacted] file indicates that each Section had been Xeroxed and prepared for excising by the CIU. A (b)(7)(c)

review of the HSCA request for access to this material indicates that a total of 64 individuals and anti-Castro groups were included in this request. Material compiled was voluminous and the processed material stored in two file cabinets in secure CIU space. A review of the excised material prepared for the HSCA on the individuals and groups named in the request indicates an absence of a control file containing red line serials, which correspond to the original serials in Sections 2 and 3.

It is noted that the term control file pertains to the Xeroxed copy of the original file, which is subsequently reviewed by a CIU analyst. The analyst, using a red "El Marko" flaired-tip pen, will excise certain information from each serial, such as informant symbol numbers, et cetera. Additionally, third agency documents are deleted and replaced with a cover sheet, which describes the document and accounts for the serial.

Subsequent to the analyst's review, the control file, with the red "El Marko" deletions, is then processed through a Kodak machine, which blacks out the "El Marko" so that it is illegible.

The second copy, with its illegible excisions, is designated as the "staff copy" and made available to the HSCA. The control file with the "El Marko" excisions, is designated as the "red line copy" and is not made available to the HSCA.

Although it can be established that original Sections 1 through 5 of the file, as well as the recovered folder, were Xeroxed, it cannot be positively established that a staff copy of Sections 2 and 3 were in fact made available to the HSCA. The support personnel, who regularly charge out the material to the HSCA, cannot positively state that she had in fact provided staff copies of Sections 1 through 5, as well as the recovered folder. She can only assume that they were made available. Also, [REDACTED] notes indicate that she reviewed only Sections 1, 4 and 5 and has no recall of being given Sections 2 and 3 or any reference as to having reviewed them. The facts indicate that there is little doubt that [REDACTED] removed the file folder from the JEH Building on June 15, 1978. However, because the (b)(6)

material in the folder was of no value to [redacted] or the HSCA, we have to assume that she may have inadvertently picked up the recovered file folder with her work papers and then, unbeknown to her, dropped the folder on 10th Street, outside the JEH Building. (b)(6)

Based upon the above facts, as well as the Bureau's experience in dealing with the HSCA and its personnel during the past 18 months, it is our position that [redacted] be given the benefit of the doubt regarding this matter and that no further action be taken by this Bureau, unless the Department so directs.

Sincerely,

Harold N. Bassett
Assistant Director

PURPOSE: To record action taken on captioned matter.

DETAILS: On 6-28-78 Mr. Robert C. Morrison, Director of Security, House Select Committee on Assassinations, visited the Identification Division accompanied by SA Ronald Heller, Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit. Mr. Morrison brought with him a copy of a letter dated 6-27-78 (attached) to the Attorney General from the Chairman of the Committee requesting the temporary return of fingerprint cards on ten (10) Committee staff members which had previously been furnished to the FBI in connection with background security checks on those persons.

A search of Identification Division files using the name and dates and places of birth furnished by Mr. Morrison resulted in the location of eight (8) of the fingerprint cards (as indicated on the attached "Notice of Receipt of Fingerprint Cards") which were returned to Mr. Morrison. Fingerprint cards were not located for Edwin Juan Lopez and Betty Lou Sisson. It was explained to Mr. Morrison that, although no fingerprint cards were located for these people on the basis of name searches, the only way to conclusively determine whether fingerprint cards are or are not contained in the Identification Division's files is through a fingerprint search. Therefore, it was suggested that Mr. Morrison furnish inked fingerprints of the two individuals, which would be used to search the files. He was told that the Identification Division would be willing to fingerprint Lopez and Sisson, or they could be fingerprinted elsewhere as long as the prints are properly taken. Mr. Morrison indicated that they would probably be fingerprinted elsewhere. He was furnished blank fingerprint cards for that purpose.

[REDACTED] House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) after being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents, the nature of the interview and her Constitution Rights as set forth on a Waiver of Rights form, advised as follows. (b)(6)

She advised that she understood her Constitution Rights and waived same by signing the Waiver of Rights form in the presence of SA's Giaquinto and Heller.

She was advised by SA Giaquinto that the interview concerned material in FBI files regarding [REDACTED] which had been prepared for HSCA access and specifically reviewed by [REDACTED] at FBI Headquarters. Additionally, the interview concerned a recovered FBI file folder containing [REDACTED] material, specifically cover pages for two deleted third agency documents. Said file folder being found by a FBI employee in a public telephone booth outside the J. Edgar Hoover (JEH) Building. (b)(7)(C) (b)(6)

She indicated that she was familiar with the material in question and had reviewed the material at FBI Headquarters on 6/13, 14 and 15/78.

She identified the recovered file folder as being part of the material she signed for the above dates. However, she denied having any knowledge regarding the whereabouts of the staff copies for Sections 2 and 3. She indicated that she signed for all the material charged out to her without checking to see if in fact all the Sections were actually there.

She advised that a review of her notes indicated that on 6/13/78 she reviewed Section 1 of [REDACTED] main file, Serials 1 through 74. On 6/14/78, she reviewed Section 5, Serials 163 - end. On 6/15/78, she reviewed Section 4, Serials 137 through 162. She advised that she had not made an inquiry regarding the whereabouts of Sections 2 and 3 as she planned on returning to FBI Headquarters on 6/16/78 to complete her review. (b)(7)(C)

She advised that when she charged out the material on 6/15/78, the recovered file folder was in fact with the material; however, she does not believe that five Sections of the main file were given to her. She indicated that she again signed for the material without specifically checking for all Sections.

She advised that at approximately noon, on 6/15/78, she gathered up her work papers, newspaper and a manila legal-style folder and carried the [redacted] material to the front desk of CIU, whereupon she was checked out by SA Hatfield. She did not recall having the recovered file folder in her possession when she left the JEH Building. (b)(7)(c)

She stated that she exited JEH on the 10th Street side, crossed the street and proceeded to a fruit vendor on the corner of 10th and E Streets, Northwest. She stated that she did not notice or recall dropping anything while on 10th Street or while proceeding to the Metro stop at 11th and G Streets. She speculated that she may have accidentally gathered up the file folder with her work papers and newspaper and subsequently lost it on the street without her knowledge. Continuing interview of Ms. Orr failed to reveal any additional information regarding staff copies of Sections 2 and 3.

[redacted] consented to a search of her desk, file cabinets and work area at the House Annex Building, which was conducted with negative results. The interviewing Agents concluded their business at the HSCA and returned to FBI Headquarters. (b)(7)(c)

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Dear Mr. Chairman:

The Department of Justice has referred the letter of Mr. G. Robert Blakey, dated May 17, 1978, to the FBI for reply. Mr. Blakey's letter requested that Special Agents of this Bureau be allowed to review the files for which they were responsible while with the FBI. I am unable to comply with Mr. Blakey's request for present and former Agents to review FBI materials. As you know, the inquiry of your Committee is far-reaching and extremely broad in scope. There is no way for the FBI to retrieve all material prepared or handled by particular Special Agents of the FBI for extended periods of time. It would be impossible for present and former Agents to review sufficient material to cover the broad range of your Committee's inquiries.

Voluntarily, numerous amounts of material have been made available to your Committee and this material in most cases indicates the Agent involved in the preparation or its supervision. I have no objection to your making these documents available to Agents for interview and

Sincerely yours,

PURPOSE: To set forth background information concerning a question raised by the HSCA involving a 12/23/63 Dallas report in the Lee Harvey Oswald case. The issue raised by the HSCA involves an apparent redoing of page 696 of this report which contains information from Oswald's address book. Set forth are efforts of this Bureau to resolve this matter.

SYNOPSIS: The HSCA has raised question pertaining to page 696 in a Dallas report dated 12/23/63, concerning Lee Harvey Oswald. The HSCA has asked why page 696 of this report may have been redone, as it is numbered in the same manner as page 672, which was redone according to previous statements made by the Agents involved. The reason page 696 is important is this page contains data from Lee Harvey Oswald's address book. Listed in Oswald's address book was data pertaining to Special Agent (SA) James P. Hosty (assigned Dallas Division in 1963). However, this data pertaining to Hosty, which appeared in Oswald's address book, was omitted from the 12/23/63 Dallas report.

Located in a file cabinet at FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) was a tickler or informal copy containing pages of the Oswald address book, which pages are comparable to those appearing in the 12/23/63 Dallas report. However, this tickler copy does contain the Hosty data. Two main issues arise, namely, (1) Why was the Hosty data omitted from the 12/23/63 Dallas report, and (2) How did the tickler copy concerning the Oswald address book containing the omitted Hosty data arrive at FBIHQ. The statement by SA John T. Kessler appears to resolve the first question. Inquiry conducted to date has not been productive as to the second question.

DETAILS: The HSCA, in conducting its investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, has raised a question concerning one of the pages, specifically page 696, in the Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling, dated 12/23/63. The Committee noticed that page 696 of this report apparently has been redone. This particular page was originally part of a 30-page Dallas office memorandum prepared by SA John T. Kessler from the address book of Lee Harvey Oswald. Page 25 of this office memorandum contained information pertaining to SA James P. Hosty, his office address and office telephone number, and license number of a Bureau car. This office memorandum then was given to SA Robert P. Gemberling and was converted into an insert, which became part of the Dallas 12/23/63 report. SA Gemberling recalled having the first page of this memorandum redone so that it then appeared as page 672 in his report. The number "1" appears at the upper left hand corner, while all the other numbers of this insert appear at the bottom of the page, with the exception of page 696, where the number "25" appears in the upper left hand corner. Of significance is the fact that this particular page 696 should contain the data concerning SA Hosty, which was found in Oswald's address book. However, in Gemberling's report, the Hosty data is omitted.

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Two major questions arise, namely, why was the data concerning Hosty omitted from the 12/23/63 Dallas report of SA Gemberling and how did the tickler copy of the Oswald address book, which did contain the omitted Hosty data, arrive at FBIHQ. SA John T. Kessler, who was responsible for preparing the data from Oswald's address book, advised he dictated this particular data twice. The first time he dictated, he included all the data from the address book in his memorandum, including the information concerning SA Hosty, that is, Hosty's office address and office telephone number, and license number of a Bureau car. SA Kessler's second dictation is what appears to have been used by SA Gemberling as an insert in the 12/23/63 report with some modification. This dictation of the Oswald address book was to be used as a "lead sheet." Kessler recalls that by the time of the second dictation, he was aware of the reason for the Hosty entry in the address book and was convinced that the Hosty entry was not required in a "lead sheet," as Hosty's connection with the Oswald case was sufficiently known and did not require further investigative attention. Kessler stated he was unofficially aware, through office conversations, that Hosty was being criticized not only in the media but also by the FBI hierarchy for his conduct in the Oswald case. Since he realized that a "lead sheet" would receive wide dissemination in the Dallas Office, he was firmly convinced the Hosty data should not be included in the "lead sheet," as Hosty's connection to the Oswald case was officially known and had been explained in previous reports. Furthermore, he did not wish to cause Hosty any unnecessary unpleasantness or exposure.

Inquiry conducted to date has not been productive in answering the question as to how the tickler copy of the Oswald address book containing the Hosty data arrived at FBI Headquarters. An LHM containing the results of the Bureau's efforts concerning these two questions has been prepared, copies of which are attached to this memorandum.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Enclosed are an original and two copies of a memorandum reporting the results of a continuing inquiry conducted in response to a question posed by Mr. S. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, ESCA.

Please refer to a previous reporting set forth in an enclosure to my letter of December 7, 1977, captioned as above.

As you are aware, the Committee was advised during January, 1978, that pressing Committee demands for expeditious responses to voluminous HSCA requests necessitated the reassignment of personnel involved in this inquiry to the processing of such requests.

Further inquiry concerning this matter will be made when there is sufficient manpower available. However, it does appear that the statement by SA John T. Kesler resolves the question concerning omitting SA James P. Hosty's name from data containing items in Lee Harvey Oswald's address book which appeared in the Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling dated December 23, 1963.

Upon review of this reporting, you may conclude that further exploration of this matter is unwarranted at this time.

Please furnish a copy of the enclosed memorandum to the HSCA, if you have no objection, as an HSCA staff member, Robert Genzman, has requested this reporting during the past several weeks.

RE: INQUIRY CONCERNING PAGE 696 OF FBI, DALLAS
 DIVISION REPORT OF SPECIAL AGENT (SA)
 ROBERT P. GEMBERLING DATED DECEMBER 23, 1963.

Reference is made to the December 7, 1977, memorandum titled as above, which set forth the results of this inquiry to that date.

The HSCA is aware that, commencing January, 1978, and extending to the present, FBI resources have been marshaled in order to respond to increased Committee requests for voluminous material on priority bases. Personnel involved in this inquiry were necessarily reassigned to process such requests and were not available to extend the scope of this inquiry beyond that which is reported herein.

By way of background the HSCA has raised a question concerning one of the pages in a Dallas report dated December 23, 1963. The HSCA suspects this page may have been redone to exclude the name of SA James P. Hosty. This Dallas report dated December 23, 1963 was prepared by SA Robert P. Gemberling and contained data which appeared in the address book of Lee Harvey Oswald. The name of SA James P. Hosty, his telephone number and license number of Bureau car which were found in Oswald's address book were omitted from this report. Located at FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) in a filing cabinet which was not part of the FBI's central records was an informal or tickler copy consisting of approximately 56 pages captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald Address Book" which was similar in many aspects to that section of the Oswald address book appearing in the Dallas report of SA Gemberling mentioned above. This tickler copy did contain the data regarding Hosty which was omitted from the December 23, 1963, Gemberling report. Two major questions arise, namely (1) Why was the data concerning Hosty, his office address and telephone number and license number of Bureau car omitted from the December 23, 1963, Gemberling report, and (2) How did the tickler copy of the Oswald address book containing the omitted data arrive at FBIHQ. The following is set forth in an effort to resolve the above questions.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)

As previously reported, on November 11, 1977, Associate Director James B. Adams, met with Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, to discuss Committee matters, one of which involved the December 23, 1963, FBI Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling captioned, "Lee Harvey Oswald...". The Committee was desirous of ascertaining why page 696 of the report was numbered similarly to page 672, whereas pages 673 through 701, exclusive of page 696, are numbered differently. Pages 672 through 701 relate to information derived from an address book found among the possessions of Lee Harvey Oswald. Page 696 is significant since it reflects information from the same page in the address book which also bears the name of SA James P. Hosty under the date of November 1, 1963, together with the address and telephone number of the Dallas Field Office and the incomplete license number of SA Hosty's Bureau car. The information regarding Hosty was not included in the December 23, 1963, Dallas report.

On November 11, 1977, Mr. Adams instructed that research be undertaken to explain, if possible, why page 696 of the report is numbered in the same fashion as page 672.

Extensive research was undertaken at FBIHQ and FBI Dallas, Texas, in order to retrieve documents that would explain the redoing of page 696 (25). No significant documents have been located other than those previously reported.

Documents residing in the FBI Dallas files clearly show that SA Hosty, himself, explicitly reported the fact that his data appeared in Oswald's address book. He dictated memoranda to this effect on December 3 and 20, 1963.

As reported on December 7, 1977, research and inquiry located 4 versions of a reporting of the contents of an address book found among the possessions of Lee Harvey Oswald. Each version consisted of approximately 30 pages. They were as follows:

(1) A "tickler" or informal copy titled "Lee Harvey Oswald Address Book" with 26 additional pages consisting of title pages and index pages. This version was found to exist only at FBIHQ. A page numbered "25", in the manner of the original memorandum prepared by SA Kesler does set forth the Hosty data found in the address book.

(2) A copy of the address book reporting submitted to FBIHQ by FBI Dallas communication dated December 19, 1963. This report is comparable to pages 672 through 701 of version number 3 below. The Hosty data do not appear in this version.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)

(4) A copy of the address book reporting submitted to FBIHQ by FBI Dallas communication dated February 7, 1964. This communication furnished amended or corrected pages for the December 23, 1963, report, Item number 3 above, which included pages 672 through 701. The Hosty data do not appear in this version.

Although the interview of Michael Goldsmith, Senior Staff Counsel, HSCA, was previously reported, the results of that interview are being set forth in the details of this report for the sake of continuity.

The details reflect that:

(1) SA Kesler recalls preparing a first draft or first dictation of a memorandum which contained the Hosty data, a second draft or dictation which did not, and that he discussed the omission with no one.

(2) A substantive error occurring in the first draft of the memorandum prepared by SA Kesler and persisting through the second draft, may have occasioned the redoing of page 696.

(3) Former SA Gemberling did not instruct SA Kesler to "transcribe" the address book.

(4) The former Special Agent in Charge of the Dallas FBI Office and six former SA's involved in the assassination investigation in 1963 at Dallas, Texas, recall no conversation with SA Kesler or any person about the omission of the Hosty data from the December 23, 1963, report.

(5) The typewriter used to prepare page 672 (1) of the December 23, 1963, report is not the one used to prepare page 696 of the same report. The typewriter used to prepare page 672 was not used to prepare any other page of the December 23, 1963, report.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription November 28, 1977

Michael Goldsmith, Senior Staff Counsel, and Robert W. Gensman, Researcher, Select Committee on Assassinations, U. S. House of Representatives, were aware of the personal and official identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the inquiry which pertained to certain Committee staff members' concern over an investigative report prepared by the Dallas Field Office of the FBI, dated December 23, 1963. Mr. Goldsmith was the principal interviewee and he advised as follows:

Certain Committee staff members were concerned that page 696 of the December 23, 1963, report by former Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling, titled "Lee Harvey Oswald . . .," appeared to have been redone during preparation in order to exclude the name of FBI Special Agent James P. Hosty, his office address, telephone number and official vehicle license number which did appear in an address book identified as the property of Lee Harvey Oswald. Since pages 672 through 701 of the report purported to set forth the contents of Oswald's address book, it was felt that page 696 of the report should have reflected the Hosty data since other data from the same page in the address book appeared there.

Committee staff research had disclosed that Gemberling previously explained to the FBI and ultimately to the Warren Commission by affidavit dated February 25, 1964, that he utilized a 30-page office memorandum prepared by SA John T. Kesler in order to set forth the address book data in the December 23, 1963, report. Gemberling explained he had redone the first page of Kesler's memorandum in order to convert the memorandum to a report insert which appeared in the report as report pages numbered 672 through 701. This conversion resulted in the original memorandum numbering of 2 through 30 appearing on the bottom of pages 673 through 695 and 697 through 701 just above the report page numbering. Page 672 bears a page number "1" in the upper left corner and page 696 bears a page number "25" in the upper left corner.

by Special Agent Drew J. Clark DJC:sas Date dictated November 28, 1977

Committee staff members have hypothesized that since a previous Gemberling admission explained the redoing of page 1 of the original memorandum, it stands to reason that page 696 was also redone, possibly to omit the Hosty data which may have appeared in the original memorandum. To explain this and other matters, the Committee staff requested the appearance of former Special Agent Gemberling and Special Agent Kesler.

Former Special Agent Gemberling was interviewed by Committee staff members on November 8, 1977, but the inconsistency with regard to page 696 was not specifically addressed at that time. At the conclusion of the interview, former Special Agent Gemberling was advised that questioning would address the issue of page 696 during his formal testimony on November 9, 1977. To prepare Gemberling, Committee staff members provided him with copies of pertinent pages from the December 23, 1963, report, the February 11, 1964, report which did report the Hosty data from the address book, the affidavits executed by Kesler and Gemberling on February 25, 1964, and a Xeroxed copy of the address book. Upon presentation of these items, Gemberling volunteered to Committee staff members that he noticed the difference in numbering on page 696.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that during testimony on November 9, 1977, Gemberling recalled as follows:

During December, 1963, FBI Headquarters furnished the Dallas Field Office with photocopies of the address book and translations of the Russian language entries and instructed Dallas to transcribe the Oswald address book and set out investigative leads on all parties mentioned. Gemberling then instructed Kesler to identify every entry, the significance of which was unknown, in order that leads might be set out based on such entries. Gemberling did not feel that the wording in the December 23, 1963, report gave rise to an inference that the complete contents of the address book were listed in that report. He maintained that the only reason the Hosty data did not appear in the report was because Kesler had not included it in his original memorandum. Had Kesler included it, Gemberling probably would not have noticed it during his preparation of the report. The reason Kesler did not include the Hosty data was simply because it was of no lead value.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that in an effort to pursue the "lead value" notion he asked Gemberling if the FBI knew the significance of the Governor Connally, Ruth Paine, Robert W. Oswald and Mrs. M. Oswald entries by December 23, 1963. When Gemberling replied in the affirmative, he was then asked why these names were included in the December 23, 1963, reporting of the address book, whereas the Hosty data were omitted. Gemberling seemed to recall that perhaps this occurred because addresses or telephone numbers in connection with those persons may have required checking out. When asked why address book entries such as "Book 1984 - Oswald" or "Socks - 25," "Hat - 56," "Shoes - 40-41" and "Shirts - 37" were included in the report, Gemberling responded that these may have been some code or were of unknown significance and, therefore, Kesler included them because he was not sure.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he questioned Gemberling about his affidavit of February 25, 1964, and asked why the affidavit specifically mentioned the redoing of page 1 of Kesler's memorandum, but no mention was made of redoing page 25 of that memorandum. Gemberling replied that he wished the record to show that he had no intention to mislead and he did not recall why page 25 may have been redone. Gemberling admitted that page 25 (696) appeared to be an inconsistency, that the Hosty data would have appeared on page 25 (696) and that the bottom margin on page 25 (696) was greater or wider than other pertinent pages. Gemberling denied that he discussed the omission of the Hosty data with Kesler or any other Agent prior to December 23, 1963. Referring to Gemberling's affidavit, he was asked how he was able to assume that Kesler knew all about Hosty and, therefore, did not include the Hosty data, whereupon Gemberling replied that he arrived at this conclusion because Kesler and Hosty worked in the same room at the Dallas Field Office. Gemberling also advised that he was aware that all reports were being disseminated to the Warren Commission and furthermore that the inclusion of the Hosty data in Oswald's address book was known to the media in December, 1963, whereupon Mr. Goldsmith informed him that this information was not known to the media until approximately January 1, 1964, when it appeared in a "Houston Post" article.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he directed Gemberling's attention to the February 11, 1964, report where the Hosty data were reported and asked if Gemberling thought the Hosty entry in the address book was significant at that time. Gemberling replied in the negative and when asked why he mentioned this fact in the synopsis of the February 11, 1964, report he then contradicted himself and said it would have been significant for him to mention it in the synopsis.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that Gemberling agreed that his and Kesler's affidavits of February 25, 1964, contained common language but Gemberling denied that he prepared Kesler's affidavit, although he may have called Kesler to refresh Kesler's memory. Gemberling stated that he may have read his affidavit to Kesler over the telephone since Kesler could not be expected to remember all the details, however, Gemberling could not otherwise recall this incident specifically.

Mr. Goldsmith advised as follows with regard to Special Agent John T. Kesler:

Kesler was interviewed by Committee staff members on November 8, 1977, and testified on November 10, 1977. After his interview, and in order to refresh his memory, Kesler was provided with the same material as was Gemberling. The Committee staff chose to interview Kesler because it wished to avail itself of his perspective on the FBI's investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy. Certain Committee staff members were disappointed in Kesler's testimony since they perceived that Kesler was not at all candid in his responses. In this regard, they found it hard to believe Kesler when he denied that FBI Agents working on the assassination case ever discussed possible conspiracy theories among themselves. In addition, Kesler seemed angered by Committee staff questioning and was reluctant to provide his personal opinions or impressions of matters under discussion.

Kesler reiterated the "lead rationale" that caused him to omit the Hosty data from his memorandum. Upon further questioning, he stated that while he knew Hosty was the Agent handling the Oswald case, he did not know Hosty by sight. Kesler did state that upon noting the Hosty data in the address book, he verified the office telephone number and the automobile license number. When asked about the inclusion of other entries from the address book that might not have been of lead value, he stated that he included all entries which were of unknown significance to him. Kesler was asked why he did not attempt to verify such entries as Mrs. Ruth Paine as he did with Hosty, whereupon he replied that such a procedure would have been too time consuming. Kesler reiterated that if he did not know the lead value of an entry, he certainly included it and where he knew it was of no lead value, he excluded it. He was then asked about certain entries that he excluded and was forced to admit that he did not know the significance of some of the entries he omitted.

Kesler recalled that his affidavit of February 25, 1964, was probably prepared as a result of talking to someone in the Dallas Field Office, but not necessarily Gemberling, and he admitted both affidavits contained some identical language.

Further questioning caused Kesler to admit that the Hosty data may have been significant since supervisors in the FBI chain of command may have wished to follow up on the possibility that Hosty was involved in a conspiracy to assassinate the President or that Hosty had been identified as a target by Lee Harvey Oswald.

Mr. Goldsmith stated that this line of questioning apparently irritated Kesler to the extent that he exited the Committee hearing room while the Chairman was still in the process of excusing him.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he would attempt to secure Committee approval to furnish Committee transcripts of the Gemberling and Kesler testimony to the FBI.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription December 9, 1977

Special Agent (SA) John T. Kesler was aware of the personal and official identities of SAs Danny O. Coulson and Drew J. Clark. He was advised that the interview would address the reason or reasons why page 696 in the December 23, 1963, Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling may have been redone. SA Kesler furnished the following:

He was aware that staff members of the House Select Committee on Assassinations are concerned that page 696 was redone during preparation of the report in order to omit the name of SA James P. Hosty which appeared in an address book found among the possessions of Lee Harvey Oswald. His awareness of this issue was occasioned by the Committee's questioning of him during interview by Committee staff members and during formal testimony before the Committee in the early part of November, 1977.

Upon lengthy examination of and discussion with regard to retrieved and pertinent FBI documents, to include a tickler copy of pages comparable to pages 672 through 701 of the December report, page 25 (696) of which sets forth the Hosty data, SA Kesler stated he is now able to recall the following:

On approximately December 14 or 16, 1963, he received a copy of the December 11, 1963, FBI Headquarters airtel to Dallas Division which furnished a photographic copy of Oswald's address book together with three copies of Russian entry translations. In this communication, FBI Headquarters instructed that ". . . This material should be reviewed and appropriate leads set out where necessary." At the time he received this communication it probably reflected the following written instructions:

"(1) 12/16/63 Reassigned to Kesler EEH" and

"(2) - Kesler - route to SA DeBrueys to review for material to be sent to CIA. - DeBrueys (Handle) EEH"

Interviewed on December 8, 1977 at Washington, D. C. File # 62-109060
by SAs Drew J. Clark and Danny O. Coulson Date dictated December 9, 1977
DJC/sas

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Very shortly after receiving this communication and accompanying instructions, he requested a stenographer and expeditiously proceeded to reproduce, by dictation, those entries in the address book which he felt might require investigative attention. He was operating under some time constraints since he realized that the material furnished by FBI Headquarters had to be forwarded to the "Ruby Squad" of agents for whatever use they wished to make of it, as well as to SA DeBrueys who was being instructed to review the same material. By way of explanation, he advised that, to the best of his recollection, the entire investigation in the Dallas Field Office was being handled by a "Kennedy Squad, Ruby Squad and an Oswald Squad," with Kesler being assigned to the "Oswald Squad." He further recalled that Hosty may or may not have been assigned to the "Oswald Squad," but since he did not know Hosty personally, he cannot be certain. He did recall that the impression he received from other agents indicated that Hosty was working very closely with the Special Agent in Charge and probably with Supervisor Howe and, therefore, Hosty spent most of his time in the office at their desks or office spaces. He seemed to recall that SAs Emory Horton and Robert P. Gemberling were the immediate coordinators of the overall investigation, however, he could not recall that he ever had any discussion with regard to the entries in the address book with either one of these gentlemen.

He did recall that, in his first dictation of the address book contents, he was vitally concerned that he recorded, as accurately as possible, the entries apparently requiring investigative attention. Evidence of this purpose is the entry "LA Employ" which appeared on page 1 of his first dictation as opposed to "Louisiana Employment" which appeared, as an editorialization, on page 672 of the December report. With this purpose in mind, he recalls that, although he doubted the lead value of the Hosty entry, he did include it in that first dictation. When he ultimately received the product of his first dictation, he set himself to the task of checking the entries against communications and other information in file to determine what work remained to be done with regard to the address book entries. Since he had passed the photographic and translation material along to the "Ruby Squad" or SA Debrueys, he was no longer operating under the same time constraints and, therefore, had more time to check out some of the entries including the Hosty entry.

During this time he recalls that he alone decided it was not necessary to include the Hosty data in a "lead sheet." He could recall no conversations relating to the exclusion of this entry with Horton, Gemberling or any supervisor in the Dallas Field Office or at FBI Headquarters. Sometime after receiving the product of his first dictation, which was most likely very similar to the tickler version located at FBI Headquarters, he utilized it with certain modifications resulting from his "checking" and dictated what he terms a "lead sheet." This second dictation may have occurred any time prior to December 19, 1963, since a version of it was available for submission to FBI Headquarters on December 19, 1963. This second dictation is what appears to have been utilized by SA Gemberling as an insert, with modification, in Gemberling's December 23, 1963, report. He specifically recalls that by the time of the second dictation, he had had the opportunity to check on the Hosty entry to the extent that he was aware of Hosty's visits to the Paine residence and that the address book entry reflected the Dallas FBI Field Office telephone number and the license number of the Government vehicle assigned to Hosty.

Upon learning these facts, he was convinced that the Hosty entry was not required in a "lead sheet" since it did not require further investigative attention. In addition, he was unofficially aware, through office conversations, that Hosty was being criticized not only in the media, but also by the FBI hierarchy, for his conduct of the Oswald case. Since he realized that a "lead sheet" would receive wide dissemination in the Dallas Field Office, he was doubly convinced that the Hosty data should not be included in the "lead sheet" - Hosty's connection to the Oswald case was officially known and had been explained in previous reports and furthermore, he did not wish to cause Hosty any unnecessary unpleasantness or exposure. At that time he never considered that Hosty might have been a target of Lee Harvey Oswald and further, any contention that Hosty was involved in an assassination conspiracy would have been so preposterous that he would not even have thought of it. He, therefore, did not dictate the Hosty data and thereby excluded it from the product of his second dictation which was, in effect, an office memorandum to be used only as a "lead worksheet." He also never considered that the "lead sheet" might have been converted to a report insert and disseminated outside the FBI. Had he known it would be, he would have considered that the memorandum or "lead sheet" should have reflected all the entries in the address book, to include Hosty's name, since to do otherwise, would not have been an accurate reporting of the entire contents of the address book.

He could not recall specifically what may have occasioned the redoing of page 25 after the second dictation, but it is possible that it became necessary because either he or someone else noticed that the "Ministry of Finances of the USSR" information should have been attributed to the same page in the address book as was the "Katya Ford" and "Delean Ford" information. This error was made by him during his first dictation and may have persisted through the second dictation thereby necessitating an additional change which caused page 25 (696) to be numbered as it appears in the December 23, 1963, report.

SA Kesler concluded by stating that his recall of these events was triggered only by a review and discussion of all the pertinent documents retrieved. Until viewing the tickler version of the address book contents which reproduced the entries more identically than the "lead sheet" version with its editorializations, he had no specific recall with regard to his first dictation.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription December 12, 1977

Special Agent (SA) John T. Kesler, being aware of the personal and official identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the inquiry, had been provided with a copy of his November 10, 1977, testimony before the House Select Committee on Assassinations and asked to review same on December 8, 1977. He advised that he had completed his review and wished to clarify several matters based on his December 8, 1977, examination of retrieved documents. He furnished the following:

The FBI Headquarters airtel of December 11, 1963, furnished only one photographic copy of Oswald's address book and only instructed that "This material should be reviewed and appropriate leads set out where necessary." At no time did any other person instruct him to "transcribe" or set out the exact contents of the address book.

Based upon material furnished to him by Committee staff members for his review, he assumed former SA Gemberling had instructed him in connection with setting out the address book entries. After reviewing additional, pertinent documents retrieved from FBI files, it now seems that the instructions were transmitted by means of writing on the Dallas copy of the December 11th communication. The writer of these instructions apparently was SA Emory Horton and not Gemberling, and the basic instructions remained as written by FBI Headquarters - to set out leads "where necessary" and not to transcribe the address book.

When asked "Did you know in 1963 why Hosty's name was in Oswald's address book?", he replied, "I didn't know why." By this he only meant that he did not know what was in Oswald's mind at the time Oswald made the entry, nor did he know for what exact purpose Oswald made the entry. When he later affirmed that he did know why it was in the book, he only had reference to the time frame after he had had a chance to check some files and learned that Hosty had visited the Paine residence.

by SA Drew J. Clark DJC:sas Date dictated December 12, 1977

The questions and his responses relating to whether or not he included the Hosty information in a memorandum referred to the time frame of his second dictation with regard to the address book entries. In this time frame he was preparing the "lead sheet" and during his second dictation, he intentionally excluded the Hosty data. He did so without any direct consultation with any other person, to the best of his recollection.

When he was shown Committee Exhibit 14, the pages from the December report, and stated that these appeared to reproduce his memorandum with the first page modified, he was referring to the "lead sheet" or second dictation. A later question asked for recall as to whether or not page 25 (696) of the memorandum or "lead sheet" had been retyped. At that time he could not specifically recall why page 25 (696) may have been retyped and therefore, answered, "Not to my knowledge." However, now, after reviewing additional documents and after concentrated reflection, he can state that it may have been redone so as to attribute the "Ministry of Finances of the USSR" entry to the proper page in the address book since this entry had been erroneously attributed to a certain page in the address book during the first dictation and the error may have persisted through the second dictation thereby necessitating an additional change. He cannot specifically recall that this is, in fact, what happened, he only knows, to the best of his recollection, that he did not dictate Hosty's name during the second dictation.

He was asked, "Was your intention in omitting the entry a desire to protect the reputation or the image of the FBI?" whereupon he replied in the negative since his only additional consideration involved the personal reputation and feelings of SA Hosty and since the "lead sheet" would have received wide dissemination in the Dallas Office, he did not wish to subject Hosty to unnecessary unpleasantness or exposure.

When asked whether or not he had indicated the presence of Hosty's name in the address book to any other person, he could not recall anything specific on this point. However, it now seems obvious that he at least indirectly indicated it during the first dictation, the product of which may have been distributed to some extent and therefore, anyone receiving that product would have received such notification.

With regard to the preparation of the February 25, 1964, affidavit, he can only recall that he was originally scheduled to come to Washington, D. C., to appear before the Warren Commission and that this appearance was subsequently canceled and he was instructed to submit an affidavit explaining why the Hosty entry had been excluded from the December 23, 1963, report. In doing this, he telephonically contacted someone at the Dallas Office since no details of the event were available in the Houston Office. Apparently, someone, possibly Gemberling, provided the details he inserted into his affidavit. The Dallas party, in fact, may have read a completed Gemberling affidavit, but this detail is not recalled.

When asked ". . . isn't it possible that Agent Hosty may have been involved in some way in the assassination?," he replied, "Anything is possible," and by this meant only that, in the realm of pure speculation, without tangible evidence, it is entirely possible to dream dreams of conspiratorial theories to include the speculation that President Johnson may have been involved in the assassination of President Kennedy. The fact of the matter is, to the best of his recollection, it would have been entirely unthinkable for him, at the time he prepared the "lead sheet," to have supposed that SA Hosty might have been involved in an assassination conspiracy. He also recalled that it was not uncommon for the Dallas Office street agents to discuss possible conspiracy theories when talking among themselves, but at no time did anyone ever suggest that one of these theories involved SA Hosty.

When asked, "You don't know to this day whether anyone ever talked to him about it?," referring to SA Hosty and the fact that his name appeared in the address book, he replied, "No," but he is now aware that SA Hosty, himself, prepared two Dallas Office memoranda prior to the December 23, 1963, report in which Hosty made the appearance of his name in the address book a part of the official record. This is in addition to the facts known and officially published in other Dallas Office reports prior to December 23, 1963, which were sent to FBI Headquarters and which explained Hosty's contacts at the Paine residence.

SA Kesler emphatically reaffirmed his statement made in testimony - ". . . there was never any intention on my part or the part of the FBI to exclude or hide this from anybody. I did not know at the time this would ever be included in a report. Otherwise I would have certainly included it."

Former Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C) [REDACTED] was aware of the identities of the interviewing Agents and was advised of the nature of the inquiry which concerned a page in the December 23, 1963 Dallas report entitled, "LEE HARVEY OSWALD ...". After reviewing documents retrieved from FBI Headquarters and Dallas Office files, he advised as follows:

It now appears he did not instruct SA JOHN T. KESLER with regard to the review of photographs of the LEE HARVEY OSWALD address book and translations furnished by FBI Headquarters on December 11, 1963, and he certainly never told KESLER to transcribe the address book. This is contrary to his previous recollection, but, after seeing the notations on the Dallas file copy of the December 11, 1963 communication, he now realizes that KESLER received written instructions from former SA EMORY HORTON. These written instructions were in the form of notations on the December 11, 1963 communication and, therefore, it is quite likely that he never issued any written or oral instructions to KESLER in this matter.

To the best of his recollection, former Special Agents EMORY E. HORTON, JOE B. ABERNATHY, PAUL E. WULFF, and WALLACE R. HEITMAN on occasion were the Agents assisting him in the administration of the investigation concerning OSWALD and the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He could recall no conversations with these gentlemen, SAs KESLER and HOSTY, Special Agent in Charge SHANKLIN, or any other Agent concerning the review of the address book photographs or the inclusion or exclusion of SA HOSTY's name in any report before December 23, 1963.

His review of retrieved documents now cause him to state definitely that he learned of HOSTY's name in the address book by January 25, 1964 when he prepared a teletype on this matter in response to an FBI Headquarters inquiry directed to the Special Agent in Charge. FBI Headquarters asked why the HOSTY data from the address book were not included in the December 23, 1963 report. He explained in the teletype that the details concerning HOSTY's visits to the PAINE residence were known and therefore the information was not of "lead value." He cannot be certain, but he is of the opinion that he may have heard of HOSTY's name being in the address book when such information appeared in a newspaper article prior to January 25, 1964.

He recalled no discussion with any person regarding the HOSTY entry on December 19, 1963 or any time prior to January 25, 1964. He could not recall any reason why Page 25 of the KESLER memorandum or Page 696 of the December 23, 1963 report was retyped.

Based on his review of the January 25, 1964 communication, he is certain that the interest shown by FBI Headquarters caused him to consider the HOSTY data significant and worthy of mention in the synopsis of his February 11, 1964 report.

Upon close examination of a copy of the tickler version of the address book reporting which was located at FBI Headquarters, he stated that he had never seen such a version, with indexing, before. He was quite certain that the indexing would not have been prepared in the Dallas Office. He could furnish no information that might explain how the product of KESLER's first dictation might have reached FBI Headquarters.

He could recall no specifics regarding his preparation of an affidavit on February 25, 1964 and stated it was entirely possible that he might have conversed with SA KESLER in Houston, Texas and may have read his affidavit to KESLER in order to refresh KESLER's memory.

On January 10, 1978, J. GORDON SHANKLIN, former Special Agent in Charge of the Dallas Office of the FBI, was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and informed that the reason for his being interviewed was concerning a question raised by the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) in regards to a Dallas report dated December 23, 1963 prepared by SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING concerning the assassination of JOHN F. KENNEDY. The question raised by the HSCA was in regard to the address book of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the contents of which were contained in the above mentioned Dallas report of SA GEMBERLING. Specifically, Page 25 of the OSWALD address book in the report appeared to have been retyped and did not conform with other typewritten pages in the report.

Mr. SHANKLIN was advised that located at FBI Headquarters was a tickler copy of the address book which had never been made part of the Bureau file and which appeared in many aspects to be similar to the portion of the OSWALD address book appearing in the GEMBERLING report previously mentioned. The tickler version had an index prepared and Page 25 of this tickler version contained the name of SA JAMES P. HOSTY, the office telephone number, address, and license number of HOSTY's car. Mr. SHANKLIN advised that he was not aware of the fact that the report of SA GEMBERLING dated December 23, 1963 containing the address book of OSWALD did not contain SA HOSTY's name. He stated it was his opinion that if the name had been left out, which he later learned it had been, it would have been because any leads resulting from the OSWALD address book would have already been covered and there would have been no necessity for inserting HOSTY's name. He stated that he was not aware until he was told by the interviewing Agents that there had been prepared a memorandum containing portions of the OSWALD address book in which HOSTY's name did appear.

Mr. SHANKLIN stated that no person at the Bureau had told him to delete HOSTY's name from the GEMBERLING report of December 23, 1963 and that he did not tell SA GEMBERLING or SA JOHN T. KESLER, who prepared the memorandum concerning the OSWALD address book, to delete HOSTY's name from the memorandum. He was unable to explain how the tickler copy containing OSWALD's address book with HOSTY's name was ever sent back to the Bureau. He stated there would have been no reason to delete HOSTY's name as it was contained in the original OSWALD address book which had been sent back to the Bureau. Mr. SHANKLIN was unable to furnish any additional information concerning this matter.

[REDACTED] He was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the inquiry which concerned a page in the December 23, 1963 report of the Dallas FBI Office, entitled "LEE HARVEY OSWALD ...". After careful examination of pertinent documents retrieved from Dallas and FBI Headquarters files, he advised as follows:

He was able to identify the written instructions for SA KESLER on the December 11, 1963 communication as having been written by himself. Beyond these written notations, he recalled no conversation with any person at the Dallas FBI Office or FBI Headquarters concerning the inclusion or exclusion of SA HOSTY's name from any report or other communication.

He recalled that former Special Agents JOE B. ABERNATHY and PAUL E. WULFF sat at desks right next to him and assisted in recording the assignment and completion of investigative leads in the assassination file, although he is not certain that they did so in the Dallas Office security case on LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Since he was obviously supervising the review of the address book photographs, these gentlemen would not have made any decisions in that matter and would have normally referred any question concerning the address book to himself. He did not recall that SA WALLACE R. HEITMAN assisted in his area of administrative duties and felt that HEITMAN spent most of his time assisting former SA WARREN C. DeBRUEYS.

Based on his recollection of Dallas Office activities and work assignments during the pertinent period in 1963 and 1964, he did not feel that KESLER would have found it

She has no information concerning the omission of SA's HOSTY's name from the above mentioned GEMBERLING report and stated that she was so busy during the period of time assigned to the Dallas Office that she had no time to engage in office gossip. He recalled that in November and December, 1963 he was assisting in the coordination of the investigation into the assassination of President JOHN F. were interviewed at the Dallas Office of the FBI. Abernathy and Wulff were advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and were informed that the purpose of this inquiry was in regard to a question raised by the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) concerning a Dallas report of SA Robert Gemberling dated December 23, 1963. The question raised by the HSCA was concerning a portion of the report which contained some of the contents of the Oswald address book. Specifically page 25 of this address book apparently had been retyped and it was later determined that there was another copy located of the Oswald address book wherein page 25 contained the name of Special Agent James P. Hosty of the Dallas Office. The HSCA had inquired as to whether the Gemberling report version, containing the omission of Hosty's name on page 25, was retyped to delete Hosty's name.

Abernathy and Wulff advised they were both Special Agents of the FBI assigned to the Dallas Office and were assisting Robert Gemberling during the assassination investigation. Abernathy and Wulff were shown the December 23, 1963, report of Gemberling's as well as the tickler copy of the Oswald address book and both had stated they did not recall ever seeing either of the above documents. Both advised they vaguely recalled John Kesler being temporarily assigned to the Dallas Office after the assassination but did not recall any discussion with him or with anyone else in the Dallas Office concerning the omission of Hosty's name in the December 23, 1963, report. They both advised they did not read Kesler's memorandum containing portions of Oswald's address book and because of the heavy amount of paper work being done at that time would have had no occasion to read it.

Abernathy and Wulff advised they were unable to furnish any information as to how a copy of Kesler's memorandum containing Hosty's name in the Oswald address book would have been prepared and transmitted to the Bureau. They both advised they were unable to furnish additional information concerning this matter.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)

The 4 retrievable versions of the Lee Harvey Oswald address book reportings, previously enumerated, were submitted to the Document Section of the FBI Laboratory for examination. The Laboratory was asked whether the "tickler" version and the December 19, 1963, version or pages in the December 23, 1963, version were prepared from the same Multilith run, whether page 696 (25) of the December 23, 1963, version was prepared on the same typewriter as page 672 (1) or other pages in the December 23, 1963, version, and whether certain typewriters were common to which versions, by page number.

On December 23, 1977, the Laboratory reported as follows:

Evidence personally received from Special Agent Drew J. Clark on 12/19/77:

- Item 1 Folder containing copy of fifty-six page typewritten report titled "LEE HARVEY OSWALD ADDRESS BOOK"
- Item 2 FBI, Dallas communication dated 12/19/63, with accompanying printed copy of thirty-page typewritten report beginning on first page "On November 27, 1963, Captain..." and ending on page 30 "...Louv - K -P 1316"
- Item 3 FBI, Dallas communication dated 12/23/63, with accompanying printed copy of typewritten report beginning on first page "On November 27, 1963, Captain..." and ending on page 30 "...Louv - K - P 1316"
- Item 4 FBI, Dallas communication dated 2/7/64, with accompanying printed copy of twenty-eight page typewritten report beginning on first page "On November 27, 1963, Captain..." and ending on page 28 "...N. White, Special"

Result of examination:

It was determined that the fifty-six page report in the Item 1 folder was produced by the indirect electrostatic photocopying process. This process is used in machines manufactured by the Xerox Corporation. It was further determined that pages 3, 10, 18, 23, 27 and 29 in the second portion of the Item 1 report were produced by photocopying previously printed copies of pages bearing the same page numbers which appear in Items 2 and 3. Those pages in Items 2 and 3 were printed by the offset printing process, not a photocopying process. It was noted that those pages in Item 1 bear the following barely discernable stamped page numbers: 674, 681, 689, 694, 698, and 700. This would indicate that duplicates of printed pages 3, 10, 18, 23, 27 and 29 in Items 2 and 3, but bearing high page numbers, appeared in a different report and were the original source of those pages in Item 1.

It was determined that the typewriting on the first twenty-six pages of Item 1 (the cover page, the "Index", pages numbered 1 through 23 and the immediately following unnumbered page) is Royal "Standard" Pica type, spaced ten characters to the horizontal inch. This is a different style of type than any of the remaining typewriting in Items 1 through 4.

Pages 1, 2, 4 through 9, 11 through 17, 19 through 22, 24 through 26, 28 and 30 in the second portion of the Item 1 report were produced on a single IBM typewriter equipped with "Bookface Academic" pica type. This typewriter was not used to produce any of the remaining typewriting in Items 1 through 4. Although pages 3 and 10 in that portion of Item 1 bear the same size and style of type as those other pages, pages 3 and 10 were prepared by a different typewriter.

It was determined that Items 2 and 3 were printed by the offset printing process and are duplicate printed copies of the same original documents, possibly from the same printing run. Item 4 was also printed by the offset printing process, but is a reproduction of different original typewritten documents than Items 2 and 3.

The typewriting on page 1 of Items 2 and 3 was prepared on an IBM typewriter equipped with "Prestige" pica type. That typewriter was not used to prepare any of the remaining typewriting on Items 1 through 4.

In Items 2 and 3 the typewriting on pages 7, 8 and 13 through 30 was prepared by a single IBM typewriter. That typewriter was also equipped with "Prestige" pica type, but is a different typewriter and differs in identifiable characteristics from the typewriting on page 1 of those Items. That typewriting is also different from all of the remaining typewriting on Items 1 through 4.

In Items 2 and 3 the typewriting on pages 2 through 6 and 9 through 12 and the typewriting on pages 3 and 10 in the second portion of Item 1 was prepared by a single IBM typewriter equipped with "Bookface Academic" pica type. That typewriter was not used to prepare any of the remaining typewriting in Items 1 through 4.

In Item 4, all the typewriting was prepared by a typewriter equipped with IBM "Bookface Academic" pica type. Although this is the same size and style as some of the typewriting in Items 1 through 3, the typewriting on Item 4 was prepared by a different typewriter and differs in identifiable characteristics from the remainder of the typewriting.

In summary, although it was determined that duplicate printed copies of pages 3, 10, 18, 23, 27 and 29 in Items 2 and 3 were photocopied to produce those corresponding pages in the second portion of Item 1, no further connection could be made between Item 1 and Items 2 through 4. None of the remaining typewriting in Item 1 was prepared by any of the typewriters used to prepare Items 2 through 4. The typewriter used to prepare page 1 of Items 2 and 3 was not used to prepare page 25 in Items 2 and 3 or any of the other pages in Items 1 through 4. Further, the typewriter used to prepare page 25 in Items 2 and 3 was also used to prepare all but 10 pages in those items, those 10 pages were numbered 1 through 6 and 9 through 12.

Photographs were made and retained of Items 1 through 4. Item 1 has been forwarded to the Latent Fingerprint Section, Identification Division, for appropriate fingerprint examinations. Items 2 through 4 were returned to the Congressional Inquiry Unit, Special Investigative Division, on 12/23/77.

Gloria L. Bear, Supervisory Supply Technician, Inventory Unit, Property Procurement and Management Section, Technical Services Division, FBI Headquarters, was aware of the personal and official identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the inquiry as a result of a previous contact on December 22, 1977. She advised as follows:

A search of available records disclosed that, as of 1977, the Dallas Division of the FBI possessed seven typewriters that had been assigned to that Division during 1963. The seven typewriters were identified as follows:

- (1) IBM, Serial Number 1311687.
- (2) IBM, Serial Number 1625649, with "10 pitch Book-face Academic type."
- (3) IBM, Serial Number 1640942, with "10 pitch Book-face Academic type."
- (4) Royal Standard, Serial Number KMG13-4140293.
- (5) Royal Standard, Serial Number KMG13-4176686.
- (6) Royal Standard, Serial Number KMG13-4209288.
- (7) Royal Portable, Serial Number 3424609.

Bear stated that the Royal Portable may have been disposed of as the record is not clear in this regard. She advised that in the event the Portable or any one of the above listed machines has been disposed of, the Dallas Division would be able to furnish appropriate disposal records.

Bear further advised that available records disclosed that approximately 857 IBM and 714 Royal typewriters with various styles of type, many of which are not specified on custody control cards, that were in use at FBI Headquarters in 1963, are still in use today.

Inquiry conducted through logical sources resulted in the compilation of a list of 82 persons who may have had contact with the folder containing the 56 page document setting forth the Hosty data. These names were furnished to the FBI Identification Division to assist in the identification of any latent fingerprints developed on the submitted material.

This effort was expended to ascertain whether or not latent fingerprints could be developed which would identify a SA stationed at FBIHQ in 1963 or 1964, who was involved in the supervision of the assassination investigation. It was anticipated that such an Agent might provide information as to how the tickler copy of the address book reporting came to exist at FBIHQ in its 56 page format, with indexing.

The Latent Fingerprint Section of the FBI Identification Division reported the results of its extensive examination on January 26, 1978. Its examination located 104 latent fingerprints and 5 latent palm prints on the submitted folder and its complete contents. Although only 3 fingerprints and 1 palm print remain unidentified on the 56 page document which sets forth the Hosty data, the results of this total effort are inconclusive at this time.

Reference is made to my letter dated March 11, 1977, with enclosure, under the caption "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, November 22, 1963, Dallas, Texas," in which the assistance of the Department of Justice was requested in obtaining the test bullets from the National Archives for comparison purposes.

[REDACTED] O.S.

[REDACTED] O.S.

[REDACTED] O.S.

The FBI continues to cooperate with the HSCA in making the investigative results of both of these assassinations available, with necessary excisions, to the HSCA based on an agreement reached between the Department and the HSCA. Material available to the HSCA includes access to those volumes containing current investigation in both assassination investigations.

The Attorney General

However, while the FBI continues to cooperate fully with the HSCA, both of these matters, as set out in the referenced letters, remain unresolved, continue to impinge upon our investigative responsibilities, and in essence, raise the question of this Bureau's continuing criminal jurisdiction in these investigations.

As you are aware, in November, 1963, the FBI initiated an immediate investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy based upon a request from President Lyndon B. Johnson to former Director John Edgar Hoover. Prior to the assassination, no Federal statute existed concerning the killing of, or assault on the President. Mr. Hoover, in testimony before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy (Warren Commission) stated that President Johnson communicated with him within 24 hours of the assassination and requested the FBI to investigate. (Hearings before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, Volume 5, Page 98.)

Although the Bureau's investigative responsibilities concerning the assassination of President Kennedy would have logically ended with the termination of the Warren Commission, Director Hoover, in his testimony before the Commission, agreed with a statement by a Commission Member, Representative Gerald R. Ford, that the responsibility to conduct the investigation is not an authority with a terminal point, but an authority that goes on indefinitely. (Hearings before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, Volume 5, Page 100.) The FBI has continued to investigate and report to the Department any new allegations or information received concerning the assassination.

The Attorney General

[REDACTED]

Since the time of the Kennedy and King assassinations, the FBI has continued to investigate various allegations concerning these assassinations and has furnished the results to the Department. No viable information has been developed to negate the original findings of the FBI or the subsequent conclusions of the Warren Commission or the OPR.

During the HSCA review and investigation into these assassinations, additional allegations regarding these assassinations have been received. The FBI has continued to attempt to investigate all of these additional allegations; however, the FBI has found in several instances that the HSCA conducted independent and parallel investigations, the results of which are not available to the FBI.

The Attorney General

While this Bureau remains unaware that the FBI's criminal jurisdiction pertaining to these two investigations has been abrogated, the position taken by the Department of Justice, in not obtaining authority for the FBI either to gain access to the test bullets in the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] appears to support the position of the HSCA that "primary investigative responsibility" rests with that Committee. O.S.

Therefore, in order to avoid duplication of investigative effort and the attendant problems between the FBI and the HSCA that could arise in the future, and until the jurisdiction of this Bureau in these investigations is delineated by the Department, unless you advise to the contrary, the FBI will refer all allegations relating to these investigations to Mr. Robert L. Keuch, Special Counsel to The Attorney General, for departmental consideration as to whether any investigation is required of the FBI, or whether the Department desires to furnish these allegations directly to the HSCA. HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

On July 27, 1978, at approximately 3:45 p.m. an individual identifying himself as Floyd Reeves (phonetic) telephonically contacted the Atlanta Office of the FBI and stated he was with the House Select Committee on Assassinations. He advised Special Clerk Marion W. Davis that the Committee was conducting investigation into the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy. Reeves stated he had previously interviewed Special Agent Rackleff of the Atlanta Office. He learned that date that Special Agent Rackleff was out of town and requested to speak to the Special Agent in Charge in reference to some additional information the Committee had learned from their investigation. At the time of the assassination a car was reportedly seen speeding away from scene and was bearing a Georgia license plate. Reeves was advised by Special Clerk Davis if he wished to come to the office with proper credentials an agent would talk to him. Reeves advised he would not be able to come to the office on Friday, July 28, 1978 as he was leaving town; however, he would be in on Monday, July 31, 1978. No specific time was mentioned.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

On the morning of July 31, 1978, Floyd Reeves, who identified himself as a staff investigator for the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA), came into the Atlanta Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and spoke with Special Agent Edward A. Shea. Reeves exhibited a set of credentials issued by the U. S. House of Representatives, Select Committee on Assassinations, which bore his photograph.

Reeves indicated that in connection with the HSCA investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, he was handling one phase that pertained to information that had been received, that at the time of this assassination, a car reportedly was seen speeding away from the assassination scene in Dallas, Texas, which bore a Georgia license plate. Reeves wanted to know if this particular bit of information had been investigated by the FBI, either in Atlanta or Dallas; because if not, the HSCA was going to make an inquiry of their own.

It was pointed out to Reeves that all such requests had to be handled by HSCA through liaison with FBI Headquarters, but that a record of Reeves' request would be furnished to FBI Headquarters by the Atlanta FBI Office.

This seemed satisfactory to Reeves; and he indicated that if the FBI Headquarters could locate the results of such investigation, it should be sent to Chief Investigator Edward Evans of the HSCA, Washington, D.C., with the comment that it had been requested by HSCA Staff Investigator Floyd Reeves.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

FROM : C. S. Banner

SUBJECT: REQUESTS BY HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
FOR RETURN OF FINGERPRINT CARDS ON STAFF MEMBERS

PURPOSE: By memorandum to Mr. LaPrade dated 6-29-78, I reported the Identification Division's action in complying with a request by the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) for the return of ten (10) fingerprint cards for HSCA staff members, which cards had previously been submitted by HSCA to the FBI in connection with background security checks on those persons. This is to report on additional action taken in connection with that request as well as a second request by HSCA for twenty-seven (27) other fingerprint cards.

DETAILS: As indicated in my 6-29-78 memorandum, eight of the ten fingerprint cards requested by HSCA's letter of 6-27-78 were located and turned over to Mr. Robert C. Morrison, Director of Security, HSCA. The two remaining cards, relating to Edwin Juan Lopez and Betty Lou Sisson, were later located as a result of an intensive search.

We subsequently received a copy of a letter dated 6-29-78 to the Attorney General (attached) from the Chairman of the HSCA requesting the return of twenty-seven (27) additional fingerprint cards which HSCA had previously submitted on HSCA staff members.

On 7-5-78 twenty-three fingerprint cards were turned over to Mr. William H. Cross, Assistant Director of Security, HSCA. Those cards included the one for Edwin Juan Lopez requested in the 6-27-78 HSCA letter and twenty-two requested in the 6-29-78 HSCA letter. (See attached "Notice of Receipt of Fingerprint Cards" dated 7-5-78.)

On 7-10-78 the HSCA fingerprint card for Betty Lou Sisson, which was requested in the 6-27-78 letter, as well as a photographic copy of an Armed Forces card for Lawrence J. Delsa, Jr., who was listed in the 6-29-78 HSCA letter, were turned over to Mr. Lance Svendsen, Security Assistant, HSCA. (See attached "Notice of Receipt of Fingerprint Cards" dated 7-10-78.)

Memorandum to Mr. Mintz

RE: REQUESTS BY HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
FOR RETURN OF FINGERPRINT CARDS ON STAFF MEMBERS

Of the total thirty-seven (37) fingerprint cards requested by HSCA, thirty-three (including the Armed Forces substitute card) were located and turned over to HSCA. There remain outstanding the fingerprint cards of four persons listed in the 6-29-78 HSCA letter: Robert J. Buras; Eileen G. Dineen; Frank L. Eccles; and Elizabeth K. Selleck. It has been explained to the representatives of HSCA that we have been unable to locate records for these persons on the basis of name searches and that the only conclusive way to determine whether our files contain their cards is to conduct a search on the basis of fingerprints. Mr. Morrison has advised that HSCA does not wish to ask the persons involved for their fingerprints for searching purposes. As an alternative we requested that HSCA furnish us with copies of the "No Record" responses we previously furnished HSCA since such responses include fingerprint classification information. Mr. Morrison has advised that HSCA does not have those responses in its files. As a last resort we have set appropriate stops in our files so that we will be made immediately aware if the outstanding cards are subsequently located. You will be advised if this occurs.

Retrievable information regarding Items 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6 has been prepared for the Committee's access, subject to the usual excisions or deletions. Reference is made to letter to the Attorney General from G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, dated July 28, 1978, requesting delivery of two items pertinent to the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation.

This confirms a conversation of August 2, 1978, between Ms. Jacqueline Hess, HSCA, and Special Agent John S. Giaquinto, FBI Headquarters, where Ms. Hess was apprised of the status of the two enumerated items set forth in the referenced request.

Specifically, Item number one, regarding piece of curb removed from Main Street, is a topical, research item and not retrievable from FBI files as set forth. Ms. Hess concurred and no further action is being taken by this Bureau.

Regarding Item number two, Ms. Hess was advised of the fact that there is no additional, retrievable information concerning James T. Tague not already provided to the HSCA within the John F. Kennedy assassination file.

Citizen Help Being Sought By Assassination Probers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Assassinations Committee Sunday asked millions of Americans for help in identifying three photographs and two composite drawings of men who might have some connection with the murders of President John F. Kennedy and civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The committee said it was releasing the photographs and sketches "in the hope that citizen recognition of them might shed additional light on the assassinations of ... Kennedy and King."

This was in keeping, it said, with a policy "to make best possible use of available pictorial evidence and photographic techniques."

Those recognizing any of the men depicted were asked to contact the committee by mail and submit any pictures they may have of the subjects.

Injection of "new faces" in the two cases constitutes more challenges to the still unrefuted conclusion by the Warren Commission that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in killing Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963, or the guilty plea by escaped convict James Earl Ray that he murdered King in Memphis, Tenn., April 4, 1968.

Caught within hours, Oswald himself was shot and killed two days after the Kennedy assassination by nightclub owner Jack Ruby, who later died of natural causes.

Ray is serving a 99-year sentence at Brushy Mountain Prison at Petros, Tenn., but has changed his story and is trying for a new trial on grounds he was the "fall guy" for the King killing and that a mysterious Canadian smuggler named "Raoul" was responsible.

The House Assassination Committee, first formed Sept. 17, 1976, to set to rest rumors over the years of alleged conspiracies in both the Kennedy and King murders, has so far failed to come up with anything concrete to dispute the "lone assassin" theses.

The panel plans to complete its work with a series of public hearings on both cases in August, September, November and December at which all "new" evidence will be reviewed and many witnesses recalled for testimony.

Witnesses include Ray in the King case, which will be taken up first, but will not involve Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, who sat beside her husband when he was fatally hit.

The three photographs released by the committee Sunday included a blurred image of a dark-haired man, possibly with moustache, sitting on a curb with a group whose faces do not show. The committee caption said only that the picture was taken in Dealey Plaza "moments after President Kennedy was shot."

The other two photographs, according to the commission, are "of two men who may have been in Mexico City in the fall of 1963 when Lee Harvey Oswald ... was there."

One photograph shows a handsome, apparently blond-haired man in his 20s or early 30s. He appears to be wearing a jacket over a dark turtleneck sweater or pullover.

The other photograph, badly scratched and blurred, is a side shot of a light or gray-haired, aquiline-nosed man who could be in his late 40s or 50s. He wears a light suit, shirt and tie. The face of a man leaning beside his left side is obscured.

A sketch, captioned "Ralph," shows a middle-aged, dark-haired, square-jawed man with high cheekbones "who allegedly was in Atlanta in 1967 or 1968."

The other composite drawing, captioned "Maurice Bishop," shows a man with close-cropped hair bearing a resemblance to Prince Philip.

The committee said this man "reportedly represented himself as a member of the U.S. intelligence community in the 1960s and ... on occasion used the name Maurice Bishop."

John Select Committee on Assassinations

Dear Jim and Hal:

Please accept my thanks for your considered, albeit negative, response to my request for permission to review certain old investigative reports written by me which directly and indirectly concern Lee Harvey Oswald. After reading both letters, I can confess some consolation in having a better understanding of the reasons for the Bureau's declination of my request.

I can only hope that the current confusion in the public's mind concerning the assassination of John F. Kennedy, born of fantasy woven by irresponsible writers on that subject, is not, in fact, compounded through political expediency that cries for a scapegoat rather than enlightenment based on fact.

If I can be of any help in clarifying misconceptions that evolve concerning the Bureau's investigations involving the John F. Kennedy assassination, I shall be happy to be of service to the Bureau or to the HSCA.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS 1 - Mr. Bassett
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA) 1 - Mr. Ryan
1 - Mr. Foster

PURPOSE: To obtain authority for an Agent of the Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU) to attend HSCA public hearings into the assassinations of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr., the first of which is scheduled for the week of August 14-19, 1978.

DETAILS: Since December, 1976, the CIU has processed material and handled matters involving the HSCA, which is investigating the assassinations of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr. The Committee plans a series of public hearings, the first of which is to commence during the week of August 14-19, 1978, and concern the King assassination. These hearings will receive considerable media attention and will reportedly include the testimony of James Earl Ray.

A Committee representative has advised that all agencies having an interest in the HSCA's work will be furnished tickets to these public hearings. Two tickets have been offered to the Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Legal Counsel Division.

In view of the interest of the CIU in the course of these public hearings and the probable impact on the work of the CIU, it is believed that a representative of that Unit should attend relevant sessions. This would enable us to keep abreast of the developments in both assassination cases and avoid reliance on media coverage for information.

RECOMMENDATION: That a representative of the CIU be authorized to attend relevant sessions of the HSCA's public hearings, the first which will begin during the week of August 14-19, 1978.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

of Latent Fingerprint Section contacted the original latent fingerprint examiner, Mr. Latona, to no avail, regarding the disposition of the "latent palmprint" lift. Contact was also made with Mr. Marion Johnson, National Archives and Records Services (NARS), who advised that the "latent palmprint" lift was not at NARS and that the HSCA had contacted him already in that regard. Mr. Latona testified before the Warren Commission on 4/2/64, at which time the latent lift was left in its possession (Bufile 105-82555-3025). Bufile 105-82555-4900 reflects the FBI transmitted the latent lift from C 14 (the rifle) to the Warren Commission on 9/16/64, indicating the Warren Commission may have returned the lift after 4/2/64, and prior to 9/16/64. Since SA Drain originally obtained the lift from the Dallas Police Department on 11/26/63, it would have been procedurally correct for FBIHQ to have eventually returned the lift to the Dallas Police Department through the Dallas Office. Dallas Division was also asked to check its special indices for the identification of a document that might show the final disposition of the "latent palmprint" lift. This effort was unsuccessful.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to the July 25, 1978, letter of request to the Attorney General signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Staff Director, HSCA, which asked for

#SCA

As the Committee has been advised previously in response to a telephonic inquiry, the "latent palmprint" lift constitutes a topical matter that precludes retrieval of records through the normal methods available at FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ). The Committee was also advised previously that documents pertaining to the disposition of the "latent palmprint" lift could be found if the Committee searched the Freedom of Information Act release of assassination files already in its possession or documents available to it at FBIHQ. However, in an effort to assist the Committee and only because some research work in this area had been done previously on another matter, the FBI undertook limited research which has located a pertinent latent fingerprint worksheet. This worksheet, which was among material previously reviewed by the Committee, will be delivered to an HSCA representative at FBIHQ.

For reports made to the FBI by a representative of the Dallas Police Department about the "latent palmprint", the Committee may refer to documents 105-82555-456 pages 378-379 and 105-82555-5061 pages 25-34, which should be in its possession already.

NOTE: HSCA request 9-6-78, was received by Legal Counsel Division on 9-11-78, and by Congressional Inquiry Unit for action at 5:40 p.m. on 9-12-78. Extensive research, including review of all abstracts in the Warren Commission file has failed to indicate the Warren Commission requested or the FBI provided the New Orleans Police Department's fingerprint card. Document 105-82555-3025 and 62-109060-2854 pertain. This matter has been coordinated with the Latent Fingerprint Section, Identification Division.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to a September 6, 1978, letter of request to the Attorney General signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Staff Director, HSCA, which asked for

[REDACTED] HSCA
The request was received by the FBI on September 11, 1978.

The mentioned fingerprint card was received by the FBI from the New Orleans Police Department on August 12, 1963.

A search of records at FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) discloses that, on April 2, 1964, the Warren Commission "...requested a copy of the Marine Corps fingerprint card of Oswald from our files and a copy of the fingerprint card of Oswald we received from Dallas showing he was dead." No retrievable document indicates that the Warren Commission requested the New Orleans Police Department's fingerprint card or that the FBI provided same.

It is noted that the Warren Commission was in possession of a fingerprint card on Lee Harvey Oswald, obtained at the time of his arrest in New Orleans, which it received directly from Louisiana state authorities.

Where information is not provided, it is either not retrievable from FBIHQ files or is not produced pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding.

TO : The Director

DATE: 8/25/78

FROM : Legal Counsel JM

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS REQUEST FOR TESTIMONY OF THE DIRECTOR 9/20/78.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise of a request from captioned committee for the Director to testify as an institutional witness before the Committee regarding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on September 20, 1978.

DETAILS:

On August 24, 1978, Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel captioned Committee, requested a luncheon meeting with Special Agent (SA) Danny O. Coulson, Legal Counsel Division following Mr. Blakey's meeting with the Director. Mr. Blakey advised that he at his meeting with the Director had requested that the Director consider appearing before the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) on September 20, 1978, as an institutional witness regarding the Federal Bureau of Investigation's investigation into the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Mr. Blakey advised that the committee had considered receiving testimony regarding this investigation from former Bureau officials. He is concerned over the fact that this testimony would not reveal to the American public the FBI as it is today. He opined that it would be desirable to have the current Director of the FBI testify as to the commitment of manpower, scientific analysis, and the extensive investigative effort that was expended with regard to that investigation. He considers it desirable to have the Director testify as to the way the FBI is organized today, and the manner in which an investigation today might differ from the manner in which the investigation was done in 1963. As an example, there has been some criticism over the fact that this investigation was never conducted with the assistance of a Federal Grand Jury to look into the possibility of a murder conspiracy. It should be noted that at the time of the assassination of President Kennedy there was no Federal Statute dealing with Presidential Assassinations.

Mr. Blakey advised that if the Director consents to testify as an institutional witness, he would have a small group of approximately three people including himself who would work closely with representatives of the FBI in preparing the questions that would be asked of the Director. He further advised that the investigation conducted by the Committee has substantiated for the most part the conclusions reached by the FBI in its investigation and in its scientific analysis. Expert witness will be called to report findings made by current scientific analysis.

SA Coulson raised the question as to whether this would appear to be a hearing orchestrated for the benefit of the FBI and give rise to criticism and allegations of collusion by assassination critics. Mr. Blakey responded that the questions that would be posed to the Director would be hard questions, and in any responsible Congressional Inquiry it is the practice of Committees generally to advise the witnesses of the areas of interest in order to present the facts to the public and to the Congress.

Blakey stated that he was fearful that without testimony from the Director the hearings and ultimate reports of his Committee would be similar to the hearings and reports of the Church Committee. (Select Committee to Study Government Operation With Respect to Intelligence Activities.)

Those hearings and reports produced small, mosaic allegations of inadequacies in the FBI's investigation and did not present an overall view of the effort and accuracy of the FBI's investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Mr. Blakey reiterated his commitment to devote knowledgeable individuals to work with Bureau representatives on the preparation of questions that would be posed to the Director. He pointed out that there is currently pending in Congress legislation, that if passed would hinder the FBI in conducting similar investigations in the future. He would like for the FBI to have the opportunity to testify regarding the effects of this legislation.

Mr. Blakey was advised that there is a tremendous volume of material in the FBI's files with regard to this investigation, and to familiarize and brief the Director on the broad spectrum of this investigation would be a difficult endeavor requiring great expenditures of manpower and resources. Blakey stated that the Committee members would be furnished the questions to be asked to the Director and that they would not move to other areas. They would not expect the Director to be familiar with all aspects of the case.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Reference is made to letter to the Attorney General from G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, dated September 1, 1978, requesting access to material pertinent to the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation.

This confirms a conversation of September 12, 1978, between Ms. Patricia Orr, HSCA, and Special Agent John S. Giaquinto, FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ), where Ms. Orr was apprised of the fact that there is no retrievable information in files of FBIHQ regarding an assassination attempt against Fidel Castro in Chile in 1971.

Additionally, Ms. Orr was advised of the fact that there is no additional, retrievable information concerning the individuals named in referenced HSCA request, not already provided to the HSCA.

SPECIAL AGENT [REDACTED] U.S. SECRET SERVICE, SACRAMENTO, TELEPHONICALLY ADVISED THAT RUSSELL HAD CONTACTED HIS OFFICE ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1978, AND STATED HE DESIRED TO BE INTERVIEWED CONCERNING THE KENNEDY ASSASSINATION.

[REDACTED] MADE AVAILABLE A 2 1/2 HOUR TAPE RECORDING OF AN INTERVIEW OF RUSSELL WHICH TOOK PLACE ON THE NIGHT OF SEPTEMBER 9, 1978, AT THE SACRAMENTO COUNTY JAIL. HE STATED THAT AS SOON AS IT IS TYPED, HE WILL MAKE AVAILABLE A WRITTEN REPORT OF HIS INTERVIEW. CURSORY REVIEW OF THE 2 1/2 HOUR TAPE REVEALED THAT RUSSELL IS EXTREMELY EVASIVE DURING INTERVIEW AND WILL NOT ANSWER YES OR NO
WHEN HE CAN INSERT A PARAGRAPH. AGENT [REDACTED] STATED THE BASIC CLAIM OF RUSSELL IS THAT HE KNOWS A WOMAN NAMED CINDY RUSSELL, LEE WILLIAMS IN NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, WHO HAS SECRETED SOMEWHERE IN NEW ORLEANS A SECOND RIFLE USED IN THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, A $10,000 CHECK

RUSSELL ADVISED AGENT [REDACTED] THAT HE HAS CONTACTED THE PUBLICATION NATIONAL ENQUIRER AND MADE ARRANGEMENTS TO SELL HIS STORY TO THAT NEWSPAPER FOR SEVERAL MILLION DOLLARS. HE ALSO INDICATED HE HAD BEEN PROMISED SEVERAL MILLION DOLLARS FOR THE EVIDENCE BY A GROUP OF BUSINESSMEN WHO HE BELIEVES ARE APPARENTLY ATTEMPTING TO SUPPRESS THE EVIDENCE. (b)(7)(c)

IT APPEARS THAT RUSSELL'S BASIC DEMANDS OF SECRET SERVICE AND THE FBI ARE THAT HE AND CINDY BE GIVEN COMPLETE PROTECTION AFTER HE TURNS OVER THE EVIDENCE TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. HE NOTED IN PASSING THAT SOME OF HIS INFLUENTIAL FRIENDS STATE HE WOULD PROBABLY BE BETTER LIVING WITH ROSE KENNEDY IN MASSACHUSETTS DURING THE PERIOD THE TRIAL IS IN PROGRESS. HE ALSO DESIRES THAT ANY EVIDENCE WHICH HE TURNS OVER REMAIN IN HIS LEGAL POSSESSION SO THAT HE CAN USE IT IN THE SUBSEQUENT PRODUCTION OF HIS BOOK AND/OR MOVIE.

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies of an LHM setting forth a brief summary of the testimony of SA JAMES P. HOSTY, JR. before the HSCA Staff on 8/25/78.

On 8/25/78, ROBERT GENZMAN, Staff Attorney, to whom this deposition was made, advised SA HOSTY and Attorney FRANCIS X. LILLY that he would make available to SA HOSTY within two weeks a copy of his testimony. GENZMAN has now advised Attorney LILLY that he will not make available this testimony until after 9/20/78, when certain Bureau officials testify. It is the intention of SA HOSTY, unless advised to the contrary by Attorney LILLY, to make available to FBI HQ a copy of his testimony when available.

The enclosed LHM sets forth only certain highlights of the interrogation and should not be considered to be all inclusive.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
(HSCA)

Special Agent James P. Hosty, Jr. appeared before the HSCA on August 25, 1978, at 1 p.m. to furnish a sworn deposition to Robert Genzman, a Staff Attorney for the HSCA. The taking of this deposition lasted from approximately 1 p.m. until approximately 4:30 p.m. on August 25, 1978.

Special Agent Hosty was asked to recite again in detail all of his activities on November 22, 1963. The questioning that followed was mostly repetitious of the questioning previously asked by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in 1975, with a few exceptions. Special Agent Hosty was asked if he knew that certain pages or page in the report of Special Agent Gemberling had been changed. The answer to this was negative. Special Agent Hosty was asked the significance of the name of Gandy, which appeared directly above the name of James P. Hasty in the address book of Lee H. Oswald. Special Agent Hosty was asked if Gandy could have stood for Miss Helen Gandy, former secretary to former Director J. Edgar Hoover. Genzman was advised this was ridiculous, that the name Gandy was a very common name in the city of Dallas and it could have stood for any number of persons.

Special Agent Hosty was then asked concerning the significance of the fact that former Special Agent in Charge J. Gordon Shanklin had resigned a few days before the information on the so-called Oswald note had come to the attention of former Director Clarence Kelley. Special Agent Hosty stated he could draw no significance from this.

ENCLOSURE

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

A discussion was then held as to what Special Agent Hosty knew about Oswald's contact in Mexico City and when he knew it.

At the conclusion of the deposition, Special Agent Hosty was granted five minutes to make any statement he desired. At this time, it was pointed out that the testimony of former U. S. Secret Service Inspector Robert I. Bouck as set forth in Volume Four of the Warren Commission Report beginning on Page 312, cited the fact that 18 items of information were scattered through four agencies from Mexico City to Moscow. No one agency knew all of the information. It was pointed out that this would tend to invalidate the Warren Commission's criticism of the FBI as set forth in the Warren Commission Report.

I, James P. Hosty, Jr., hereby make the following free and voluntary statement:

On August 30, 1978, a person identifying himself as [REDACTED] contacted me by telephone at the Kansas City Office. [REDACTED] questioned me concerning certain allegations that took place on November 17, 1963. [REDACTED] stated the incident implied I might be a "friend" of a person who was now known to have been involved in anti- (b)(7)(C) Castro activities in Dallas before November 22, 1963. I told [REDACTED] these allegations were false and unfounded. This information was furnished to FBIHQ by teletype dated August 30, 1978 captioned "House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA)".

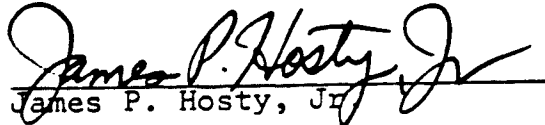

[REDACTED] again called me at my residence on September 8, 1978, but I did not talk to him at that time.

All knowledge that I have concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy is available to HSCA. There is no information within my personal knowledge which I have not furnished to either the Warren Commission, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, House Judiciary Committee Sub Committee on Civil and Constitutional Rights, or the HSCA.

I have no recollection of stating or implying to [REDACTED] that I had any "bombs" to report to the HSCA. (b)(7)(C)

I have read this statement consisting of one and one-half pages and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

DETAILS:

On 9/12/78 G. They desire to have the Director testify in accordance with the proposed outline (attached) which has been furnished by the Committee.

The HSCA also plans to invite Admiral Turner, Director of the CIA, and H. Stuart Knight, Director of the U.S. Secret Service, to testify in December.

The proposed areas that the Director will be asked to testify on before the Committee are quite broad and it may be necessary to solicit the assistance of other Divisions.

PURPOSE: To advise that captioned Committee is expected to conclude its work regarding the John F. Kennedy-Martin Luther King, Jr., assassinations probe and cease operations on or about December 31, 1978. Additionally, this memorandum is being submitted in order to solicit responses from the Disclosure Section, Freedom of Information-Privacy Act (FOIPA) Branch, and Records Systems Section, Records Branch, regarding their respective positions as to the disposition of the voluminous material prepared for the HSCA.

DETAILS: The HSCA was formed in September, 1976, by the Ninety-fourth Congress to "study the circumstances surrounding the details of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr., and any others the Select Committee shall determine." Subsequent to the formation of the HSCA, the Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU) was formed at FBI Headquarters to process requests submitted by the Committee for pertinent FBI material.

To date, the CIU has processed two hundred eighty-three (283) requests from the Committee providing them with both Bureau and field office material pertinent to these assassination probes. The material, which includes sensitive ELSUR logs, highly classified security files, appropriate tickler files and a separate index system, is currently stored in approximately sixty (60) file cabinets located within the CIU's secure but temporary office space in Room 8988.

Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, has advised the Committee will conclude its public hearings this November, issue its report soon thereafter, and, as mandated by Congress, will conclude its business on or about December 31, 1978. With the dissolution of the HSCA and the expected dissolution of the CIU, the subject of the proper disposition of the voluminous material prepared for the Committee needs to be addressed. Therefore, the CIU is setting forth the following recommendation.

RECOMMENDATION: That the Disclosure Section, FOIPA Branch, and the Records System Section, Records Branch, make a preliminary survey of the material which has been prepared for the HSCA. Additionally, that upon the review of said material, these Sections furnish their addenda to this memorandum setting forth their recommendations as to the disposition and, if appropriate, subsequent storage of said material.

Re: Memo Ryan to Bassett, 10/12/78
HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

ADDENDUM OF THE RECORDS MANAGEMENT DIVISION (RMD) (CMG:ssj 10/24/78)

The Records Research Staff has reviewed the material which was processed for the House Select Committee on Assassinations by the Congressional Inquiry Unit. Approximately 60 cabinets of processed documents, tickler files, and an index system will remain after original files are returned to respective HQ and field office storage.

RMD will accept the 60 remaining cabinets of material for storage and maintenance. Due to the sensitive nature of the contents, the cabinets should be locked to restrict access and keys should be affixed to a separate key ring for maintenance in the Tele-key cabinet in the Filing Unit. Cabinets should be numbered in a fashion that will permit cabinet arrangement for retrievability.

This memorandum should be referred to the Printing and Space Management Section, Personnel and Space Management Branch, Administrative Services Division, for information in view of the critical space problem with which RMD is confronted.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bassett
Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

ADDENDUM: FOIPA BRANCH
RECORDS MANAGEMENT DIVISION

THB THB:tdp 10/31/78

An informal survey of the material prepared for the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) by the Congressional Inquiry Unit was conducted on 10/27/78 by Section Chief Bresson of Disclosure Section, FOIPA Branch, along with SAs John A. Hartingh and John C. Hall, Legal Counsel Division. It was observed the material includes voluminous records which are not pertinent to the Kennedy-King assassinations, i.e., extensive ELSUR logs and other file material concerning organized crime figures, as well as certain extremist organization files.

FOIPA Branch is currently involved in litigation regarding both the Kennedy and King cases. An issue concerning scope of our searches is still unsettled;

[REDACTED]

O.S.

On 10/27/78 the matter of our retention of copies of the material furnished HSCA was discussed with Shea. He is aware that a significant portion of record material furnished the Committee in response to specific inquiries has not been considered by us to be within the scope of the FOIA request. In this regard we have, in the past, made available to the FOIA litigant in this matter documents which were publicized by the Committee, and which would not have been included in the FOIA processed material. Shea concurs that production of records for the Committee does not, in itself however, bring those records within the scope confines of the FOIA litigation, and is prepared to uphold our FOIA searches which utilized the indices to retrieve the main case files regarding the assassinations and closely related main files both at FBIHQ and selected field divisions.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bassett
Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Of course, the Court, which is presumably aware of the fact the FBI provided records to the HSCA, may not accept Shea's conclusion regarding the extent of our searches, and may rule that any records sought by and provided to the Committee would be within the scope of any FOIA request.

It can be anticipated that the published HSCA report will generate additional FOIA requests. Retention of the record material furnished HSCA will greatly assist us in locating documents responsive to these requests since they are maintained in a manner which will enable their retrieval by subject matter of the Committee's 283 requests referred to in this memorandum.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DIVISION AF:crw 11/9/78

SSMU is aware of the critical space problems with which the Records Management Division (RMD) is confronted, as well as many other similar space needs by other divisions. Unfortunately, we have reached the point where there is no longer any available space in the building. SSMU personnel recently surveyed the space occupied by the RMD and believe that suitable arrangements can be made for secure storage of the 60 cabinets of material. SSMU will be in contact with RMD personnel in the very near future to discuss proposals regarding this storage.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Enclosed are the original and two copies of a memorandum responding in full to an HSCA request of October 11, 1978, which asked for delivery of specified documents.

The request made reference to our July 12, 1978, memorandum setting forth additional details of an FBI inquiry into the 1963-1964 reportings with regard to an address book belonging to Lee Harvey Oswald.

FBI records indicate the Committee should already possess a majority of the documents requested. The Committee is being advised that retrievable documents, not furnished previously, will be delivered to an HSCA representative at FBI Headquarters.

You are requested to furnish a copy of the enclosed memorandum to the HSCA.

NOTE: Previous memoranda captioned as above and dated 12/7/77 and 7/12/78 pertain. These have been furnished to the HSCA by the U.S. Department of Justice and the HSCA now requests documents referred to therein. While the HSCA has erred in its references to the 7/12/78 memorandum, every effort has been made to retrieve documents deemed responsive. It is being pointed out that documents furnished previously will not be provided again. It is also being pointed out that the definition of a "transcription" does not strictly apply to several documents requested. Delivery date of the Freedom of Information Act release was confirmed through the Freedom of Information-Privacy Acts Branch.

note: FOI-PA subsequently advised on 11/27/78 that delivery of the FOIA release to the HSCA was accomplished during Feb. 1978.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
 U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to the October 11, 1978, letter to the Attorney General signed by S. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Staff Director, HSCA, which listed four (4) items and asked for delivery of specified documents relating to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The 4 items enumerated documents purportedly referred to in a memorandum of July 12, 1978, which was furnished to the Committee and which provided additional details of an FBI inquiry into the 1963-1964 FBI reporting of the contents of an address book belonging to Lee Harvey Oswald. The Committee is aware of the December 7, 1977, memorandum which also pertains to this inquiry.

Item 1 referred to page 16, paragraph 4, of the July 12, 1978, memorandum and requested delivery [REDACTED]

HSCA

Contrary to the Committee's interpretation of page 16, paragraph 4, there is no mention of a "Teletype from FBI Headquarters" in that paragraph. What is stated therein is that there was "...an FBI Headquarters inquiry directed to the Special Agent in Charge..." of the Dallas Office of the FBI. Details pertaining to this "inquiry" were furnished to the Committee by memorandum of December 7, 1978.

In order to assist the Committee, the FBI will provide a copy of a January 25, 1964, memorandum prepared by the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the Dallas FBI Office. This document memorialized the "inquiry" and is deemed substantially responsive to Item 1, although it was not specifically requested by the Committee.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

The document enumerated in Item 2, as identified previously in the December 7, 1977, memorandum, is document 105-82555-1666 which the Committee should already possess, having received it as part of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) release of the Oswald file which was delivered to the HSCA during January, 1978.

Item 3 requests [REDACTED]

Contrary to the Committee's interpretation of a paragraph 5 on page 37, there is no reference to "laboratory fingerprint examinations" in that paragraph. HSCA

Reports of latent fingerprint examinations are made by the Identification Division at FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ). The Committee's reference to page 37 of the July 12, 1978, memorandum is, in fact, a reference to page 2 of the January 26, 1978, "Report of the Identification Division Latent Fingerprint Section", page 1 of which is page 36 in the memorandum. For the Committee's information, there are no other, extant Identification Division Reports pertinent to this specific matter. Such would have been provided previously had they existed.

The Laboratory Division at FBIHQ reports other scientific examinations, but not latent fingerprint examinations. Therefore, if the HSCA intends to refer to the ultimate sentence on page 37, which states "The results of the laboratory examinations will be furnished in a separate report.", the Committee's attention is directed to pages 27 to 29 of the July 12, 1978, memorandum. These pages set forth the December 23, 1977, FBI Laboratory Report which the ultimate sentence on page 37 has reference to. A second Laboratory Report of February 16, 1978, appears on pages 33 and 34. Neither of these Laboratory Reports contains the results of latent fingerprint examinations. There are no other extant Laboratory Reports pertaining to this specific inquiry. Such would have been provided previously had they existed. In short, there are no additional documents responsive to Item 3 which can be produced.

Item 4 requests [REDACTED] HSCA

Contrary to the Committee's interpretation of page 2, paragraph 5, there is absolutely no mention of any "transcription" of the contents of the address book in that paragraph. The seminal documents retrieved and interviews conducted in connection with this inquiry, as reported previously in the memoranda dated December 7, 1977, and July 12, 1978, which were furnished to the Committee, clearly demonstrated that no "transcription" of the address book contents was ever ordered or undertaken by the FBI, unless one wishes to consider the photographing of the address book as an effort to "transcribe" it. It should be pointed out, that, in all practicality, the existence of photographic copies depicting the entire contents of the address book may have been considered sufficient reason to eliminate any further need to copy every entry.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Reconstruction of the events surrounding past, reportings of the address book through documentation, scientific analysis and interviews, provided no data to sustain the strict definition of a "transcription" as the Committee is wont to describe the address book reportings.

With regard to the 4 versions or reportings of the contents of an address book which are enumerated on pages 2 and 3 of the July 12, 1978, memorandum, the following details are provided:

Version "(1)" is retrievable and a copy will be provided.

Version "(2)", as the Committee has been informed previously by the memorandum dated December 7, 1977, is document 105-82555-1247 which the Committee should already possess, having received it as part of the FOIA release of the Oswald file which was delivered to the HSCA during January, 1978.

Version "(3)", as the Committee is aware, is contained in the December 23, 1963, report of former Special Agent (SA) Robert F. Gemberling. The Committee's Chief Counsel referred to this Version during his discussion with FBI Associate Director James B. Adams on November 11, 1977. Furthermore, on November 22, 1977, HSCA Senior Staff Counsel Michael Goldsmith, advised an FBI Agent that he (Goldsmith) provided a copy of this Version to former SA Gemberling on November 8, 1977, in order to refresh Gemberling's memory prior to his testimony before the Committee. Since the Committee is already in possession of this Version, no additional copy is being provided at this time.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Version "(4)", as the Committee has been informed previously by memorandum dated December 7, 1977, is contained in document 105-82555-2098 which the Committee should already possess, having received it as part of the FOIA release of the Oswald file which was delivered to the HSCA during January, 1978.

As indicated above, those documents responsive to enumerated Items 1 through 4, which have not been delivered to the Committee previously, will be delivered to an HSCA representative at FBIHQ.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Reference is made to letter to the Attorney General from G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, undated, requesting specific information about 117 individuals described as being pertinent to the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation.

This confirms a conversation of December 4, 1978, between Miss Jacqueline Hess, HSCA, and Special Agent John S. Giaquinto, FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ), wherein Miss Hess, upon her inquiry as to the status of the attached copy of the Committee request, was advised of the fact that said request had never been received at FBIHQ.

This additionally confirms that on December 4, 1978, Miss Hess made available to Special Agent Giaquinto a copy of the attached request indicating that the project needed to be completed by December 8, 1978. Miss Hess was apprized of the fact that the request represented a complex research project; however, the FBI would make every effort to provide the HSCA with all retrievable information regarding the 117-named individuals. In conclusion, Miss Hess indicated that the HSCA was not desirous of being provided access to the material in view of the short deadline involved, and that this written response would satisfy the HSCA needs at this time.

FROM : F. D. Silas, Jr. FDS/11/4

SUBJECT: O HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

PURPOSE: To record results of examination request related to captioned case.

DETAILS: On 12/5/78, SA William Albrecht, Jr., conducted an examination on a weapon which was identified as being the rifle used by Oswald to assassinate Kennedy. The examination was done in the presence of Ken Kline and Surrel Brady of the House Select Committee and Michael Leahy of the Archives. The purpose of the examination was to locate a particular area on the underside of the barrel where Oswald's print was lifted, based upon a series of imperfections which showed up in the lift. This particular area was found and pointed out to the members of the Select Committee. The outer limits of the area were also marked with evidence tape, the forward most piece of tape being 10 1/4 inches from the muzzle.

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

PURPOSE: To advise of a conversation with G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel of captioned Committee regarding scientific findings concerning the number of bullets allegedly fired during the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

DETAILS: On 12/18/78, Mr. Blakey advised SA Danny O. Coulson, Legal Counsel Division, and SA Drew J. Clark, Records Management Division that the Committee can conclusively show that four shots were fired in Dealy Plaza during the assassination of John F. Kennedy. The Committee has had testimony from acoustical experts regarding the number of shots fired during the assassination. This test was based in part upon a dictaphone belt recording of a radio transmission from a Dallas Police Department motorcycle radio at the time of the assassination. According to the Committee, the officer operating the motorcycle had keyed his microphone button during the time of the shooting and this transmission was recorded on dictaphone-type equipment at police headquarters in Dallas, Texas.

The Committee utilizing the acoustical experts reenacted the shooting in Dealy Plaza from the school book depository with additional shots fired from the "grassy knoll." At the time of the earlier testimony, experts could not find or would not verify the existence of a fourth shot.

Memorandum to Director from Legal Counsel
Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
12/18/78

On 12/18/78, Mr. Blakey advised that another acoustical firm had been contacted in Queens, New York, and that firm, using these test results determined that there was beyond a reasonable doubt a fourth shot fired. These results were then resubmitted to the original expert examiner who has now verified the existence of a fourth shot.

He advised that the Committee members will be fully apprised on these findings on the evening of 12/18/78, and that ultimately the full details of the examination and testimony will be provided to the FBI.

Mr. Blakey indicated that this conclusively proves the existence of a conspiracy in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

PURPOSE: Enclosed is a memorandum from the Legal Counsel Division to the Director dated 11/20/78, captioned "Status of Responses to Congressional Committee Requests," which sets forth, among other things, the requests received from the HSCA. The Director attached a routing slip which states "Advise status of October requests of Assassinations Committee. Note I am to appear 12/11."

Attached is a chart, which sets forth the status of the Bureau's responses to the HSCA's October requests which have been completed.

In addition, of the 13 HSCA November requests requiring action by this Bureau, 11 have been completed and two are being processed. Our procedure in responding to each HSCA request is to confirm in writing to the Department and the HSCA the fact that the necessary information or material was provided to the HSCA or the fact that Bureau files did not contain any information in regard to a particular HSCA request. In the above 11 November HSCA requests, there is no work remaining to be done. The HSCA has been orally advised of our response and there merely remains a confirmation in writing to the Department and the HSCA.

RECOMMENDATION: None, for information.

I.	Findings of the Select Committee on Assassinations in the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy.....	5
II.	Findings of the Select Committee on Assassinations in the Assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.....	10
III.	Recommendations of the Select Committee on Assassinations.....	12

I. Findings of the Select Committee on Assassinations in the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Texas, November 22, 1963

A. Lee Harvey Oswald fired three shots at President John F. Kennedy. The second and third shots he fired struck the President. The third shot he fired killed the President.

- 1. President Kennedy was struck by two rifle shots fired from behind him.
- 2. The shots that struck President Kennedy from behind him were fired from the sixth floor window of the southeast corner of the Texas School Book Depository building.
- 3. Lee Harvey Oswald owned the rifle that was used to fire the shots from the sixth floor window of the southeast corner of the Texas School Book Depository building.
- 4. Lee Harvey Oswald, shortly before the assassination, had access to and was present on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building.
- 5. Lee Harvey Oswald's other actions tend to support the conclusion that he assassinated President Kennedy.

- B. Scientific acoustical evidence establishes a high probability that two gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy. Other scientific evidence does not preclude the possibility of two gunmen firing at the President. Scientific evidence negates some specific conspiracy allegations.
- C. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that President John F. Kennedy was probably assassinated as a result of a conspiracy. The Committee is unable to identify the other gunman or the extent of the conspiracy.
1. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that the Soviet Government was not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy.
 2. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that the Cuban Government was not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy.
 3. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that anti-Castro Cuban groups, as groups, were not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy, but that the available evidence does not preclude the possibility that individual members may have been involved.
 4. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that the national syndicate of organized crime, as a group, was not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy, but that the available evidence does not preclude the possibility that individual members may have been involved.
 5. The Secret Service, Federal Bureau of Investigation and Central Intelligence Agency were not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy.

D. Agencies and departments of the United States Government performed with varying degrees of competency in the fulfillment of their duties. President John F. Kennedy did not receive adequate protection. A thorough and reliable investigation into the responsibility of Lee Harvey Oswald for the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was conducted. The investigation into the possibility of conspiracy in the assassination was inadequate. The conclusions of the investigations were arrived at in good faith, but presented in a fashion that was too definitive.

1. The Secret Service was deficient in the performance of its duties.
 - (a) The Secret Service possessed information that was not properly analyzed, investigated or used by the Secret Service in connection with the President's trip to Dallas; in addition, Secret Service agents in the motorcade were inadequately prepared to protect the President from a sniper.
 - (b) The responsibility of the Secret Service to investigate the assassination was terminated when the Federal Bureau of Investigation assumed primary investigative responsibility.
2. The Department of Justice failed to exercise initiative in supervising and directing the investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the assassination.

3. The Federal Bureau of Investigation performed with varying degrees of competency in the fulfillment of its duties.
 - (a) The Federal Bureau of Investigation adequately investigated Lee Harvey Oswald prior to the assassination and properly evaluated the evidence it possessed to assess his potential to endanger the public safety in a national emergency.
 - (b) The Federal Bureau of Investigation conducted a thorough and professional investigation into the responsibility of Lee Harvey Oswald for the assassination.
 - (c) The Federal Bureau of Investigation failed to investigate adequately the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President.
 - (d) The Federal Bureau of Investigation was deficient in its sharing of information with other agencies and departments.
4. The Central Intelligence Agency was deficient in its collection and sharing of information both prior to and subsequent to the assassination.
5. The Warren Commission performed with varying degrees of competency in the fulfillment of its duties.
 - (a) The Warren Commission conducted a thorough and professional investigation into the responsibility of Lee Harvey Oswald for the assassination.

- (b) The Warren Commission failed to investigate adequately the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President. This deficiency was attributable in part to the failure of the Commission to receive all the relevant information that was in the possession of other agencies and departments of the government.
- (c) The Warren Commission arrived at its conclusions, based on the evidence available to it, in good faith.
- (d) The Warren Commission presented the conclusions in its report in a fashion that was too definitive.

III. Recommendations of the Select Committee on Assassinations

I. Legislative Recommendations on Issues Involving the Prohibition, Prevention and Prosecution of Assassinations and Federally Cognizable Homicides

A. Prohibition and Prevention

1. The Judiciary Committee should process for early consideration by the House legislation that would make the assassination of a Chief of State of any country, or his political equivalent, a federal offense, if the offender is an American citizen or acts on behalf of an American citizen, or if the offender can be located in the United States.
2. The Judiciary Committee should process for early consideration by the House comprehensive legislation that would codify, revise and reform the federal law of homicide, paying special attention to assassinations. The Judiciary Committee should give appropriate attention to the related offenses of conspiracy, attempt, assault and kidnapping in the context of assassinations. Such legislation should be processed independently of the general proposals for the codification, revision or reform of the Federal criminal law. The Committee should address the following issues in considering the legislation:
 - (a) Distinguishing between those persons who should receive the protection of federal law because of the official positions they occupy and those persons who should receive protection of federal law only in the performance of their official duties,
 - (b) Extending the protection of federal law to persons who occupy high judicial and executive positions, including Justices of the Supreme Court and Cabinet officers,
 - (c) The applicability of these laws to private individuals in the exercise of constitutional rights,
 - (d) The penalty to be provided for homicide and the related offenses, including the applicability and

- (e) The basis for the exercise of federal jurisdiction, including domestic and extraterritorial reach,
- (f) The pre-emption of state jurisdiction without the necessity of any action on the part of the Attorney General where the President is assassinated,
- (g) The circumstances under which federal jurisdiction should preempt state jurisdiction in other cases,
- (h) The power of federal investigative agencies to require autopsies to be performed,
- (i) The ability of federal investigative agencies to secure the assistance of other federal or state agencies, including the military, other laws notwithstanding,
- (j) The authority to offer rewards to apprehend the perpetrators of the crime,
- (k) A requirement of forfeiture of the instrumentalities of the crime,
- (l) The condemnation of personal or other effects of historical interest,
- (m) The advisability of providing, consistent with the first amendment, legal trust devices to hold for the benefit of victims, their families, or the general treasury, the profits realized from books, movie rights, or public appearances by the perpetrator of the crime, and
- (n) The applicability of threat and physical zone of protection legislation to persons under the physical protection of federal investigative or law enforcement agencies.

3. The appropriate Committees of the House should process for early consideration by the House charter legislation for the Central Intelligence Agency and Federal Bureau of Investigation. The Committees should address the following issues in considering the charter legislation:

- (b) The relationship between the domestic intelligence functions and the interference with the exercise of individual constitutional rights,
- (c) The delineation of proper law enforcement functions and techniques including:
 - (i) the use of informants and electronic surveillance,
 - (ii) guidelines to circumscribe the use of informants or electronic surveillance to gather intelligence on, or investigate, groups that may be exercising first amendment freedoms, and
 - (iii) the proper response of intelligence or investigative agencies where information is developed that an informant has committed a crime.
- (d) Guidelines to consider the circumstances, if any, when an investigative agency or a component of that agency should be disqualified from taking an active role in an investigation because of an appearance of impropriety growing out of a particular intelligence or investigative action,
- (e) Definitions of the legislative scope and extent of "sources and methods" and the "informant privilege" as a rationale for the executive branch withholding information in response to Congressional or judicial process or other demand for information,
- (f) Institutionalizing efforts to coordinate the gathering, sharing, and analysis of intelligence information,
- (g) Insuring those agencies that primarily gather intelligence perform their function so as to serve the needs of other agencies that primarily engage in physical protection, and

C. Prosecution

1. The Judiciary Committee should consider the impact of the provisions of law dealing with third-party records, bail and speedy trial as it applies to both the investigation and prosecution of federally cognizable homicides.
2. The Judiciary Committee should examine recently passed special prosecutor legislation to determine if its provisions should be modified to extend them to presidential assassinations and the circumstances, if any, under which they should be applicable to other federally cognizable homicides.

II. Administrative Recommendations to the Executive

The Department of Justice should re-examine its contingency plans for the handling of assassinations and federally cognizable homicides in light of the record and findings of the Committee. Such an examination should consider the following issues:

- A. Insuring that its response takes full advantage of inter and intraagency task forces and the strike force approach to investigations and prosecutions,
- B. Insuring that its response takes full advantage of the advances of science and technology, and determining when it should secure independent panels of scientists to review or perform necessary scientific tasks, or secure qualified independent forensic pathologists to perform a forensic autopsy,
- C. Insuring that its fair trial/free press guidelines, consistent with an alleged offender's right to a fair trial, allow information about the facts and circumstances surrounding an assassination promptly be made public, and promptly be corrected when erroneous information is mistakenly released, and
- D. Entering at the current time into negotiations with representatives of the media to secure voluntary agreements providing that photographs, audio tapes, television tapes and related matters, made in and around the site of

III. General Recommendations for Congressional Investigations

- A. The appropriate Committees of the House should consider amending the Rules of the House to provide for a right to appointive counsel in investigative hearings where a witness is unable to provide counsel from private funds.
- B. The appropriate Committees of the House should examine the Rules of the House governing the conduct of counsel in legislative and investigative hearings and consider delineating guidelines for professional conduct and ethics, including guidelines to deal with conflicts of interest in the representation of multiple witnesses before a Committee.
- C. The Judiciary Committee should examine the adequacy of federal law as it provides for the production of federal and state prisoners before legislative or investigative committees under a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum.
- D. The appropriate Committees of the House should examine and clarify the applicability to Congressional subpoenas of recently enacted legislative restrictions on access to records and other documents.
- E. The appropriate Committees of the House should consider legislation that would authorize the establishment of a legislative counsel to conduct litigation on behalf of committees of the House incident to the investigative or legislative activities and confer jurisdiction on the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to hear such lawsuits.
- F. The appropriate committees of the House should consider if Rule 11 of the House should be amended, so as to restrict the current access by all Members of the House to the classified information in the possession of any committee.

IV. Recommendations for Further Investigation

- A. The Department of Justice should contract for the examination of a film taken by Charles L. Bronson to determine its significance, if any, to the assassination of President Kennedy.
- B. The National Institute of Law Enforcement

- C. The Department of Justice should review the Committee's findings and report in the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and after completion of the recommended investigation enumerated in Sections A and B, analyze whether further official investigation is warranted in either case. The Department of Justice should report its analysis to the Judiciary Committee.

FROM : C. S. Banner *CB*SUBJECT: REQUESTS BY HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)
FOR RETURN OF FINGERPRINT CARDS ON HSCA STAFF MEMBERS*HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS*

Reference my memorandum to Mr. LaPrade dated 6/29/78 and my memorandum to Mr. Mintz dated 7/13/78 which reported the temporary return to the HSCA of fingerprint cards on HSCA staff members.

PURPOSE: This is to report the final disposition of the HSCA fingerprint cards.

DETAILS: As reported in the referenced memoranda, thirty-two (32) applicant fingerprint cards, which had previously been submitted by the HSCA to the FBI in connection with background security checks of HSCA staff members, were returned to the HSCA at the written request of Congressman Louis Stokes, Chairman, HSCA. It was noted at the time that Congressman Stokes' requests indicated that the return of the cards would be on a temporary basis.

As the HSCA is scheduled to go out of existence on 12/31/78, on 12/12/78 I telephonically contacted Mr. Robert C. Morrison, Director of Security, HSCA, who had previously been instrumental in making the arrangements for the return of the HSCA fingerprint cards, to determine when the cards would be returned to the FBI. Mr. Morrison advised that he had discussed the matter with Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, and it had been decided that the cards would not be returned to the FBI but rather would be retained by the HSCA. Accordingly, the Identification Division will treat the returned HSCA fingerprint cards as having been purged and returned at the request of the contributor.

PURPOSE: To advise of a request by captioned committee for appropriate Bureau personnel to review the findings and conclusions of the committee with regard to its inquiry into the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King.

DETAILS: On 12/8/78, G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel of captioned committee requested Special Agents Ronald Heller and Drew J. Clark that the FBI provide appropriate Bureau personnel to consult with his staff regarding the sensitivity and accuracy of the findings and conclusions of the committee. This consultation will be restricted to a review of the sensitivity and classification problems that will appear in the committee's final report and also for obvious errors in fact. On 12/12/78, Professor Blakey, in consultation with Special Agent Danny O. Coulson, Legal Counsel Division, advised that this consultation should take place in committee space and that no copy of the draft will be allowed to leave the premises.

2 DEC 29 1978

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Records Management Division designate appropriate personnel familiar with classification matters and the investigation into both assassinations to participate in this consultation.

Subsequent contact with Mr. Blakey determined that the committee material will be available for review beginning at 9 am, 12/14/78. In addition, Mr. Blakey advised the material prepared by the committee will touch on Organized Crime, Cuban and Soviet matters, as well as forensic matters. Mr. Blakey agreed that it would be appropriate that Bureau personnel familiar with the above be included in the group selected to review the committee material beginning at 9 am, 12/14/78. In light of this development, steps have been taken to secure personnel from Criminal Investigative Division who are familiar with the Organized Crime and Cuban aspects, Intelligence Division to address both Cuban and Soviet aspects and Laboratory Division regarding forensic matters. These personnel, together with document classification experts and Agent personnel familiar with both the Kennedy and King assassinations from the Records Management Division, will constitute Bureau representation to review the committee material. This effort is being coordinated by SA Drew J. Clark, Records Management Division.

NOTE: This response has been coordinated with Legal Counsel Division (LCD) and Administrative Services Division (ASD). SA Heller, Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, LCD, has advised that the former Agents listed in the Committee's request have been released from employment agreements, briefed by LCD and the Committee advised of their availability. Inspector Illig, ASD, has authorized dissemination of certain information to HSCA since some pertinent documents and information were located in personnel files of former Agents de Brueys and Griffin and former clerk Walter. It is noted that de Brueys was interviewed by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence on January 8, 1976, and thereafter submitted a January 20, 1976, letterhead memorandum re his appearance.

It is also noted that certain excisions have been performed on several documents to be delivered to the HSCA in order to preclude an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of former Agents since the reasons for their disciplinary transfers to Dallas Division, three and five years prior to the assassination of President Kennedy, are not deemed material or relevant to the Committee's inquiry. The reason for the excisions will be plainly marked, as necessary, on the Committee's copy of the documents. New Orleans airtel to the Bureau dated January 2, 1979, captioned as above, states no extant record available re Walter's working or not working at New Orleans Field Office on August 10, 1963.

This is to confirm that an HSCA staff member has been advised concerning the availability of former Special Agents [REDACTED] Arnold J. Brown, (b)(7)(C) Manning C. Clements and Henry A. Schutz.

Retrievable documents, as requested and pertaining to former Special Agents Warren C. de Brueys and Will Hayden Griffin, are available for delivery to a Committee representative at Federal Bureau of Investigation Headquarters (FBIHQ). It is noted that de Brueys appeared and gave testimony to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence on January 8, 1976.

Retrievable records reflect that former Special Agent de Brueys was temporarily assigned to the Dallas Office of the FBI from November 23, 1963, to January 24, 1964, and was not assigned to that office, as a duty station, at any other time.

Retrievable records reflect that former Clerk, William S. Walter, was employed by the FBI at New Orleans, Louisiana, from June, 1961, to December 1961, and from August, 1962, to September, 1966. No record can be located, at this time, which would indicate that Walter did or did not work at the New Orleans Office of the FBI, on August 10, 1963.

Where information is not provided, it is either not retrievable from FBIHQ files or is not being produced pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding.

FBI to Make Gun Acoustic Tests at Site of JFK Slaying

Grassy Knoll Has Spurred Most Nagging Question

By Lance Gay

Washington Post Staff Writer

All the questions arising from assassination of President John F. Kennedy, none is considered so important as how many shots were fired at the Kennedy motorcade and in what direction they came.
Nothing has spurred as much as persisting testimony that shots were fired from the so-called knoll.

Conclusions of the Warren Commission depended on the theory that only three shots were fired, all from the sixth floor of the Texas
School Depository in Dealey
Plaza in Dallas at 12:30 p.m. on Nov.
22, 1963.

Trapnell, a 40-year-old former mental patient, had been wounded

New York in 1972 after hijacking an number of shots dates to the day of the assassination, when The Associgrassy knoll.

Six witnesses told the Warren Commission that they thought the shots came from the knoll — or that they saw a puff of smoke in the trees that flanked a stockade fence in back. And photographs show the crowd turning toward the knoll and pointing or walking in that direction; two persons fell to the ground as if to avoid more shots.

Panel Report to Include Evidence of Second Gunman

Panel Report to Include Evidence of Second Gunman

By Jeremiah O'Leary

Washington Post Staff Writer

FBI acoustical experts are expected to conduct independent gunshot tests at the scene of the murder of President John Kennedy after the House Assassinations Committee issues its final report.

That report will include new evidence indicating that there was a second gunman and a conspiracy.

FBI spokesmen declined comment on the content of the acoustics report, but said no immediate action is likely to be ordered by Director William Webster until the House panel formally makes its findings public early next year.

The FBI has continuing respectability for investigating all aspects of Kennedy's death under the law giving the FBI automatic jurisdiction in attacks on public officials.

One source said the FBI has experts in the acoustics of gunshots who are considered at least as skillful as the private consultants who produced the report this week that indicated Kennedy's death was the result of a conspiracy.

INFORMED SOURCES said berean officials were appalled last week when G. Robert Blaney, the committee chief counsel, notified them that the acoustics experts had turned up evidence indicative of a conspiracy to kill Kennedy.

Although Garach ruled that the prosecutors could not tell the jury about the alleged organized criminal activities of the Unione Carriers, by Thomas Gambino, son of the late Mafia boss Carlo Gambino, prosecutors did call as witnesses several people who worked for Thomas Gambino or his associates.

Among those witnesses were convicted labor extortionist Edward A.

federal protection and have testifiof the shots said that the shots had come from the knoll, no thorough investigation was made of this area.

"VERY FEW of the witnesses who thought the shots had come from the knoll were questioned and no full examination was made of photographs of the knoll area for indications of a second assassin. . . . The investigation of the threshold question was thus a limited and relatively superficial one which never pursued answers to many important questions."

The Warren Commission found only three shots were fired, all from the rear of the presidential limousine.

The commission said the first shot — called by conspiracy buffs the "magic bullet" because of its seemingly convoluted course and "pristine" condition — hit Kennedy in the back just below the neck, passed through into the back of Texas Gov. John B. Connally, smashed through Connally's rib, out his chest, hit his wrist and lodged in his leg.

which not only the victims but the families suffer.

Q: Has that happened?

A: In fact, it has happened in every case. In the long run it was counterproductive. The terrorism of the Palestinians hasn't recovered one square foot of Palestine for the Arabs. And the terrorism of IRA has not brought the reunification of Ireland any closer. Indeed, it's made it almost inconceivable, so much so that the majority of the Irish population doesn't want this boiling cauldron of a providence to come into it anyway.

Q: More generally, you've written about kidnapping as both a criminal's and terrorist's tool worldwide. Do you see it growing?

A: I don't think so. However, I don't think it will ever disappear. What will happen is that, although it pays in the short term, it doesn't pay in the long term, so each individual terrorist movement will be relatively short-lived, as has been the case, and it will lose its support.

Q: You've expressed concern about the American Freedom of Information Act, which permits an individual to see confidential files held on him by the government. What is your concern?

A: If someone, an individual or his lawyer, has access to a file about him, obviously, the intelligence taken such a circuitous course.

"There could not have been a lone assassin with that Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, serial C1766, not if he were the world's best rifleman, and Oswald was one of the poorest."

The sources said the FBI disputed this conclusion because it did not take into account the possibility that there could have been two independent gunmen present — Oswald in his perch above and behind the president and a second gunman in front of and to the right on the "grassy knoll."

FBI officials, it was reported, asked Blakey last week when he disclosed the new evidence whether there also was evidence that the two supposed gunmen were working as a team. The point was raised with Blakey by the FBI that if there was a second sniper on the grassy knoll this did not mean for certain the marksmen were conspirators.

Investigators said the FBI says it never found anyone at the Dallas scene who claims to have seen anyone on the knoll with a gun or running away with anything resembling a rifle.

NO WITNESS or expert, including the committee photographic panel, was able to testify that the photograph depicted a man with a rifle on the hillock.

The House committee is required by law to complete its work by Dec. 31, the day it goes out of existence. However, the full report might not be available for several weeks.

The committee may have to rewrite major portions of the 600 pages it has prepared on the Kennedy case in light of the new acoustical findings.

It has been generally accepted that Lee Harvey Oswald fired three shots from the sixth-floor window of the Texas School Book Depository after the president's car passed his vantage point and headed toward the grassy knoll ahead and to the right of the motorcade in Dealey Plaza in Dallas, Texas.

But the findings of the FBI and the Warren Commission that Oswald was a lone assassin were thrown into question Monday when acoustical experts informed the House committee that there is a 95 percent certainty that there was a fourth shot fired at Kennedy from the grassy knoll.

BLAKEY, the chief counsel of the committee, said that if there were two gunmen firing from two different vote on the wording of the reports on who killed Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and how the murders were committed.

The new acoustics findings were presented to about seven committed members Monday behind closed doors by a new team of experts, Mark Weiss and Ernie Oskenski of Queens College, N.Y. That meeting had been for the purpose of working on some of the final language of the report but when Blakey informed members that there was new evidence, the members decided they ought to hear it before any more drafting was done on the report.

WEISS AND Oskenski reported that they had taken the tapes made from the broadcast of an open transmitter on a Dallas police motorcycle in Dealey Plaza and eliminated much of the static. They then compared the tapes of the actual shooting with test shots made under similar conditions and made "fingerprints" of the actual and the test shots. The echoes, committee sources said, were identical and provided physical evidence that four shots had been fired in Dealey Plaza as Kennedy drove by.

The tests, according to the committee, showed that the third of the four shots was the one that came from the grassy knoll.

Rep. Harold Sawyer, R-Mich., who first disclosed the new evidence publicly in a radio interview, said the experts synchronized the recordings of the real shots with the film of Abraham Zapruder.

"It was a grisly thing to see," said Sawyer. "It appeared to me that there was some movement of the president's head in conjunction with the third shot."

BUT SAWYER said he was not yet ready to accept the new evidence as conclusive even though other committee sources said the evidence "cannot be ignored and cannot be explained."

The new information indicates only that there were four shots fired, that the third one came from ahead of the president's entourage while Oswald was firing from above and behind, and that all four shots were supersonic. Sawyer said this meant that all four shots were fired from rifles, since virtually all rifle bullets travel faster than the speed of sound while pistol bullets do not.

The dilemma created for the House committee is that it may leave

Number of Shots Fired at Kennedy Is Critical Assassination Question

Yet in its final report the Warren Commission concluded:

"In contrast to the testimony of the witnesses who heard and observed shots fired from the depository, the commission's investigation has disclosed no credible evidence that any shots were fired from anywhere else."

In support of that conclusion, the panel noted that no cartridge cases were found on the hill and no credible reports were received from witnesses.

The grassy knoll — it is actually just a small, grass-covered highway bank — was to the front and right of Kennedy's limousine as it turned onto Elm Street and into Dealey Plaza, and any shots from there would have come from ahead. The shots from the depository building came from behind.

A GOOD DEAL of the controversy has come over the Warren Commission's refusal to accept the testimony of many witnesses. To have accepted testimony of shots from the knoll would have led the commission to conclude there were two assassins.

Private investigators into the case have long maintained that the commission should have heeded this testimony. Lawyer Mark Lane in his book "Rush to Judgment" maintains that of the estimated 400 witnesses in Dealey Plaza that day, 90 were asked by police where the shots came from and 54 replied that the shots came from the grassy knoll.

"Witnesses heard shots come from the knoll. Witnesses saw smoke on the knoll. One witness even smelled gunpowder behind the fence," Lane wrote. "There is some evidence that one or more shots may have been fired from the book depository, as the Warren Commission maintained. It is considerably less compelling than the evidence suggesting that shots came from behind the fence."

TO CONTEND, however, that shots came from the knoll is not to say that no shots were fired from elsewhere. But it is impossible to contend at one and the same time that some shots came from the fence and that a lone assassin — Oswald — fired from the book depository window.

"As the commission was to remain faithful to the latter conclusion, it had first to prove that no shots came from the knoll. In attempting to do so, the report cited evidence out of context, ignored and reshaped evidence and — which is perhaps worse — oversimplified evidence."

Edward J. Epstein, author of "Inquest," says that "despite the fact that almost all the witnesses on the knoll or with a view of the knoll who expressed an opinion as to the source

THE SECOND BULLET, the commission maintained, went wild, hitting the pavement and wounding a bystander.

A third bullet, the fatal one, struck Kennedy in the back of the head, the commission reported.

After examining movie film made by Abraham Zapruder, former Haverford College Professor Josiah Thompson concluded there were actually four shots — the first from the book depository, the second from the roof of the nearby county records building, a third shot that hit Kennedy in the back of the head and a fourth that hit him in the head and was fired from the front — presumably from the area of the grassy knoll.

Pictures taken by another cameraman, Orville Nix, though hazy, show what appears to be a man pointing what could be a long-barreled pistol from a cream-colored Rambler station wagon parked behind the fence at the top of the knoll. One witness later told investigators he had seen a commotion in that area. But photographic analysis has not substantiated that theory.

IN A 1975 article in New Times magazine, Robert Sam Anson said that a policeman who ran to the hill after the shots were fired told the FBI, "I pulled my gun from my holster and I thought, 'This is silly. I don't know who I am looking for,' and put it back. Just as I did he (the man at whom Smith had been pointing his weapon) showed me that he was a Secret Service agent."

"There is only one problem. The Secret Service's own records show there were no Secret Service men on the grassy knoll," Anson wrote.

"Indeed, a lot of people were where they shouldn't have been that day. Winston Lawson, the Secret Service agent responsible for the choice of the Kennedy motorcade route, later reported that motorcycle outriders were posted on the 'left and right flanks of the president's car' (a position that would have made a cross-fire more difficult).

"But as the films of the motorcade clearly indicate, the motorcycles were posted well to the rear of the president's car, and according to the Dallas police were positioned there at Lawson's own instructions. After the shooting, the doors of the school book depository were sealed; a man was 'trapped inside' who didn't belong there. He was James W. Powell, an Army intelligence agent."

OTHER CONSPIRACY BUFFS have long contended that Oswald could not have acted alone and fired three bullets in quick succession as the Warren Commission maintained. Nor, they contend, is it likely that the so-called "magic bullet" could have maintains Harold Weisberg, the author of "Whitewash."

But the House Assassinations Committee, during public hearings this fall, produced experts to show that one assassin could have fired the three shots and even that the "magic bullet" could have done its damage and emerged relatively intact.

In one analysis of the Warren Commission's findings, Sylvia Meagher concludes that there "is a considerable body of evidence suggesting that shots were fired from the grassy knoll on Elm Street."

SHE MAINTAINS that the Warren Commission bent over backwards to avoid testimony and photographs it possessed when it concluded that the only shots came from the book depository.

The groups and individuals looking into the Kennedy assassination have suggested a Persian market of theories, from mundane to exotic, concerning the nature of the conspiracy.

Most theories center around Cuba, organized crime or the CIA.

These range from charges that the assassination was backed by either anti-Castro or pro-Castro groups, or Castro himself. Anti-Castro groups were angered with Kennedy, feeling betrayed by a lack of air support during the Bay of Pigs invasion. Others point to pro-Castro groups and even Castro, angry at Kennedy for embarking on that invasion and for attempts by American intelligence agencies to assassinate Castro. (Those attempts were never reported to the Warren Commission.)

OTHER THEORIES revolve around plots by organized crime figures to stop government investigations of the Teamsters Union and Mafia funding; a plot by Texas oilmen against Kennedy; a conspiracy by right-wing groups such as the Ku Klux Klan.

And they include the bizarre: an effort by Kennedy to have himself killed because he had some sort of incurable disease; a plot by Lyndon Johnson to take over the government.

It has even been suggested that the fatal shot came from a Secret Service agent's revolver, either by mistake or on purpose.

Hugh MacDonald, who was Barry Goldwater's chief of security in the 1964 campaign, wrote a book in which he maintained that he had met the real assassin — a professional killer he called "Saul." MacDonald said Saul was the man photographed outside the Cuban Embassy in Mexico

Dealey Plaza shots re-enacted

By JOHN MAKEIG
Star-Telegram Writer

DALLAS — The sharp cracks of 6.5mm rifle shots sounded anew over Dealey Plaza here about 7 a.m. Sunday, then continued for 1½ hours in what had been widely billed as a re-enactment of the assassination of President Kennedy.

It was a "re-enactment" in the sense that two Dallas policemen, using the same kind of Italian-made rifles and firing from the sixth floor of the old Texas School Book Depository, fired about 40 shots into three stacks of sandbags exactly where shots struck Kennedy's motorcade Nov. 23, 1963.

But there the similarities ended.

The purpose of the shooting was to provide acoustical data for the Cambridge, Mass., firm of Bolt, Beranek & Newman to analyze. The firm has challenged Warren Commission conclusions that only three shots were fired onto the motorcade from the depository building, saying there may have been four or five fired.

Dallas police spokesman Bob Shaw said he was uncertain how long it will be before results of the test firings are made known.

A crowd of hundreds assembled to watch the tests, most of them news media representatives from Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, Austin and national television networks. Some were from as far away as Germany and Japan.

Most of them were expecting a barrage of rounds to be fired as officers tried to squeeze off shots in a span of a few seconds, as the Warren Commission said Lee Harvey Oswald did in killing the president. And they expected to be kept back from the scene.

Instead, they ended up jamming barricades erected around the base of the depository, and

They had to wait for as long as five minutes between shots.

"I thought they'd try to do it in three seconds," one youth said, walking off after a half-hour.

"This is a part of history," said John Ruise of Crown Point, Pa., who is in Dallas to attend a Veterans of Foreign Wars convention. "I thought more people would come."

The ones who did come mostly stood in silence as rounds fired from Mannlicher-Carcano rifles thudded into the stacks of sandbags.

Shaw said it was a stuck microphone on a Dallas policeman's radio Nov. 23, 1963, that made the tests necessary.

When he heard the radio recordings, Shaw said, he didn't hear much of interest.

"They tell me if you're prepared for it (in listening to the recordings)," Shaw said, "you can tell there are changes."

Based on those "changes" the Massachusetts firm found it necessary to delve deeper into the subject.

If they can determine that more than three shots were fired at the motorcade, it will bring the Warren Commission's conclusion of a lone gunman into question.

To assist the firm, Dallas police set up roadblocks for a wide area around Dealey Plaza, then set about firing the rifles from the depository's sixth floor. Other shots were fired from a grassy knoll near the building. And one shot was fired from a .38-caliber revolver, Shaw said.

Bolt, Beranek & Newman employees set up numerous sound monitoring devices along Houston and Elm streets and in the area.

One staff member from the House Assassinations Committee also attended the tests, Shaw said.

4 'bullet noises' heard in assassination tape

By Bob Dudley

Times Herald Washington Bureau

Sophisticated acoustical testing of a Dallas police tape-recording at the scene of President Kennedy's assassination furnished evidence today of a fourth gunshot which may have been fired at the Dallas motorcade November 22, 1963.

While the analysis of the recording was not clearly determined as conclusive of a heretofore unknown gunshot, the testing by the Cambridge, Massachusetts firm of Bolt, Beranek, and Newman indicated there was a high probability of such an event.

The firm's chief scientist, James E.

Barger, told the House Select Committee on Assassinations that the scientific assessments of the tape and a late reconstruction of the event showed four significant impulses created by the echoes and reverberations within Dealey Plaza.

"Is it fair to say there is evidence of four shots on the Dallas police tape?" Staff Counsel Gary Cornwell asked Barger after his lengthy and detailed presentation of test results.

"Yes," Barger answered. "That is a possible conclusion."

The Warren Commission concluded in 1964 that Lee Harvey Oswald probably fired only three shots at President Ken-ard. The first struck the President and former Texas Governor John Connally. The second was found to have missed entirely while the third fatally wounded the president in the head.

Evidence of a fourth gunshot, if corroborated, would suggest the presence of a second assassin firing simultaneously at the president because the space of time between the shots was too short for Oswald to have reloaded his rifle (or refiring, approximately 2.3 seconds).

Barger's conclusions were that the second impulse came 1.8 seconds after the initial sound. Another 5.9 seconds intervened before the third shot. A fourth came about half a second later.

These conclusions also would be significant in that the span of time between the first and second, and the third and fourth shots would have come too quickly.

Chief Counsel Robert Blakey acknowledged that the presentation of the Massachusetts research firm, which also performed testing on the infamous eighteen and one-half minute gap in President Nixon's White House tapes, "will be troubling to some." He emphasized no sensational conclusions should be drawn.

"I would caution against those who would too quickly draw sensational conclusions from this evidence," Blakey said. "A final resolution of the questions that may be raised by today's evidence must await the conclusion of our hearings and the submission of our final report."

But the presentation of the Bolt, Beranek, and Newman analysis appears certain to fan renewed speculation that a conspiracy involving more than one assassin was behind the murder of the President.

The committee obtained the tape recording, which a Dallas motorcycle officer accidentally made during the gunfire, earlier this year from former Assistant Police Chief Paul McCaghen.

McCaghen is now a private investigator in Dallas.

The committee immediately turned the recording over to the Cambridge firm for analysis. Barger said the firm employed various sophisticated filtering devices, not available at the time of the Warren Commission, to separate out extraneous noise and leave aural impulses which might signify gunfire. There were 17 such occurrences in all, Barger said.

On August 20, the panel recreated the sequence of gunfire in Dallas and the results, tape recorded by numerous microphones placed at various points along the motorcade route, were compared visually and electronically with the tape recording made accidentally by the motorcycle radio.

The comparison, Barger said, disclosed four separate correlations of the known sound of gunfire and other impulses on the original tape. The probability of the correlations were at a level said to be greater than mere coincidence or "false alarms."

In the presentation of the evidence, which took the form of a scientific detective story, Barger said his firm employed six separate screening tests to determine whether the echo patterns on the tape might not be gunfire.

In these tests, Barger said, the firm rerecorded gunfire through a police radio to determine distortion of waveforms eliminated occurrences of other radio transmissions, eliminated the barely-audible sound of a carillon bell tolling in the background and determined the time sequence of the alleged shots.

From the analysis, Barger placed the sharpest estimate of the time of the first shot at 12 seconds past 12:30 p.m. on November 22, 1963 and concluded the final alleged shot came about 10 seconds later.

Although he was asked to make the attempt, Barger testified he could not identify the type of rifle used in the slaying because of the distorted patterns reflected on the motorcycle recording.

Witness sticks by Warren report

By KENT BIFFLE

Sunday's reenactment of the Kennedy assassination failed to change the opinion of at least one assassination witness.

The president of the Dallas Police Association, firing range officer Bobby Joe Dale, 45, said, "I agree with the Warren Commission."

Dale, who recalls hearing three shots on Nov. 22, 1963, was on a motorcycle five vehicles behind the presidential limousine.

After listening to the shooting Sunday, he said he had difficulty distinguishing the direction from which the bullets were fired just as he did the day Kennedy died.

The area surrounding the old Texas School Book Depository building is an acoustical freak. Echoes bounce around confusingly.

But Dale said the shots fired from the 6th-floor window Sunday sounded "similar" to those that killed Kennedy and wounded Gov. John Connally.

He noted, however, the changes to the neighborhood — new buildings and 15 years' growth to the trees.

The shooting attracted only a few sightseers to the cordoned-off area.

One woman motorist drove past one of the sandbag targets on Main after four shots had been fired. Police re-routed her.

A traveler who apparently dropped off a passing freight train wandered within 20 yards of a target before police shoed him away. He seemed undisturbed by all the shooting.

Newsmen on rooftops spotted a couple lying atop a monument in Dealey Plaza, within the restricted area. Unworried by the proximity of the targets, the man and woman apparently wanted a close-up view of the shooting.

At no time did the crowd of viewers at Elm and Houston number more than 100. Often newsmen outnumbered sightseers.

Police blocked off the test area at 5:30 a.m. An 18-year-old nursing student, Tammy Midkiff, had been partying all night with Arthur Zapeda, a 20-year-old painter, and Miss Laurie Morrison, 18, a student bartender. "We just decided to stay up all night and come see," Miss Midkiff said.

Only a few of the thousands attending the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention showed up to view the test.

Observers recall JFK assassination

One of them, John Ruiz, a 59-year-old steelworker from Crown Point, Ind., said, "I've never really accepted the idea that Oswald was alone."

Tony Piccola, 59, a night security man at First City Bank, said, "I always felt Oswald acted alone — but with Castro in mind."

Piccola was serving lunch to customers at his now defunct Corvair Restaurant when he heard that Kennedy had been killed. "One guy just sat looking at his beer saying 'Damn it. Damn it,'" he remembered.

Piccola carries a photo of Kennedy in his wallet. "I loved the man."

Mrs. Geraldine Walker, a 57-year-old cab driver, said, "A lot of my fares are afraid of this city because of the assassination. Asians particularly fear Dallas."

She believes there was a conspiracy to kill Kennedy. "I think Oswald was killed to keep him from talking. There was a lot he could have told us."

Dick Seifer, 36, was recording the shots on an 8-channel machine. A salesman for Hewlett-Packard, an electronics firm, Seifer said he plans to do his own analysis of the gunfire test.

Mrs. Cathy Compton, 25-year-old wife of police marksman Jerry Compton, took photos inside the un-air-conditioned building while her husband blasted away. "It was hot as the devil up there," she said as she walked out into the bright sunlight.

One of the onlookers was Don Gazzaway, 43-year-old Mesquite librarian who played JFK in ABC-TV's "The Trial of Lee Harvey Oswald." Gazzaway, who resembles Kennedy, said, "I was on the screen about half a minute."

A bit player in locally filmed movies, most recently in the "Dallas" TV series, Gazzaway said he refuses to do commercials, not because of his Kennedy-like features but because "I hate commercials."

A pretty brunette movie actress ("Logan's Run" and "Hooper"), Debbie Pruitt, 21, said she'd traveled from Los Angeles to witness the tests. She said she's researching the Kennedy case for a group of California movie makers. She not only believes there was a conspiracy against Kennedy but a conspiracy against the movie makers who are planning the Kennedy film. "A couple of people have been hurt," she said, explaining that their cars were "tamp-ered with." She declined to elaborate on the nature of the planned film.

"I can't stand that Kennedy Memorial," she said. "Looks like they left out something."

The monument attracted only a few of those gathered at the police barricades.

About 50 Dallas policemen took part in Sunday's tests. A police spokesman said the cost was expected to be about $2,000. He indicated the city may bill the committee because of overtime pay for some officers and a street crew made necessary by the acoustical researchers' delays.

Police reported that diverted traffic was light. Most disturbed by all the gunfire were the pigeons that fluttered up with each shot.

Nov. 22 re-enacted

Police fire rifles, pistol in Dealey Plaza

By ERIC MILLER
 (The Dallas Morning News, 1978)

Three Dallas police sharpshooters spent more than four hours Sunday morning re-enacting the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, including firing a pistol from behind the grassy knoll where some assassination buffs have theorized a second assassin may have been hiding.

The sharpshooters fired 56 live rounds into sandbags placed strategically at four different locations in Dealey Plaza where President Kennedy met his death nearly 15 years ago.

The re-enactment, conducted at the request of the House Assassinations Committee, was tape-recorded by the firm that analyzed the 18 1/2-minute gap in President Nixon's Watergate tapes and included the use of a highly sophisticated recording system. Officials hope the re-enactment and comparison with a tape recording made during the assassination will help to determine how many shots were fired at Kennedy Nov. 22, 1963.

THE OFFICERS — Identified as C.I. Metcalf, Jerry Compton and Tom Knighten — fired two 6.5mm Italian-made Mannlicher Carcano rifles, identical to the rifle believed used by accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, and a .38-caliber Smith and Wesson pistol.

Neither police, acoustical experts, nor committee members would explain the reason for firing the pistol and police spokesman Bob Shaw said police officials were unaware of the committee's desire to include the pistol shots in the re-enactment until a meeting held late Saturday afternoon.

The pistol was fired only from behind the grassy knoll.

Only a small crowd of onlookers braved the early morning hours to watch the police officers fire the rifles from both the 6th floor window of the Texas School Book Depository Building, where officials believe Oswald was perched, and the well-known grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza.

THE OFFICERS' targets were three piles of sandbags stacked at three locations on Elm Street, just west of Houston. One of the piles was moved three times to a fourth location on Main Street near the triple underpass where a bullet was believed to have ricocheted.

Sunday's re-creation, recorded from a dozen microphones that were moved three times to different locations during the test, was conducted by acoustical experts Bolt, Beranek & Newman, of Cambridge, Mass. The test will attempt to provide further insight into a recording of the assassination made by a Dallas police officer's shortwave radio transmitter that could dispute the Warren Commission's conclusions that only three shots were fired during the assassination.

The firm also recorded the shots fired Sunday over a police transmitter to simulate the recording made in 1963.

recording was reportedly presented to the committee about three weeks ago and concluded that four — and possibly five — shots may have been fired at the president. But James Barger, heading the Dallas re-enactment for the acoustics firm, declined to comment on that report or the success of Sunday's test. Barger said his firm's analysis would be presented to the committee sometime in September.

At no time did the sharpshooters attempt to fire their weapons in rapid succession, indicating that the test was not intended to determine how quickly a marksman could fire the Italian-made bolt-action rifle.

While some of the shots fired by sharpshooters in Sunday's re-creation were less than one minute apart, some came as long as 17 minutes apart.

NEITHER OF the two officers who shot the Italian rifle were complimentary of it. But Jerry Compton said he easily could fire three shots into a stationary target in less than 6 seconds. Many proponents of conspiracy theories involving the assassination contend that the weapon supposedly used to kill Kennedy could not have been fired quickly enough to account for all the shots fired at the presidential motorcade.

Activity for Sunday's re-creation actually began at 5 a.m., when about 50 Dallas police tactical officers began sealing off Dealey Plaza to both automobile and pedestrian traffic. The actual firing began at 7:10 a.m. and ended at 11:28 a.m.

Test shots fired at site of JFK's assassination

By MARY ELSON
Staff Writer

For five hours Sunday morning, gun shots reverberated through the plaza in Dallas where John F. Kennedy died almost 15 years ago, as acoustical experts hired by the House Select Committee on Assassinations attempted to recreate the sound of bullets that killed the president on Nov. 22, 1963.

Using microphones mounted on tripods along the last two blocks of the fatal route, the experts recorded the crack of 56 shots fired by Dallas police sharpshooters from the sixth-floor window of the Texas School Book Depository and the grass-covered knoll near the spot where the presidential motorcade passed that day.

Three police motorcycles in front of the Book Depository were revved up during part of the tests to simulate a portion of the background noise during the assassination.

The test shots were fired from varying angles into three sets of sandbags positioned at the spots on the street where Kennedy was hit. Twelve microphones resting on X's marked in yellow tape were moved three times in order to record the noise from different locations.

The Boston acoustical firm of Bolt, Beranek & Newman, headed by Dr. James Burger, is expected to compare the sound of the shots recorded Sunday with a Dallas police tape recording made on the day of the assassination. That tape contains a sound the firm believes might be a fourth shot.

After the partial re-enactment, Burger reportedly refused to answer questions about the tests.

"I'm sorry, but I really can't say anything until all the data is analyzed," he said.

Burger said the team's findings will be announced during public hearings beginning in September.

Acoustics experts make shots tests

The gunfire began at 7:10 a.m. and ended at noon, about two and a half hours later than expected.

"We got a lot of our microphone cords tangled," Barger said.

The re-enactment was watched by four committee staff members, including deputy chief counsel Gary Cornwell, researcher Margo Jones and investigators Al Maxwell and Jack Moriarty. Two Secret Service agents, two members of the Dallas County Historical Society and Dallas County Public Works Director C. Judson Shook also were on the sixth floor of the book depository at various times.

No committee members were present.

Police sharpshooters Jerry Compton and C.L. McCall fired 8.3 mm Mannlicher Carcano rifles, similar to Lee Harvey Oswald's, into the two-foot tall targets made of six bound sandbags.

The department already had one of the Italian-made guns; another was purchased especially for the test from a local gun dealer for $69, said police spokesman Bob Shaw.

Behind the city would be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in the test. Original costs were expected to be about $1,800, but Shaw estimated the total would run slightly more than $2,000 because of the time overrun.

Police originally had been told only rifles would be used in the test, but during a meeting with police Saturday afternoon, staff members requested that a sharpshooter also fire a .38-caliber snub-nosed revolver from behind a fence on the grassy knoll.

The acoustical team and staff members refused to say why the revolver was requested. The gun is the same type Oswald used to kill officer J. D. Tippitt on the day of the assassination.

The three sharpshooters, detailed by Deputy Police Chief John Driscoll as "the best we've got," hit the small orange targets on the sandbags with all 36 shots.

With the sharpshooters was Patrolman Bobby Joe Duke, who 15 years ago rode in the president's motorcade escort.

Tapes indicate that three shots were fired in less than six seconds on the day of the assassination, but no shots during the Sunday test were fired in rapid succession. Several minutes elapsed between each of the 36 reports.

Asked why no rapid shots were fired, Cornwell said, "We thought a long time about it and decided to do it the way we did."

Shaw said the marksmen had practiced with the rifles before the tests, but never had tried to duplicate the three rapid shots heard on the tape.

"I doubt very seriously that they could do it," Shaw said.

The seven-person acoustical team began setting up equipment at the intersection of Houston and Elm Streets about 5:30 a.m., covering the pavement with microphones and hundreds of feet of cord leading to a U-Haul trailer filled with sensitive and expensive electronic gadgetry.

At the same time, more than 100 local, state and national news reporters set up their own recording and camera equipment on the rooftops of the Records Building, Bonham Terminal and the Hyatt Regency. Dozens of other reporters watched the re-enactment on the streets with binoculars, who stood behind orange barricades next to the Book Depository and the Records Building.

The crowd of about 100 was made up of assassination buffs, amateur photographers, night-shift taxi drivers, foreign visitors and a large number of pure curiosity seekers. Many came because they saw a crowd and wondered what was happening; others said they had nothing better to do at 6 a.m. on a Sunday.

Nineteen-year-old Steve Heller of Houston, who says he had spent the last 14 years reading everything he could find about the assassination, was not alone in expecting a slightly more sensational scene than he witnessed.

"I'd heard they were going to be shooting at each other and have a motorcade and everything," he said. "But I want to see it anyway — I guess so I could say I was there when they re-enacted the assassination."

Police originally had planned to allow only media representatives near the site of the re-enactment but later opened the area to the public because the turnout was so small.

Sounds of darkest hour ring out again in Dallas

By ROBERT T. GARRETT
Staff Writer

They stole into Dallas quietly, in the dead of night, and slipped silently away as the scorching August sun climbed in the midday sky.

When the city where Camelot died 15 years ago finally stirred to life Sunday, the only noise left at Dealey Plaza was the low humming of street-sweepers that whisked away the debris strewn across the pavement on which John F. Kennedy was killed.

As all but 100 or so of its citizens turned a deaf ear, Dallas re-enacted the sounds of its darkest hour in the latest effort by the House Select Committee on Assassinations to untangle the murder of the president.

For five hours, the congressional panel's investigators and a team of acoustics experts orchestrated a slow drum roll of 56 gunshots, each striking sand bags and echoing into a dozen microphones spotted along the path Kennedy's motorcade traveled at approximately 12:30 p.m. on Nov. 22, 1963.

They called it a new-technology test of an old piece of physical evidence that the Warren Commission collected — a tape recording of the fatal shots as registered on the jammed receiver of a motorcycle officer's police radio.

But in every direction that observers on rooftops and atop platforms turned, the syndicate's evidence loomed larger than the confounding evidence under way below.

Committee clears up some JFK-killing questions while raising some others

The committee repeatedly cautioned against drawing a hasty conclusion about the analysis, but a number of conspiracy-oriented groups already have begun referring to the mysterious "fourth shot" as a hard, solid fact, which the panel will have difficulty explaining.

In a tough and often acrimonious interrogation of former CIA Director Richard Helms, the panel established that the agency withheld from the commission the fact it had been formulating plots against Fidel Castro's life. Although it presented no evidence that the schemes forced the Cuban leader to retaliate against Kennedy, it repeatedly suggested Castro might have taken it as provocation.

The committee's investigation also disclosed that in the weeks following the assassination 27 documents were found missing from Oswald's CIA dossier. Although the CIA has insistently denied the agency ever had any formal ties to the presumed assassin, the disclosure that files had been removed is almost certain to heighten speculation about CIA involvement with Oswald. The panel is still trying to locate the missing papers, but is openly doubtful they will ever be recovered.

Perhaps the single most important uncertainty about the president's slaying remains Oswald's motive for killing him, and in this matter the committee could do no better than the commission, which ascribed no motive specifically.

Like the commission, the panel seemed to rely most heavily on the assassin's widow, Marina Oswald Porter, who at first said she simply could not imagine Oswald's reason but under pressure said it was probably his desire for notoriety.

In the absence of a clearly determined reason for Oswald's alleged crime, the committee went to great lengths to explore possible conspiracies that may have supplied the motivation, ranging from a possible conspiracy directed by Castro to complicity with the KGB, Russia's secret intelligence apparatus.

Going as far as to obtain a four-hour tape-recorded interview with Castro, in which he denied any role in the assassination or advance knowledge of its planning, the committee nevertheless was clearly unable to prove other assassins were not involved — a feat the Warren panel also found impossible to perform.

"I recognize there have been loose ends which we hope to be able to tie down in our final report," Chairman Louis Stokes, D-Ohio, acknowledged at the conclusion of the hearings. "But, frankly, life itself contains loose ends . . . not every question that is asked can be answered, and those that can be answered cannot be answered to the satisfaction of all."

Nevertheless, the committee at one point seemed to invite second-guessing about conspiracy with the assertion of Chief Counsel Robert Blakey that American crime figures, angry at the Kennedy administration's war on syndicate operations, had the means, motivation and opportunity to kill the president.

"The question of organized crime involvement is still an open one," said Blakey, who as a specialist in Mafia operations seemed especially enamored with the prospect. "Nothing that has been uncovered excludes it. And much that is new points toward it."

But Blakey's suspicion seemed to rest heavily on a claim by a former Cuban exile, Jose Aleman, that he was told by Florida Crime Chieftain Santo Trafficante in June 1963 that Kennedy would never be re-elected because he was going to be "hit." There was no other evidence of such organized crime involvement presented publicly.

Yet when brought before the panel to repeat his statement Aleman, a former FBI informant, openly wavered, allowing for the first time that Trafficante might have only meant Kennedy would suffer a crushing defeat at the polls. After receiving a grant of immunity, the Florida mobster gave his own emphatic denial he ever discussed assassination.

In the controversy and skepticism that is certain to follow the committee's final report, whatever its conclusions, it is probable that its solid scientific and documentary work will be overlooked, possibly because it explodes many cherished conspiracy theories and backs up the Warren Commission in many important ways.

Perhaps the most persistent conspiracy theory in the years since the assassination has been the possibility that an Oswald "impostor" actually performed the slaying, even though the main problem is that it assumes the double's main purpose was to frame Oswald rather than kill the president.

But in painstaking handwriting and photographic analysis, comparing the assassin's letters and signed papers, the committee was able to establish the Oswald who was arrested by the Dallas police was the same one who served in the Marines in the 1950s, ruling out the possibility of an impostor.

On another occasion, Oswald's handwriting was verified on a previously undiscovered photograph of the assassin standing in his backyard, posing defiantly with his Mannlicher-Carcano rifle and a pistol hanging from his belt. The handwriting affirmed the authenticity of the photo — one Oswald, and numerous conspiracy theorists, had claimed to be fake designed to frame the presumed assassin.

Another eccentric conspiracy saga was cashiered by the panel with its discovery of the "umbrella man," a bystander who was mysteriously opening a large black umbrella when Kennedy's motorcade passed by. Volumes had been written about the curious figure's supposed role in the slaying, but when the "umbrella man" came out of the cold he turned out to be only Louis Steven Witt, a mild-mannered Dallas insurance worker who had merely intended to huddle the president.

Besides the dismissal of several overt conspiracy theories, the committee also presented scientific evidence that added strong support to a number of the Warren Commission's most important — a most highly criticized — evidentiary findings.

A panel of forensic experts assembled by the committee reviewed the original autopsy records of the president's wounds and determined two distinct gunshots — fired from the rear — struck and killed Kennedy. There was no evidence, the panel found, of any gunfire from the front of the motorcade as repeatedly asserted by free-lance assassination investigators.

The so-called "single bullet" theory, or the Warren Commission's conclusion that one gunshot hit both Kennedy and Gov. John Connally, also was bolstered by scientific analysis.

Forensic pathologists, photographic experts and even engineers hired by the committee to analyze the crucial single-bullet assertion all testified it was not only possible but probable that one, high-powered rifle slug, fired from the sixth floor window of the Depository building, struck Kennedy and Connally.

The conclusion that one shot hit both men has been vigorously attacked by Warren Commission critics, who claim since one bullet could not have inflicted the wounds both men suffered, another bullet — fired by a second gunman — had to have been involved.

And in a remarkable tracing of the trajectory of the bullets, reconstructed through a scientific analysis of the bullet wounds in Kennedy and Connally, NASA engineer Tom Canning told the committee the path of the shots led directly back to the area of the Depository's sixth floor, where the Warren Commission said Oswald's sniper's perch was located.

Perhaps as much as the discovery of new evidence or the re-verification of the old, however, the committee's main-dary intent, was to present the assassination case to the public, in the words of one top staff member, "almost as a trial." By dramatizing the facts of the case the panel hoped to furnish a coherent version of the evidence from which the public might draw its own conclusions.

In preparing a surrogate hearing for Oswald, who was killed before going to trial for Kennedy's murder, the committee appears to have at least partially succeeded, clearing up suspicions even the Warren Commission's supporters have harbored.

But when the panel finally sits down to assess perhaps the most enigmatic aspect of the assassination case, it will probably voice the same frustration as Oswald's widow, Marina, when she was asked to speculate on why the president was killed.

"It's very hard for me to comprehend," said the person who knew Oswald better than anyone. "The whole thing is so irrational, how do you find any rational explanation for it?"

Acoustics Experts Reenact '63 Kennedy Assassination in Dallas

By Nancy Smith

Special to The Washington Post

DALLAS—Shots rang out at the John F. Kennedy assassination site yesterday morning as experts conducted a sophisticated test to determine how many shots were fired at the presidential motorcade on Nov. 22, 1963.

The acoustical experts, called in by the House Assassinations Committee and employed by the same company that investigated the 18½-minute Watergate tape gap, declined to comment on the results of their test here. The firm, Bolt, Veranek and Newman of Massachusetts, is expected to present its findings to the House panel next month.

It took more than four hours for three Dallas Police Department sharpshooters to fire 86 rounds of live ammunition into sandbags strategically placed along the motorcade route.

The police officers fired two Italian-made Mannlicher Carcano rifles, identical to the one believed used by Lee Harvey Oswald, who was named by the Warren Commission as Kennedy's lone assassin. The officers fired from the sixth floor of the Texas Schoolbook Depository building, from the window where Oswald reportedly fired three shots at Kennedy.

Shots also were fired from a grassy knoll near the building with a .38-cal. Smith and Wesson revolver. The pistol was fired from behind the knoll, where some experts say a second assassin fired a fourth shot. Patrolman Tom Knight, who fired the revolver yesterday, would not comment on the reasons for its use. But it has been reported that the Jack Ruby pistol, delivered to the House panel last week, also was a .38-cal. revolver. (On Nov. 24, 1963, Ruby shot and fatally wounded Oswald.)

Yesterday's tests were recorded by more than 50 microphones and the recordings were to be compared against a Dallas police tape recording of the original gunfire that seemed to indicate a fourth shot.

The testing attracted some 200 spectators, about half of them from the news media. They started gathering around police barricades at about 5:20 a.m. to watch the testing crewmen set up their tripod-held microph

Almost an hour after daybreak, a policeman revved up his motorcycle to simulate the traffic noise during the assassination, and the first shot was fired from the depository window into one of four piles of sandbags placed along the parade route. The shots reverberated in a clockwise echo, against the Dallas County records building to the left, and around the post office straight ahead.

As the shots rang out, many in the crowd seemed to shudder, startled.

A number of out-of-town bystanders interviewed yesterday seemed to think the reenactment was worthwhile, but to the few local spectators it was an unnecessary resurrection of a tragic incident that Dallas, still smarting from the brand "City of Hate," would prefer to forget.

Cab driver Geraldine Walker, who stood behind the barricades starting at dawn, put it this way:

"I hear a lot of negative attitudes toward Dallas from the people in my cab. They remember the way Adlai Stevenson was treated and they remember how Richardson [a Dallas suburb] had a hate campaign. I have people in my cab from all over the world, and this is the main thing they want to see."

"What's the purpose of it? I don't understand it," said Mary McCord of the reenactment. "It happened 15 years ago and people are still crying over it."

But spectators from other areas said the reenactment was worthwhile. "This should have been done a long time before," said John Ruiz, who came from Indiana for a Veterans of Foreign Wars convention here. Rick Bennett of Framingham, Mass., said he "just wanted to come down to make sure they did what they said they were going to do, or whether it was all a farce."

Even a non-English-speaking Venezuelan military officer who was touring the John F. Kennedy Museum yesterday morning with his family agreed that restaging was valuable. "It is very important for us to know what happened," Lt. Col. Joseph Alvarez said in Spanish. "This act is important."

But no conclusions were announced, and most spectators left bewildered. As the only patrolman at the scene who witnessed the assassination 15 years ago said, "I don't know what they can prove. It's still just as confusing now as it was then."

Panel fails to halt all suspicions about JFK killing

By BOB DUDNEY

Times Herald Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — If the latest official inquiry into the Nov. 22, 1963, assassination of President Kennedy could be given a title, "Inherit the Wind" might well suffice.

As its evidentiary hearings closed last week in a final flurry of opaque conspiracy explorations, the House Select Committee on Assassinations finally ended the probe optimistically conceived two years ago as the vehicle that would dispel the suspicion left by the Warren Commission's 1963-64 findings.

But even though the panel's final report on the Dallas slaying has yet to be drafted, it is clear that the ambition has failed. Despite the expenditure of thousands of hours and millions of dollars, the torch of controversy long carried by the Warren panel seems merely to have been passed along to the committee rather than extinguished.

The new inquiry has been able to clear up some nagging questions, and the basic conclusions reached by the commission — that Lee Harvey Oswald was Kennedy's lone assassin and that Jack Ruby killed Oswald — have been, if anything, strongly bolstered by new evidence that the panel has uncovered.

But in confronting the major tasks of isolating Oswald's motive and disproving the possibility of undetected conspiracy the committee has found no answers and — like the commission — has learned they probably never will.

In addition, the committee has on its own raised a number of questions about Kennedy's assassination without offering adequate explanations at the same time, a pitfall from which the Warren Commission has yet to escape. Judge Burt Griffin of Cleveland, a young staff counsel when the panel issued its report in 1964, summed up the committee's future in a bleak prophecy as the panel's final witness.

"Deep public concern about the assassination of President Kennedy will not end in the lifetime of anyone in this room," Griffin warned, adding, "You will soon become the target of those who attacked the Warren Commission, no matter what conclusions you finally reach."

Of all the committee's disclosures during the month of September the one most likely to be seized upon is its presentation of "acoustical" evidence that four shots — rather than three — were fired at the presidential motorcade as it passed through Dealey Plaza nearly 15 years ago.

The Warren Commission's finding that Oswald fired only three rounds from the Texas School Book Depository is crucial, because the time required to load and aim his Mannlicher-Carcano rifle would not permit a fourth shot and evidence of additional gunfire would indicate more than one assassin was involved.

Although the analysis of a Dallas police tape recording of the shooting sequence preferred by Bolt, Barank & Newman, a Boston consulting firm, found four "impulses" resembling gunfire, the specialists seemed to openly back away from the assertion under intense examination by committee members.

Experts think JFK shot came from knoll

By EARL GOLE
and CHARMAYNE MARSH
©The Dallas Morning News, 1978

Acoustical experts said Thursday they have "95 percent" proof four shots were fired at President John F. Kennedy the day he was assassinated and that the third shot came from the grassy knoll, and not from the Texas School Book Depository.

The evidence was developed by Queens College professors Mark R. Weiss and Ernest Aschkenasy from a tape recording of the shots picked up by a Dallas officer's mike Nov. 22, 1963. It was supported by experts at the firm of Bolt, Beranek and Newman, of Cambridge, Mass.

The evidence provided the House Assassinations Committee with startling new information and threw its final days into chaos. The panel is to disband Dec. 31.

Committee aides said an emergency public session is scheduled Dec. 29, and the acoustics experts will be called to testify about the new information.

The new evidence appears to dispute the Warren Commission's findings, which said Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in killing Kennedy and that there were three shots. The evidence also lends more credence to about 60 witnesses.

Virtually ignored by the Warren Commission in 1963, the witnesses said they had reason to believe one or more shots came from the knoll area to the right and front of the presidential motorcade on Elm Street.

The commission settled for the stories of about 39 witnesses who said they thought all the shots came from the Texas School Book Depository.

The new audio report runs counter to findings of the committee's staff, which hired the Bolt firm. It also conflicts with an acoustical study not yet presented to the committee and it doesn't correlate with autopsy and film evidence.

The staff has not shown committee members the acoustical report by Anthony Pellicano, who contends no shots can be heard on the tape.

Pellicano, of Chicago, said a motorcycle microphone that supposedly recorded the shot impulses was two miles away at Stemmons Freeway and Industrial Boulevard and therefore out of acoustical range. The Cambridge report placed its unidentified motorcycle in Dealey Plaza as part of the motorcade.

Pellicano had rushed his report by plane in time for presentation to the committee this week — as requested by a staff member — but was told Thursday it may not be shown to the committee until Dec. 29 at the emergency session.

Autopsy photographs show the back of Kennedy's head was intact, which is incongruent with a shot from the grassy knoll striking his head in the right front.

The government photos, however, conflict with statements by most of the medical staff members attending Kennedy at Parkland Memorial Hospital. They claim a large portion of the back of his head was blown away.

JFK Evidence Contradicts with film, expert says

Other opinions at Parkland would indicate more than three shots were fired. Dr. Robert Shaw, the surgeon who operated on Gov. John Connally's chest after he was wounded while riding in Kennedy's limousine, has said he does not believe Connally was hit by a bullet that first struck the president, as the Warren Commission concluded.

Shaw said the bullet that hit Connally "was not consistent with the appearance of the bullet that was found on the governor's stretcher," which had only about two of 161 grains missing.

The single-bullet theory also has been disputed by a state highway patrolman guarding Connally's hospital room and by the supervisor of the operating room at Parkland. Both have said they handled metallic fragments reportedly taken from Connally's wounds and the fragments far exceeded the two grains supposedly missing from the bullet.

Neither the patrolman, Charles W. Harrison, nor the nurse, Audrey N. Bell, were called to testify before the Warren Commission or before the House Assassinations Committee staff.

The new audio report's contention that the third of four shots came from the knoll does not correlate with the short forward movement of Kennedy's head and then the violent backward snap shown in the

Abraham Zapruder film, noted assassination researcher David S. Lifton said.

THE ZAPRUDER film indicates the first hit came from behind, pushing Kennedy's head forward slightly before a second shot from the right front sharply reversed the head movement to the rear, Lifton said. The Cambridge firm has the knoll shot hitting the head first and the shot from behind closely following it, he said.

Lifton said he is "suspicious that there is only one shot from the knoll" because Parkland doctors generally considered the wound on the front of the neck as the entrance.

In the investigation, the committee's staff somehow reduced the number of witnesses on the knoll from 68 to seven, and they did not include Gordon L. Arnold of Dallas. Last August, Arnold said a man identifying himself as a Secret Service agent discouraged him from walking behind a wooden fence stop the knoll shortly before the shooting started.

The fence, in light of the new acoustical evidence, is being reconsidered as a possible second sniper's nest.

THE MAN WHO showed Arnold Secret Service credentials had to be an imposter because reports showed none of the 28 agents in Dallas were on foot in Dealey Plaza immediately before or after the shooting.

When Arnold was stopped behind the fence, he challenged the man's authority. The man "showed me a badge and said he was with the Secret Service and that he didn't want anybody up there," Arnold said.

Secondly, after Arnold retreated to the front of the fence high up on the knoll, he said he "felt" the first shot come from behind him, only inches over his left shoulder.

"I had just gotten out of basic training," Arnold said. "In my mind, live ammunition was being fired. It was being fired over my head. And I hit the dirt."

ARNOLD AND at least four other people, including two Dallas policemen who ran up near the book depository shortly after the shooting, said they met men who either showed identification as Secret Service agents or said they were agents.

Amateur photographer Zapruder, who would have been standing a few feet to the left of Arnold on a pergola, at first said he thought one shot "came from in back of me." He said he could not be positive, however, because "there was too much reverberation. There was an echo which gave me a sound all over."

Sam Holland, railroad signal supervisor for the Union Terminal, said he was standing on the overpass above Elm Street when he heard a shot and saw "a puff of smoke" come from the area of the wooden fence.

"I definitely saw the puff of smoke and heard the report from under these trees," Holland said.

HOLLAND SAID he immediately ran behind the fence, where he spotted a station wagon with mud on the bumper "as if someone had cleaned his foot, or stood up on the bumper to see over the fence."

Between the station wagon and the fence, Holland saw "a spot, I'd say 3 foot by 2 foot... like somebody had been standing there for a long period. I guess if you could count them, (there were) about 100 foot tracks in that little spot and also mud up on the bumper of that station wagon."

The House Assassinations Committee, without explanation, eliminated Holland from the more than 60 witnesses, along with 18 other railroad employees on the overpass who either heard shots coming from the knoll or saw smoke in the area.

Among the seven witnesses the committee credited, two were on the knoll and probably were Mr. and Mrs. William Newman. They were standing directly in front of the concrete wall of the pergola on the knoll and near the curb adjacent to the presidential limousine.

Man claims he found live bullet buried under top of grassy knoll

By EARL GORE

A Dallas man said he found a live round .45-caliber bullet, corroded and buried about 4 inches in the ground, at the top of the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza.

Acoustics experts now contend a second gunman fired at President John F. Kennedy from the knoll in 1963.

Hal Lester said Friday he told a representative of the House Assassinations Committee Sept. 11 about the bullet, but he hasn't heard anything from the panel since his telephone call.

Lester, who sells reconditioned office machines, said he found the cartridge while searching for coins with a metal detector in May 1976.

"I spent several hours there looking around for coins," Lester said. "All the coins I found were dated later than the assassination, but the bullet was buried deeper."

The steel-jacketed round-nose bullet originally was developed for military automatic handguns. It inflicts great damage to a human body when fired from a range of 30 yards or less, but generally is not very accurate beyond that distance. It also has a loud muzzle blast.

The head stamp on the cartridge reads "USC Co. 18," which gun experts say stands for the now defunct U.S. Cartridge Co. and a 1918 date of manufacture.

Lester said he found the bullet behind the 4-foot-high cement retaining wall leading from the west end of the white pergola stop the grassy knoll. It was buried in dirt where the wall connects with the pergola, only a few feet to the left of where Abraham Zapruder was standing when he filmed Kennedy being shot.

The other end of the wall is less than 25 yards from the spot where Kennedy was shot. It also is closer to Elm Street than the wooden fence, which is a few feet behind.

Robert Groden, a staff photographic consultant for the house panel, has claimed for years a man armed with a rifle and standing in a classic military firing position at the end of the retaining wall is visible in movie film taken by amateur photographer Orville Nix. He also claims he can see the man through the foliage in several frames of the Zapruder film.

Acoustics experts told the house panel this week they have "95 percent" proof four shots were fired at Kennedy and that the third shot came from the grassy knoll, not from the Texas School Book Depository.

The sound of the third shot, however, is now considered by the audio experts to be a rifle, not a pistol.

When the Cambridge, Mass., acoustical firm of Bolt, Beranek and Newman test fired guns in Dealey Plaza last summer, both a rifle and a pistol were used from behind the wooden fence stop the grassy knoll. No shots were test fired from behind the retaining wall.

Panel to consider 2-gunmen theory in slaying of JFK

By JOSEPH VOLZ
New York Daily News

WASHINGTON—The House Assassinations Committee meets today to figure out what to do about the conclusion of one of its experts, Queens College Professor Mark Weiss, that two gunmen fired at President Kennedy in Dallas 13 years ago.

The Warren Commission concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald was the lone assassin and was not part of any conspiracy.

But Weiss, a member of a panel which also analyzed the famous 18 1/4 minute gap on one of President Nixon's White House tapes, insists that a shot was fired from a "grassy knoll" near the Kennedy parade route. Oswald did his firing from the Texas School Book Depository where he worked, according to the Warren Commission.

Weiss has not uncovered any new material. Only his acoustical examination of a five-minute tape made from a Dallas motorcycle transmitter is new. Another expert, Dr. James E. Berger of Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., Cambridge, Mass., was less certain last September about any shots being fired from the grassy knoll. Berger examined the same tape and said that there was only a "50-50" chance that such a shot was fired or that there had been four shots fired instead of three.

But Berger told committee members in a closed door session Monday night that he had no reason to doubt Weiss's findings.

Rep. Harold Sawyer, R-Mich., a committee member, contends that the Weiss tests prove "beyond a reasonable doubt" that four shots were fired from two directions. That so-called "fourth shot" supposedly fired seven seconds after the first shot, has been cited by conspiracy theorists to demonstrate that two gunmen must have been shooting. They argue that Oswald could not have fired all four shots so quickly.

But what was described as "startling" new evidence in some published reports will apparently not change the decision of the panel to go out of business Dec. 31. For one thing, the House is disturbed that the panel has spent $5 million, an all-time Congressional record for any single investigation to examine the assassinations of Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King and probably would not appropriate any more funds.

A staff aide also noted that most of the staff has left for other jobs and there was "no desire" to continue the investigation past one day of public hearings next week on the Weiss interpretations.

Evidence claims 4 shots fired at JFK

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — New evidence indicates that four shots were fired, from two directions, at President John F. Kennedy when he was murdered in Dallas 15 years ago, two members of the House assassinations committee said Wednesday.

The Warren Commission found that only three shots were fired, all from the Texas School Book Depository. It also concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in killing Kennedy.

Rep. Harold Sawyer, R-Mich., said the evidence shows "beyond a reasonable doubt" that one of the shots came from the so-called grassy knoll rather than the book depository.

Rep. Christopher Dodd, D-Conn., said in Hartford Wednesday night that the new evidence raises serious questions about the possibility that a second gunman participated in the assassination.

Sawyer said the disclosure came from two acoustical experts testifying Monday night during an executive session of the assassinations committee.

"They concluded that there were four shots, the third of which was fired from the grassy knoll," Sawyer reported. He said the experts testified there was a 95 per cent probability four shots were fired at Kennedy on Nov. 22, 1963.

Sawyer said he cannot recall the names of the two who provided the new evidence but he stressed they are experts in the field of acoustics.

"I don't know of any reason not to accept it," Sawyer said about the new evidence. But he added the disclosure "leaves me entirely up in the air" about who killed Kennedy.

In Washington, a committee spokesman said there would be no comment on the matter.

A knowledgeable source said: "I don't think Mr. Sawyer would go on the radio and lie."

Officials in the office of Rep. Louis Stokes, D-Ohio, the assassinations committee chairman, also would not comment on Sawyer's report.

The new evidence came from "a refinement of the earlier analysis" of a tape recording made during the Kennedy assassination of the sound coming from a motorcycle police officer's radio. The officer's radio transmitter was left on for about 5 1/2 minutes, including the period when Kennedy was shot.

Sawyer described the technique used as one which allowed the experts to refine sounds on the tape "down to a very narrow window" so they could study tiny details, such as building echoes.

Dr. James E. Barger, an acoustics expert who testified at a public session of the committee Sept. 11, had said his work on the tape showed a 50-50 possibility there were four shots, with one from the grassy knoll.

Sawyer said Barger studied the more recent work of the other two experts and agreed with their conclusion that four shots were fired. "Barger was there and he was totally in concurrence," Sawyer added.

Sawyer said "I'm probably in hot water on the whole thing" by disclosing testimony from an executive session. But he added, "the information is going to be made public anyway. It's not anything top secret."

The information emerged while Sawyer was appearing on a talk show at a Grand Rapids radio station. The congressman said he had no idea the program would focus upon the Kennedy assassination, but a college professor questioned him closely on the matter.

"There was no way I could answer them without getting into this," Sawyer said about the professor's questions.

Asked what will happen because of the new evidence, Sawyer said he is uncertain. The committee's work is supposed to be completed by Dec. 31.

Panel to seek funding for JFK film analysis

By EARL GOLZ

The House Assassinations Committee decided Tuesday to seek funding for a computer analysis of the Charles L. Bronson film that may show two persons in the so-called assassin's window of the Texas Schoolbook Depository minutes before President John Kennedy was assassinated.

The decision for a scientific examination of the film coincides with new acoustical evidence of a possible conspiracy and a possible committee request for a special prosecutor to continue the investigation after the panel's term expires this month.

The new acoustical evidence came from a Cambridge, Mass., firm. The firm told the committee last September four shots probably could be distinguished from impulses on a Dallas police radio tape recording made during the shooting in Dealey Plaza on Nov. 22, 1963.

The firm of Bolt, Beranek & Newman has presented the committee with a more detailed analysis, which further strengthens the possibility of a fourth shot that would not have come from the direction of the book depository behind the president, The News has learned.

Committee spokesmen said they could not comment about the closed hearings, which were Monday and Tuesday.

The Cambridge firm's latest findings further challenge the Warren Commission's 1964 conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, assassinated Kennedy by firing three shots from a rifle on the sixth floor of the depository, striking the president twice.

Dr. James Barger, chief scientist with the Cambridge group, told the committee his firm has refined its analysis of the third of four shots supposedly heard on the police tape. The recording was made when a police motorcycle transmitter button was left open for five minutes in Dealey Plaza.

The firm has measured the velocity and distance of the third shot's sound waves and determined that it came from a rifle — not a pistol as previously thought — and traveled at a distance equal from the wooden fence atop the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza to the presidential limousine, sources said.

The timing would have had the slug striking the president's head at about the same time he was hit in the head from behind by another shot.

Scientific expertise not existing in 1963 enabled the Cambridge firm to follow the bullet's path from the sound on a tape recording after the missile left the gun's muzzle. The Abraham Zapruder film, which showed the president's head being slammed back violently on impact of a bullet or bullets, was used to precisely time when the third of four shots was fired and the spot the limousine was on Elm Street.

The developments in the 2-year-old investigation occurred as committee members met to review potential evidence that may determine whether a conspiracy existed.

The presentation was so persuasive some committee staff members have suggested the appointment of a special prosecutor to continue the investigation after the committee disbands at the end of the month. The prosecutor would conduct the probe under the auspices of the U.S. Justice Department, sources said.

Experts in medical and ballistic fields have been asked to determine whether the new evidence could be correlated with their findings.

In addition, the committee has decided to find out what, if anything, the Bronson film shows in the 6th-floor window of the depository building about six minutes before the assassination.

The News has interviewed several witnesses who said they saw two people in the depository window about the time the Bronson film was taken. One witness, an inmate in the county jail, said other prisoners saw a pair of men with a rifle in the depository. The prisoners were in a 6th-floor cell across the street from the depository, the witnesses said.

"The committee definitely regards the film as significant and worthy of further analysis," said Jane Downey, a committee staff counsel. "We are trying to find some means of financing a computer analysis for it."

The committee has spent all of more than $5 million allotted it by congress for two years of investigation. It is "looking everywhere we can but so far we haven't come up with anything" to finance the computer processing of the film, Mrs. Downey said.

"As you know, we just don't have the money so we are looking for outside sources of funding," she said. "But we are not going to give up. We are going to keep trying."

The cost of a computer analysis of the 92 frames that show the window is "probably in the area" of $30,000, Mrs. Downey said.

The film was discovered last month by The News after a previously classified FBI memo indicated its existence. An FBI agent viewed the film three days after the assassination and said he could not see the depository building on any frames.

The 8-mm film was then returned to Bronson, who lived in Dallas at the time. He kept it for home movie use until the depository window scene was detected at a showing in his home in Ada, Okla., last month.

Another acoustical analysis of the police tape that did not pick up the sound of shots also was presented to the committee this week.

Anthony Pellicano, whose Chicago firm made the analysis free of charge — the Cambridge firm billed the committee about $75,000 — said Tuesday a member of the committee's staff "had seen my report and they (the committee) are pleased . . . They will not be able to see me this week but will after the first of the year."

Pellicano, who says the open transmitter was two miles away from Dealey Plaza and therefore was out of acoustical range, scoffed at reports of new findings from the Cambridge firm.

Experts Track Mystery JFK Bullet

By George Lardner Jr.

Washington Post Staff Writer

New scientific tests for the House Assassinations Committee reportedly show that a shot fired at President Kennedy's motorcade from the grassy knoll in Dallas 15 years ago landed in or near the presidential limousine.

According to informed sources, acoustical experts hired by the committee also fixed the velocity of the bullet at rifle-shot speed of 2,300 to 2,500 feet per second, and concluded that it ended up close to or in Kennedy's Lincoln.

"It seemed to have stopped in the presidential limousine," one source said. Another source said it would be more accurate to say that it apparently landed "in the area of the presidential limousine, plus or minus 10 feet."

With little more than a week to go before its congressional mandate runs out, the House committee is to meet in secret session today to try to assess the reliability of the new scientific evidence indicating there may have been a conspiracy behind the president's assassination in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963.

The Warren Commission concluded that only three shots, all from behind, all fired by Lee Harvey Oswald from the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository, were fired in Dealey Plaza as the motorcade passed through.

The House Assassinations Committee was on the verge of reaching a similar conclusion in a 600-page final report on the Kennedy and King assassinations that it was preparing to make public to wind up its two-year, $5.8 million inquiry.

The chairman of the JFK assassination inquiry, Rep. Richardson Preyer (D-N.C.), said yesterday that the committee will probably vote to reopen its public hearings next week for a one-day airing of the startling new study.

"I think the public would want to be able to judge it for themselves," he said.

The acoustical experts, Mark Weiss and Ernest Aschkenasy of Queens College in New York City, concluded—from extensive tests with a Dallas police radio recording of the sounds in Dealey Plaza—that a fourth shot was fired from the grassy knoll, in front and to the right of the presidential motorcade.

"It's a prima facie case of conspiracy," one well-placed source said in a three summary of what it all means. "Everything must now be rethought." Other evidence, this source said, such as statements of eyewitnesses, shunted aside or explained away before, must now be re-examined in a more sinister light.

For instance, Forrest V. Sorrels, the Secret Service agent in charge of the Dallas office, who was riding in the lead car, told the Warren Commission that he thought the shots came from the grassy knoll "or terrace" to the right of the motorcade. So did Abraham Zapruder, the bystander with the 8-millimeter movie camera who took the famous film of the assassination.

"... That was my first thought, somebody up on the terrace, and that is the reason I looked there," Sorrels told the Warren Commission in 1964.

Acoustic expert Weiss and his colleague told the House committee in a secret briefing Monday night that there was a 95 percent or greater probability of a fourth shot from the grassy knoll. They were supported by the chief scientist for a Cambridge, Mass., firm, Dr. James E. Barger of Bolt, Beranek & Newman, who had conducted an earlier, but less intensive study of the police tape and had concluded that there was a 50-50 probability.

After Barger testified before the committee, to the exasperation of several members, such as Rep. Harold E. Sawyer (R-Mich.), last Sept. 11, Bolt, Beranek & Newman recommended that the committee hire Weiss "to review our findings and undertake further independent analysis."

The chairman of the Massachusetts firm, Richard H. Bolt, and Weiss had worked closely together before, as members of the court-appointed panel that studied the 18½-minute gap in one of former president Nixon's Watergate tapes and found that the erasures were the result of several, apparently deliberate, manual operations.

Weiss was vice president of a New York firm known for using complex instruments to break down a sound into its component parts for analysis.

He is widely regarded as an expert in the use of techniques for reducing background noise and interference on speech recordings to increase intelligibility of underlying sounds.

The recording of the sounds of the assassination was made when a motorcycle patrolman left his microphone switch in the "On" position, deluging his transmitting channel with what seemed to be simply a lot of motorcycle noise while the assassination took place.

"The Warren Commission had this tape, as I recall, but to them it was just noise," Preyer said yesterday. "I don't believe they had the capability to do these [sophisticated studies] on it."

In the four-shot sequence that Barger had tentatively singled out, the first bullet came from the Book Depository. A second came from the depository 1.8 seconds later. A third seemed to come from the grassy knoll 5.9 seconds after that, and the final shot came from the Book Depository just a half-second after that.

Weiss and his colleague, sources said, concentrated on the noise from the grassy knoll, the one that left Barger up in the air, and performed still more sophisticated tests, filtering out the motorcycle sounds, plotting the remaining echo patterns more precisely and determining the exact location of the motorcycle radio that picked them up.

The work was so elaborate that they fixed the position of the press bus coming around the corner and discerned what seemed to be a boxcar on nearby railroad tracks.

They also concluded, "beyond a reasonable doubt," according to several descriptions, that four shots had been fired, and that the third of these came from the grassy knoll.

Weiss and Aschkenasy could not be reached for comment, but Bolt, Beranek & Newman said in a statement last night that they concurred in the more certain findings.

"It is therefore our view that there is a 95 percent or greater likelihood that the sounds of four gunshots are present on the tape and that the third shot came from the direction of the so-called grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Tex.," the Bolt, Beranek & Newman statement said.

The committee appears likely to endorse the conclusion, although several members are still leery.

"This is a new science, and I've always wondered whether there might be some flaw in it just because it is so new," said one committee Democrat. "Maybe we'll find a flaw at the public hearing, but at this point it looks like a pretty solid study."

A bigger dispute may be touched off by what appears to be the committee's inclination to conclude that the bullet from the grassy knoll missed the president's car. This would enable the panel to hold firm to its earlier conclusions and other scientific studies stating firmly that the president and Texas then-governor John B. Connally were hit by one bullet fired from the rear and that the president was killed by a subsequent shot to the head, which also came from behind.

"Kennedy was not hit from the front, but he was shot at from the front," one committee source said. "I think we've proved the 'single bullet' theory [that one bullet struck both Kennedy and Connally]. Ironically, we have also established that there were two gunmen."

Critics of the Warren Commission have contended for years that at least one of the bullets that hit the president came from the front. The only bullets and bullet fragments analyzed in the House inquiry came from Oswald's rifle, but the critics remain suspicious, pointing out that a number of bullet fragments are inexplicably missing.

Panel Told of 4 Shots at Kennedy

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21 — The House Select Committee on Assassinations has received additional evidence that four shots were fired at President Kennedy in Dallas 15 years ago, reopening the debate over whether he was attacked by one or two assassins, committee sources said today.

According to these sources, two New York acoustics experts have identified the sound of a fourth gunshot on a Dictabelt tape recording made from the transmissions of a police motorcycle radio in Dealey Plaza in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963, when the President was shot.

The New York Times prepared for its Aug. 10 issue an article reporting that the committee had found and analyzed such a tape, but a strike by pressmen prevented its publication. However, the article was distributed to clients of The Times's News Service.

First Analysis Called Inconclusive

According to the article, the first analysis, by James Barger of Bolt, Beranek & Newman Inc., an engineering concern in Cambridge, Mass., was inconclusive. Mr. Berger testified at a public hearing on Sept. 11 that he had found only a 50-50 chance that the tape recording carried the sound of a fourth shot.

Subsequently, the committee asked two other acoustical experts, Mark Weiss and a colleague from Queens College in New York, to conduct new tests.

The committee received a report last Monday during a closed session in which the experts said that the tape contained the noise of a fourth shot and that it appeared to come from a grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza.

Although this evidence underwrites a theory that Mr. Kennedy was the victim of a conspiracy, it brings the committee investigators no closer to determining who was involved in the conspiracy or how it was arranged.

Warren Commission's Report

In September 1964, the Warren Commission released a report concluding that Lee Harvey Oswald fired three shots from the Texas Schoolbook Depository Building across the plaza, hitting Mr. Kennedy in the back of the head, and was solely responsible for the assassination.

If a shot came from the grassy knoll, which was in front of the President's car, it would establish that two assassins were involved. It is also clear to House investigators that if there was a second gunman, it is probable that Mr. Kennedy's death was the result of a conspiracy.

Robert F. Blakey, the committee counsel, was quoted as saying that "it could be coincidence that two people fired shots at President Kennedy from opposite directions, but this stretches credulity."

"There always was testimony that one of the four shots fired during the assassination had come from the grassy knoll," he added. "Now we have physical evidence."

JFK recording discounted

By EARL GOLT

Findings by acoustics experts that four shots were recorded on an original police Dictaphone belt during the assassination of President John F. Kennedy were "absolutely impossible" because the belt was "worn out" in 1964 after repeated replays, Dallas Police Capt. J.C. Bowles said Tuesday.

"I can guarantee you it was almost worn out by the time I got through making the original transcriptions for the Warren Commission," Bowles said.

Bowles was a sergeant in the police communications center when Kennedy was assassinated Nov. 22, 1963. He has denied from the outset that the original belt, in its unadulterated condition, picked up the sound of shots in Dealey Plaza or any other location in Dallas.

"Had a shot been fired in the sound (range) of the microphone on a police motorcycle, it would have transmitted some form of a shot sound clearly and audibly over the radio," he said. "And it would have been on all the tapes, the originals included."

However, even if shots had been picked up within acoustical range of a motorcycle with its microphone open for transmitting, Bowles said, "I will have to hold highly suspect anything they find on that (at this late date), because I had screwed that tape up myself (in transcribing from it)."

The puzzling aspect of the House Assassination Committee's acoustical analysis is the firm of Bolt, Beranek and Newman of Cambridge, Mass., had a copy of a clear unadulterated reel-to-reel tape made off the original belt in 1964 before Bowles "altered it inadvertently" and wore it out while transcribing it.

The committee had the copy for almost a year before the original belt turned up in the possession of former police Capt. Paul McCaghen last August.

Dr. James Barger of the Cambridge firm told the committee last September he could detect the sound of four shots on McCaghen's original belt but not on the copy made by Bowles before he transcribed the radio conversations for the FBI.

Bowles said he talked to two committee investigators the day after Barger made his statement. He told them it was "absolutely impossible" to hear shots on the original belt and "told them why."

One investigator replied, "We sure need to get with you just as soon as you can," Bowles said. But, he said, he heard nothing from the committee.

In September, Barger had said the possibility of four noise impulses being shots was "50-50." Later, Professor Mark Weiss of Queens College in New York refined Barger's findings. On Dec. 29, he told the house committee the "probability" of four rifle shots being recorded on the belt was "95 percent."

Largely on the basis of the Barger-Weiss analysis, the committee concluded Kennedy was assassinated "probably" as a result of a conspiracy.

JFK test 'shows' 4 shots

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UPI) — Tests on a tape recording made from the open microphone of a police motorcycle revealed "beyond a reasonable doubt" that a shot was fired from the grassy knoll in Dallas' Dealey Plaza when John F. Kennedy was killed, a House Assassinations Committee member said Wednesday.

In Washington, the panel met in executive session but sent word it would not comment on the remarks made by Rep. Harold Sawyer, R-Mich. The committee had considered the tape earlier and heard testimony on it.

Asked how the information differed from that previously explored by the committee, Sawyer said, "These are new. They are based in large part on the new material the others were. These are refinements. These are extensions and refinements."

"We were just really zeroing in on a final report when we had this very disturbing evidence presented," Sawyer said.

The shot from the knoll would be in addition to three that the Warren Commission concluded Lee Harvey Oswald fired from the Texas School Book Depository across the plaza.

Government investigators have said all previous evidence indicates Oswald was the lone gunman responsible for the Kennedy killing 15 years ago in Dallas.

In a Grand Rapids radio debate, Sawyer said the tape analysis reaching the panel in Washington early this week "poses a kind of 11th-hour problem."

The committee officially ends its 2-year, $5 million investigations into the Kennedy and Martin Luther King assassinations on Dec. 31.

The tape test, Sawyer said, was "absolutely at variance with all of the evidence developed up to now" and provided support for suspicion of an assassination conspiracy.

"They (the experts) say, as a result of their studies, there is a 95-percent-plus probability that the third shot of a series of four shots was fired from the grassy knoll," he said.

He said more than one person would have had to be involved in the assassination "if, in fact, a shot was fired from the grassy knoll." He said the analysis raises "strong evidence, if not overwhelming, of a conspiracy."

Despite the new development, Sawyer said he does not expect committee members to ask the house to extend the life of the panel beyond the end of this year.

"I honestly cannot say at this time what the committee is going to do," he said. "The evidence poses a severe problem."

The congressman said the committee already has started examining a 400-page draft of its final report and now would have to rework it.

Experts think JFK shot came from knoll

Acoustical experts said Thursday they have "95 percent" proof four shots were fired at President John F. Kennedy the day he was assassinated and that the third shot came from the grassy knoll, and not from the Texas School Book Depository.

The evidence was developed by Queens College professors Mark R. Weiss and Ernest Aschkenasy from a tape recording of the shots picked up by a Dallas officer's mike Nov. 22, 1963. It was supported by experts at the firm of Bolt, Beranek and Newman, of Cambridge, Mass.

The evidence provided the House Assassinations Committee with startling new information and threw its final days into chaos. The panel is to disband Dec. 31.

Committee aides said an emergency public session is scheduled Dec. 29, and the acoustics experts will be called to testify about the new information.

The new evidence appears to dispute the Warren Commission's findings, which said Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in killing Kennedy and that there were three shots. The evidence also lends more credence to about 60 witnesses.

Virtually ignored by the Warren Commission in 1963, the witnesses said they had reason to believe one or more shots came from the knoll area to the right and front of the presidential motorcade on Elm Street.

The commission settled for the stories of about 20 witnesses who said they thought all the shots came from the Texas School Book Depository.

The new audio report runs counter to findings of the committee's staff, which hired the Bolt firm. It also conflicts with an acoustical study not yet presented to the committee and it doesn't correlate with autopsy and film evidence.

The staff has not shown committee members the acoustical report by Anthony Pellicano, who contends no shots can be heard on the tape.

Pellicano, of Chicago, said a motorcycle microphone that supposedly recorded the shot impulses was two miles away at Stemmons Freeway and Industrial Boulevard and therefore out of acoustical range. The Cambridge report placed its unidentified motorcycle in Dealey Plaza as part of the motorcade.

Pellicano had rushed his report by plane in time for presentation to the committee this week — as requested by a staff member — but was told Thursday it may not be shown to the committee until Dec. 29 at the emergency session.

Autopsy photographs show the back of Kennedy's head was intact, which is incongruent with a shot from the grassy knoll striking his head in the right front.

The government photos, however, conflict with statements by most of the medical staff members attending Kennedy at Parkland Memorial Hospital. They claim a large portion of the back of his head was blown away.

JFK evidence conflicts with film, expert says

Other opinions at Parkland would indicate more than three shots were fired. Dr. Robert Shaw, the surgeon who operated on Gov. John Connally's chest after he was wounded while riding in Kennedy's limousine, has said he does not believe Connally was hit by a bullet that first struck the president, as the Warren Commission concluded.

Shaw said the bullet that hit Connally "was not consistent with the appearance of the bullet that was found on the governor's stretcher," which had only about two of 161 grains missing.

The single-bullet theory also has been disputed by a state highway patrolman guarding Connally's hospital room and by the supervisor of the operating room at Parkland. Both have said they handled metallic fragments purportedly taken from Connally's wounds and the fragments far exceeded the two grains supposedly missing from the bullet.

Neither the patrolman, Charles W. Harbison, nor the nurse, Audrey N. Bell, were called to testify before the Warren Commission or before the House Assassinations Committee staff.

The new audio report's contention that the third of four shots came from the knoll does not correlate with the short forward movement of Kennedy's head and then the violent backward snap shown in the

Abraham Zapruder film, noted assassination researcher David S. Lifton said.

THE ZAPRUDER film indicates the first hit came from behind, pushing Kennedy's head forward slightly before a second shot from the right front sharply reversed the head movement to the rear, Lifton said. The Cambridge firm has the knoll shot hitting the head first and the shot from behind closely following it, he said.

Lifton said he is "suspicious that there is only one shot from the knoll" because Parkland doctors generally considered the wound on the front of the neck as the entrance.

In the investigation, the committee's staff somehow reduced the number of witnesses on the knoll from 48 to seven, and they did not include Gordon L. Arnold of Dallas. Last August, Arnold said a man identifying himself as a Secret Service agent discouraged him from walking behind a wooden fence stop the knoll shortly before the shooting started.

The fence, in light of the new acoustical evidence, is being reconsidered as a possible second sniper's post.

THE MAN WHO showed Arnold Secret Service credentials had to be an imposter because reports showed none of the 28 agents in Dallas were on foot in Dealey Plaza immediately before or after the shooting.

When Arnold was stopped behind the fence, he challenged the man's authority. The man "showed me a badge and said he was with the Secret Service and that he didn't want anybody up there," Arnold said.

Seconds after Arnold retreated to the front of the fence high up on the knoll, he said he "felt" the first shot come from behind him, only inches over his left shoulder.

"I had just gotten out of basic training," Arnold said. "In my mind, live ammunition was being fired. It was being fired over my head. And I hit the dirt."

ARNOLD AND at least four other people, including two Dallas policemen who ran up near the book depository shortly after the shooting, said they met men who either showed identification as Secret Service agents or said they were agents.

Amateur photographer Zapruder, who would have been standing a few feet to the left of Arnold on a pergola, at first said he thought one shot "came from in back of me." He said he could not be positive, however, because "there was too much reverberation. There was an echo which gave me a sound all over."

Sam Holland, railroad signal supervisor for the Union Terminal, said he was standing on the overpass above Elm Street when he heard a shot and saw "a puff of smoke" come from the area of the wooden fence.

"I definitely saw the puff of smoke and heard the report from under these trees," Holland said.

HOLLAND SAID he immediately ran behind the fence, where he spotted a station wagon with mud on the bumper "as if someone had cleaned his foot, or stood up on the bumper to see over the fence."

Between the station wagon and the fence, Holland saw "a spot, I'd say 3 foot by 2 foot... like somebody had been standing there for a long period. I guess if you could count them, (there were) about 100 foot tracks in that little spot and also mud up on the bumper of that station wagon."

The House Assassinations Committee, without explanation, eliminated Holland from the more than 60 witnesses, along with 10 other railroad employees on the overpass who either heard shots coming from the knoll or saw smoke in the area.

Among the seven witnesses the committee credited, two were on the knoll and probably were Mr. and Mrs. William Newman. They were standing directly in front of the concrete wall of the pergola on the knoll and near the curb adjacent to the presidential limousine.

~~FEDERAL GOVERNMENT~~

Dear Mr. Chairman:

During my testimony before your Committee on December 11, 1978, Congressman Christopher Dodd raised with me the issue of the constitutionality of the capital punishment provisions of the Presidential Assassination Statute, and asked me to respond at a future time regarding this issue.

I have reflected upon this matter, and it is my opinion that it would not be appropriate for the Director of the FBI to comment upon the constitutionality of a particular statute. This issue would be more appropriately addressed by the Department of Justice.

I would like, however, to refer you to a recent case that deals with the death penalty provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1111. That case is United States v. Kaiser, 545 F.2d 467 (5th Cir. 1977). In that case, the Fifth Circuit ruled that the death penalty provisions of the statute are unconstitutional.

I hope this will be of some assistance to you in your inquiry.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
(HSCA)

Reference Legal Counsel to Director memorandum dated 1/12/79.

PURPOSE

To advise the Director regarding the Laboratory's capability in the field of digital image enhancement, and relate feasibility and costs concerning the analysis of the Charles L. Bronson film utilizing non-Bureau facilities and consultants.

DETAILS

REC-111 62-117210-1429

The Laboratory has a video digitizer for use with the Digital Equipment Corporation (DEC) computers utilized by the Laboratory. This system was obtained for preliminary research and study into the applications of image processing on forensic evidence. It is anticipated the system hardware will be fully functional by late February, 1979, with at least two years scheduled for initial software conversion, experimentation and application studies. However, the Laboratory is capable of conducting limited rudimentary digital experiments with the equipment that is presently operational and can perform a number of photographic studies. It must be noted that the Laboratory's digital system is experimental and designed for low-resolution real-time operation, as opposed to the high-resolution examinations conducted in the earlier assassination studies.

2 FEB 13 1979

For the Laboratory to adequately conduct high-resolution studies on the Bronson film, which consists of approximately 90 frames of color 8-millimeter film, it is estimated that 2 or 3 outside facilities and at least 3 consultants, as suggested by the HSCA would be necessary. Outside facilities are required for quality film reproduction, high-resolution digitizing and computer analysis. In addition, the services of at least one full-time and one part-time Special Agent would be required. Based on limited unofficial inquiries, it is estimated the cost of this study would be approximately $50,000.

Memorandum from B. P. Herndon to Mr. McDermott
Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
(HSCA)

The results of the study could range from a no conclusion (high probability) to a definite conclusion that 2 individuals appear in the questioned book depository window (low probability), substantiating the conspiracy theory.

The only obvious benefit to the FBI as perceived by the Laboratory is the experience and analytical knowledge gained that can be directly applied to the Bureau's own image processing efforts. Enclosed for background information is a report entitled "JOHN F. KENNEDY ASSASSINATION FILM ANALYSIS," conducted by Francis Corbett, Itek Corporation, Lexington, Massachusetts. It should be noted that the photographs of this enclosure are reproductions and, therefore, are of limited quality.

RECOMMENDATIONS

(1) In view of our limited capability in the field of digital image enhancement and the fact that FBI conclusions could be considered self-serving by many assassination buffs, it is recommended that should the Department agree to examine the Bronson film, it should be contracted to outside experts by the Department.

JOHN F. KENNEDY ASSASSINATION FILM ANALYSIS

Francis Corbett*
Itel Corporation
10 Maguire Road
Lexington, Massachusetts 02173

Abstract

Itel recently conducted a detailed evaluation of the major 8-millimeter movie films of the J. F. Kennedy assassination. Questions were addressed based on their relevance to controversies or uncertainties that have been raised over the years (by other studies of the films) concerning the assassination. This led to many analyses of the films and required various analytical techniques. A detailed analysis of the Hughes film was performed. This film shows the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building windows and the Presidential limousine just before the first shots were fired. Photo-optical, mensuration, and stereophotogrammetric analyses of both the Hughes and Zapruder films were also performed. This technical analysis resulted in both new information on the imagery of the films, and the establishment of reasonably certain explanations of the phenomena observed on the films.

Objective

It is the objective of this paper to describe the techniques of image analysis used on the Zapruder and Hughes films, and to show the results achieved with them.

Image Analysis Methods and Techniques

1. Digital Image Enhancement

An 8-millimeter movie (Hughes) of the TSBD windows was analyzed by three basic methods: (1) inverse Fourier transform filtering to sharpen the imagery, (2) multiple-frame integration to improve the signal-to-noise, and (3) binary quantization to eliminate gray levels in the finished product in order to observe more clearly an object of interest in the sixth-floor corner window of the building. The intent of the total enhancement process was to make this object and its motion more detectable. The inverse Fourier transform filtering used a Wiener filter of the form

$$\frac{\exp(-N^2\pi^2\sigma^2)}{[\exp(-N^2\pi^2\sigma^2)]^2 + (\text{noise})^2}$$

Figures 1 and 2 show the results. These techniques were also applied to the Zapruder film for edge enhancement.

2. Stereophotogrammetry

The graphical and analytic techniques of stereophotogrammetric measurement were (1) applied to the Hughes film to generate ordinal depth plots of objects of interest in the TSBD windows, (2) applied to the Zapruder film to generate depth profiles of occupants of the Presidential limousine for a bullet trajectory study and for perspective corrections, and (3) applied to objects on the "grassy knoll" to determine relative depths and to assist in object identification.

By applying the basic equation of photogrammetry

where h' = distance from camera to object b = distance between cameras f = focal length
 p = X or stereoscopic parallax relative depths of objects of interest were determined from both parallax measurements made on an STK-1 stereocomparator, and by use of corrective graphical techniques from "ground truth" data.

*Author's note: This paper is similar in content to one recently published by SPIE on the proceedings of a recent seminar (Optics in Law Enforcement, Reston, Virginia, April 1977). The data is derived from the same source, but the objectives for the two papers are slightly different.

Fig. 1. Digitally enhanced Hughes window imagery. This figure shows computer-processed images of four windows in the Texas School Book Depository. The original film was an 8-mm, 88-frame sequence taken by Robert Hughes about 7 seconds before the first shot. In each picture here, 22 frames have been integrated and sharpened using digital processing techniques. Each successive picture contains a different integration so that the full sequence is displayed in this composite. When viewed as a movie, this sequence shows motion of three men known to be in the windows on the fifth floor and motion of an object in the corner sixth floor window.

Fig. 2. This figure shows computer-processed images of the sixth floor corner window of the Texas School Book Depository. The original images were taken by Robert Hughes about 7 seconds before the first shot. The Presidential limousine during this sequence is approaching and turning the corner beneath the building. Each photo here is a composite of 22 sharpened frames, which were then binarized. This result is generated using digital image processing techniques. This sequence shows the window from the beginning to the end of the original 8-mm movie sequence. An object in the window changes shape during this sequence. When viewed as a movie the object appears to move from the edge toward the middle of the window.

Figures 4, 5, and 6 show the most significant application of stereo measurement performed during the study. The results show that the relative location of President Kennedy and Governor Connally in the limousine were determined and then related to a possible bullet trajectory from the TSBD sixth-floor corner window.

3. Photointerpretation

Photointerpretation [by both static and dynamic (movie) methods] was used throughout the program, primarily for three purposes: (1) to determine what actions or phenomena in the films should be subjected to quantitative evaluation, (2) used on the Zapruder film to assess movements of Governor Connally near the time of the President's first wound and to judge their significance, and (3) used to qualify the movements of President and Mrs. Kennedy prior to and just after infliction of the fatal wound at Zapruder film frame 313. The results of part 2 of this interpretation are depicted in Figure 7, and are summarized at the end of the paper.

4. Precision Photographic Processing, Spectral Enhancement, and Coherent Spatial Filtering

The objectives of each of these techniques respectively were to produce high-quality, controlled-gamma copies of the Hughes and Zapruder movie frames for digital and photo-optical analyses, green and red record separation duplicates, spectrally enhanced high gamma copies of Zapruder frame 313 for definition of particulate matter, and coherent spatial filtering for edge enhancement of particles shown in Zapruder frame 313.

Figure 8 shows a result of the spectral color separation enhancement. The purpose here was to produce a sharp delineation of the particles in frame 313 in order to perform more accurate mensuration for a momentum transfer analysis of the President's movements.

5. Digital Plotting From Mensuration Data, and Photo-Optical Change Detection Including Integrated Enhancements

A result of the mensuration and plotting from a composite of two overlaid Hughes frames is shown in Figure 9. Here motion or shape change of an object in the sixth-floor corner window of the TSBD is shown. Motion of this object was also found by "blink detection". Two frames, one near the beginning and one at the end of the Hughes sequence, are aligned on a screen. By shuttering back and forth between the two, differences become well defined. The result is described in Figure 10.

Photo-optically integrated images of the TSBD windows of interest were also generated. An improvement in signal-to-noise of the image was produced from this process. The integrated enhancements were made by combining three frames from the movie sequence on an Itek integrating printer.

Results of the overlaying of outline digital plots from the Zapruder film are shown in Figures 11 and 12. The purpose here was to assess the President's motions at the time of the fatal shot (frame 313) on the Zapruder film.

6. Mensuration

Precision measurements were made primarily from the Zapruder film using a Mann 880 comparator. The goals and objectives of this work were: (1) to produce calculations of the velocity, accelerations, and forces President and Mrs. Kennedy were subjected to, (2) detection of unusual movements of the President, (3) comparison of the President's reaction to a wound and Governor Connally's movements (see Figure 7), (4) perspective corrections, by least squares fitting, which were applied to residual motion calculations, and (5) a heuristic hypothesis that Mrs. Kennedy caused JFK's backward motion.

The end result of the mensuration efforts performed on the Zapruder frames that depict the fatal shot and reactions to it was to find the cause of the President's backward motion that takes place immediately after the fatal shot.

The result of the calculations of the residual motion is shown in Figure 13. Zapruder frame 312 (Figure 14) is the reference coordinate frame for Figure 13. This data on the residual motions of the President and Mrs. Kennedy was the basis for analysis of the forces involved here, which ultimately led to the hypothesis to explain these motions.

From the force analysis, accelerations of JFK and Mrs. Kennedy were computed from perspective-corrected mensuration data and residual motions were evaluated by application of Newton's law:

$$F = \frac{kd(mv)}{dt}$$ results showed Mrs. Kennedy was subjected to a significantly greater force than JFK as he reversed direction. From an impulse analysis

$$\int_{t_1}^{t_2} F dt = mv_2 - mv_1$$

he was shown to have the dominant momentum-altering characteristics throughout the collision interaction between her and JFK.

Fig. 4. Zapruder frames 188 and 183. These two frames produced a clear stereo view of the car and occupants just prior to passing behind the Stemmons Freeway sign. Measurements were made from the stereo pair (and others) to determine the relative locations of JFK and Governor Connally in the car. This stereo pair can be viewed quite comfortably without the aid of a stereoscope. The three-dimensional effect is vivid. The measurements showed Governor Connally further recessed into the car than JFK.

Fig. 7. This graph shows the relationship between the voluntary movement of JF-K's right hand as it moves toward his throat, and a movement of Governor Connally's right hand. Speed of the hand movements as they proceed upward is plotted versus frame number. Connally's peak speed is about two frames behind Kennedy's.

Fig. 9. Computer-generated superimposed outline of sixth-floor corner window from Hughes frames 13 and 14. Frame 14 is denoted by the X's. Special processing techniques were used to enhance the original color movie taken by Robert Hughes about 7 seconds prior to the shots, from which this outline was made. Two frames, one near the beginning and the other at the end of the Hughes movie sequence, were digitized on a comparator and then overlaid and plotted by computer. A change in the shape or position of an object in the window can be seen. The dots denote one frame, the X's denote the other.

Fig. 10. Hughes frame 5 taken at the beginning of the 5-second sequence. Frame 84 (bottom) shows in comparison to frame 5 that the object in the sixth-floor corner window has moved a detectable amount over the 4- to 5-second interval between exposures.

Summary of the Results and Conclusions se image analysis methods applied to the Zapruder and Hughes films produced the following results.

Motion of an object or person was detected in the sixth-floor corner window of the Texas School Book Depository.

Identification of this object was not possible despite enhancement techniques applied to the imagery. No other motions or evidence indicating the presence of another person(s) in other sixth-floor windows visible in the Hughes film were found.

No evidence could be found that would indicate that President Kennedy was struck before the Stemmon's Freeway sign blocked Zapruder's view.

President Kennedy was first wounded most probably after frame 212 and before frame 223.

The positions of President Kennedy and Governor Connally in the car at about 1-3/4 seconds before (i.e., frame 186 vicinity) President Kennedy was struck by a bullet (i.e., frame 218 vicinity) and the locations of their wounds are consistent with the hypothesis that both were struck by a single bullet traveling on a trajectory from the sixth-floor corner window of the Texas School Book Depository.

Governor Connally begins a rapid and seemingly involuntary change in physical appearance at about Zapruder frame 225. Part of this change (hand and arm movement) is similar to President Kennedy's voluntary reaction (hand and arm movement) to a wound, first observed at frame 224. Governor Connally's hand movement lags behind President Kennedy's by about two frames, or about 1/9 of a second.

All major particles ejected from the President's head at frame 313 travel in a forward direction and his head moves forward about 2.3 inches between frames 312 and 313, under the impact of the blow.

The motions of Mrs. Kennedy and the President immediately after frame 313 indicate that Mrs. Kennedy contributed to or caused the backward motion of the President after frame 313.

No evidence of gunmen purported to be either on the grassy knoll or behind the stockade fence was found.

Enclosed are the original and two copies of a memorandum responding in full to an HSCA request of December 18, 1978, which asked that our September 14, 1978, response to 16 interrogatories pertaining to Yuri Nosenko be declassified in toto.

The September 14, 1978, document has been referred to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) for its concurrence in the declassification of certain material. The CIA has advised that it does not object to the declassification of particular information. The CIA has also suggested a correction with regard to a specific date, presumably based upon information in its files. The CIA suggestion is being brought to the attention of the Committee for its consideration.

The enclosed memorandum, in part, reiterates our September 14, 1978, response with all classification markings deleted.

You are requested to furnish one copy of the memorandum to the HSCA and, if you approve, one copy to the Office of Legislative Counsel, CIA, for that agency's information.

NOTE: This matter has been coordinated with SA Van Wagenen, Section CI-1, Intelligence Division, and with Mr. Scott Breckinridge, Office of Legislative Counsel, CIA, whose letter of confirmation is attached to the file copy together with a copy of the 9/14/78, response which he reviewed. Intelligence Division concurs that FBI file information does not warrant correction of a date as suggested by CIA, since the few months involved between 12/8/68 (CIA date) and 4/3/69 (FBI date) do not raise significant questions with regard to the bona fides of Nosenko or the date he again became available for interview by the FBI.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to a December 18, 1978, letter to the Attorney General signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, which asked that the FBI declassify, in toto, a Secret, September 14, 1978, response made to 16 interrogatories pertaining to Yuri Ivanovich Nosenko which were propounded by the Committee in its letter of September 5, 1978.

Declassification of the September 14, 1978, response required coordination with the Office of Legislative Counsel, CIA, which interposed no objection to declassifying certain portions of that response.

The Committee's attention is invited to the fact that CIA did suggest, with regard to the response to interrogatory number "8", that the FBI "... may wish to correct the dates on which the FBI did not have direct access to Mr. Nosenko, to read 3 April 1964 until 8 December 1968."

JUL 15 1980

For the convenience of the Committee, the following declassified, verbatim reiteration of the September 14, 1978, response is provided.

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

This responds in full to the following enumerated interrogatories submitted for consideration in a letter, dated September 5, 1978, to the Attorney General and signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA.

"1. On what dates and for how long was Nosenko questioned by the FBI about Lee Harvey Oswald—from 1964 to present?"

The files of the FBI indicate that Yuri Ivanovich Nosenko was interviewed regarding Oswald and/or the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on February 26 and 27, 1964, and on March 3, 4 and 6, 1964. The FBI files do not record the specific duration in whole or in part as to topical discussions, of those five interviews; however, summary communications indicate the February 27, 1964 interview was conducted on the afternoon of that date and the March 4, 1964 discussion of Oswald occurred at the outset of an afternoon interview on that date.

"2. When Nosenko was questioned by the FBI about Lee Harvey Oswald, who did the questioning?"

The FBI interviews of Nosenko, during which he was questioned about Oswald and/or the assassination of President Kennedy, were conducted by Special Agents (SAs) Alekso Poptanich, Maurice A. Taylor and Donald E. Walter on February 26 and 27, 1964; by SAs Poptanich and W. Marvin Gheesling on March 3 and 4, 1964; and by SAs Poptanich, Taylor and Walter on March 6, 1964.

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

"3. What background, if any, did the interrogator have in interrogations? What knowledge did the interrogator have with respect to Oswald's background?"

There are no retrievable FBI statistics upon which to base a quantification of the interrogatory experiences of the SA personnel who interviewed Nosenko on the five pertinent occasions. Suffice it to say, the techniques of cooperative and hostile interrogations are integral aspects of the training and almost daily duties of SA personnel. In that regard, it is noted that during the February and March, 1964 interviews SA Poptanich had almost 13 years of SA experience; SA Taylor had over 31 years of SA experience; SA Walter had completed almost 17 years of SA experience; and SA Gheesling had over 13 years of SA experience. Further, their respective personnel files disclose the following:

SA Poptanich was then fluent in the Russian language (Nosenko's native tongue). The Annual Report of Performance Rating, dated March 31, 1962, noted that SA Poptanich, during the previous twelve months, had participated in the interrogation of a Soviet defector and his knowledge of the Russian language and mores of the Russian people proved most helpful relative thereto.

SA Taylor, on September 11, 1962, received an incentive award in recognition of the superior fashion his responsibilities were discharged over an extended period of time. The Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the Washington Field Office, in submitting a recommendation for the incentive award, commented that SA Taylor had demonstrated exceptional ability in the interrogation and debriefing of three Soviet defectors, all of whom were intelligence officers. SA Taylor's Performance Rating for the period April 1, 1963--March 31, 1964, noted he was recognized as the finest interrogator on the Soviet espionage squad in the Washington Field Office, which accounted for his assignments to interview Soviet defectors. (U)

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

SA Walter was the recipient of a personal letter of commendation, dated October 3, 1963, from the Director, FBI, for his superior work in the handling of a very sensitive, complicated, fast moving, and highly publicized espionage case. Previously (on November 7, 1954), he had received a meritorious salary increase for his outstanding work on another espionage case, successful interrogation being the key aspect of that investigation.

SA Gheesling, at the time of the pertinent Nosenko interviews, served as a Supervisor at FBI Headquarters and had considerable experience in espionage, intelligence and counterintelligence investigations. SA Gheesling supervised the field investigation of Oswald (from the latter's return to the United States on June 13, 1962 until September, 1962, and from November 22, 1963 through mid-1964). He was assigned exclusively to supervisory responsibilities relative to the assassination of President Kennedy.

While the specific knowledge of Oswald's background, possessed by these SAs at the time of the Nosenko interviews, can be answered only by the SAs themselves, SA Gheesling's prior assignment to supervision of the Oswald investigation would tend to indicate that he, at least, was quite knowledgeable of data contained in FBI files concerning Oswald.

- "4. On the dates that Nosenko was questioned about Oswald, does there now exist or did there ever exist:
- a. a tape of the questions asked and Nosenko's answers;
 - b. a transcript of the questions asked and Nosenko's answers;
 - c. a summary of the questions asked and Nosenko's answers?"

As noted in FBI memorandum dated June 19, 1978, captioned as above, and which was prepared in response to HSCA letter, dated June 13, 1978, to the Attorney General, FBI records searches have not located any extant tape recordings

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

or verbatim transcripts of FBI interviews with Nosenko that concerned Oswald and/or the assassination of President Kennedy. A document has been located which indicates that FBI personnel did record the February 26 and 27, 1964, interviews of Nosenko, among others. Since no recordings or transcripts have been located, it can be assumed that the recordings were used by the interviewing SAs to check the accuracy of their notes prior to dictating the results of the interviews. It is further assumed that, upon verifying the accuracy of summary reportings of the interviews, the recordings were disposed of since they had served the purpose for which they were made, although no record of such disposition can be found. Summary reportings of the five pertinent interviews are extant, and were delivered to the HSCA on March 21, 1978.

"5. What criteria, if any, was used to determine:

- a. what subjects to question Nosenko about;
- b. how much time to devote to each subject?"

FBI files do not contain a specific enumeration of criteria used to determine the particular subjects Nosenko was to be questioned about nor the amount of time to be devoted to each subject in the questioning.

"6. What significance — with respect to possible foreign involvement in the assassination as well as to the issue of Nosenko's bonafides (sic)—did the FBI attach during the years 1964-1968 to Nosenko's statements about Oswald?"

The FBI, during the years 1964-1968, considered Nosenko's statements about Oswald to be very significant elements of his initial reportings, the veracity of which had to be assessed in relation to the totality of information furnished by him. The FBI perceived Nosenko's statements about Oswald, depending upon a subsequent, definitive resolution of Nosenko's bona fides, to be the most authoritative information available indicative of a lack of Soviet governmental involvement in the assassination of President Kennedy.

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

"7. What significance — with respect to possible foreign involvement in the assassination as well as to the issue of Nosenko's bonafides (sic)—does the FBI attach today to Nosenko's statements about Oswald?"

The FBI does not perceive any significant evidence of foreign involvement in the assassination of President Kennedy, nor does the FBI perceive any credible evidence that Nosenko's defection was a Soviet ploy to mask Soviet governmental involvement in the assassination. Therefore, the FBI is satisfied that Nosenko reported the facts about Oswald as he knew them.

"8. If the answer to question 6 is different from the response to question 7, when did the change occur and why?"

The FBI had no direct access to Nosenko from April 3, 1964 until April 3, 1969, and therefore was not in a position to make an objective assessment of his bona fides nor of the veracity of information furnished by him. Thus, information provided by him, in early 1964, was accepted at face value and qualified in terms of the source and the conditions under which it was received. On October 1, 1968, the FBI advised the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) that, based upon a review of material provided by CIA, the FBI found no substantial basis to conclude that Nosenko was not a bona fide defector; however, the FBI did not reach any overall, definitive conclusions regarding his bona fides because of a lack of access to Nosenko and all collateral information pertinent to such an assessment. Effective May 11, 1977, the CIA and FBI concurred that Nosenko was a bona fide defector, based upon an assessment of the totality of information furnished by him.

"9. What was the FBI's position from 1964 to 1968 on the question of whether Nosenko is bonafide (sic)?"

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

The FBI, from 1964 to 1968, characterized Nosenko as a Soviet defector whose bona fides had not been established.

"10. What is the FBI's position today on the question of whether Nosenko is bonafide (sic)?"

The FBI currently characterizes Nosenko as a former Soviet Committee for State Security (KGB) officer who has furnished reliable information in the past, and considers Nosenko to be a bona fide Soviet defector.

The answer to question 8 is considered responsive to question 11.

"12. What was the FBI's position from 1964 to 1968 on whether Nosenko was telling the truth in the statements he made to the FBI about Oswald?"

The FBI did not take a position, from 1964 to 1968, on whether Nosenko was telling the truth in the statements he made to the FBI about Oswald. The statements were accepted at face value and qualified in terms of the source and the conditions under which they were received.

"13. What is the FBI's position today as to whether Nosenko was telling the truth in the statements he made to the FBI about Oswald?"

The FBI is satisfied that Nosenko truthfully reported the facts about Oswald as he knew them.

"14. If the answer to question 12 is different from the response to question 13, when did the change occur and why?"

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

As indicated in the responses to questions 7 and 8, the FBI, as of October 1, 1968, found no substantial basis to conclude Nosenko was not a bona fide defector; as of May 11, 1977, accepted a CIA assessment that Nosenko was a bona fide defector; and has not perceived any significant evidence, from 1964 to date, that Nosenko reported other than the facts about Oswald as he knew them.

"15. Did either the FBI or the CIA have primary responsibility for investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald? If neither had primary responsibility, was there any division of responsibility?"

The FBI had primary responsibility for investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald that pertained to his (Oswald's) activities in the United States, including the assassination of President Kennedy. The CIA had primary responsibility for investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald's activities abroad.

"16. What communication, if any, existed between the FBI and CIA with respect to evaluating and/or investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald?"

The FBI forwarded a letter, dated March 6, 1964, from the Director, FBI, to the Director, CIA, enclosing memoranda dated February 28, 1964, and March 4, 1964, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald," which summarized the results of FBI interviews of Nosenko regarding Oswald on February 26 and 27, 1964, and March 3 and 4, 1964. The results of a CIA interview of Nosenko on January 23, 1964, regarding Oswald were furnished to the FBI in a letter from the CIA dated April 28, 1964. These particular pieces of correspondence, while not setting forth any specific requests or investigative leads, were furnished for purposes of evaluation.

Where information is not provided, it is either not retrievable from FBI Headquarters files or is not being furnished pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding.

NOTE: See Director, FBI, letter to Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Attention: Mr. Robert L. Keuch, dated January 8, 1979, captioned as above.

I. Findings of the Select Committee on Assassinations in the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Texas, November 22, 1963

A. Lee Harvey Oswald fired three shots at President John F. Kennedy. The second and third shots he fired struck the President. The third shot he fired killed the President.

- 1. President Kennedy was struck by two rifle shots fired from behind him.
- 2. The shots that struck President Kennedy from behind him were fired from the sixth floor window of the southeast corner of the Texas School Book Depository building.
- 3. Lee Harvey Oswald owned the rifle that was used to fire the shots from the sixth floor window of the southeast corner of the Texas School Book Depository building.
- 4. Lee Harvey Oswald, shortly before the assassination, had access to and was present on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building.
- 5. Lee Harvey Oswald's other actions tend to support the conclusion that he assassinated President Kennedy.

- B. Scientific acoustical evidence establishes a high probability that two gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy. Other scientific evidence does not preclude the possibility of two gunmen firing at the President. Scientific evidence negates some specific conspiracy allegations.
- C. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that President John F. Kennedy was probably assassinated as a result of a conspiracy. The Committee is unable to identify the other gunman or the extent of the conspiracy.
 - 1. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that the Soviet Government was not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy.
 - 2. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that the Cuban Government was not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy.
 - 3. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that anti-Castro Cuban groups, as groups, were not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy, but that the available evidence does not preclude the possibility that individual members may have been involved.
 - 4. The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that the national syndicate of organized crime, as a group, was not involved in the assassination of President Kennedy, but that the available evidence does not preclude the possibility that individual members may have been involved.
 - 5. The Secret Service, Federal Bureau of Investigation and Central Intelligence Agency were not involved in the assassination of

- D. Agencies and departments of the United States Government performed with varying degrees of competency in the fulfillment of their duties. President John F. Kennedy did not receive adequate protection. A thorough and reliable investigation into the responsibility of Lee Harvey Oswald for the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was conducted. The investigation into the possibility of conspiracy in the assassination was inadequate. The conclusions of the investigations were arrived at in good faith, but presented in a fashion that was too definitive.
1. The Secret Service was deficient in the performance of its duties.
 - (a) The Secret Service possessed information that was not properly analyzed, investigated or used by the Secret Service in connection with the President's trip to Dallas; in addition, Secret Service agents in the motorcade were inadequately prepared to protect the President from a sniper.
 - (b) The responsibility of the Secret Service to investigate the assassination was terminated when the Federal Bureau of Investigation assumed primary investigative responsibility.
 2. The Department of Justice failed to exercise initiative in supervising and directing the investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the assassination.

3. The Federal Bureau of Investigation performed with varying degrees of competency in the fulfillment of its duties.
 - (a) The Federal Bureau of Investigation adequately investigated Lee Harvey Oswald prior to the assassination and properly evaluated the evidence it possessed to assess his potential to endanger the public safety in a national emergency.
 - (b) The Federal Bureau of Investigation conducted a thorough and professional investigation into the responsibility of Lee Harvey Oswald for the assassination.
 - (c) The Federal Bureau of Investigation failed to investigate adequately the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President.
 - (d) The Federal Bureau of Investigation was deficient in its sharing of information with other agencies and departments.
4. The Central Intelligence Agency was deficient in its collection and sharing of information both prior to and subsequent to the assassination.
5. The Warren Commission performed with varying degrees of competency in the fulfillment of its duties.
 - (a) The Warren Commission conducted a thorough and professional investigation into the responsibility of Lee Harvey Oswald for the assassination.

- (b) The Warren Commission failed to investigate adequately the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President. This deficiency was attributable in part to the failure of the Commission to receive all the relevant information that was in the possession of other agencies and departments of the government.
- (c) The Warren Commission arrived at its conclusions, based on the evidence available to it, in good faith.
- (d) The Warren Commission presented the conclusions in its report in a fashion that was too definitive.

III. Recommendations of the Select Committee on Assassinations

1. Legislative Recommendations on Issues Involving the Prohibition, Prevention and Prosecution of Assassinations and Federally Cognizable Homicides

A. Prohibition and Prevention

1. The Judiciary Committee should process for early consideration by the House legislation that would make the assassination of a Chief of State of any country, or his political equivalent, a federal offense, if the offender is an American citizen or acts on behalf of an American citizen, or if the offender can be located in the United States.
2. The Judiciary Committee should process for early consideration by the House comprehensive legislation that would codify, revise and reform the federal law of homicide, paying special attention to assassinations. The Judiciary Committee should give appropriate attention to the related offenses of conspiracy, attempt, assault and kidnapping in the context of assassinations. Such legislation should be processed independently of the general proposals for the codification, revision or reform of the Federal criminal law. The Committee should address the following issues in considering the legislation:
 - (a) Distinguishing between those persons who should receive the protection of federal law because of the official positions they occupy and those persons who should receive protection of federal law only in the performance of their official duties,
 - (b) Extending the protection of federal law to persons who occupy high judicial and executive positions, including Justices of the Supreme Court and Cabinet officers,
 - (c) The applicability of these laws to private individuals in the exercise of constitutional rights,
 - (d) The penalty to be provided for homicide and the related offenses, including the

- (e) The basis for the exercise of federal jurisdiction, including domestic and extraterritorial reach,
 - (f) The pre-emption of state jurisdiction without the necessity of any action on the part of the Attorney General where the President is assassinated,
 - (g) The circumstances under which federal jurisdiction should preempt state jurisdiction in other cases,
 - (h) The power of federal investigative agencies to require autopsies to be performed,
 - (i) The ability of federal investigative agencies to secure the assistance of other federal or state agencies, including the military, other laws notwithstanding,
 - (j) The authority to offer rewards to apprehend the perpetrators of the crime,
 - (k) A requirement of forfeiture of the instrumentalities of the crime,
 - (l) The condemnation of personal or other effects of historical interest,
 - (m) The advisability of providing, consistent with the first amendment, legal trust devices to hold for the benefit of victims, their families, or the general treasury, the profits realized from books, movie rights, or public appearances by the perpetrator of the crime, and
 - (n) The applicability of threat and physical zone of protection legislation to persons under the physical protection of federal investigative or law enforcement agencies.
3. The appropriate Committees of the House should process for early consideration by the House charter legislation for the Central Intelligence Agency and Federal Bureau of Investigation. The Committees should address the following issues in

- (b) The relationship between the domestic intelligence functions and the interference with the exercise of individual constitutional rights,
- (c) The delineation of proper law enforcement functions and techniques including:
 - (i) the use of informants and electronic surveillance,
 - (ii) guidelines to circumscribe the use of informants or electronic surveillance to gather intelligence on, or investigate, groups that may be exercising first amendment freedoms, and
 - (iii) the proper response of intelligence or investigative agencies where information is developed that an informant has committed a crime.
- (d) Guidelines to consider the circumstances, if any, when an investigative agency or a component of that agency should be disqualified from taking an active role in an investigation because of an appearance of impropriety growing out of a particular intelligence or investigative action,
- (e) Definitions of the legislative scope and extent of "sources and methods" and the "informant privilege" as a rationale for the executive branch withholding information in response to Congressional or judicial process or other demand for information,
- (f) Institutionalizing efforts to coordinate the gathering, sharing, and analysis of intelligence information,
- (g) Insuring those agencies that primarily gather intelligence perform their function so as to serve the needs of other agencies that primarily engage in physical protection, and

B. Prosecution

1. The Judiciary Committee should consider the impact of the provisions of law dealing with third-party records, bail and speedy trial as it applies to both the investigation and prosecution of federally cognizable homicides.
2. The Judiciary Committee should examine recently passed special prosecutor legislation to determine if its provisions should be modified to extend them to presidential assassinations and the circumstances, if any, under which they should be applicable to other federally cognizable homicides.

II. Administrative Recommendations to the Executive

The Department of Justice should re-examine its contingency plans for the handling of assassinations and federally cognizable homicides in light of the record and findings of the Committee. Such an examination should consider the following issues:

- A. Insuring that its response takes full advantage of inter and intraagency task forces and the strike force approach to investigations and prosecutions,
- B. Insuring that its response takes full advantage of the advances of science and technology, and determining when it should secure independent panels of scientists to review or perform necessary scientific tasks, or secure qualified independent forensic pathologists to perform a forensic autopsy,
- C. Insuring that its fair trial/free press guidelines, consistent with an alleged offender's right to a fair trial, allow information about the facts and circumstances surrounding an assassination promptly be made public, and promptly be corrected when erroneous information is mistakenly released, and
- D. Entering at the current time into negotiations with representatives of the media to secure voluntary agreements providing that photographs, audio tapes, television tapes and related matters made in and around the site of

Congressional Investigations

- A. The appropriate Committees of the House should consider amending the Rules of the House to provide for a right to appointive counsel in investigative hearings where a witness is unable to provide counsel from private funds.
- B. The appropriate Committees of the House should examine the Rules of the House governing the conduct of counsel in legislative and investigative hearings and consider delineating guidelines for professional conduct and ethics, including guidelines to deal with conflicts of interest in the representation of multiple witnesses before a Committee.
- C. The Judiciary Committee should examine the adequacy of federal law as it provides for the production of federal and state prisoners before legislative or investigative committees under a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum.
- D. The appropriate Committees of the House should examine and clarify the applicability to Congressional subpoenas of recently enacted legislative restrictions on access to records and other documents.
- E. The appropriate Committees of the House should consider legislation that would authorize the establishment of a legislative counsel to conduct litigation on behalf of committees of the House incident to the investigative or legislative activities and confer jurisdiction on the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to hear such lawsuits.
- F. The appropriate committees of the House should consider if Rule 11 of the House should be amended, so as to restrict the current access by all Members of the House to the classified information in the possession of any committee.

IV. Recommendations for Further Investigation

- A. The Department of Justice should contract for the examination of a film taken by Charles L. Bronson to determine its significance, if any, to the assassination of President Kennedy.

- C. The Department of Justice should review the Committee's findings and report in the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and after completion of the recommended investigation enumerated in Sections A and B, analyze whether further official investigation is warranted in either case. The Department of Justice should report its analysis to the Judiciary Committee.

PURPOSE:

To respond to the Director's inquiry concerning "What do we know about the accuracy of this method of tracing?" used by the House Select Committee on Assassinations.

SYNOPSIS:

This document presents a preliminary discussion and evaluation of the acoustic tests performed on a recording believed by the House Select Committee on Assassinations to be that of the sequence of gunshots associated with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas on November 22, 1963. Contained herein is a description, to the extent possible in lay terms, of the acoustic tests performed, the nature of the material upon which the tests were performed, estimations of the validity and accuracy of the tests, where possible, and observations by the Engineering Section concerning the strengths and weaknesses of the analyses. Memorandum W.D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

DETAILS:

Overview:

On September 11, 1978, and again on December 29, 1978, the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) met in public session to hear expert testimony relative to scientific acoustic analyses performed on an audio recording, believed by the Committee to contain the sequence of gunshots associated with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. Initial analyses were performed by a team of scientists employed by Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Incorporated, Cambridge, Massachusetts. The team leader and expert, who first testified on September 11, 1978, was Dr. James E. Barger.

Based upon inconclusive results reached by Dr. Barger in certain critical areas of the analyses, particularly the "50-50" conclusion regarding the "third shot from the grassy knoll," Dr. Barger's results were referred for further analysis to Mr. Mark Weiss and Mr. Ernest Aschkenasy, both professors in the Computer Science Department, Queens College, Flushing, New York. It is understood that both Weiss and Aschkenasy also provided some assistance and suggestions during the initial analysis of the Dealey Plaza gunshot recording by Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc. According to the testimony of Dr. Barger, after Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., reached its inconclusive results regarding the third "shot," Weiss suggested to Barger a technique which Weiss felt could improve upon and extend the analysis. Weiss was instructed to proceed by the Committee. On December 29, 1978, he and Aschkenasy testified before the Committee that with a certainty of 95% or better the third sound on the Dealey Plaza recording was a rifle shot and that it originated from a specific point on the grassy knoll. They further testified that this determination could be made with great positional accuracy, that is, within approximately 5 feet. Dr. Barger later testified that he agreed with the assertion of Weiss that the third sound originated from the grassy knoll but Barger could only ascribe an approximately 78% certainty that the sound was a rifle shot.

The following is a discussion of the analyses performed and the data which these experts believe supports their conclusions. It should be emphasized that the information upon which this discussion is based is derived only from the oral testimony offered in public hearings on September 11, and December 29, 1978, and in the case of the testimony of Weiss and Aschkenasy, also upon visual inspection of exhibits by Engineering Section personnel who observed the testimony on December 29.

The Engineering Section does not presently possess written reports or raw data pertaining to these analyses. Many questions raised in this analysis may in fact be covered in the written reports of the experts.

The Experts:

Dr. James E. Barger is chief scientist for Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., a major acoustic consulting firm headquartered in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Dr. Barger possesses a PhD in Applied Physics from Harvard, is a Fellow of the Acoustical Society of America and has performed extensive work in sonar and underwater acoustics. He supervised, under the direction of Dr. Richard Bolt, the Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., effort in the analysis of the 18 1/2 minute gap in the Watergate tapes and was project leader in the Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., analysis of the recorded gunfire in the Kent State incident.

Memorandum W.D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

Dr. Barger identified his team members in the gunshot analysis as Dr. Jerry Wolf, Dr. Dan Calico, Dr. Ted Rine, Mr. Scott Robinson, Mr. Leo Slajeski, Miss Nancy McMahon, Mr. Joe Colerattello, and Mr. Ed Schmidt (phonetic spelling). The Engineering Section has no biographic information on these individuals other than it is believed Dr. Wolf and Mr. Robinson also worked on the Kent State analysis performed by Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc.

Mr. Mark Weiss possesses a M.S. degree in Electrical Engineering, was a past vice president of Federal Scientific Corporation, a signal analysis and equipment manufacturing firm, and is presently a professor in the Department of Computer Science, Queens College, New York. He served as a member of a panel of experts appointed by Judge John J. Sirica to examine the White House tape recordings in connection with the Watergate investigations. He is a Fellow of the Acoustical Society of America and a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineering.

Mr. Ernest Aschkenasy possesses a M.S. Degree in Electrical Engineering and is a research associate for the Department of Computer Science at Queens College where he presently serves as Mr. Weiss's assistant.

As the above biographies illustrate, the individuals who conducted the acoustical analyses of the Dealy Plaza recording possess considerable technical knowledge and experience in diverse areas of physics, acoustics and electrical engineering. So far as is known, they are highly regarded scientists in these disciplines.

RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

Origin and Chain of Custody of the Recording:

Committee Chief Counsel G. Robert Blakey testified that in September of 1977, the committee staff learned of the existence of a Dallas Police Department dispatch recording of the Dallas police transmissions covering the time period before, during and after the Kennedy Assassination. It is believed that the information which led the Committee staff to the recording was obtained from one Paul McCaren (phonetic spelling), retired Assistant Police Chief, who had been assigned to a Special Dallas Police Assassination investigation squad. The recording in question, a Dictaphone "dictabelt," described by Dr. Barger as a blue-colored continuous plastic belt, was a recording of a portion of the Dallas Police Department transmissions on Dallas Police channel 1.

It should be noted that the report of the Warren Commission made reference to this recording. Specifically, a Letterhead Memorandum dated August 11, 1964, Commission Exhibit Number 1974, contained in Volume 23 of the Report, describes the fact that an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Dallas reviewed dictabelts containing recordings of the Dallas Police radio transmissions on channel 1 from the period 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM, November 22, 1963. The stated purpose of the review was that the Warren Commission, by letter dated July 16, 1964, referred to the transcripts of Dallas Police Department radio transmissions covering November 22, 1963, and advised that in view of the importance of these transcripts, it was desired that the Federal Bureau of Investigation obtain the original recordings and prepare new transcripts. The letter requested that the name of the reporting police officer be listed alongside each message. The new transcript, included as a part of the Letterhead Memorandum, noted sometime after 12:26 PM the following: "(Transmitters stuck on one of the mobile units; nothing readable for sometime after 38's (WOODROW) last transmission. Sirens audible. Garbled transmissions) (12:34)"

Later in the transcript, sometime between 12:35 and 12:36 PM the following occurs: "4 (Fisher), we have a mike button stuck open. We can't hear anything. (Garbled transmission)."

There is no indication in the transcript that the reviewer had detected noises which sounded like shots. If such noises were present, they were probably substantially masked by other audio noise and radio interference. In fact, Dr. Barger stated in his testimony that the recording had a good deal of crowd and motorcycle noise and the sounds of interest were not clearly audible. There is no indication that the recordings of the Dallas Police radio transmissions were ever sent to the FBI Laboratory for review or analysis.

Acoustic Analysis Performed by Dr. Barger and Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc.:

Dr. Barger's testimony on September 11, 1978, described the objectives and methods used by the Bolt, Beranek, and Newman Inc., team to analyze the Dealy Plaza recording. He discussed 6 questions the team addressed:

- 1) Was the motorcycle in Dealy Plaza?
- 2) Were the sounds of shots detectable?
- 3) How many shots?
- 4) What was the timing of the shots?
- 5) From what location were the shots fired?
- 6) What weapon or weapons fired the shots?

Memorandum W.D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

The approach utilized by the team in an attempt to answer the above questions was a detailed analysis of the pattern of the shot-like sounds on the recording in question, an analysis of the echo characteristics of such sounds in Dealy Plaza and a comparison of the patterns in question to known shot and echo patterns recorded from test shots fired by different weapons from the positions of the School Book Depository Building and the grassy knoll.

At the outset Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., had little substantive information upon which to base any conclusion as to where the sounds recorded on the dictabelt originated. It was assumed, based upon the nature and loudness of the noise on the recording that the open microphone was on a motorcycle. It was assumed that due to the presence of impulsive type sounds that might be gunshots, the motorcycle was somewhere in the vicinity of Dealy Plaza. It was not known which police motorcycle it was, whether the motorcycle was in the Presidential motorcade or whether in fact the motorcycle was definitely in or near Dealy Plaza at the time of the shooting. It was hoped by Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., that a series of test recordings made in Dealy Plaza would resolve these and other questions.

In August, 1978, the Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., team went to Dealy Plaza to conduct and record a series of test shots from the School Book Depository Building and from the grassy knoll. An array of microphones and recorders adjusted to laboratory standards was positioned at 36 locations along the motorcade route, beginning at the turn onto Houston Street, turning the corner onto Elm Street and continuing down Elm Street past the spot where the Zapruder film of the motorcade showed Kennedy being struck by the fatal head shot. Sand-bagged targets were placed on the street at locations believed or known to be the impact points of the shots and these targets were fired at by shooters using 3 weapons, a Mannlicher Carcano rifle similar to the Oswald weapon, an M1 rifle and a pistol. The first 2 weapons were fired to obtain sounds of weapons firing supersonic projectiles, the last weapon was fired for the purposes of obtaining sounds of a weapon firing a subsonic projectile. The significance of the projectile speed will be discussed later. In all, 432 test "events" were recorded, a test event being a shot fired at a particular target using a particular weapon from a particular location and picked up and recorded by one of the 36 microphone positions.

The rationale behind all this testing was as follows: The muzzle blast of a weapon when fired produces a very loud, very brief (commonly called "impulsive") sound which radiates outward in all directions and due to its loudness carries for considerable distances. The muzzle blast impulsive noise travels at the speed of sound essentially in straight lines past an observer, for example a person or a microphone, which detects or "hears" the sound. This is called the "direct" sound. The sound also travels until it meets a hard surface which reflects the sound off in some other direction. The reflected sound may then continue on past the observer, where it is also "heard," or it may reflect off another surface and then past the observer, etc. The reflected sounds, because they always have to travel farther than the direct sound, always arrive some time after the direct sound, resulting in the condition we call echoes.

If the reflecting surfaces are far apart, for example, on the order of thousands of feet, the observer will hear a series of well defined, individual echoes. If, as was the case in Dealy Plaza, the reflecting surfaces, namely the building, signs, bridge abutments, etc., are spaced apart on the order of a few hundred feet, the echoes

RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE

usually arrive too quickly after the direct sound to be discerned by the listener as individual echoes. Instead of the listener hearing a series of brief impulsive sounds, he hears one sound which seems to be drawn out in duration. However, the individual echoes are still present and through proper analytical techniques and under appropriate conditions, can be detected. The statement "appropriate conditions" is significant from the standpoint that this detection is fairly easy and straightforward to do when the original sound is brief and loud, the reflecting surfaces are substantial and spaced far enough apart, and there is little other noise interference which masks the direct sound and echoes. As transmission and recording characteristics deteriorate, and other noise begins to mask the impulsive sounds the task becomes increasingly difficult. Evidently the Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., analysts encountered a poor quality recording in the original, for Dr. Barger described two techniques which Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., employed to assist in the analysis of the noises. These techniques were the "adaptive filter" and the "matched filter."

The adaptive filter is technically too complex a device to describe in any detail in this document. In brief, it is a method used to reduce the loudness of repetitive noise interference such as the engine noise from a motorcycle. It is a relatively recent development, having been described in principle in the literature about 10 years ago, and applied on a practical basis only in the last few years. Evidently Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., were somewhat successful in reducing the motorcycle noise interference using the adaptive filter technique.

The second method used by Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., the "matched filter," may be described more easily and is a straightforward scheme for detecting the presence of signals buried in interference. The matched filter concept has been used for years in radar, sonar, and

RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

other signal detection applications. However, in order for it to work, the characteristics of the signal being looked for must be well known. In the analysis of the Dealy Plaza Recording, the matched filters used were the various direct sound and echo pattern test shots recorded in Dealy Plaza in August, 1978. In other words, Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., recorded a known series of direct sound and echo patterns representing different test circumstances and they compared the patterns to those patterns on the motorcycle recording to determine whether any shots "matched". The comparison was done by computer as it would have been extremely difficult, if not impossible, to make all the comparisons by hand in a reasonable period of time. What constituted a "match" in the opinion of the analysts was based upon a statistical determination of the presence or absence of impulsive sounds corresponding to what might be echoes at the correct points in time. The process is somewhat akin to aligning the pickets on two picket fences when the pickets are spaced according to some pattern. If the patterns are different, the fences will not line up.

Dr. Barger testified that based upon the above analysis and comparison process, the analysis team had determined that the recording had come from the open microphone of a motorcycle which was a part of the Presidential motorcade and they had established the position of the motorcycle on Elm Street to an error radius of 9 feet (1/2 the distance of the 18 foot spacing of the microphones). Further, they had established that the motorcycle was moving at a speed of about 11 miles per hour and that it's position changed with each shot. Dr. Barger testified they had accurately measured the timing between the shots and if there were 4 shots, the time between the first and second was 1.6 seconds, between the second and the third 5.9 seconds and between the third and fourth 0.5 seconds. He testified that there was a high probability that there were two shots, both from the School Book Depository Building, a slightly lesser probability that there was a 3rd shot (the fourth sound in the sequence), also from the School Book Depository, and a lesser still probability that there was a 4th shot from the grassy knoll (the third sound in the sequence). When pressed on this issue, he stated he could reach only a "50-50" decision on the third "shot" in the sequence. It is noteworthy that Chairman Stokes asked Dr. Barger in cross-examination "Can I come to a conclusion from what I appear to be hearing?" To this question, Dr. Barger responded, "I think not."

ACOUSTIC ANALYSIS PERFORMED BY MR. MARK WEISS AND
MR. ERNEST ASCHKENASY

As previously set forth, Dr. Barger's acoustic analysis resulted in a 50-50 possibility that the third sound on the Dealy Plaza recording was a shot fired from the grassy knoll. After the September, 1978, public hearing where Dr. Barger set forth these results, the Committee contacted Mr. Weiss and Mr. Aschkenasy in an attempt to refine Dr. Barger's test results, and to establish with greater certainty whether or not a shot had been fired from the grassy knoll. On December 29, 1978, Mr. Weiss and Mr. Aschkenasy appeared before the Committee and publicly testified to the results of their study pertaining to the alleged shot from the grassy knoll. Mr. Weiss testified that after careful analysis he had determined with an accuracy of 95% or better, that a gun shot was fired from the grassy knoll in the direction of the Presidential motorcade on November 22, 1963. To reach this conclusion, Mr. Weiss analyzed a copy of the dictabelt recorded by the Dallas Police Department using an oscilloscope, a plotter, a hand calculator, a long graduated scale and a large survey

Memorandum W.D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

map of Dealy Plaza. Mr. Weiss justified his analysis based on what he claimed were three (3) well established principals of physics:

1. Sound from a point source radiates in all directions
2. When radiating sound waves encounter reflecting surfaces, echoes occur
3. The speed of sound is constant at a given atmospheric temperature and can be accurately determined.

Mr. Weiss assumed that Dr. Barger's tests had determined the approximate location of the sound source on the grassy knoll and the approximate location of the transmitting motorcycle in the Presidential motorcade. Mr. Weiss utilized the principal that the microphone on the motorcycle would receive the direct impulse sound followed by a series of echoes created by this original impulse reflecting off the nearby buildings and structures.

To perform this analysis, Mr. Weiss played a copy of the Dallas Police Department radio recording into an oscilloscope which produced a visual graph depicting loudness variations of this suspected gunshot sound. Using the plotter he made a hard copy graph of these loudness variations for further study. He assumed that the first high level impulse sound was generated by the original sound wave traveling directly to the microphone. He measured and catalogued the 14 short time lapses between this first impulse signal and each successive high level impulse (assumed to be echoes). Knowing the time interval between the first impulse sound and each successive impulse and the speed of sound, Mr. Weiss calculated the distance a sound (echo) would travel during each of these time intervals.

Memorandum W.D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

Knowing the exact distance traveled by each echo he constructed what he described as a unique acoustic pattern for this set of impulse sounds (echoes). He manually attempted to match this set of distances traveled by each echo to the predicted set of distances the sounds would travel in Dealy Plaza by changing the position of the sound source (gunshot) and the motorcycle along the parade route. Using this procedure, Mr. Weiss matched 10 known echo paths on the survey map to the measured distances of the echoes plotted from the copy of the recording of the Dallas Police Department radio transmissions. It should be noted that Mr. Weiss could not match 4 of the 14 impulse sounds recorded on the Dallas police department tape to his predicted echo paths. In addition, Mr. Weiss predicted there would be 12 echo impulse reflection echoes and only ten were found on the plotted graph of the Dallas Police Department tape recording. Statistically, according to Mr. Weiss, this translates into a 95% or better probability that an impulse sound originated on the grassy knoll and was received by the motorcycle in the Presidential motorcade. Then by examining signals buried in the noise, Mr. Weiss believed he could see an "N" wave generated by a supersonic projectile (whenever an object exceeds the speed of sound it generates a shock wave, known as an "N" wave). Rifle bullets usually exceed the speed of sound and therefore generate these "N" waves. Mr. Weiss believes that since an "N" wave was present, the sound from the grassy knoll was generated by a supersonic bullet.

After Mr. Weiss and Mr. Aschkenasy completed their testimony, Dr. Barger was recalled before the HSCA. Dr. Barger testified he agreed with the refinement made in his data by Mr. Weiss and that he would agree that the possibility that the third impulsive sound came from the grassy knoll was better than 95%. However, he stated in his opinion,

Memorandum W.D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: TESTIMONY OF ACOUSTICS EXPERTS
BEFORE THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

the possibility that the sound was a supersonic gunshot was 78%. This was because the recording had numerous other random impulses which had the characteristics of "N" waves, yet could not possibly be supersonic shock waves.

Observations by the Engineering Section:

At the present time there has been little precedent for the kinds of application of acoustic analysis to forensic situations as described by Dr. Barger, Mr. Weiss, and Mr. Aschkenasy. Specifically those applications are to determine, given a sound recording of a shooting incident, the location from which the shots originated and the type of weapons fired. In fact, the work done by Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., on the recordings of the Kent State incident was the first significant application in this area, with the recent work on the Kennedy Assassination being only the second to our knowledge. This apparent lack of foundation has been simply due to the lack of demand for this kind of service. Consequently, it is easier to comment upon the basic scientific principles involved than it is to determine whether those principles were correctly applied and the proper conclusions were drawn. It is, however, fundamental that the real forensic environment is often very different from the controlled situation of a laboratory.

Mr. Weiss and Mr. Aschkenasy concluded that the sound from the grassy knoll was a rifle shot. According to Mr. Weiss, this conclusion was drawn because the sound was very loud (although he did not describe how loud it was) and also because they observed an "N" wave type sound which seemed to have the right shape and was about at the right spot in the graph.

[REDACTED] (b)(5)

Further, Dr. Barger had earlier described that numerous impulsive events on the tape had characteristics of "N" waves, yet they were not supersonic shock waves. [REDACTED] Dr. Barger concluded that the observed wave was probably an "N" wave and not noise because - simply put - it was in the right place on the graph.

Mr. Weiss' statement that his work was based upon simple physical principles taught at the high school or freshman college level and that his calculations were based on simple mathematic and geometry performed by hand belies the real complexity of the task. [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

PURPOSE: To provide information received from Chief Counsel G. Robert Blakey, former HSCA, and to furnish suggestions for planning purposes based upon Blakey's information.

DETAILS: On 2/22/79, G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Staff Director, former HSCA, advised that he hoped to have approximately 1,500 pages of the HSCA's final report ready for informal review by the FBI during the week of 2/26-3/4/79. He desired that Special Agents (SAs) John T. Aldhizer and Drew J. Clark review this material in former Committee staff space when it was available.

Informal review of the HSCA's preliminary draft of its findings and recommendations was accomplished during December, 1978, by 12 Special Agents from Divisions IV, V, VI, VII and IX.

Blakey advised that the new material would be similar to that which was previously reviewed in December, with additions and modifications. He also stated that it may not be available for review until Saturday and Sunday, 3/3-4/79.

REC-112

Based on the experience of the December, 1978, review, it is suggested that reviewing Agents should consist of no less than SAs Aldhizer, Clark, Tron W. Brekke, John S. Giaquinto, Ronald Heller, Richard D. Davidson and Kurk I. Klossner, for a total of seven reviewing Agents. It is suggested that it would also be desirable to have ~~SA~~ Danny O. Coulson participate if he is available.

22 MAR 12 1979

Based on the fact that the former Committee staff has had since December, 1978, to prepare this material, it is suggested ~~that~~ there may be little justification to honor any request that seven or eight Agents work through a weekend to accommodate a former Committee staff's self-imposed deadline.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

PURPOSE: To advise of procedures to be followed in reviewing the Final Report, Staff Reports, or other materials furnished to the U. S. Department of Justice (USDJ) and FBI by the HSCA.

BACKGROUND: The HSCA has been inquiring into the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.

The Memorandum of Understanding between the HSCA and the USDJ, signed by the Attorney General on 10/5/77, specifies that the USDJ and its components (FBI) will have only five days (calendar) to provide written objections to information which the HSCA intends to disclose.

The formal submission of materials, such as the Committee's Final Report and Staff Reports, will constitute its notice to us that the HSCA intends to disclose such information. The five days will begin to toll upon receipt of these materials. According to the Memorandum of Understanding, " . . . If within five days from receipt of such notice the Chairman does not receive written notice from the Attorney General or his designee objecting to the proposed disclosure and stating the reasons for it, the Committee may disclose the information . . . "

Permissible objections, according to the Memorandum of Understanding, are limited to the following categories of information.

1. That which tends to identify or compromise:
 - a. Sensitive ongoing foreign intelligence operations and sources and other sources or methods of comparable sensitivity.
 - b. " . . . FBI sources who are or were informants or potential informants as defined in the FBI Manual of Instructions."
 - c. "Sources" defined as " . . . persons who have provided or continue to provide information to the FBI and as to whose identity the FBI has undertaken an obligation of confidentiality."

UJH

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

2. That which " . . . reveals matters in current litigation or in which criminal prosecution is pending . . . "
3. That which " . . . is classified information designated for protection from unauthorized disclosure by the Attorney General or an other properly designated official that identifies peculiarly sensitive foreign intelligence sources . . . "

When the Committee Chairman has been provided written objections and reasons therefor within the prescribed five days (calendar), he or his representative will then meet with the Attorney General or his representative " . . . to attempt to resolve any differences over the information to be disclosed . . . " " . . . Any differences left unresolved by negotiation may become the subject of litigation . . . "

The Bureau has been engaged in an informal review of the Committee's material since December, 1978. It is hoped that all major problems have been resolved through that informal review. (See Attachment 2.)

ACTION: Each addressee will receive a complete copy of all materials furnished to the Bureau. Attachment 1 reflects the Committee's breakdown of material previously made available to Bureau representatives for informal review. Attachment 1 also designates primary Divisional responsibility for particular sections as they are known at this time.

Each addressee will insure that all material is reviewed by his respective Division, although it is obvious from Attachment 1 that some sections, as opposed to others, should receive closer scrutiny by a given Division because they are more relevant to that Division's past or current responsibilities.

Each addressee is responsible to raise permissible objections, as outlined above, to categories of information that directly involve the past or current operation of his Division with strict adherence to the following timetable. Any doubtful matters should be resolved by coordination with the appropriate Division(s).

Day 1 - Receipt of material, reproduction of material, distribution of material to addressees, and review.

Day 2 - Review.

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

Day 3 - By close of business (or sooner), each Division will hand carry the original and 15 copies of final (smooth) drafts of letterhead memoranda suitable for dissemination setting forth permissible objections (see above) with all reasons therefor to Special Agent (SA) George J. Foster, Room 8988. By routing slip, each Division will identify the writer and telephone extension number to be called regarding each objection. Advise SA Foster by routing slip if no objections are to be tendered. See note below.

Day 4 - Representatives of Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Legal Counsel Division, and the Congressional Inquiry Unit, Records Management Division, will coordinate with FBI Legal Counsel and with the Deputy Assistant Attorney General Robert L. Keuch, USDJ, concerning submission of specific objections. Divisions will accomplish any rewrites as necessary.

Day 5 - Submit final response to USDJ.

It must be emphasized that only those objections permitted under the Memorandum of Understanding need be addressed within the five-day limit.

Factual errors should also be handled within the five-day limit by telephonically furnishing documented corrections to SA Drew J. Clark, extension 3685. Arrangements have been made with the remaining Committee Staff to handle these corrections informally. Any misspellings or incorrect grammatical constructions involved in statements about the FBI or its personnel should be brought to SA Clark's attention. Every effort will be made to have such minor errors corrected by the Committee.

NOTE: A separate letterhead memorandum will be written for each separate objection. Each letterhead memorandum will be captioned "House Select Committee on Assassinations; U. S. House of Representatives; Bufile 62-117290." For the sake of uniformity, each letterhead memorandum may begin with the following or similar language: A review of the HSCA Final Report, Section JFK-C-3, "Cuban Exiles" conducted in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding, discloses the following on page 213. (Repeat Committee language, state objection, supply complete reasons for same, and suggest alternative language. Insure objection is permitted under the Memorandum of Understanding.) (See pages 1 and 2.)

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

It will be necessary for each addressee to assign sufficient Agent manpower, with the best expertise immediately available, to review all the material and to thoroughly scrutinize those sections for which primary responsibility has been assigned to the addressees.

The Projects Unit, Document Classification and Review Section, Records Management Division, will be responsible for reviewing, within the established time limit, for classification purposes, all material furnished to the Bureau. Any problems relating to classified matters should be coordinated with SA William A. Harwood, Unit Chief, Projects Unit, extension 3565. SA Harwood's Unit will prepare any letterhead memoranda or internal comments required.

The Records Management Division will arrange for all required reproduction facilities in order to provide timely distribution of complete copies to all addressees. Because of the time constraints imposed by the Memorandum of Understanding, this reproduction must take precedence over routine matters.

Addressees will insure that reviewers are particularly alert to identify any statements or conclusions of the HSCA which warrant internal comment or rebuttal that may not be construed as permissible objections under the Memorandum of Understanding. Such internal comments should be handled expeditiously but without regard to the five-day timetable imposed by the Memorandum of Understanding. These comments should be brought to the attention of the Associate Director, the Deputy Associate Director, and the Public Affairs Office in light of the potential media and other attention that may be generated by publication of the HSCA's report. Primary Divisional responsibility for generating internal comments will be in accordance with Attachment 1 and other responsibilities assigned herein.

Addressees should immediately appoint coordinators for the Division's total effort. These coordinators should identify themselves to SA Foster, extension 3685, in order to facilitate receipt of material and subsequent processing.

The page count of material to be furnished is not known at this time, but it may approach 2,500.

A review of the HSCA Final Report was conducted in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding. Particular attention was given by the Laboratory to the scientific matters. The Laboratory interposes no objections to the material as it is presented. Comments on certain factual matters relating to the fingerprint reports will be handled separately by the Identification Division.

PURPOSE: To advise SA Foster that no permissible objections are being tendered by Technical Services Division.

DETAILS: The TSD has reviewed the pertinent sections of the "Report of the House Select Committee on Assassinations; U.S. House of Representatives." At this time, TSD has no permissible basis for objection to the report of the HSCA under the rules established by the Memorandum of Understanding between the HSCA and the USDJ. For the information of SA Foster or SA Clark, a review of the Appendix to Hearings Before the HSCA, Volume VIII, "Acoustics, Polygraph, Handwriting and Fingerprint Reports" states on page 32 "Thus, the probability is 95 percent or more that the impulses and echoes have the same source - a gunshot, or a sound at least as sound as a gunshot, from the grassy knoll." HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Enclosed are the original and one copy of a memorandum responding in full to a May 31, 1979, inquiry of Mr. G. Robert Blakey, former Chief Counsel and Staff Director, HSCA.

On May 31, 1979, Mr. Blakey telephoned Special Agent Drew J. Clark from Ithaca, New York, where Mr. Blakey has returned to professorial duties at the Cornell Law School.

Mr. Blakey advised that a recent article appearing in "Gallery" magazine has caused him to focus on a question which he believes presents a mutual problem for the HSCA and the Bureau.

Mr. Blakey explained that when the HSCA's consultant in neutron activation analysis had occasion to measure and weigh the fatal bullet and bullet fragments recovered after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, which are now in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS), the consultant found no particles comparable in number, size or weight to those originally analyzed by the FBI Laboratory in 1963 and 1964.

Mr. Blakey asked how one may account for any alteration in number and mass of the original ballistics evidence during the time it was in possession of the FBI Laboratory and until it was turned over to NARS by the FBI.

REC-125 62-117290-1440

Mr. Blakey stated his desire to insert an explanatory statement in the HSCA Final Report to explain away the criticism that has arisen. Mr. Blakey is also aware of the possibility that NARS may not have preserved the exact number or mass of evidence delivered to it by the FBI.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
 U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to a May 31, 1979, inquiry received from G. Robert Blakey, former Chief Counsel and Staff Director, HSCA.

Mr. Blakey advised that a recent magazine article has caused him to focus on a question which involves the bullet and bullet fragments recovered after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. He explained that when the HSCA's consultant in neutron activation analysis (NAA) had occasion to measure and weigh the bullet and bullet fragments now in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS), the consultant found no particles comparable in number, size, or weight to those originally analyzed by the FBI Laboratory in 1963 and 1964.

Mr. Blakey asked: [REDACTED] HSCA

FBI inquiry and research indicates the following:

A representative of the FBI Laboratory contacted a former Special Agent who was involved with the examination of metal fragments by NAA. This person advised that it was his recollection that the metal fragments which were made radioactive were disposed of as "radioactive trash" at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL). He stated that this was the appropriate method of dealing with these radioactive samples.

The milligram weight was determined by multiplying the grain weight by 64.8. The documents do not show metric weights when the specimens were first received.

Other documents in the file show that all the above-listed specimens were examined by emission spectroscopy. This method of analysis consumes, by burning, the metal analyzed. The documents do not indicate the weight of material analyzed.

The documents pertaining to the NAA of the specimens show that metal samples weighing the following were subjected to this type of analysis:

Sample	Weight (milligrams)
Q1	17.73
Q2	68.87
Q4, Q5	32.045
Q9	5.33
Q14	32.75

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

It is pointed out that the documents indicate that replicate samples were analyzed. For example, five replicates of Q1 were analyzed which have a total weight of 17.73 milligrams.

It is also pointed out that some mass of material may have been "lost" because of the necessity for cleaning the specimens prior to emission spectroscopy and NAA.

Information concerning the weights of the specimens when they were turned over to NARS is not retrievable from Bureau files. However, Bureau records disclose that Commission Exhibits 399, 567, 569, 840, 841, 842 and 843 minus the portion removed for analysis and/or cleaning were transferred to NARS in 1966.

DETAILS: On 5/31/79, former HSCA Chief Counsel G. Robert Blakey telephoned SA Drew J. Clark, Congressional Inquiry Unit, Records Management Division, from Ithaca, New York, where Blakey has returned to professorial duties at the Cornell Law School.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA)

HSCA -

[REDACTED] Blakey wishes to insert an explanatory statement in the HSCA Final Report to explain away the criticism that has arisen. Blakey is also aware of the possibility that NARS may not have preserved the exact number or mass of evidence delivered to it by the FBI Laboratory.

Past research in Bureau files indicates that the fatal ballistic evidence was subjected to both spectographic and neutron activation analysis by the FBI Laboratory. It seems logical that some mass was consumed or otherwise depleted as a result of these examinations and this may be documented through a review of the original examiner notes.

The July, 1979, issue of "Gallery" magazine has been obtained and a copy of the pertinent portion of the 32-page article (page 20), entitled "Special Gallery Report--The JFK Assassination," is attached. Separately, a complete copy of the article with a recording disk will be delivered to the Technical Services Division and copies of the 32-page article will be delivered to the Criminal Investigative Division and Laboratory Division for information and any further action deemed appropriate.

It is felt that it would be in the best interests of the Bureau to set the record straight and explain how much evidence was originally obtained (number, size and weight), how the evidence may have been altered through examination, and exactly how much was transferred to NARS.

RECOMMENDATIONS: 1. That the Laboratory Division prepare a letter-head memorandum (LHM) predicated on Blakey's concern and setting forth a detailed history of the Laboratory's receipt of the fatal ballistic evidence, its examinations of same, and eventual transfer of same to NARS, to include an explanation that specifically addresses how and why the number or mass of evidence may have been altered while in the custody of the FBI.

these precise measurements, etc. And yet when we read the majority report, you will find that they do not hesitate to conjecture and speculate and arrive at some conclusions and hypotheses that have no basis in fact whatsoever, when it suits their purpose. When it does not suit their purpose, they simply say, "We cannot engage in this kind of scientific speculation because we simply don't know that it is accurate."

I would like you to know—as I stated when I gave my testimony—that on numerous occasions with the entire panel as individuals and as a group, I pleaded, cajoled, provoked, challenged, in every possible way, all of them to come forward with one bullet from any of their vast array of cases that would even begin to simulate the near pristine appearance of CE 399 [the "magic bullet"]. What they like to say—although not too often when I'm around—is, "Well, we don't know that a bullet could not do this." And they will even sometimes say that they have seen bullets like CE 399. It should be clearly, emphatically noted for the record that no such "magic bullet" had ever been produced. I think it was pointed out that the nine of us on the panel had collectively done over 100,000 autopsies. That's an awful lot of postmortem examinations. And I told them, "Fellas, I'm not holding you to 51 percent; not even 1 percent; not even 1/100th of 1 percent. Just bring in one bullet—one bullet that has done what CE 399 is alleged to have done and which emerged in the intact condition of this wondrous missile. You've got all the time in the world. Bring in one documented bullet like the JFK stretcher bullet." Well, as you know, no such bullet has ever been produced. And I think that this, perhaps, is the bottom line. There is no such bullet. There never was and never can be. There will never be experiments repeated under government auspices of the kind that were performed in 1964, because they've already got enough difficulty living with those results. There's no way in the world that they want to account for similar results under an even more controlled background today.

The Committee's Dilemma: To Make the Evidence Fit the Official Scenario

By Jerry Policoff

The Assassinations Committee had more than autopsy evidence to overcome. A mass of physical evidence exists in the Kennedy case that is subject to scientific testing and analysis.

During its public hearings, the Committee presented a great deal of expert testimony that appeared to bolster the Warren Report. However, the testimony was not as valid as it appeared to be:

Neutron Activation Analysis

One of the most sophisticated methods by which the single-bullet and lone-assassin theories can be tested involves neutron-activation analysis (NAA) by which analyses of trace elements present in the metals are compared.

The FBI submitted Kennedy ballistics evidence to the Atomic Energy Commission for the purpose of conducting NAA in 1964, however the results of those tests were never made available to the Warren Commission. The Assassinations Committee commissioned Dr. Vincent P. Guinn, an expert in the field of NAA, to conduct tests on the various bullets and fragments in evidence. Guinn compared bullet fragments allegedly taken from President Kennedy's brain with fragments allegedly found in the Presidential limousine. He also compared fragments allegedly from Governor Connally's wrist with CE 399, the alleged single bullet.

Guinn found that it was "highly probable" that the fragments found in the car and brain matched and that the bullet fragments taken from Connally's wrist came from CE 399—persuasive evidence in support of the single-bullet theory. Guinn concluded that "there is no evidence for three bullets, four bullets, or anything more than two."

This testimony was the most dramatic evidence yet presented in support of the Warren Commission's lone-assassin findings. Once again, however, the Committee failed to ask the right questions. Fortunately, George Lardner of the Washington Post did not. Questioned by Lardner after the Committee session, Guinn conceded that key fragments were missing, and, more important, that the fragments he tested were not the same ones tested by the FBI in 1964. Elaborating, he said that he was given only two fragments from Kennedy's brain, neither of which weighed the same as any of the four brain fragments tested by the FBI. Similarly, neither of the two "Connally wrist fragments" weighed the same as any of the three tested by the FBI.

Where did these fragments come from? Testimony elicited from FBI firearms expert Robert A. Frazier at the Clay Shaw conspiracy trial suggests a sinister possibility. According to the Warren Report, the FBI had removed only a small piece of CE 399's outside jacket for NAA testing. Frazier conceded, however, that a sample was also removed from the bullet's base.

That a piece of CE 399's lead base was removed and is unaccounted for raises grave questions about the origin of fragments tested by Guinn. Why are Guinn's fragments different from those that were tested in 1964? That is a question the Assassinations Committee failed to ask.

Congressman Chris Dodd, the only member of the Assassinations Committee who dissents from the conclusion that the shot from the grassy knoll missed, raised new doubts about the NAA tests. At the closing moments of the Committee's public hearings, Dodd asked Chief Counsel Blakey if, in view of the acoustic evidence, he might be willing to comment upon "a bullet fragment found in the limousine that for some time has not been easily identifiable as a result of neutron activation tests." Blakey, pleading memory lapse, promised Dodd a private briefing later. No clarification about this never-before-mentioned fragment has been forthcoming at this writing.

Ballistics, Trajectory

The Committee produced many "expert" witnesses who demonstrated a predisposition to the official lone-assassin findings.

Ballistics expert Larry Sturdivan (who had also done work for the Warren Commission) testified that the bullet that hit Governor Connally had probably first passed through President Kennedy. He based this conclusion on the alleged description by Dr. Robert Shaw, Connally's attending physician, of a long, elliptical back wound. Sturdivan said that this could only have been caused by a bullet that had first struck something else and had begun to tumble. In fact, Dr. Shaw has always unequivocally rejected the single-bullet theory and maintains that "the wound of entrance was consistent with a bullet that had not struck anything else" before it struck Governor Connally. Shaw was not called as a witness by the SYNOPSIS: Former Laboratory SA advised that radioactive metal samples were disposed of at Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL). A review of Bureau file indicates that certain "fatal ballistic evidence," namely specimens Q1 through Q5, Q9, Q14 and Q15 were examined by neutron activation analysis (NAA) and/or emission spectroscopy. Portions (exact weight not determined) of these specimens were consumed by emission spectroscopy. Weighed replicate samples of specimens Q1, Q2, Q4, Q5, Q9 and Q14 were analyzed by NAA. All of these samples were disposed of at ORNL. What remained of specimens Q1 through Q5, Q9, Q14 and Q15 after cleaning and analysis was transferred to National Archives and Records Service (NARS) in 1966.

he and ORNL personnel performed examinations on them. He advised that it was his recollection that the lead fragments which were made radioactive were disposed of as "radioactive trash" at the ORNL. This, according to Gallagher, was the appropriate method of dealing with these radioactive samples at the time.

The HSCA's consultant in NAA, Dr. Vincent P. Guinn, Professor of Chemistry, University of California, Irvine, made an informal inquiry about these specimens to SA John Kilty in May 1978. Kilty stated that if the fragments were not maintained by NARS they were most likely disposed of at ORNL.

A review of pertinent documents in the file reveals the following concerning the description and weight of the "fatal ballistic evidence" when it was received in the FBI Laboratory:

Specimen	Description	Weight (grains)	Weight (milligrams)
CE 399 (Q1)	Bullet from Stretcher	158.6	10,277

Clark to Mr. Herndon Memo

Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

The milligram weight was determined by multiplying the grain weight by 64.8. The documents do not show metric weights when the specimens were first received.

Other documents in the file show that all the above-listed specimens were examined by emission spectroscopy. This method of analysis consumes, by burning, the metal analyzed. The documents do not indicate the weight of material analyzed; however, it was likely less than 10 milligrams per specimen.

The documents pertaining to the NAA of the specimens show that metal samples weighing the following were subjected to this type of analysis:

Sample	Weight (milligrams)
Q1	17.73
Q2	68.87
Q4, Q5	32.045
Q9	5.33
Q14	32.75

It is pointed out that the documents indicate that replicate samples were analyzed. For example, five replicates of Q1 were analyzed which have a total weight of 17.73 milligrams. These are the samples which were disposed of at ORNL and to which Professor Guinn refers.

It is also pointed out that some mass of material may have been "lost" because of the necessity for cleaning the specimens prior to emission spectroscopy and NAA.

Information concerning the weights of the specimens when they were turned over to NARS is not retrievable from Bureau files. However, Bureau records disclose that the "fatal ballistic evidence" listed above minus the portion removed for analysis and/or cleaning was transferred to NARS in 1966.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This is to advise that the FBI has completed its review of the HSCA's Final Report and eight Staff Reports in accordance with Section VII of the October 5, 1977, Memorandum of Understanding between the Department of Justice and the HSCA.

The FBI has no permissible objection to make, at this time, under Section VII of the Memorandum of Understanding since all such objections were presented to HSCA former Chief Counsel G. Robert Blakey on June 15, 1979. At that time, he accepted certain objections and he did cause certain changes to be made which now obviate the necessity of presenting formal objections.

The material reviewed was received on June 12, 1979, under the June 12, 1979, letter to the Attorney General, signed by Edmund L. Henshaw, Jr., Clerk, U.S. House of Representatives. The material consisted of Volume I of the Final Report and Staff Report Volumes VI through XIII, inclusive.

You may wish to confer with Mr. Blakey to assure he will encounter no obstacles to effecting the changes he has accepted.

The Department of Justice may wish to consider the necessity of obtaining a much longer review period for the materials submitted by Congressional committees under future memoranda of understanding. The volume of material provided by the HSCA (approximately 4,400 pages) demonstrates the need for additional time to insure effective review in order to protect sensitive and classified information.

NOTE: This matter has been coordinated with Deputy Assistant Attorney General Robert L. Keuch, Identification Division, Intelligence Division, Criminal Investigative Division, Laboratory Division, Technical Services Division and Legal Counsel Division. On 6-15-79, a conference call was initiated to include FBIHQ personnel, G. Robert Blakey at Cornell Law School, Ithaca, New York; and Blakey's editorial staff, House Annex II, Washington, D.C. During the call substantive objections under the Memorandum of Understanding were presented, as well as detected errors in fact. Blakey contemporaneously instructed his editorial staff to make certain changes which eliminated the substantive objections and corrected the factual errors. A separate internal memorandum will record the details of the review and 6-15-79 exchange with Mr. Blakey and his staff.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)
CLAIM OF GENERAL EDWIN A. WALKER

This will respond to your memorandum of June 21, 1979, with enclosures, concerning General Walker's claim that the HSCA, during its September, 1978, hearings, substituted a bullet for the one originally recovered at his residence on April 10, 1963.

Bureau files clearly indicate that Dallas, Texas, Police Department officers conducted the original investigation of the shooting at General Walker's residence on April 10, 1963. At that time, reportedly, a Dallas police officer, Billy Gene Norvell, located a bullet among debris at Walker's residence. On June 3, 1964, Norvell advised an FBI Agent that "... he then picked up the bullet and scratched his initials 'B. N.' or his initial 'N' on the base of it. . ."

On May 28, 1964, B. G. Brown, a Dallas police officer assigned to the Crime Scene Search Section (CSSS), Dallas Police Department, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that on April 10, 1963, he responded to the Walker residence where Officer Norvell gave him a bullet recovered at that residence. "... Brown stated he marked the bullet and took it back to CSSS . . . for safekeeping."

Also, on May 28, 1964, Dallas Police Lieutenant J. C. Day advised an FBI Agent that on April 25, 1963, "... he took the bullet from the CSSS, marked it for identification. . ." and then personally took it to the City-County Criminal Investigation Laboratory (CCCIL), Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas, where he gave it to F. T. Alexander and Louie L. Anderson. Lieutenant Day also advised that he retrieved the Walker bullet from the CCCIL on December 2, 1963, and gave it to FBI Special Agent Harold D. Odum on the same date.

1 - 62-109060 (JFK Assassination)
(Enclosures - 24)

1 AUG 5 1979

Mr. Robert L. Keuch,
Special Counsel to the Attorney General

Special Agent Odum forwarded the Walker bullet to the FBI Laboratory where it arrived for examination on December 4, 1963. The FBI Laboratory compared the Walker bullet to test bullets fired from the Oswald rifle, C2766; however, no positive identification could be made. The FBI record of this examination shows no indication that the FBI significantly altered the Walker bullet in any respect during the examination. The FBI designated the Walker bullet as Specimen Q188 and Item Number C-148. Item C-148 was delivered to the Warren Commission on March 21, 1964. It was subsequently designated Warren Commission Exhibit 573 (CE 573). A 1963 photograph of the Walker bullet in FBI records appears identical to CE 573. FBI records indicate that Item C-148 was turned over to the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) in 1966.

On June 29, 1979, a representative of NARS accompanied CE 573 to FBI Headquarters where the bullet was microscopically examined in the FBI Laboratory, while remaining within the observation, control and custody of the NARS representative. The following were noted: CE 573 appears to be contained in an original Dallas Police evidence box. The cover (top) of the box bears "4-10-63 4011 Turtle. CK Burg by F. A. BGB RF JH Q188." The inside bottom of the box bears "Day 7640" and the outside bottom bears "7640 Day" as well as "Q188" and "Rm."

Identifiable marks were found inscribed on varying portions of the bullet itself. It must be understood that certain markings are clearly discernible, others admit of more than one interpretation, while others may be obscured by oxidation or otherwise. Among the discernible markings are "Q188" and letters which appear to be as follows: "N," "B," "J," "D," "A," "O" or "D," "JH" (with "H" joined to "J"), "RF" (with "F" joined to "R").

The "N," "B," "J," and "D" may refer to Dallas police officers Norvell, Brown and Lieutenant J. C. Day. The "A" may refer to Mr. Alexander or Mr. Anderson, CCCIL. The significance of "O" or "D" is not certain at this time. The "JH" and "RF" refer to FBI Laboratory examiners in 1963.

In conclusion, the Walker bullet, CE 573, as it exists in NARS at this writing, appears identical to Q188 as it was examined in the FBI Laboratory in 1963. If, in fact, the HSCA displayed or referred to CE 573 as the Walker bullet during its September, 1978, hearings, then the HSCA is correct according to FBI records, and General Walker is mistaken in his recollection. At present, only the published record of HSCA hearings can speak to what the HSCA may have displayed or referred to with regard to the Walker bullet. General Walker is free to obtain the published HSCA hearings from the Government Printing Office, North Capitol and H Streets, Washington, D. C. 20401.

NOTE: This matter has been coordinated with Messrs. Marion Johnson and Mike Leahy, NARS, and Special Agent McNair Perry, Firearms-Tool Marks Unit, Laboratory Division. Involved in the 6/29/79 Laboratory examination were Laboratory Technicians Joseph Twardowski and Robert Murphy. Twenty-four photographs of Q188 were made and will be retained as enclosures to the 62-109060 file copy of this document.

Mr. Mike Leahy, NARS, accompanied CE 573 (Q188) to FBI Headquarters on 6/29/79 and maintained observation, control and custody of the item throughout the examination process.

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

62-117890

PURPOSE:

To advise interested Bureau officials of a review and to set forth a clarification of information attributed to the FBI in a portion of captioned Committee's Final Report draft.

SYNOPSIS:

Captioned Committee's Final Report draft discusses in Section V the possible associations between Jack Ruby and certain individuals involved in organized crime. One of these is Russell Douglas Matthews. The Committee cites an FBI airtel in 1973 which requested authority to seek court order under Title III to wiretap Matthews for his involvement in an illegal gambling business (IGB). nevada

The report states it is not clear (from the FBI record) whether the wiretap led to an arrest and/or conviction of Matthews although he was arrested on gambling charges in 1975 and 1976. A review of the Bureau file in the IGB case clearly shows Matthews was intercepted, indicted, pled guilty in Las Vegas under Rule 20, and immediately paid a fine. 1447

DE-31

That consideration be given, regarding the enclosed criminal record of Russell Douglas Matthews, to furnish same to captioned Committee.

Memorandum McWeeney to Moore
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

DETAILS:

A review was made of "Section V - Possible Associations Between Jack Ruby and Organized Crime," of this Committee's Final Report draft. Under Part F of this Section V, Jack Ruby's associates are discussed. One of these found in paragraph vii is Russell Douglas Matthews (pages 527 and 528). On page 528, it states:

"In 1973, an FBI airtel from Dallas reported that an application had been made for an order authorizing a wiretap of Matthews, along with several others. This application stated that there was probable cause to believe Matthews was involved in illegal gambling business. Again, it was not clear whether the wiretap led to an arrest or conviction, although Matthews was arrested in 1975 and 1976 on gambling charges."

A review of the FBIHQ file in this matter (165-1066) is clear regarding legal proceedings against Matthews in this case.

On 12/12/73, Dallas FBI sent an airtel to FBIHQ enclosing a proposed Affidavit in Support of Application for continued interception of wire communications to and from certain telephone numbers in Dallas, Texas, involving violation of Federal gambling statutes and conspiracy regarding same.

The affidavit set forth probable cause to believe that John Eli Stone, Isadore Max Miller, Richard Carl Beggs, Anthony Paul Diadone, James "Puny" Winningham, Jack Dayton Ritter, Russell Douglas Matthews, Jimmy "Greek" Vouras, and others as yet unknown were committing the above offenses (Bufile 165-1066).

Memorandum McWeeney to Moore
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

The initial court order in this case was signed on 11/20/73 and electronic surveillance subsequently indicated John Eli Stone was receiving sports line information from Las Vegas as well as from Russell Douglas Matthews and others in addition to accepting sports wagers.

Title III surveillance was terminated on 12/4/73. The extension for this coverage which was submitted on 12/12/73 was not granted.

Subsequently, in March, 1974, the Federal Grand Jury was presented evidence in this case. On 11/5/74, true bill indictments were returned against Stone and five other subjects in this case charging violations of Federal gambling statutes. Stone and these other subjects were found guilty on 6/30/75 after stipulating to much of the evidence. On 7/18/75, U. S. D. J. Sarah T. Hughes sentenced Stone and his associates to sentences ranging from thirteen months to five years and/or fines up to $10,000.

Then on 11/18/75, Russell Douglas Matthews and one associate were indicted in this case for Federal gambling violations. Matthews was arrested in Las Vegas on 11/20/75.

On 4/23/76, Matthews pled guilty to one count of Interstate Transportation of Wagering Information (T18, S1084, USC), under Rule 20 at Las Vegas and was fined $5,000, which he immediately paid.

In sum, Matthews was intercepted along with others on the referenced wiretap, which ran from 11/20/73 to 12/4/73. He was indicted 11/18/75, charged with Federal gambling law violations, and arrested in Las Vegas, 11/20/75. Then on 4/23/76, he pled guilty under Rule 20 at Las Vegas and was fined $5,000, which was immediately paid.

FBI recommended at this meeting that any further analysis of scientific data gathered by HSCA be handled independent of the FBI since HSCA findings included alleged FBI deficiencies in investigating the possibility of a conspiracy in the assassination of John F. Memorandum to Mr. Mullen from J. C. Lawn
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

DETAILS: The final report of the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) set out the following recommendations for further investigation:

A. The Department of Justice should contract for the examination of a film taken by Charles L. Bronson to determine its significance, if any, to the assassination of President Kennedy.

B. The National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice of the Department of Justice and the National Science Foundation should make a study of the theory and application of the principles of acoustics to forensic questions, using the materials available in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy as a case study.

C. The Department of Justice should review the committee's findings and report in the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and after completion of the recommended investigation enumerated in sections A and B, analyze whether further official investigation is warranted in either case. The Department of Justice should report its analysis to the Judiciary Committee.

On 9/6/79, at the request of Robert L. Keuch, Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, a meeting was held relating to the final recommendations set out by the HSCA. This meeting was attended by Mr. Keuch; James P. Turner, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division; Departmental Attorney Roger B. Cabbage, Criminal Division, Department of Justice and Section Chiefs W. D. Gow and John C. Lawn, Criminal Investigative Division.

Memorandum to Mr. Mullen from J. C. Lawn
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

[REDACTED]

O.S.

Mr. Keuch stated that further analysis of certain scientific data should be conducted as recommended in the HSCA final report.

Specifically, Mr. Keuch questioned whether the FBI Laboratory could subject the Bronson film to computer analysis and whether the photograph taken by Mary Moorman could be analyzed for further study.

(The Charles L. Bronson film depicted the Texas School Book Depository several minutes before the assassination of John F. Kennedy, including the 6th floor window from which the fatal shot was fired.

The Mary Moorman photograph, a Polaroid, depicted the grassy knoll area and was taken at the time the fatal shot was fired. This photograph was deemed by HSCA photographic experts as being of limited usefulness because of its poor quality and deterioration over the years.)

Mr. Keuch was advised that such photographic analysis involving computer analysis and enhancement could not be conducted within the FBI Laboratory, but would have to be handled by outside contract.

Mr. Keuch indicated that he planned to request in writing that the Technical Services Division review the scientific acoustical evidence which HSCA believed would support their findings of "... a high probability that 2 gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy." Mr. Keuch stated that after reviewing this material, he desired the FBI furnish recommendations as to whether there exists sufficient data to warrant further scientific testing as recommended by HSCA.

Memorandum to Mr. Mullen from J. C. Lawn
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Mr. Keuch concurred that should additional scientific analysis be desired by the Department of Justice, that such analysis should be handled independent of the FBI since the HSCA had concluded, in part, that "... the Federal Bureau of Investigation failed to investigate adequately the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President."

On 6/12/79 the FBI received approximately 4,463 pages of material which the HSCA intended to disclose (publish). The material was furnished in accordance with the 10/5/77 Memorandum of Understanding (MU) between the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Committee. The material was reviewed by the FBI in order to identify items of information, the categories of which might constitute permissible objections to disclosure of same under the MU. On 6/15/79 the objectionable items of information were discussed with former HSCA Chief Counsel G. Robert Blakey, who agreed to make certain modifications or corrections to resolve the objections. the items of information did not qualify as permissible objections under the MU. The current, partial review of the published HSCA material has been conducted to confirm that the HSCA executed the modifications or corrections agreed to by Blakey. The review discloses that all modifications or corrections were executed as agreed, some with minor variations, and therefore all permissible objections are effectively resolved. The two items Blakey declined to modify were not modified and neither qualify as a permissible objection under the MU.

Memorandum D. J. Clark to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

The current FBI review by Supervisor Drew J. Clark, just concluded, was undertaken to confirm that the HSCA did in fact make certain modifications or corrections to those items of information as agreed to on 6/15/79.

The results of the review are as follows:

RE: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY (JFK)

ITEM (1):

Original Language: "...The FBI did attempt to alleviate the 'problems.' In a report dated September 26, it produced the story of Loran Eugene Hall who claimed he had been in Dallas in September, 1963..."

FBI Objection: To say "produced the story" tends to connote a fabrication which is not the case according to Bureau files.

Published Language: "...The FBI did attempt to alleviate the 'problems.'" In a report dated September 26, it reported the interview of Loran Eugene Hall who claimed he had been in Dallas in September 1963..." (Report, page 138, paragraph 3)

Note: The substantive objection is removed by the published language.

ITEM (2):

Original Language: "...Third, shortly after the assassination, Dallas FBI Agent Hosty destroyed a note that had been delivered to his office allegedly by Oswald, shortly before the assassination. When that conduct was finally made public in 1975, it aroused great suspicions, especially since it had been previously revealed, even to the Warren Commission..."

FBI Objection: Bureau files disclose this information had not been disseminated to the Warren Commission because it was not known at FBIHQ in 1963 and 1964. It did not come to the attention of FBIHQ until 1975.

Memorandum D. J. Clark to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

Published Language: "...When that conduct was finally made public in 1975 it aroused great suspicions, especially since it had not been previously revealed, even to the Warren Commission..." (Report, page 185, paragraph 5)

Note: The substantive objection is removed by the published language.

ITEM (3):

Original Language: "...approximately 2 or 3 weeks before the assassination of President Kennedy, Oswald allegedly delivered a note addressed to Hosty at the FBI office in Dallas... Between 1963 and 1975, the existence of the note and its destruction were kept secret within the Bureau..."

FBI Objection: Such language connotes an institutional cover-up of the information. This directly opposes a correct interpretation of the recorded facts which indicate the secret was kept only in the Dallas Office by certain individuals, including SA Hosty, until 1975.

Published Language: "...Between 1963 and 1975, the existence of the note and its destruction were kept secret by the Dallas FBI Office..." (Report, page 195, paragraph 3)

Note: Although the FBI recommended that the language state "...kept secret within the Dallas Office..." and while the HSCA saw fit to change the language to "...kept secret by the Dallas FBI Office..." it is felt that the substantive objection is removed by the published language.

It should be noted that "within" was sought in lieu of "by" so as to preclude the misconception that the entire Dallas Office, as an entity, was involved in or partook of the "cover-up," since the facts or testimony to date reveal that personal knowledge of the note was limited to several persons and not disseminated to the entire Dallas Office.

Memorandum D. J. Clark to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

ITEM (4):

The published Report corrects a previous lapse in continuity occasioned by the misnumbering of original pages 263 and 264. Continuity is established on page 471 of the published Report.

ITEM (5):

The J. H. Gale to Mr. Tolson memoranda of 12/10/63 and 9/30/64 (HSCA JFK Exhibits F460 and F461) are published in HSCA Hearings, JFK Volume III, pages 514 and following and 531 and following, respectively. The memoranda are published with excisions to eliminate the names of Agents who were disciplined and some third agency information. The excisions appear to have originated at FBIHQ prior to delivery of the documents to the HSCA. While SA Hosty's name does appear on page 535 and the names of Lundquist and Hoeg appear on page 523, these appear to have resulted from excising decisions made at FBIHQ and not through omissions by the HSCA.

The 12/10/63 memorandum, beginning on page 514 of JFK Volume III, is marked "Secret." Although that classification may have been valid when the document was originally classified, it has since been determined that the document is not now classifiable because the information it sought to protect has found its way into the public forum via other channels, including Book V, The Final Report of the Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities, U. S. Senate (published April, 1976).

ITEM (6):

Original Language: JFK Appendix, Volume XI, speaks of the FBI's surveillance of Marina Oswald from 2/29/64 to 3/12/64 and states, "...No indication was found that the Warren Commission staff members were ever informed of the FBI's electronic surveillance of Marina Oswald..."

Memorandum D. J. Clark to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

FBI Objection: The above language connotes a Sub Rosa operation by the FBI when, in fact, the surveillance (physical and technical) was instituted following a request of the Commission, which was furnished the results of the surveillance. The Attorney General's Office approved the telephone surveillance. (See Bureau file 105-126032-66 and following.)

Published Language: "...Nevertheless, the committee learned that the results of the surveillance which was in fact requested by the Commission, were given to the Commission and senior staff members..." (JFK Appendix, Volume XI, page 66, paragraph 248)

Note: The substantive objection is removed by the published language.

ITEM (7):

Published Language: Page 422, JFK Appendix, Volume XII, sets forth the Committee's interview (testimony) of Marina Oswald Porter, wherein the following question is asked of her by Committee Counsel: "...Q. You stated on one occasion you saw Lee discuss with Mr. Hosty outside the house for at least one-half an hour information, have a discussion that lasted at least one-half hour. What could have been discussed for that length of time if Lee was not giving information to Mr. Hosty?..."

FBI Objection: Bureau files record that Oswald was not interviewed by Hosty until after Oswald's arrest by the Dallas PD on 11/22/63.

Note: The objection cannot be removed since HSCA former Chief Counsel Blakey has previously advised that the Committee Counsel's question, above, constitutes an unfortunate error that cannot be corrected since it is a part of the HSCA's official, recorded interview of Marina Oswald Porter.

ITEM (8):

Original Language: Page 589, JFK Appendix, Volume IX, paragraph 1123, set forth information received from FBI sources with objectionable specificity.

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

The Engineering Section is of the opinion that the forensic community would not significantly benefit from the research study in forensic acoustics as proposed by the Committee. A research study would be necessary to properly address the kinds of technical acoustic issues raised in the analysis of the alleged Kennedy assassination recording, however, a study should not be conducted under the auspices of the National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice or the National Science Foundation or any other similar organization not directly involved in forensic acoustic evidence. Instead, this study should be undertaken and coordinated by a major forensic laboratory having extensive experience in analysis of acoustic evidence. An estimation of the resources required should the FBI, specifically the Technical Services Division, be tasked to conduct the proposed study, is set forth.

DETAILS:

The "Summary of Findings and Recommendations" of the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) has been reviewed by the Engineering Section. Engineering Section comments relating to the findings and recommendations concerning the acoustic analysis of a dictabelt recording, are based only on the oral testimony offered in public hearings on September 11, and December 29, 1978. The Engineering Section does not presently possess written reports or raw data pertaining to these acoustical analyses.

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

Finding I.B. of "The Summary of Findings And Recommendations" of the HSCA states:

Scientific acoustical evidence establishes a high probability that two gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy. Other scientific evidence does not preclude the possibility of two gunmen firing at the President. Scientific evidence negates some specific conspiracy allegations.

As set forth in detail in referenced memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran, dated 1/11/79, acoustic experts, Mr. Weiss and Mr. Aschkenasy, testified before the Committee that with a certainty of 95% or better the third sound on the alleged Dealy Plaza recording was a rifle shot and that it originated from a specific point on the "grassy knoll." Dr. Barger of Bolt, Beranek, and Newman, Inc., later testified that he agreed with the assertion of Mr. Weiss that a third sound originated from the grassy knoll, but Dr. Barger could only ascribe an approximately 78% certainty that the sound was a rifle shot. Although it may be argumentative, none of the experts could state with any degree of certainty that the shot was specifically aimed at the President, just that it was fired in the general direction of the motorcade.

Stating "Other scientific evidence does not preclude the possibility of two gunmen firing at the President," implies that other scientific evidence exists, but does not indicate the relevance of this evidence to the issue of the two gunmen. It is conjectured that the meaning of this statement is that the Committee has concluded that two gunmen fired at the President and the previous scientific examinations, for example, firearms, pathology, etc. conducted by the FBI and others do not contradict this conclusion. It is noted, however, that they do not support this conclusion.

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

The Committee states "Scientific evidence negates some specific conspiracy allegations."

In the approximately 15 years since the assassination, theories have been proposed by various individuals claiming the existence of other gunmen firing at the President from various locations from within Dealy Plaza. The results of the tests performed on the dictabelt recording, in the conclusion of the analysts, indicate a shot being fired from the grassy knoll and others fired from the School Book Depository Building. This conclusion, if valid, eliminates a shot having occurred from any other location.

Finding I.C. of "The Summary of Findings and Recommendations" of the HSCA states:

The Committee believes, on the basis of the evidence available to it, that President John F. Kennedy was probably assassinated as a result of a conspiracy. The Committee is unable to identify the other gunman or the extent of the conspiracy.

It is believed the Committee draws the above conclusion primarily from the scientific analysis of the acoustic events recorded on the dictabelt recording. A detailed discussion of the scientific tests performed which led to this belief may be found in referenced W.D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran memorandum, dated 1/11/79.

Recommendation II.B. of "The Summary of Findings and Recommendations" of the HSCA states:

II. Administrative Recommendations Executive

The Department of Justice should re-examine its contingency plans for the handling of assassinations and federally cognizable

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

homicides in light of the record and findings of the Committee. Such an examination should consider the following issues.

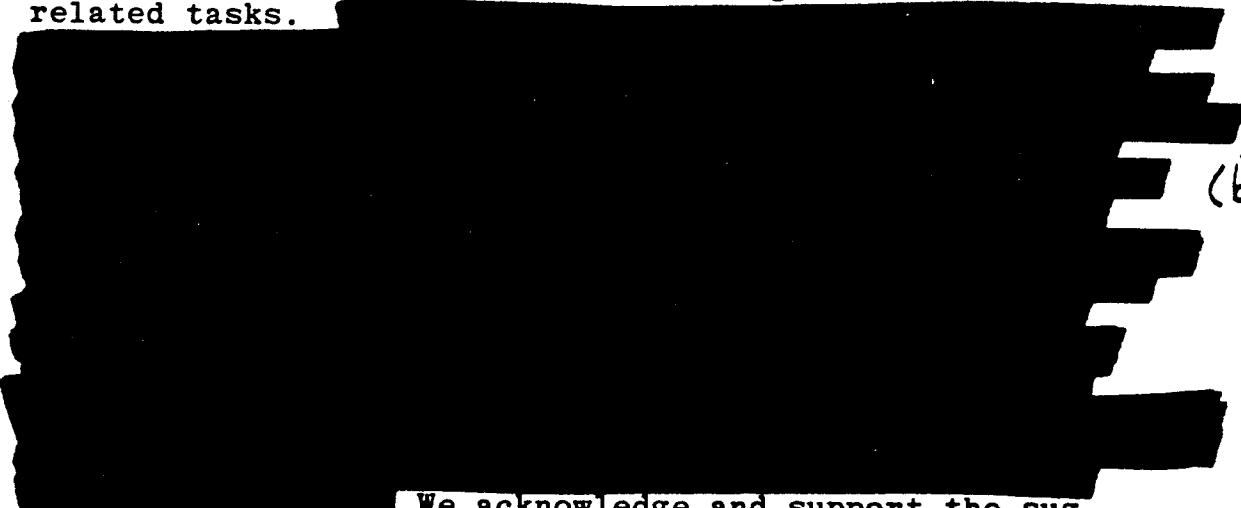

B. Insuring that its response takes full advantage of the advances of science and technology, and determining when it should secure independent panels of scientists to review or perform necessary scientific tasks, or secure qualified independent forensic pathologists to perform a forensic autopsy.

The Engineering Section comments regarding Recommendation II. B are offered from the viewpoint of the science and technology of acoustics and related engineering disciplines as they are used to examine evidence.

It is the opinion of the Engineering Section that Recommendation II.B as set forth by the HSCA is not fully appreciative of the tedious and often lengthy process by which advances in science and technology evolve into legally acceptable forensic techniques. The Engineering Section's experiences in other areas of acoustic analysis and audio signal processing indicate that many of these scientific advances do not directly apply to the forensic situation and, therefore, they must go through a period of modification, testing, and evaluation before they can be routinely used by a forensic laboratory. In acoustics as with many other forensic disciplines, this technology can often come from unsuspected areas. For example, the very sophisticated analytical equipment used by the FBI in audio magnetic tape enhancement originally was developed in industry to study mechanical vibration modes in machinery such as gas turbines.

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

Since "advances in science and technology" are constantly occurring, the only way the FBI can reasonably assure continued compliance with Recommendation II. B is by instituting formal, continuing efforts to explore the relevant sciences and engineering disciplines, evaluate their applicability and modify and adopt their technology. Further, there is the problem of accomplishing these efforts, which are essentially research in nature, while simultaneously meeting the on-going activities that cannot be ignored. In light of the current ranking of FBI priorities and severe personnel restrictions placed upon the Engineering Section, the Government will have no alternative to contracting out certain high technology, time-consuming examinations and related tasks.

 (b)(2)

We acknowledge and support the suggestion that outside resources be solicited when required, but only when an in-house capability does not exist or cannot be developed in a reasonable period of time. However, it should be left to the discretion of the FBI to make the determination that outside resources are required for certain tasks. Also we can envision that outside contracts can become quite expensive, requiring realignment of significant financial resources which otherwise would have supported necessary technical activities in the field.

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

Recommendation IV.B. of "The Summary of Findings and Recommendations" of the HSCA states:

The National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice of the Department of Justice and the National Science Foundation should make a study of the theory and application of the principles of acoustics to forensic questions, using the materials available in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy as a case study.

Very little foundation has been laid regarding the kinds of acoustic tests that are meaningful and should be conducted in a forensic situation. This has been pointed out in detail in referenced memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran. It is apparent that the analysis of the JFK assassination will not be the last time these examination techniques will be needed. Increasingly, there will be live, on-the-scene media coverage involving motion pictures, television, and audio recordings of newsworthy events. In future incidents it is expected that recordings will be subjected to forensic examinations to resolve similar questions, such as, the direction of a shot, the number of shots, who fired first, the kind of weapon fired, etc.

The Engineering Section does not agree that funding research on forensic examination techniques through the National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice or the National Science Foundation or any similar organization is necessarily the best method to transmit knowledge and expertise to the forensic community. We have witnessed, first hand, through the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors the miserably poor record of National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice support of the forensic science community.

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

Two problems are seen: (1) a nonforensic organization does not possess the thorough exposure to evidentiary material with all its variations that a forensic laboratory commonly encounters, (2) the experience gained in applying the analytical techniques remains with the experimenters. The question is raised that once the research has been done and the report has been issued, who is left to perform future examinations?

The organization that conducts a relevant and meaningful study of the theory and application of principles of acoustics to these forensic questions needs expertise in acoustics, physics, geometry, ballistics, firearms, audio and video recording techniques and radio transmission path theory. In addition to these diverse areas of expertise, the examining organization must have extensive experience in analyzing and resolving forensic problems in the practical, real world as opposed to a sterile laboratory environment. The only facilities possessing all these capabilities are those of the FBI. A much preferable approach from the standpoint of transferring this capability to the forensic community would be for the FBI to conduct this research study in-house and contract for those areas of technology which could be better explored outside the FBI. The direct benefits to the FBI might not be tangible for many years since, fortunately, incidents of the magnitude of a Kent State University shooting or a Presidential assassination occur rarely. However, the spinoff benefits gained from this research through improvements in our audio enhancement capabilities, our general signal analysis methods and improved knowledge in radio and audio propagation matters would be immediately realized in our daily forensic case examinations and other activities in the TSD.

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,
95TH CONGRESS

 (b)(2)
We estimate that a complete and thorough analysis of the acoustic material obtained by the HSCA would take 1 1/2 years to complete, would consume 7 man-years of effort and would cost several hundred thousand dollars. A general "study of the theory and application of the principles of acoustics to forensic questions," as proposed by the Committee, would likely require twice the above-described commitment of time and resources.

ALTERNATIVES:

A) An orderly start towards implementing HSCA Recommendations II. B and IV. B could be made through the appropriate budget process. This could occur as enhancements of funding and personnel levels in the FY 1981 budget which is yet to be completed. It is envisioned that such a request would provide for sufficient manpower to 1) provide additional case examination depth thereby permitting transfer of cases to other examiners already on the staff should a special request occur, and 2) permit an active, continuing effort of acoustic research and technology application to meet forensic requirements. Implementing the above actions prior to FY 1981 would require reprogramming of existing budgeted resources at the expense of a considerable reduction in on-going Engineering Section activities in field technical equipment support. Whether implemented in the FY 1981 Budget or through FY 1980 reprogramming, approximately 1 1/2 years would be required to locate, train, and qualify suitable examiner personnel.

B) As an alternative to A) with regard to Recommendation II. B, the FBI could perform in-house only those examinations which are based upon techniques and methods which it has established. The FBI would contract

Memorandum W. D. Campbell to Mr. Cochran
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS,

for technical assistance, examination activities, and additional tasks in new areas of technology. Although feasible, this alternative is not desirable due to 1) time constraints that might be imposed due to investigative considerations, 2) difficulty in locating appropriate facilities with relevant capabilities that are willing to get involved in matters requiring expert testimony, 3) possible duplication of effort and attendant inefficiency among facilities and the FBI, 4) problems of "chain of custody" and potential damage to the evidence which might occur if handled by inexperienced personnel, 5) personnel requirements in the Engineering Section necessary to monitor the contracts and work activities of the outside facilities.

Regarding Recommendation IV. B, an alternative to A) would be for the FBI to pursue its present course and not initiate any new research efforts in the application of acoustics to forensic questions. We would attempt to extract as much useful information as possible from studies conducted by other organizations, assuming these studies are conducted.

Past experience with similar research conducted by outside facilities, for example the report of the analysis of the Kent State shooting, and the analysis of the "18 1/2 minute gap" in the Watergate Investigation, has shown that although these efforts provide useful information on new analysis concepts, they do not significantly improve the training and capabilities of FBI examiner personnel nor do they reduce the amount of time required for the FBI to conduct its analyses on a particular case. These improvements occur only through the experience gained in in-house participation in testing and research activities.

Dear Mr. Levine:

In connection with the investigation of the House Select Committee on Assassinations into the death of President John F. Kennedy, I am writing to confirm the understanding that was reached on this date between your firm, acting on behalf of your client, Charles L. Bronson, and Michael Goldsmith, Senior Staff Counsel, concerning the original movie film that was taken by Bronson of events in Dealey Plaza on the day of the assassination. In essence, my understanding is that your client will voluntarily release the film to the Committee so that it may be analyzed through the use of various image enhancement processes related to our investigative mandate under the provisions of House Resolutions 222 and 433, 95th Congress, 1st Session (copy attached). It is understood that the film will be used solely in connection with the investigative mandate referred to above, and for no other purpose; no copies of the film or any part thereof will be circulated, distributed or otherwise made available for viewing by any persons other than members of Congress, the Committee's staff, and duly authorized photographic analysts appointed by the Committee; all persons receiving copies shall be prohibited from making copies for any purpose other than the investigative mandate referred to above; and all copies shall be returned to and kept by the Committee. Any copies of the film retained by the Committee will be immune from public inquiry under the Freedom of Information Act. This Congressional immunity will continue to be operative after these copies are delivered to the National Archives once the Committee has terminated its existence.

The Committee will make certain that no use of the film or copies made or authorized by it, including materials derived therefrom, shall adversely affect the copyright of the copyright owner, Charles L. Bronson. All copies of the film will bear the following copyright notice: © Charles L. Bronson, 1978, all rights reserved. A similar notice will be attached to any materials derived from the film.

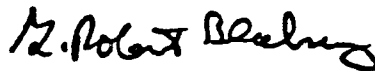

The film itself will be subjected to digital image processing at the facilities of one of the Committee's photographic contractors. You will be informed of which contractor will be doing the image enhancement analysis prior to the commencement of any work. The computer scanning process will take approximately one week, and the film will be returned to your possession immediately thereafter.

At any time that the film is in the actual possession of the Committee in our Washington, D. C. offices, it will be retained in our secure facilities. Any photographic contractor in possession of the film will likewise be required to take appropriate precautions in handling and storing the film.

Any work commissioned by the Committee will be regarded as work-for-hire within the meaning of the Copyright Act of 1976, Public Law 94-553, Oct. 1976, Title 17, U.S.C.

The Committee is very appreciative of the cooperative spirit that you have evinced with regard to this matter.

Sincerely,

G. Robert Blakey

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)-FINAL REPORT

In response to your memorandum dated April 23, 1980, captioned "John F. Kennedy Assassination; Bronson, Daniel Films," it is the opinion of the FBI Laboratory that the technical conditions presented by the representatives for Mr. Bronson and Mr. Daniels, in particular the approximate one-week examination period of their films, could only be adequately answered by the contractors engaged to conduct the examinations. This is due to the many variables such as manpower, equipment availability, preliminary copy work, etc., that can only be ascertained by the contractors once the scope and limitations of the examinations are determined.

The conditions regarding restrictions on copies, reports, data, etc., resulting from these films, particularly as they apply to the owners' copyrights, are legal or contractual conditions to be addressed by the Department, the contractors and the owners of the film. These conditions have minimal bearing on the technical aspects of the examination.

It is the Bureau's position and one in which you concurred during a meeting of Department and Bureau officials held on September 6, 1979, that should additional scientific analysis be desired by the Department of Justice, such analysis should be handled independently of the FBI since the House Select Committee on Assassinations had concluded, in part, that "... the Federal Bureau of Investigation failed to investigate adequately the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President."

In the opinion of the FBI Laboratory, its role regarding this examination should be as an observer. This posture will allow the Department to have a technical observer who has closely followed the examination of the evidence, to assist in evaluating the contractor's interim and final reports, and further allow the Laboratory to gain experience and expertise in this technical field without in any way biasing the objectivity of the examination. This experience would offset some of the Department's expenditure in the event the examination results are inconclusive.

PURPOSE:

To advise the Director of the Laboratory's views regarding the examination of the Bronson and Daniel films, and provide a reply to the referenced Keuch to Director memorandum dated 4/23/80.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. In view of our limited capability in the field of digital image enhancement and the fact that FBI conclusions could be considered self-serving, it is recommended that should the Department agree to examine the Bronson and Daniel films, they should be contracted to outside experts by the Department.

DETAILS:

The Director received a memorandum from Mr. Robert L. Keuch, Associate Deputy Attorney General, dated 4/23/80, requesting that the FBI Laboratory review the conditions for release and examination of the Charles L. Bronson and Jack Daniel films taken of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) a few minutes before the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

The Laboratory maintains its previous position that in view of our limited capability in the field of digital image enhancement, the fact that FBI conclusions could be considered self-serving and the availability of extremely unique and sophisticated equipment and expertise at other facilities, the Laboratory should not be involved in the direct examination of this evidence. This attitude is further reflected in the Lawn to Mullen memorandum dated 9/7/79 wherein "Mr. Keuch concurred that should additional scientific analysis be desired by the Department of Justice, that such analysis should be handled independent of the FBI since the HSCA has concluded, in part, that (...the Federal Bureau of Investigation failed to investigate adequately the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President.)"

MEMORANDUM TO MR. JOSEPH HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON
ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)-FINAL REPORT

The only obvious benefit to the Bureau regarding the examination of these films, as perceived by the Laboratory, is the experience and analytical knowledge gained by observing the techniques used in the examination of this material with the goal in mind of possible direct application to the Bureau's own image processing efforts. This can be accomplished by permitting the Laboratory to have an observer monitor the examinations on behalf of the Department and the Bureau. This arrangement would allow the Department and Bureau to better analyze the results of the examination without any taint of bias or accusations of an incomplete examination. Furthermore, it would allow the Department to obtain some return on their expenditure in the event the examination results are inconclusive.

The conditions set for the release of the Bronson and Daniel films are in two general categories: a) distribution, circulation, viewing, marking and security of all copies, prints, reports, documentations, etc., resulting from the examination of the films, with particular attention to the copyrights of the owners of these films; and, b) processing of the film at one of the contractor facilities during an approximate one week period, with the owners of the films being notified of which contractor was selected prior to the commencement of any work.

It is the opinion of the Laboratory that neither of these issues should be formally addressed by the Laboratory, inasmuch as the first matter does not appear to be a technical concern as opposed to a legal or contractual concern. The second issue is dependent on numerous factors such as what type of examinations are to be conducted, how many contractors will be needed since it is unlikely one facility will have all the equipment and expertise necessary for a thorough examination, what are the staff and equipment limitations of the contractors, etc. Since the Laboratory's position is not to conduct the examination on these films we cannot properly respond to the above variables. These questions can only be answered by the contracted agencies.

During the referenced 4/29/80 meeting the most obvious options noted by Department personnel as to who would obtain the contractors and pay for the examination were: a) the Bureau would obtain the contractors and pay for the examination; b) the Bureau would obtain the contractors and the Department would pay for the examinations; c) the Department would obtain the contractors and pay for the examinations with the Bureau acting as an observer; and, d) the Department would obtain the contractors and Congress, through the acquisition of supplemental appropriations, would pay for the examinations, with the Bureau acting as an observer. It is the Laboratory's position that the latter two options are the only ones that should be acceptable to the Bureau.

Messrs. Cabbage and Fogel requested that the FBI comment as to the improbability of any new findings resulting from an analysis of these films. They were advised that any such negative assessment by the FBI would be inappropriate.

At this point in time it is roughly estimated by the Laboratory that it probably will cost in excess of $100,000 to properly examine these films.

RE: SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

DETAILS: Contact with G. Robert Blakey, former Chief Counsel, HSCA, on 5/6/80, by SA Drew J. Clark, Criminal Investigative Division, concerning separate matters, raised the existence and applicability of an HSCA letter to the Attorney General, which claimed Congressional control of all Departmental and, therefore Bureau, materials prepared for HSCA as these materials may be subject to future FOIA requests.

Searches through logical Bureau files and records failed to locate such a letter. Contact was effected with Mr. Roger Cabbage, Department of Justice, which resulted in locating the attached letter on 5/20/80.

Since the letter was not previously retrievable from the HSCA Bufile, it is being recommended that it now be furnished to same and that it be reviewed by RMD for appropriate action.

I. THE FINDINGS OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION'S REVIEW OF THE ACOUSTICAL REPORTS PUBLISHED BY THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

1. The analyses of acoustical evidence by Bolt Beranek and Newman, Inc., Mark R. Weiss, and Ernest Aschkenasy did not scientifically prove that a gunshot was fired by a second gunman from the grassy knoll area of Dealey Plaza during the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963. Therefore, the House Select Committee on Assassination's finding that "scientific acoustical evidence establishes a high probability that two gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy" is invalid.
2. The analyses of acoustical evidence by Bolt Beranek and Newman, Inc., Mark R. Weiss, and Ernest Aschkenasy did not scientifically prove that the Dictabelt recording of Channel 1 of the Dallas Police Department radio system contains the sounds of gunshots or any other sounds originating in Dealey Plaza during the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963.

II. SUMMARY OF BOLT BERANEK AND NEWMAN, INC., REPORT ENTITLED
"ANALYSIS OF RECORDED SOUNDS RELATING TO THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY," DATED JANUARY 1979

In May, 1978, the House Select Committee on Assassinations (the Committee) asked Bolt Beranek and Newman, Incorporated, (BBN) to conduct an examination of several items of evidence involved in the assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy in Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. One of the items of evidence was a recording made on a Dictabelt recorder which had continuously recorded Dallas Police Department (DPD) radio traffic on channel 1 directly before, during, and after the assassination of President Kennedy. During the assassination the radio of a DPD motorcycle, that may have been in the Presidential motorcade, was thought to have been stuck in the transmitting mode for approximately five minutes. BBN was asked to analyze the recording to determine if it contained the sounds of gunfire, and if so, how many gunshots were recorded by the DPD Dictabelt recorder and from what locations did the gunshots originate.

BBN used a bandpass and a digital adaptive filter to process the DPD channel 1 recording during the specified five minutes, and then displayed this enhanced signal in the form of a time-continuous waveform. This waveform displayed five impulsive noise patterns thought to be different from motorcycle sounds, according to BBN, and then the report reflects that four of these patterns appeared to be "similar to the expected characteristics of a shock wave and of a muzzle blast" of a discharged weapon. The other pattern was eliminated as a possible gunshot, according to the report, since it "was sufficiently different in amplitude and duration as to have been caused by a different source."

The BBN report states that a discharge from a rifle firing a supersonic bullet creates two sources of impulsive sound - the muzzle blast and the shock wave of the projectile as it travels faster than the speed of sound. These two sounds plus the proceeding echoes of these sounds reflecting and diffracting off surfaces, such as the sides of buildings, the ground, and automobiles, result in a particular echo pattern of sound impulses.

If a gunshot had been sensed by a DPD motorcycle microphone then "all sound impulses arriving at the [DPD motorcycle] microphone that are loud enough to be heard over the environmental noise would be transmitted over the radio connected to the microphone. In this case, the environmental noise consisted primarily of the very loud, repetitive noise made by the engine of a moving motorcycle..."

"The loudest sound impulses from gunfire are considerably louder than the loudness of speech, for which the [DPD] radio was designed to operate. These loud impulses overdrive the radio circuitry. Because of the limiting circuits in the radio transmitter, very loud sounds are recorded in distorted fashion and appear as much weaker signals than they really are..."

"After the sounds that are picked up at the microphone had been transmitted to the DPD radio receiver, the output of the receiver was recorded on a Dictabelt recorder. The circuitry of the receiver and the characteristics of the recorder also affected the transmitted signals. The recorded loudness of the sounds transmitted from the motorcycle radio with the stuck microphone were additionally affected somewhat by simultaneous transmissions from other officers in the motorcade. An FM radio receiver, such as the one in DPD headquarters, receives best from the transmitting radio having the strongest transmitted signal..."

"Thus, the effects of severe environmental noise, of the limiting circuitry of the radio transmitter, of simultaneous radio transmissions, and of the recording characteristics of a Dictabelt recorder were such that any waveforms that would emerge from an analysis of the tape would be severely distorted."

Tests performed by BBN on a radio system similar to that used by the DPD and depicted in Figure 10 of the BBN report showed considerable distortion of loud impulsive sounds, such as gunshots, which resulted in elimination of impulse peaks, changing the position of peaks, and even producing new peaks where no impulse peaks previously existed.

Preliminary tests by BBN determined that the four chosen impulse patterns occurred at approximately the same time as the known gunshots in Dealey Plaza, that no other sufficiently characteristic patterns were located in the pertinent five-minute segment, that the time span between the first and fourth patterns did not contradict photographic evidence concerning the timing of the first and last gunshots, that the distorted patterns approximated test patterns of gunshots, and that the amplitudes of the impulse patterns were in the same range as test gunshots.

On August 20, 1978, BBN fired a total of 12 test gunshots with weapons located only in the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) and on the grassy knoll area in Dealey Plaza. Using 36 microphones located 18 feet apart on Houston and Elm Streets in Dealey Plaza, BBN recorded these test gunshot blasts in an effort to reconstruct acoustically the impulse patterns recorded by the DPD radio system during the assassination of President Kennedy. Even though few physical changes had been made in Dealey Plaza since 1963, producing comparable test patterns was very difficult since the impulse patterns on the DPD recording were like "badly smudged 'fingerprints'," due to the noisy environment in the vicinity of the transmitting DPD radio microphone, the poor quality of the DPD recording system, and a number of other problems.

Using the 12 different test gunshots from the TSBD and the grassy knoll and the 36 different microphone locations used by BBN, a total of 432 gunshot patterns were recorded ($12 \times 36 = 432$). These 432 test gunshot patterns were then compared to the impulse patterns isolated on the channel 1 DPD recording using the statistical analysis technique of binary correlation. "The binary correlation coefficient of two sequences is a number that is exactly 1.0 if the sequences are identical and that rapidly approaches zero as they grow more dissimilar." This comparison provided a total of 15 matches with a correlation coefficient equal to or exceeding 0.6; however, the expected average number of false matches for such a comparison was 13, due to random noise impulses present throughout the DPD tape.

BBN then stated that at least six of the 15 correlations were false matches, because one gunshot would have been fired at the wrong target, one would have occurred only 1.05 seconds after earlier correlations which is too fast a firing rate for the tested rifle, three would have required a motorcycle with the open microphone to travel at 16 mph, and one would have required the motorcycle to travel at 55 mph. The motorcade was thought to have been traveling at approximately 11 mph. The remaining nine correlations sufficiently matched the four designated impulse patterns on the DPD recording to show a DPD microphone location varying between 120 and 160 feet behind the Presidential limousine. Further, the BBN analysis found that the four impulse patterns may have been gunshots fired as follows:

- "1. time 0.0 sec - one shot from the [TSBD] . . . "
- "2. time 1.6 sec - one shot from the TSBD . . . "
- "3. time 7.8 sec - one shot from behind the fence on the knoll . . . "
- "4. time 8.3 sec - one shot from the TSBD . . . "

The BBN conclusions were presented in oral testimony to the Committee on September 11, 1978, reflecting that the radio on a DPD motorcycle in the Presidential motorcade had received and transmitted the four specified impulse sounds, and that each of these impulse sounds was possibly a gunshot. Due to the false matches produced by the binary correlation detector at a "50%" rate per match, the probabilities, according to BBN, that a gunshot occurred at the four times are:

- "Shot 1. 88% based on three matches
- Shot 2. 88% based on three matches
- Shot 3. 50% based on one match
- Shot 4. 75% based on two matches."

BBN stated that the probability that all four gunshots occurred is only 29%.

The final findings of the BBN analysis, which also includes a review of the work of Weiss and Aschkenasy (summarized in Section III) are:

1. The impulse patterns on channel 1 of the DPD radio system recording probably include the sounds of four gunshots fired in Dealey Plaza on November 22, 1963.
2. The impulse patterns were received and transmitted by a radio mounted on a DPD motorcycle in the Presidential motorcade and the motorcycle was located from 120 to 160 feet behind the Presidential limousine.
3. "The first probable shot was fired at about 12:30:47 from the TSBD . . . [but] no conclusion can be drawn about whether this first acoustic disturbance was due to a rifle or to a sound impulse as loud as the report of a rifle . . ."
4. "The second probable shot was fired about 1.6 sec after the first one, also from the TSBD . . ."
5. "The third probable shot was fired about 7.6 sec after the first one, and it was fired from behind the fence upon the 'grassy knoll' . . . [and] the third shot is probably from a rifle."
6. "The fourth probable shot was fired about 8.3 sec after the first one, and it was fired from the TSBD . . . [and] the fourth shot is probably from a rifle."
7. "Additional police radio transmissions are intermittently recorded on the tape during and after the last two probable shots. These transmissions contribute a few electrical impulses to the noise background in which the impulses of gunfire are set. However, these noise impulses are too few in number to have a material effect on the accuracy by which the echo patterns of the acoustical reconstruction match the impulse patterns on the DPD tape."

III. SUMMARY OF MR. MARK R. WEISS AND MR. ERNEST ASCHKENASY'S REPORT ENTITLED "AN ANALYSIS OF RECORDED SOUNDS RELATING TO THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY," DATED FEBRUARY 1979

On October 24, 1978, the Committee authorized Mark R. Weiss and Ernest Aschkenasy, Department of Computer Science, Queens College, City University of New York, to conduct an independent analysis of specified sounds recorded on channel 1 of the DPD radio system. The purpose of the analysis was to determine with greater accuracy whether certain sounds on the DPD recording were indicative of a gunshot from the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, during the assassination of President Kennedy. The BBN report (summarized in Section II) had reflected "that, with a probability of 50 percent, the recording contains sounds of a gunshot, or at least sounds as loud as a gunshot, fired from the so-called grassy knoll area of Dealey Plaza in Dallas; they were received by a microphone on a DPD motorcycle that was moving on Elm Street at a speed of about 11 mph in the same direction as the Presidential motorcade."

To conduct their analysis, Weiss and Aschkenasy received from the Committee high quality magnetic tape copies of the DPD recording, a high quality tape copy of the gunshot sounds recorded by BBN during the acoustical reconstruction tests performed in Dealey Plaza on August 20, 1978, a topographical survey map of Dealey Plaza (scale: 1 inch to 10 feet), a map of Dealey Plaza (scale: 1 inch to 40 feet) with microphone locations used by BBN in their gunshot reconstruction tests, and aerial and ground-level photographs of Dealey Plaza and the surrounding areas. The Committee also provided them with additional information "such as the heights of buildings in Dealey Plaza, the distance to objects not shown on the maps, the location of the DPD shooter during the BBN reconstruction experiment and the air temperature in Dealey Plaza at the time of the assassination and during the reconstruction experiment."

Weiss and Aschkenasy's report reflects that during the assassination of President Kennedy the radio of a DPD motorcycle, that may have been in the Presidential motorcade, was thought to have been stuck in the transmitting mode for approximately five minutes. During this five-minute interval, staticlike sounds that might be distorted gunshots were heard, including the impulse pattern that BBN had identified as having a 50% probability of being a gunshot or an equally loud sound in the area of the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza. Weiss and Aschkenasy attempted to determine whether these staticlike sounds represented a gunshot sound and not another type of loud sound, whether the origin of these sounds could be more precisely located on the map, and whether a higher probability value could be computed.

Their report states that "the DPD recording [being examined] contains a wide range of sounds - speech, clicks, whistles, motor noises, sirens, and even the sound of a carillon bell. Mostly the recording contains sounds generated during normal communications on channel 1 of the DPD radio dispatching system . . . At the time that the BBN analysis estimates to have been about 12:28 p.m., a microphone on a mobile unit apparently became stuck in the 'on' position and began to transmit a continuous noise that is believed to be the sound of a motorcycle engine."

Weiss and Aschkenasy state that the staticlike sounds on the DPD recording could be distorted gunshot sounds, since the DPD radio system would have "...compress[ed] the peak amplitude of the sounds of the muzzle blast and of its strongest echoes, making them only slightly louder than those of some of the weaker echoes. Furthermore, if the microphone was on a DPD motorcycle in the motorcade, most of the many very weak echoes of the muzzle blast would have been obscured by the noise of the motorcycle engine (which is possibly the source of the continuous noise on the DPD recording). Consequently, the sounds of a gunshot would have been recorded as a sequence of very brief impulse sounds (the muzzle blast and its loudest echoes), only a few of which would have been larger than the accompanying engine noise, and none of which would have sounded to the ear like gunshots after being distorted by the limiting circuitry of the DPD radio and recording equipment."

The report states that the higher impulse sounds on the DPD recording could be generated by a number of sources including misfiring of a motorcycle engine, noise produced by the motorcycle's ignition system, radio on-and-off clicks, scratches on the Dictabelt and electrical or mechanical disturbances in the system. Weiss and Aschkenasy, in an effort to differentiate these sounds from a gunshot, stated that "the most effective and most reliable" characteristic to determine if a sound is a gunshot is the presence or absence of an array of echo-delay times of the muzzle blast. This array is produced since firing a gun produces a loud impulse sound about 5 milliseconds (5/1000 of a second) in length that spreads out in all directions. This sound is then reflected and diffracted off any structures in the area, producing echoes which arrive at the microphone later than the direct muzzle blast impulse. Weiss and Aschkenasy's report states that the specified impulse pattern on the DPD recording had this array of echo delay times, thus reflecting that it was a gunshot. However, in public testimony before the Committee on December 29, 1978, Weiss stated that it is "...not so much the echo pattern as the evidence of a [supersonic] shock wave" that would characterize a gunshot sound, and eliminate other sounds like the backfire of a motorcycle. Weiss further stated he "...cannot think of any [other sound] that might resemble..." the pattern he determined to be a gunshot due to the presence of the supersonic shock wave and the muzzle blast impulses.

These two sounds plus the proceeding echoes of these sounds reflecting and diffracting off surfaces, such as the sides of buildings, the ground, and automobiles, result in a particular echo pattern of sound impulses.

If a gunshot had been sensed by a DPD motorcycle microphone then "all sound impulses arriving at the [DPD motorcycle] microphone that are loud enough to be heard over the environmental noise would be transmitted over the radio connected to the microphone. In this case, the environmental noise consisted primarily of the very loud, repetitive noise made by the engine of a moving motorcycle..."

"The loudest sound impulses from gunfire are considerably louder than the loudness of speech, for which the [DPD] radio was designed to operate. These loud impulses overdrive the radio circuitry. Because of the limiting circuits in the radio transmitter, very loud sounds are recorded in distorted fashion and appear as much weaker signals than they really are..."

"After the sounds that are picked up at the microphone had been transmitted to the DPD radio receiver, the output of the receiver was recorded on a Dictabelt recorder. The circuitry of the receiver and the characteristics of the recorder also affected the transmitted signals. The recorded loudness of the sounds transmitted from the motorcycle radio with the stuck microphone were additionally affected somewhat by simultaneous transmissions from other officers in the motorcade. An FM radio receiver, such as the one in DPD headquarters, receives best from the transmitting radio having the strongest transmitted signal..."

"Thus, the effects of severe environmental noise, of the limiting circuitry of the radio transmitter, of simultaneous radio transmissions, and of the recording characteristics of a Dictabelt recorder were such that any waveforms that would emerge from an analysis of the tape would be severely distorted."

Tests performed by BBN on a radio system similar to that used by the DPD and depicted in Figure 10 of the BBN report showed considerable distortion of loud impulsive sounds, such as gunshots, which resulted in elimination of impulse peaks, changing the position of peaks, and even producing new peaks where no impulse peaks previously existed.

Preliminary tests by BBN determined that the four chosen impulse patterns occurred at approximately the same time as the known gunshots in Dealey Plaza, that no other sufficiently characteristic patterns were located in the pertinent five-minute segment, that the time span between the first and fourth patterns did not contradict photographic evidence concerning the timing of the first and last gunshots, that the distorted patterns approximated test patterns of gunshots, and that the amplitudes of the impulse patterns were in the same range as test gunshots.

On August 20, 1978, BBN fired a total of 12 test gunshots with weapons located only in the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) and on the grassy knoll area in Dealey Plaza. Using 36 microphones located 18 feet apart on Houston and Elm Streets in Dealey Plaza, BBN recorded these test gunshot blasts in an effort to reconstruct acoustically the impulse patterns recorded by the DPD radio system during the assassination of President Kennedy. Even though few physical changes had been made in Dealey Plaza since 1963, producing comparable test patterns was very difficult since the impulse patterns on the DPD recording were like "badly smudged 'fingerprints'," due to the noisy environment in the vicinity of the transmitting DPD radio microphone, the poor quality of the DPD recording system, and a number of other problems.

Using the 12 different test gunshots from the TSBD and the grassy knoll and the 36 different microphone locations used by BBN, a total of 432 gunshot patterns were recorded ($12 \times 36 = 432$). These 432 test gunshot patterns were then compared to the impulse patterns isolated on the channel 1 DPD recording using the statistical analysis technique of binary correlation. "The binary correlation coefficient of two sequences is a number that is exactly 1.0 if the sequences are identical and that rapidly approaches zero as they grow more dissimilar." This comparison provided a total of 15 matches with a correlation coefficient equal to or exceeding 0.6; however, the expected average number of false matches for such a comparison was 13, due to random noise impulses present throughout the DPD tape.

BBN then stated that at least six of the 15 correlations were false matches, because one gunshot would have been fired at the wrong target, one would have occurred only 1.05 seconds after earlier correlations which is too fast a firing rate for the tested rifle, three would have required a motorcycle with the open microphone to travel at 16 mph, and one would have required the motorcycle to travel at 55 mph. The motorcade was thought to have been traveling at approximately 11 mph. The remaining nine correlations sufficiently matched the four designated impulse patterns on the DPD recording to show a DPD microphone location varying between 120 and 160 feet behind the Presidential limousine. Further, the BBN analysis found that the four impulse patterns may have been gunshots fired as follows:

- "1. time 0.0 sec - one shot from the [TSBD] . . . "
- "2. time 1.6 sec - one shot from the TSBD . . . "
- "3. time 7.8 sec - one shot from behind the fence
on the knoll . . . "
- "4. time 8.3 sec - one shot from the TSBD . . . "

The BBN conclusions were presented in oral testimony to the Committee on September 11, 1978, reflecting that the radio on a DPD motorcycle in the Presidential motorcade had received and transmitted the four specified impulse sounds, and that each of these impulse sounds was possibly a gunshot. Due to the false matches produced by the binary correlation detector at a "50%" rate per match, the probabilities, according to BBN, that a gunshot occurred at the four times are:

- "Shot 1. 88% based on three matches
- Shot 2. 88% based on three matches
- Shot 3. 50% based on one match
- Shot 4. 75% based on two matches."

BBN stated that the probability that all four gunshots occurred is only 29%.

The final findings of the BBN analysis, which also includes a review of the work of Weiss and Aschkenasy (summarized in Section III) are:

1. The impulse patterns on channel 1 of the DPD radio system recording probably include the sounds of four gunshots fired in Dealey Plaza on November 22, 1963.
2. The impulse patterns were received and transmitted by a radio mounted on a DPD motorcycle in the Presidential motorcade and the motorcycle was located from 120 to 160 feet behind the Presidential limousine.
3. "The first probable shot was fired at about 12:30:47 from the TSBD . . . [but] no conclusion can be drawn about whether this first acoustic disturbance was due to a rifle or to a sound impulse as loud as the report of a rifle . . ."
4. "The second probable shot was fired about 1.6 sec after the first one, also from the TSBD . . ."
5. "The third probable shot was fired about 7.6 sec after the first one, and it was fired from behind the fence upon the 'grassy knoll' . . . [and] the third shot is probably from a rifle."
6. "The fourth probable shot was fired about 8.3 sec after the first one, and it was fired from the TSBD . . . [and] the fourth shot is probably from a rifle."
7. "Additional police radio transmissions are intermittently recorded on the tape during and after the last two probable shots. These transmissions contribute a few electrical impulses to the noise background in which the impulses of gunfire are set. However, these noise impulses are too few in number to have a material effect on the accuracy by which the echo patterns of the acoustical reconstruction match the impulse patterns on the DPD tape."

III. SUMMARY OF MR. MARK R. WEISS AND MR. ERNEST ASCHKENASY'S REPORT ENTITLED "AN ANALYSIS OF RECORDED SOUNDS RELATING TO THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY," DATED FEBRUARY 1979

On October 24, 1978, the Committee authorized Mark R. Weiss and Ernest Aschkenasy, Department of Computer Science, Queens College, City University of New York, to conduct an independent analysis of specified sounds recorded on channel 1 of the DPD radio system. The purpose of the analysis was to determine with greater accuracy whether certain sounds on the DPD recording were indicative of a gunshot from the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, during the assassination of President Kennedy. The BBN report (summarized in Section II) had reflected "that, with a probability of 50 percent, the recording contains sounds of a gunshot, or at least sounds as loud as a gunshot, fired from the so-called grassy knoll area of Dealey Plaza in Dallas; they were received by a microphone on a DPD motorcycle that was moving on Elm Street at a speed of about 11 mph in the same direction as the Presidential motorcade."

To conduct their analysis, Weiss and Aschkenasy received from the Committee high quality magnetic tape copies of the DPD recording, a high quality tape copy of the gunshot sounds recorded by BBN during the acoustical reconstruction tests performed in Dealey Plaza on August 20, 1978, a topographical survey map of Dealey Plaza (scale: 1 inch to 10 feet), a map of Dealey Plaza (scale: 1 inch to 40 feet) with microphone locations used by BBN in their gunshot reconstruction tests, and aerial and ground-level photographs of Dealey Plaza and the surrounding areas. The Committee also provided them with additional information "such as the heights of buildings in Dealey Plaza, the distance to objects not shown on the maps, the location of the DPD shooter during the BBN reconstruction experiment and the air temperature in Dealey Plaza at the time of the assassination and during the reconstruction experiment."

Weiss and Aschkenasy's report reflects that during the assassination of President Kennedy the radio of a DPD motorcycle, that may have been in the Presidential motorcade, was thought to have been stuck in the transmitting mode for approximately five minutes. During this five-minute interval, staticlike sounds that might be distorted gunshots were heard, including the impulse pattern that BBN had identified as having a 50% probability of being a gunshot or an equally loud sound in the area of the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza. Weiss and Aschkenasy attempted to determine whether these staticlike sounds represented a gunshot sound and not another type of loud sound, whether the origin of these sounds could be more precisely located on the map, and whether a higher probability value could be computed.

Weiss and Aschkenasy state in their report "if we now assume that the sound source (the gun) and the listener are located in a typical urban environment, with a number of randomly spaced echo-producing structures, it is possible to see that the pattern of sounds a listener will hear will be complex and unique for any given pair of gun and listener locations. For example, assuming a fixed location of a listener, the echoes that he hears and the times at which he hears them will be related uniquely to the location of the gun, since for each different location of the gun, even though the distances from the listener to the various echo-producing objects are the same, the distances from these objects to each gun location are different. Consequently, the times at which the echoes are heard will be different for each location of the gun. Similarly, assuming a fixed location of the gun, any change in the location of the listener will change the distances between him and the echo-producing structures, and thus the timing of the pattern of sounds he hears. If the listener is in motion as the muzzle blast and the various echo sounds reach him, the times at which he hears the muzzle blast and its echoes will be related uniquely to his location when he hears each sound. . . The 'listener' that we have discussed, of course, could be either a human ear or a microphone. If a microphone receives the sounds and they are subsequently recorded, the recording becomes a picture of the event, not unlike a 'fingerprint,' that permanently characterizes the original gun and microphone locations."

Using the topographical map of Dealey Plaza and the BBN reconstruction results (test gunshots fired only from the TSBD and the grassy knoll), Weiss and Aschkenasy attempted to predict a pairing of a shooter and a microphone that would produce a sound pattern that would match the specified impulse pattern on the DPD recording. To calculate these predicted echo-delay sequences or patterns of a particular shooter and microphone location in Dealey Plaza, three pieces of information were needed: "(1) Which objects in Dealey Plaza would produce echoes in the region of interest on Elm Street for a gun fired from the vicinity of the grassy knoll[?]; (2) how far these objects were from the locations of the gun and of the microphone[?]; and (3) what was the speed of sound under the conditions for which the echo travel times were to be predicted[?]." First, a close examination of the topographical map revealed many of the reflecting and diffracting surfaces within Dealey Plaza. Second, direct measurement on the map determined the distances from the gun to the reflecting and diffracting surfaces and then to the microphone location. Third, the speed of sound was determined to be approximately 1,123 feet per second, principally by using the known air temperature near Dealey Plaza on November 22, 1963, of approximately 65 degrees Fahrenheit.

To make a comparison of predicted echo-delay patterns to the specified pattern on the DPD recording, the error in time accuracy of the DPD recording had to be determined. Weiss and Aschkenasy used a plus or minus 1.0% error for the speed of sound due to temperature variations (plus or minus 10 degrees Fahrenheit) and a minus 4.0% to minus 6.0% error for speed variations on the DPD Dictabelt recorder, since the average speed of the recorder over a 15-minute segment was 5.0% too slow. These two errors combined to give a maximum possible time error range of minus 3.0% to minus 7.0%. Weiss and Aschkenasy then state that since any value within this maximum error range is "...theoretically valid, it was permissible to choose the value between those limits that created the best match between the impulse and [predicted] echo sequences;" a minus 4.3% error factor "...gave the best match, and we therefore used that factor."

"After numerous comparisons between the echo-delay times for the sounds on the DPD recording and various predicted patterns for assumed motorcycle and shooter locations that did not match, a combination of motorcycle and shooter locations was found which mathematically produced a predicted pattern that showed strong similarities to the pattern of impulses on the DPD tape. However, to determine with a high level of certainty if these two sequences of echo-delay times, which were derived from different data, represented the same source, it was not enough to show that the sequences looked alike. They had to be shown to be alike in an objective sense, that is, by use of a method of comparison that disregarded potentially misleading appearances. Such a method [according to Weiss and Aschkenasy] was provided by a computation of the binary correlation coefficient of the two sequences. The binary correlation coefficient of two sequences is a number that is exactly 1.0 if the sequences are identical and that rapidly approaches zero as they grow more dissimilar. As used in this analysis, the binary correlation coefficient takes into account the number of echo-delay times in each of the sequences and the number of echoes that coincide. Echoes in the two sequences are said to coincide if their delay times differ by a small amount. The smaller this amount, or 'coincidence window,' can be made while maintaining a high binary correlation coefficient, the greater will be the probability that the DPD sequence represents a gunshot from the grassy knoll."

According to Weiss and Aschkenasy, the binary correlation coefficient is defined as the number of echoes that coincide between the predicted echoes and the specified sound impulses on the DPD recording using the coincidence window, divided by the square root of the product of the total number of predicted echoes and the total number of sound impulses.

Weiss and Aschkenasy then made two comparisons between the pattern of impulses, specified as possibly the third gunshot by BBN, and the most similar predicted echo pattern as computed on the topographical map for a particular shooter and microphone pair. The first comparison was between the DPD recorded impulses "...that were significantly louder than the average background noise [a total of 15] and those predicted echoes that would have been recorded with comparable loudness" (a total of 13). Eleven of the recorded impulses and predicted echoes matched (with "impulse peaks that [were] less than one millisecond apart considered to be part of the same impulse"), which produced a binary correlation coefficient of 0.79 (11 divided by the square root of [13 x 15]). "In the other comparison, the delay times of all the recorded sounds [18] and of all of the predicted echoes [12], up to a total delay of 50 milliseconds from the muzzle blast, were compared." Eleven of the echoes and impulses matched, which produced a binary correlation coefficient of 0.75 (11 divided by the square root of [12 x 18]).

"In both of the comparisons described above, the coincidence window was set at plus or minus 1 millisecond. That is, a measured echo-delay time and a predicted one were said to coincide only if they were no more than 1 millisecond apart. For sequences that correlated at levels greater than 0.7 with a coincidence window of plus or minus 1 millisecond, the statistical probability was 95 percent or more that the sequences represented the same source - a sound as loud as a gunshot from the grassy knoll. Put alternatively, the probability that the sounds on the DPD recording were generated by sources other than a sound as loud as a gunshot originating from the grassy knoll is 5 percent or less."

The findings of Weiss and Aschkenasy concerning the specific sounds on the DPD recording are:

- "1. The recording very probably contains the sound of a gunshot that was fired from the grassy knoll. The probability of this event is computed to be at least 95 percent.

- "2. The microphone that picked up the sounds of the probable gunshot was on Elm Street and was moving at a speed of about 11 miles per hour in the same direction as the motorcade. At the time the probable gunshot was fired, the microphone was at a point about 97 feet south of the TSBD and about 27 feet east of the southwest corner of the building. (For both distances, the uncertainty is about plus or minus 1 foot).

"3. The probable gunshot was fired from a point along the east - west line of the wooden stockade fence on the grassy knoll, about 8 feet (plus or minus 5 feet) west of the corner of the fence."

In testimony in a public hearing before the Committee on December 29, 1978, Weiss listed two additional findings that were not in his report of February, 1979, as follows:

1. The specified pattern found to be a gunshot from the grassy knoll was most likely supersonic, and probably fired by a rifle. However, Weiss and Aschkenasy stated in their report that no analysis was made "...of the type of weapon fired."

2. The weapon fired on the grassy knoll "...would have been fired in a general direction of [President Kennedy's Limousine]."

Aschkenasy stated at the public hearing on December 29, 1978, that he was so sure of their results that "...if someone were to tell me that the motorcycle was not in Dealey Plaza, and he was, in fact, somewhere else, and he was transmitting from another location...I would ask to be told where that location is, and once told where it is, I would go there, and one thing I would expect to find is a replica of Dealey Plaza at that location. That's the only way that it can come out."

IV. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION'S CRITIQUE OF THE FINDINGS OF THE ACOUSTICAL ANALYSES PERFORMED BY BOLT BERANEK AND
NEWMAN, INC., MARK R. WEISS AND ERNEST ASCHKENASY

A review of the written findings and oral testimony of BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy reflects that the following two basic, underlying premises must both be valid for their findings to be accurate:

1. That the specified impulsive information recorded on Channel 1 of the DPD radio system during the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963, must have originated in or very near Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas.* If this premise is not true, then the information analyzed could not have been generated within Dealey Plaza, and thus the findings of BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy concerning the gunshots fired during the Presidential assassination would be invalid.
2. That the four specified impulsive patterns identified by BBN on the DPD recording are gunshot blasts, and are not other sounds or electrical impulses produced internally by the DPD radio system. The third designated impulse pattern was the only one utilized by Weiss and Aschkenasy in their analysis. If this premise is not true, then the information analyzed did not represent gunshots, and thus the findings of BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy concerning the possible gunshots fired during the Presidential assassination would be invalid.

There are at least two known acoustical and one non-acoustical method that could determine whether the four specified impulsive patterns on the DPD recording originated from Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas, during the Presidential assassination on November 22, 1963. If it can be shown acoustically that the other information on the DPD recording just before, during, and just after the pertinent time period was exclusively from Dealey Plaza, then there is a very high probability that the four impulsive patterns also represent sounds produced in Dealey Plaza. It can also be acoustically proven that the patterns represent sounds from Dealey Plaza if the information being analyzed is unique to Dealey Plaza, to the exclusion of all other locations within the range of the DPD radio system. The non-acoustical method requires proof from eyewitness testimony.

*That is, the impulsive sound must have been loud enough to have been received within Dealey Plaza.

The first acoustical method cannot be used to validate that the designated impulsive information originated in Dealey Plaza, since other sounds during the pertinent portion either did not originate from Dealey Plaza or their origin is unknown. The two reports to the Committee reflect that a carillon bell is heard approximately seven seconds after the last gunshot and no known carillon bells have been located in the vicinity of Dealey Plaza; that "...there are brief voice signals from other remote transmitters. Sometimes these signals are too faint to be understood,... sometimes they are loud but very distorted, and sometimes they are quite intelligible. These competing transmissions are often, but not always, accompanied by heterodynes, which are tones caused by slight differences in frequency among the competing transmitters;" and that no sounds are heard on the recording that would reflect that the specific information originated in Dealey Plaza, such as crowds cheering, recognizable voices, etc. Clearly this method does not show that the designated patterns originated from Dealey Plaza, and in fact, reflects contrary information.

The second acoustical method utilizing the alleged uniqueness of the designated sounds as applied by Weiss and Aschkenasy, also cannot validate that the impulsive information is from Dealey Plaza. Weiss and Aschkenasy stated that "If we now assume that the sound source (the gun) and the listener are located in a typical urban environment, with a number of randomly spaced echo-producing structures, it is possible to see that the pattern of sounds a listener will hear will be complex and unique for any given pair of gun and listener locations." Other than explaining this statement in more detail, they do not provide any empirical or theoretical data to prove this uniqueness.

By locating the sound source in the general vicinity of the grassy knoll and the listener in the approximate location of the motorcycles in the Presidential motorcade, Weiss and Aschkenasy then computed the expected delay times for different echo paths using string on the topographical survey map of Dealey Plaza. The echo delay times occur because it takes a longer period of time for a sound to travel from the sound source to a reflecting surface and to the listener, than to go directly from the sound source to the listener. By shifting the sound source and listener locations slightly, they computed the best match with the impulsive pattern on the DPD recording by maximizing the binary correlation coefficient, a statistical analysis which equals 1.0 when two sequences match perfectly. In one correlation of the first 50 milliseconds, Weiss and Aschkenasy compared the impulsive pattern of 18 impulse peaks on the DPD recording, each with a very wide plus or minus 1 millisecond window, to the 12 computed echo delay times, and found 11 matching peaks which, according to them, results in a probability of 95% or better that the impulsive pattern on the DPD recording matches the predicted echo pattern in Dealey Plaza. In other words, the predicted sequence for a gunshot fired on the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza and received by a microphone on a DPD motorcycle, also in Dealey Plaza, matches the designated impulsive sequence on the DPD recording with a probability of 95% or better. It is noted that the 18 impulse peaks, each with a plus or minus one millisecond-wide window, would result in approximately 36 milliseconds of the 50-millisecond time period being covered by the windows of the DPD impulses, since Weiss and Aschkenasy considered impulse peaks less than 1 millisecond apart to be part of the same peak.

In November, 1979, a violent confrontation occurred between members of the Ku Klux Klan, the Nazi Party, and the Communist Workers Party in a residential area of Greensboro, N. C., in which five people were killed (the FBI investigation in this matter is being handled under the caption "GREENKIL"). Using professional equipment, local TV personnel on the scene filmed and video taped the events as they happened, including known gunshots and other impulsive sounds that were not gunshots. One of the known gunshots in GREENKIL was compared by FBI acoustical experts to the alleged third shot on the DPD recording, using the same correlation method advocated by BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy. A probability of 95% or better was found that this gunshot in Greensboro, N. C., in November, 1979, also represents the same impulsive pattern found on the DPD recording during the Presidential assassination in November, 1963.

If Weiss and Aschkenasy had used slightly smaller windows of plus or minus 0.9 millisecond instead of 1.0 millisecond windows, their binary correlation coefficient would have dropped to 0.54, or a probability of only 44% that the sound pattern on the DPD recording would match the predicted echo sequence from the grassy knoll; whereas the plus or minus 0.9 millisecond windows would have resulted in the same 95% or better probability for the gunshot in the Greensboro, N. C. matching the impulsive pattern on the DPD recording. In other words, using the 0.9 millisecond windows and the binary correlation method advocated by BBN, Weiss, and Aschkenasy, the gunshot in 1979 in Greensboro, N. C. had a much higher probability of matching the designated pattern recorded on the DPD recording than the predicted echo pattern of a gunshot from the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza.

Aschkenasy stated in his oral testimony that if another sound pattern was found that matched the designated pattern on the DPD recording, he "...would expect to find...a replica of Dealey Plaza at that location. That's the only way that it can come out." However, Dealey Plaza is an urban area with small parks, tall buildings and a number of intersecting wide streets; whereas, the residential area in Greensboro, N. C. has two narrow streets meeting in a "T" intersection, one- and two-story buildings, and small residential lots with fences. The residential area in Greensboro, N. C. is definitely not a replica of Dealey Plaza.

The analysis in the GREENKIL investigation clearly disproves the uniqueness assumption, as applied by BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy, to show that the impulsive patterns originated in Dealey Plaza. The unplanned occurrence of a gunshot in a residential section of Greensboro, N. C. 16 years after the Kennedy assassination produces an excellent match, using the binary correlation method employed by BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy, with the designated pattern on the DPD recording that is allegedly the gunshot from the grassy knoll. It is probable then to expect that many of the urban areas within range of the DPD recording system could produce numerous sets of sound sources and microphone locations that would have a very high correlation when compared with the patterns on the DPD recording.

A third, nonacoustical method to determine that the information came from Dealey Plaza is by eyewitnesses who can testify that a DPD motorcycle microphone was "stuck open" in Dealey Plaza on channel 1 and that the information from this particular microphone was being received and exclusively recorded at DPD Headquarters. No conclusive testimony to support this eyewitness method was presented to the Committee.

Therefore, BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy did not prove that the information on the DPD recording during the Presidential assassination on November 22, 1963, originated in or very near Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas.

To prove that a particular sound is a gunshot blast, some unique characteristics must be found that differentiates a gunshot blast from other sounds, especially ones that are impulsive. Weiss and Aschkenasy stated in their written report that "the most effective and most reliable" characteristic to determine if a sound is a gunshot and not some other like sound "is the sequence of delay times of the muzzle-blast echoes." However, in contradiction of their written report, Weiss in oral testimony before the Committee on December 29, 1978, stated that "...not so much the echo pattern as the evidence of a [supersonic] shock wave..." would differentiate a gunshot from other impulsive sounds. Again contradicting themselves, Weiss and Aschkenasy stated in their written report that they made no serious examination to determine if there was a shock wave present before the designated third pattern on the DPD recording. It is not possible to determine from the above which method, if any, Weiss and Aschkenasy used to determine if an impulsive pattern represents a gunshot blast.

If Weiss and Aschkenasy used "...the sequence of delay times" as "the most effective and most reliable" characteristic to determine if an impulsive sound is a gunshot, then their theory fails. Figure 1 shows a known gunshot pattern and figures 2 and 3 show patterns from other impulsive-type sounds in the GREENKIL investigation, all with a set of delay echoes; therefore this empirical data reflects that other impulsive sounds also produce echoes off buildings, vehicles, etc. Scientific literature also reflects that all sounds, especially impulsive, produce diffractions and reflections or echoes off hard surfaces.

If Weiss and Aschkenasy used the presence of a "shock wave" as the best characteristic to determine if an impulsive sound is a gunshot, then their theory again fails. Analysis in the GREENKIL examination determined that to detect a shock wave accurately is very difficult, even under high quality forensic conditions, since the shock wave itself produces a set of delay echoes which combine and change many of the characteristics of the muzzle blast sound signal. Under the poor conditions encountered on the DPD recording, making any statements concerning the shock wave would be extremely questionable. This may be why Weiss and Aschkenasy decided not to comment on the possible presence of a shock wave in their written report. Dr. Barger, in his oral testimony before the Committee on December 29, 1978, stated that there is a 75% to 80% chance that a shock wave exists before the distorted waveform examined by Weiss and Aschkenasy on the DPD recording. Again the distorted waveform examined on the DPD recording cannot support even this lower percentage estimate.

There is no proof provided by BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy that the four patterns on the DPD recording represent gunshot blasts and not some other sounds or electrical impulses produced internally by the DPD radio system.

Since both necessary premises were not proven by BBN, Weiss and Aschkenasy, then their findings must be considered invalid. They neither proved that the impulses on the DPD recording were generated within Dealey Plaza nor that they were the sounds of gunshots. Therefore, the Committee's finding that "scientific acoustical evidence establishes a high probability that two gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy" is also invalid.

Numerous other problem areas and inconsistencies were noted in the reports of BBN and Weiss and Aschkenasy, including the following:

1. Weiss and Aschkenasy stated on page 14 of their written report that "Impulse peaks that are less than 1 millisecond apart are considered to be part of the same impulse." However, in Table 4 on page 27 of their report they listed separate impulses at 19.3 and 20.1 milliseconds, which are only 0.8 milliseconds apart.

2. Figure 10 on page 76 of the BBN report reflects the considerable convolutional change that occurs to the sound of a gunshot blast transmitted and recorded by a police radio system similar to the one used by the DPD in 1963. This considerable change in the sound pattern is such that accurate analysis of any impulsive sounds produced by this system would be very difficult.

3. No known microscopic examination of the original DPD Dictabelt has been conducted to determine if any of the patterns analyzed may have been caused by surface imperfections on the Dictabelt and then distorted by the equipment's poor amplification system.

4. BBN eliminated a number of possibly useful impulsive patterns because they presupposed that gunshots originating on the grassy knoll and in the TSBD were aimed at President Kennedy and that these gunshot sounds were transmitted by a DPD motorcycle microphone located in the Presidential motorcade. One pattern was not further analyzed because it would represent a gunshot "...fired in a direction opposite to that of the logical target." Another pattern was eliminated "...because it occurred only 1.05 sec later than earlier correlations also obtained from the TSBD. The rifle cannot be fired that rapidly." BBN did not consider whether a second gunman could have been at the same location. Four impulsive patterns were eliminated because the specified motorcycle would probably be traveling too fast to be in the motorcade; however, the impulse could have been received by another motorcycle with an open microphone or in another part of the city. In other words, six other gunshots may have occurred in Dealey Plaza, according to the BBN analysis, though not necessarily aimed at President Kennedy or received by the specified motorcycle.

5. Weiss and Aschkenasy, after determining that the error range for temperature and recorder speed variations was minus 3.0% to minus 7.0%, stated that a minus 4.3% correction "gave the best match, and we therefore, used that factor." Rigorous scientific research would not allow adjusting the error factor to make the best fit with the presupposed positions of a sound source and a listener.

V. REPLY TO DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE REQUESTS OF NOVEMBER 8, 1979

By letter dated November 8, 1979, from Robert L. Keuch, Special Counsel to the Attorney General, to the Director, FBI, and captioned "Report of the Select Committee on Assassinations," the following requests were made of the FBI's Technical Services Division.

1. Provide any information concerning the theory and application of acoustical principles as they relate to the analysis of the DPD tape.

2. Advise whether further scientific tests and analyses should be conducted of the DPD recording. If further analyses are recommended, advise who should conduct the examinations.

3. Provide any additional recommendations that are pertinent to the acoustical examinations.

Sections II, III, and IV of this review set forth a summary of the acoustical reports of BBN and Weiss and Aschkenasy, and a critique of their reports. The critique reflects that these acoustical reports failed to scientifically prove the location or even the existence of any gunshots on the DPD recording made during the assassination of President Kennedy. The critique also lists a number of other major faults in the acoustical reports of BBN and Weiss and Aschkenasy; however, to list and document all of the numerous errors found would require a considerable amount of time beyond that presently available to Technical Services Division personnel.

Visual examination of the waveforms displayed in the acoustical reports reflect that they are of very poor quality, probably due to the limited quality of the transmitting, receiving, and recording facilities of the DPD radio system. Due to this poor quality, it is considered highly unlikely that any valid scientific conclusions would be reached as to the exact nature of the designated impulsive patterns recorded on the DPD Dictabelt or their sources.

If the Department of Justice (DOJ) decides that a thorough examination should be conducted of the DPD recording, even with the high probability that no valid conclusions could be reached, then the choices are very restricted. The organization or independent consultant conducting such an examination must have considerable knowledge and the appropriate experience in the fields of forensic acoustics, especially as it relates to gunshot blasts; forensic signal analysis; tape recorder and microphone theory; radio communications, RF propagation, receivers and antennas; forensic firearms and ballistics; digital signal processing; and statistical analysis. The organization or consultant would also need a high speed digital processing system, a complete forensic acoustics laboratory, a firearms test range, and appropriate radio equipment, tape recorders, microphones, and digital waveform analysis equipment.

The FBI's Signal Analysis Unit, in the Engineering Section of the Technical Services Division has been involved on a full-time basis in the fields of forensic acoustics, signal analysis, ballistics, and engineering for a number of years. FBI acoustical experts have examined and analyzed a number of recordings containing gunshots and other impulsive-type sounds. In the GREENKIL investigation, the FBI acoustically examined over 100 impulsive-type sounds that had been recorded on site in Greensboro, N. C., with professional recording equipment. The examination determined that 39 gunshots had been fired and specified the location of each gunshot fired by members of the Ku Klux Klan, the Nazi Party, and Communist Workers Party. This examination took approximately one and one half man-years and the results were presented in criminal court in Greensboro, N. C., in September, 1980, by an FBI acoustical expert. The FBI has the necessary expertise, but a full scale examination of the acoustic evidence, including additional tests, if needed, in Dealey Plaza, would be a tremendous undertaking, especially considering the probable inconclusive results. It would take at least two to three years, require 10 - 12 man-years of work, cost in excess of $1,000,000 for travel and specialized equipment and require a number of new personnel to be assigned to the Signal Analysis Unit of the Engineering Section to replace the experts that would be involved on the project.

Due to the very limited quality of the DPD Dictabelt recording, and the remote possibility that further scientific research would produce valid results, no additional recommendations are being made at this time.

Dear Bill:

When you first took over the Bureau, I wrote you a note bringing to your attention a problem that the Select Committee on Assassination was having obtaining access to Bureau records. I did it so that the problem, of which you were not aware, would not be an embarrassment to you.

I now write a similar letter about the work of the technical people in the Technical Services Division on the acoustic studies of the Select Committee. Bill, they blew it. We asked them to speak with us before they released their finding, they refused, and did their work in secret and ended up not understanding what we did, as it is demonstrated in the attached memo. What happened is going to be made the subject of Congressional Hearings. It seems to me that you might well find it appropriate to check into the matter and correct the mistake publicly before that time.

Sincerely,

This memorandum details our disagreements with the FBI critique, found on pages 13 through 20 of their review, of our tests on the Dallas Police Department recording.

On page 13 the FBI asserts that there are "at least" three known methods that could determine whether the four impulse patterns we found originated from Dealey Plaza. Their subsequent discussion of their three methods, to the exclusion of the method we actually used, does not constitute a rational or an effective critique of the findings we obtained from the DPD recording.

First, the FBI observes that we might have shown that all recorded events both just preceding and just following the four impulse patterns originated in Dealey Plaza. We found that this otherwise sensible method could not be relied upon because we were able to show that not even all recorded events during the time span of the four impulse patterns originated from the same radio transmitter. Since all of the transmitters might not be co-located, we could not assume that all recorded events came from the same place.

Second, the FBI observes that we might have shown that the impulse patterns being analyzed were unique to Dealey Plaza. This method is the one that we developed when in 1976 we determined from recorded sounds at Kent State University the locations of the weapons that fired the first several shots back in 1970 by Ohio National Guardsmen. Analysis of the DPD recording did not admit a direct use of this method, because we had no prior knowledge about where the DPD recording microphone may have been - as we did for the Kent State recording.

Our method for coping with this problem involved two techniques. The first technique (during the August 1978 acoustical reconstruction in Dealey Plaza) was to record the sound of the test shots at 36 different locations along the motorcade route. We then compared the DPD recording impulse patterns which each test shot recorded at each location to see if any combinations of test shot and microphone location showed a high correlation. We further recognized that even the 36 microphone locations that we used would not show precisely all the unique impulse patterns that are possible, because of the time it takes for acoustic impulses to travel from one microphone to the next. Therefore our second technique was to add a margin of uncertainty to the test shot echo patterns. This margin was to accept the coincidence of an impulse in a DPD impulse pattern with an echo in our reconstruction pattern if the two occurred with ± 6 msec of each other. This process destroyed the uniqueness of our reconstruction echo patterns, but the 6 msec coincidence margin resulted in only a small increase in the likelihood that unrelated sources of impulses could generate patterns that would match the Dealey Plaza patterns. We demonstrated this fact by calculating that only 13 out of about 2000 impulse patterns produced by a random process would, on the average, match the four DPD recorded impulse patterns. We chose the random process for which all possible combinations of impulse locations in a finite number of time windows are equally likely to occur. We believe that this random process models quite well all possible permutations of the locations of echo-producing objects.

But the key to our method, and the source of our method's power to discriminate between gunfire recorded by a microphone in Dealey Plaza and any other source of impulses on the DPD recording, was to test for the DPD microphone trajectory. We found that the locations of our microphones that picked up the reconstruction echo patterns that did match with four time-ordered impulse patterns on the DPD recording moved in the direction of the motorcade and at its rate of advance. Thereby, what we gave up in uniqueness of the reconstruction echo patterns we gained back by requiring a coherent microphone trajectory as an important, and obviously necessary requirement. The odds are vanishingly small that any process could generate four different impulse patterns in a time sequence that causes each one to match a different reconstruction echo pattern measured at each of four microphones separated by the three distances dictated by the speed of the motorcade.

The most meaningful and the most direct method of verifying whether we have proved that the impulse patterns on the DPD recording are caused by gunfire in Dealey Plaza is to examine independent evidence about the motorcycle trajectory and about the shot timing sequence that our analysis revealed. We did not hypothesize this trajectory, nor did we hypothesize the timing sequence. The HSCA did find that both the motorcycle trajectory and the shot sequence we found were consistent with independent photographic evidence.

4 March 1981

Finally, the FBI asserts that the third of three methods that could determine whether the DPD sound patterns that we tested originated in Dealey Plaza requires proof that someone saw a stuck microphone on Channel 1 in Dealey Plaza. We know only of the testimony of Officer McLain that his microphone often stuck open, and that it might have been on Channel 1. Therefore we did not devise our analysis on the basis of this method.

On pages 14 and 15, the FBI report finds that the 50 msec time span analyzed by Weiss and Aschkenasy does not provide compelling evidence of a match. We agree. We based our assessment of the third-shot match achieved by Weiss and Aschkenasy on their finding that 10 coincidences occurred between the 14 DPD impulses and the 12 reconstruction echoes that occurred in a 320 msec time span. The FBI offers no explanation for this occurrence, which is most unlikely if the source of both impulse patterns was not a common one. The common source would have to be gunfire in Dealey Plaza because that is how the reconstruction echoes were obtained.

On page 15 the FBI report asserts that the recorded sound of a gunshot at Greensboro, N. C., was found to represent "The same impulsive pattern sound on the DPD recording during the Presidential assassination in November, 1963". The report says that a probability of 95% or better can be assigned to the similarity between the Greensboro pattern and the alleged third shot pattern on the DPD recording. The data to back up this statement are not contained in the FBI report. We don't know how many impulses are present in the first 320 msec of the Greensboro impulse pattern. We do not know how many of these impulses are coincident with the 14 DPD impulses. Nor do we know what time-window was used for judging coincidence.

Because the data are not revealed by the FBI, we cannot critique their conclusion that the two impulse patterns represent each other to better than 95% probability. But even if the data were found to back up the 95% probability asserted by the FBI, no one could conclude from that fact that our technique was invalid. If the FBI tested each of their 39 echo patterns against the third impulse pattern on the DPD recording, they should expect to find about two such matches assuming that the Greensboro echo patterns are about 320 ms long. One cannot tell how long are the patterns in the FBI report, for they have omitted the time scale on the waveforms they do show.

On pages 17 and 18 the FBI offers some data (without time scale) from Greensboro to show that other impulsive sounds produce echo patterns, besides gunshots. Of course all sounds produce echoes from any impedance discontinuity -- whether impulsive sounds or continuous sounds. Our analysis did not in any way assume that because there were echo patterns, therefore the favored sources of these sounds were gunshots.

Neither BBN, nor Weiss and Aschkenasy used the presence or absence of a shock wave to determine if an impulsive sound was a gunshot. It would be wrong to do this. The shock wave occurs only if the projectile is supersonic, and only then if the angle between the line connecting the observer to the weapon and the projectile trajectory is less than the complementary of the Mach angle.

On page 20 the FBI report lists five topics that they describe as problem areas and inconsistencies. Topic 1 refers to Table 4 of the W&A report, in which predicted gunshot echoes are arranged alongside those impulses in the Dictabelt recording that are closest to them in time. It certainly is true that several of the impulses that are listed in this table are less than one millisecond apart. The sentence cited by the FBI, in which W&A state that impulses that are so closely spaced are treated as one impulse is not inconsistent with these data since the statement refers to the method that was used to count the number of impulses that exceed the noise threshold. This is made explicit by the very next sentence, in which the number of such impulses is specified.

Topic 2 refers to the fact that BBN demonstrated that loud impulses such as gunshots are distorted upon transmission through the DPD radio system. We demonstrated this to show why we would base our analysis technique solely on the time-of-arrival of an impulse -- and not on the shape or amplitude of the impulse. The time that each impulse is transmitted by the radio is not distorted by the fact that the impulse is loud; only its shape and its amplitude.

Topic 3 observes that no microscopic examination of the DPD dictabelt was conducted to see if the patterns analyzed are caused by surface imperfections. Of course the patterns we analyzed are caused by surface impressions -- that is how the recorder works. We did not find periodic impulses, such as would be caused by surface scratches that span more than one groove. We did find more loud impulses on the DPD recording than we found in the reconstruction impulse patterns. These were due to a variety of causes, including keying transients and probably surface imperfections as well. To suggest that the entire impulse patterns were caused by surface imperfections simply is to describe the physical manifestation of any unknown source of noise. We have tested the sensitivity of our technique to noise with our calculations to show the likelihood that noise will resemble gunshot echo patterns in Dealey Plaza.

Topic 4 questions BBN's treatment of the matches between reconstruction echo patterns and DPD recording impulse patterns that do not lie on the about 11 mph locus. We agree that three or four loci could be about equally accepted, if there were no other evidence to help choose between them. However, the motorcycle noise is seen to diminish about four seconds before the spot where we have found that it was at the instant of the first shot. Since the motorcycle was then approaching a 120° left turn, it would have to slow down at that time. The locus we chose is the only one that allows for that. Finally, photographic evidence was found by the HSCA that showed a motorcycle on the locus that we had chosen. That independent verification is the best reason for rejecting as false alarms the matches found along other loci.

Topic 5 deserves more explanation than has been given by Weiss and Aschkenasy. The slight time stretch introduced by them is more rigorous than the FBI supposes. We were unable to determine the exact recorded time scale because there were few clues. But an exact time scale could not be determined anyway because there is always a flutter induced in the time scale by the recorder speed fluctuations. We did determine that the DPD recorded time scale was 5% slow, + about 1%. Scientific procedure requires that all possible time scales, within the range of possibility that we had determined, be searched to see if any time scale within this range produces a good match. Thus Weiss and Aschkenasy did search these values and they found a value of 4.3% that fits in the range extending from 4.0% to 6.0% that we had determined.

In summary, we do not find any insights, data, or arguments in the FBI report that we believe will support their conclusions that our tests of the DPD recording are invalid.

RE: ACOUSTICAL REPORTS PUBLISHED BY THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Our Engineering Section has performed a preliminary review/analysis of the letter dated 4/2/81 and attached material forwarded to you by G. Robert Blakey.

This preliminary analysis (attached) indicates that there is no reason to modify the original FBI findings or position issued 11/19/80. The principal FBI scientist on this review is currently heavily committed to court testimony; however, I plan by the end of this month to have the Engineering Section review further Blakey's material. Results of this extended analysis will be documented early next month.

As you know, the Departmental staff has underway an independent scientific study by the National Academy of Sciences (NAS). The NAS work was originally scheduled for completion in February 1981. However, their work is continuing and the completion date is indefinite. I believe we should hold to the findings of our November 1980 report and await the NAS study.

If you desire, I will prepare a letter from you responding to Mr. Blakey.

Mr. Bayse:

LETTER FROM MR. (C) ROBERT BLAKEY TO
THE DIRECTOR, DATED APRIL 2, 1981, WITH AN ATTACHED MEMORANDUM FROM BOLT BERANEK AND NEWMAN (BBN) TO CONGRESSMAN LOUIS STOKES, DATED
MARCH 4, 1981

A. The April 2, 1981 letter reflects that the following comments are made by Mr. Blakey, with remarks of the Engineering Section following:

1. Mr. Blakey states in the letter that the "technical people" in the TSD were asked, but refused, to speak with personnel of the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA), before the TSD's findings were released.

The Engineering Section has no record of the HSCA requesting a conference with TSD personnel during the review of the HSCA's acoustical reports. In fact, the HSCA was disbanded on December 31, 1978, and the TSD review did not begin until mid-1979. When the FBI, forwarded its review to the Department of Justice (DOJ), the Engineering Section and the Criminal Investigative Division requested that a conference be held with personnel of the HSCA before public release of the findings. The DOJ chose not to have such a meeting.

2. Mr. Blakey states in the letter that the "technical people" in the TSD conducted their work in secret.

The Engineering Section conducted a review of the HSCA acoustical reports at the request of the DOJ. Criminal Investigative Division and DOJ personnel were continually kept advised of the status of the review.

3. Mr. Blakey states in the letter that the TSD's personnel "ended up not understanding" the HSCA's acoustical report.

The TSD's review accurately summarized the public testimony and reports of the acoustical experts of the HSCA.

B. The March 4, 1981 BBN memorandum is a critique of the TSD's November 19, 1980 review of the acoustical reports of the HSCA. Review of the memorandum by Engineering Section personnel revealed a number of problem areas. Four of the major problem areas are listed below with comments of the Engineering Section following:

1. The BBN memorandum states that the four impulses on the Dallas Police Department (DPD) recording most likely originated in Dealey Plaza, principally because they matched some of the test gunshot patterns, recorded in Dealey Plaza by BBN, in a time sequence that supposedly reflects the direction and speed of the Presidential motorcade in 1963.

The TSD's review, however, states that BBN actually eliminated a number of matching test gunshot patterns because they presupposed that gunshots originating on the grassy knoll and in the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) were aimed at President Kennedy, and that these gunshot sounds were transmitted by a DPD motorcycle microphone located in the Presidential motorcade. One pattern was not further analyzed because it would represent a gunshot "...fired in a direction opposite to that of the logical target." Another pattern was eliminated "...because it occurred only 1.05 sec later than earlier correlations also obtained from the TSBD. The rifle cannot be fired that rapidly." BBN did not consider whether a second gunman could have been at the same location. Four impulsive patterns were eliminated because the specified motorcycle would probably be traveling too fast to be in the motorcade; however, the impulse could have been received by another motorcycle with an open microphone or in another part of the city. In other words, six other gunshots may have occurred in Dealey Plaza, according to the BBN analysis, though not necessarily aimed at President Kennedy or received by the specified motorcycle.

BBN reflects in their March 4, 1981 memorandum that matching the four DPD impulses to the test gunshots in Dealey Plaza would, on the average, result in 13 random, nonsignificant matches. BBN only identified a total of 15 matches.

2. The BBN memorandum states that "the most meaningful and the most direct method of verifying...that the impulse patterns on the DPD recording are caused by gunfire in Dealey Plaza is to examine independent evidence about the motorcycle [direction and speed] and about the shot timing sequence..." The HSCA found that the motorcycle direction and speed "and the shot sequence...were consistent with independent photographic evidence."

The Engineering Section's comments in paragraph B(1.) of this note reflect that the matching sequence technique used by BBN is not valid due to the inherently high number of nonsignificant matches and the faulty assumptions used to eliminate some matches. This method also does not, in any way, reveal the origin of the sounds that produced the DPD impulses.

3. The BBN memorandum states that their analysis did not assume that echo patterns always represent gunshot sounds. Also, "neither BBN, nor Weiss and Aschkenasy used the presence or absence of a shock wave to determine if an impulsive sound was a gunshot."

The TSD's review, however, reflects that Weiss and Aschkenasy stated in their written report that "the most effective and most reliable" characteristic to determine if a sound is a gunshot and not some other like sound "is the sequence of delay times of the muzzle-blast echoes." However, in contradiction of their written report, Weiss in oral testimony before the Committee on December 29, 1978, stated that "...not so much the echo pattern as the evidence of a [supersonic] shock wave..." would differentiate a gunshot from other impulsive sounds. Again contradicting themselves, Weiss and Aschkenasy stated in their written report that they made no serious examination to determine if there was a shock wave present before the designated impulses on the DPD recording.

4. The BBN memorandum states that "loud impulses such as gunshots are distorted upon transmission through the DPD radio system, [but]...the time that each impulse is transmitted by the radio is not distorted."

The TSD's review, however, reflects that tests performed by BBN on a radio system similar to that used by the DPD, and depicted in Figure 10 of the BBN report, showed considerable distortion of loud impulsive sounds, such as gunshots, which resulted in elimination of impulse peaks, changing the position of peaks, and even producing new peaks where no impulse peaks previously existed.

Dear Bob: ~~Blakey~~ ~~Robert Blakey~~

House
Thank you for your letter of April 2, 1981, setting forth your concerns regarding the FBI's analysis of the report of the Select Committee on Assassinations. As you may be aware, we performed the analysis at the request of the Justice Departmental staff.

In conducting the analysis, we honored the Departmental request to perform the work independently and within the scope of review which they prescribed. The resulting document accurately summarized the public testimony and reports of the accoustical experts of the Select Committee and our independent technical findings and observations concerning this material.

Having reviewed your letter and the accompanying technical paper, we believe the best course of action is to await the forthcoming Department of Justice study by the National Academy of Sciences which will analyze further the relevant accoustical evidence and other information related to the events surrounding the Presidential assassination.

I appreciate your efforts and candor in forwarding your views and I share your interest in ensuring that objective, scientifically supportable conclusions are reached in this important analysis.

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise of request from captioned Committee to verify the accuracy of withholding Warren Commission Document #1359 from release to captioned Committee because of counterintelligence classification.

DETAILS:

By letter 12/21/77, (copy attached) Robert Blakey Chief Counsel for captioned Committee requested of Attorney General Griffin Bell the opportunity to verify the accuracy of withholding Warren Commission Document #1359 from release to the Committee because of a foreign counterintelligence classification. Document #1359 is a letter dated 6/17/64, (copy attached) from J. Edgar Hoover to the Honorable J. Lee Rankin, Counselor, Presidential Commission and deals with information from a confidential source relating to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. ed

Pursuant to the memorandum of understanding the Committee is given the opportunity to verify on a selective basis information withheld from the Committee. On 12/27/77, this matter was discussed with Deputy Assistant Director William O. Cregar to obtain the views of the Intelligence Division regarding this matter. Mr. Cregar feels it would be

ADDENDUM: INTELLIGENCE DIVISION

- WCC:lm1 - 1/4/78

With regard to the recommendation of the Legal Counsel Division, the Intelligence Division has been assured that Mr. Blakey is a responsible official and one whose word can be respected. Inasmuch as the Committee must be given the opportunity to verify on a selective basis information being withheld from the Committee, it is the recommendation of the Intelligence Division that Mr. Blakey be allowed to read Warren Commission Document #1359. By so doing, we will allow Mr. Blakey to satisfy himself that Document #1359 does not go to the merits of the investigation being conducted by the Committee. In handling the matter in this fashion, we are able to satisfy the requirements of the House Select Committee and yet fully protect our sensitive source, it being noted that the contents of Document #1359 do not in any way place our source in jeopardy or identify him.

pertinent materials corresponding to each installation. In this respect, all logs within the specified dates are being forwarded along with any corresponding airtels, memoranda, or other communications which contain verbatim excerpts or otherwise assist in establishing the original conversations. It should be noted that the detailed or verbatim information contained in the communications may not be recorded in the same manner as the logs. This is due to the fact that the log entries were usually made by the monitors as a summary whereas the information in the communications was obtained from replays of the tapes and subject to additional evaluation as well. No tapes exist for enclosed logs, having been erased and reused following transcription of any pertinent recordings. It should be noted that in addition to technical problems, installation and removal dates may not always correspond to initial and final monitoring dates inasmuch as security considerations in some circumstances required lead time in installation or favorable opportunities for removal of the misur. Further, it may be noted that because of weekend business closings, vacations, out of town trips or other movements of the subject, monitoring on a continuous basis was not feasible in many circumstances.

 BUDED: 5/12/78

Re Bureau Airtel to Albany, 4/27/78, Detroit teletype to the Bureau, 7/25/69, and Atlanta Airtel to Bureau, 7/25/69.

In connection with captioned matter, FBIHQ indicated in referenced Airtel that a request had been received from the Department of Justice to determine if individuals who appear on the attachment to referenced Bureau Airtel, were ever overheard during the course of an electronic surveillance of any kind including wiretaps, microphone, or consensual telephone and body recorders during the period of 1/1/62 through 12/31/64. As a result, FBIHQ requested recipients to conduct a search of the ELSUR indices and general indices of all the names that appear on the attachment and to review all indicated files.

Atlanta checked the names of all individuals that appeared on the attachment through its ELSUR indices, general indices, and reviewed all appropriate files with the following results:

A review of Atlanta's ELSUR indices was negative for all the individuals that appeared on the attachment except one reference for a [REDACTED] namely: [REDACTED] Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Atlanta, Georgia, 3/29/65.

For information of the Bureau, Atlanta operated an ELSUR on the office of the SCLC, Atlanta, Georgia, during the period of 1963 through 1966, plus an ELSUR on the residence of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., Atlanta, Georgia, for a portion of the above period in connection with the Bureau's investigation of the Communist infiltration (COMINFIL) of the SCLC at that time. The above-mentioned reference for [REDACTED] would have been in the logs of this ELSUR on the SCLC; however, Atlanta is not able to check this reference for a [REDACTED] as all the logs for these ELSURS on the SCLC and KING were sent to FBIHQ by Atlanta on 3/14/77 for inclusion in the National Archives per a court order in the case captioned, "BERNARD S. LEE vs. CLARENCE M. KELLEY, ET AL (U.S. D. C., D.C.), CIVIL ACTION NUMBER 76-1185 (BUFILE 62-117194)," and "SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC) vs. CLARENCE M. KELLEY, ET AL (U.S. D. C., D.C.), CIVIL ACTION NUMBER 76-1186 (BUFILE 62-117193)."

Based on the above, Atlanta is not able to check this reference for [REDACTED] to ascertain if he is identical to [REDACTED] in this matter.

The ELSUR indices also reflected an index card on [REDACTED] who was identified as [REDACTED] and therefore it was determined that this [REDACTED] is not identical with [REDACTED] whose name appears on the attachment to referenced Bureau Airtel.

A review of the general indices reflected the name of [REDACTED] possibly identical with [REDACTED] the [REDACTED] name that appears on the attachment to referenced Bureau Airtel. A search for the appropriate files for [REDACTED] revealed that all substantive files where [REDACTED] name appears were destroyed by the Atlanta Division. However, Atlanta control file 66-285-857 reflects referenced Detroit teletype to the Bureau dated 7/25/69 in which [REDACTED] appears in the title. A review of the teletype reflects that the source of information concerning [REDACTED] was developed through Detroit source [REDACTED]. As previously set out, Atlanta substantive files re [REDACTED] have been destroyed; therefore, Atlanta does not know the identity of this source. (b)(7)(C)

Referenced Atlanta Airtel to Bureau, 7/25/69 reflects that no further dissemination was made of the information provided by Detroit source [REDACTED] as set forth in Detroit file 92-608. (b)(2) (b)(7)(D)

On 5/5/78, Detroit Supervisor OSCAR WESTERFIELD was telephonically advised of the Detroit teletype to the Bureau, 7/25/69 in order to assist Detroit's response to captioned inquiry.

The search of Atlanta ELSUR indices was handled by Secretary LINDA R. URHEIM of the Atlanta Office. The search of the general indices was conducted by Supervisors CATHERINE J. ANDERSON and LINDA KING of the Atlanta Office. Appropriate files were reviewed by SAs RONALD E. KNAUBER, JOSEPH LOUIS CROTTA, GERALD D. HVIZDAK, and FRED ROGER RUHLMAN.

Being forwarded under separate cover are two boxes, each containing one full set of documents on individuals named in referenced Bureau airtel and letter from the Select Committee on Assassinations, U.S. House of Representatives.

It is noted that much duplication exists in these files. This is due to the fact that one memorandum or communication prepared by the Detroit Office may have been included in seven or eight different files pertaining to Detroit LCN subjects.

It is further noted that some informants are set forth by name in these various communications since they, at that time, were in development as PCI's. No attempt has been made to remove these names or the names of any Bureau personnel which appear in these documents.

A full record of Agents involved in the massive research project and which files they reviewed will be maintained by the Detroit Office. Also being maintained at Detroit is a list of all files and serial numbers being forwarded for review by the House Select Committee on 2 JUN 3 1978

ADMINISTRATIVE

It is noted that the enclosed log summaries contain only "mention" with no "overhears" of the names requested in referenced airtel.

Some of the log summaries reflect information apparently unrelated to the mentioned names, which information refers to private activities of an individual described as "the President".

Verbatim transcripts of these conversations are not available either as tape recordings or as written records. The tapes have previously been destroyed according to the provisions of referenced SAC letters.

Excision of any parts of the enclosures is being left to the discretion of CIU.

It is likewise noted that instant enclosures contain serials as requested in referenced airtel that originally were of administrative interest only and likewise were sensitive in nature. This information is segregated into a separate group of documents for review and selection by CIU. They are submitted as items requested in sentence 1, paragraph 1, page 2, of referenced Bureau airtel.

Although none of the above material is formally classified, the administrative nature of some of the serial copies and the "June" designation on some of these enclosed communications may necessitate special handling.

San Francisco is unable to locate 92-2199* (7/71) regarding Harry Hall. Based on the date indexed (7/71) of the unavailable general reference, San Francisco deems it highly unlikely that this reference contains Elsur material within the time period 1/1/62 through 12/31/64.

San Francisco will continue attempts to locate SF 92-2199 and will notify FBIHQ as to the results of the review.

In this book, REID devotes one chapter to CARLOS MARCELLO, LCN member in New Orleans. Re Los Angeles airtel 5/17/67.

(b)(7)(C) [REDACTED] ED REID, author of the soon to be published book, "Jungle, USA," contacted REID telephonically on 5/26/67, and explained to him that SIDNEY KORSHAK had reported that ED BECKER was trying to shake down some of KORSHAK's friends for money to keep their names out of the book.

The purpose of source was to discredit BECKER to REID in order that the CARLOS MARCELLO incident would be deleted from the book by REID. BECKER is obviously REID's informant concerning reportedly informing Bureau Agents in September, 1963, that CARLOS MARCELLO was planning on killing President KENNEDY.

REID did not commit himself as to deleting or changing any passage of the book. (b)(7)(C)

This is to set forth a review of new developments, pending and completed investigation in the Estes case.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Motions Filed By Estes and His Conspirators To Be Argued December 10, 1962, At Which Time Trial Date For Estes To Be Settled.

As previously reported, Estes' coconspirators have filed motions requesting that their sentences be reduced by half and that the execution of the sentences be delayed until January, 1964. The motion contains what is described by the Assistant United States Attorney at El Paso as an inaccurate statement, in that the Federal attorneys did not so inform the coconspirators. The statement reads "The defendants have been informed by the attorneys for the Federal Government and the State of Texas that are handling the prosecution of the Federal case that their (the coconspirators) testimony is necessary so that full disclosure of the facts pertaining to said prosecution can be fully revealed and that without their testimony in many cases a proper and complete prosecution cannot be sustained."

The Department is aware of this statement and Rufus D. McLean of the Criminal Division of the Department will be in El Paso to handle the December 10, 1962, court action.

The motions on behalf of Estes were to dismiss the indictment; for severance and for a bill of particulars. It is expected that after argument on December 10, 1962, that the judge will set a trial date for the Federal trial of Estes on the 29 count indictment returned June 21, 1962, at El Paso. Estes has previously pled not guilty to this indictment on July 13, 1962.

Begins Serving Term In Racketeering Case

Salvatore S. (Sam) DiPiazza, 46, convicted in 1967 of interstate racketeering, began serving a 10-year federal prison sentence Thursday.

He reported to the U. S. marshal's office in Cincinnati about 3:30 p.m. He will be sent to a federal prison hospital in Springfield, Mo., because he has heart trouble.

DiPiazza was sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $50,000 in U. S. District Court after he was found guilty of seven counts of use of interstate telephone facilities for gambling and one count of conspiracy.

Federal agents said that DiPiazza, working out of New Orleans, La., ran a $400,000-a-month gambling operation with Clyde Deming, 58, Ft. Thomas, Ky., who also was convicted on the same charges. Deming reportedly operated in Silverton.

The U. S. Supreme Court last Thursday refused to hear DiPiazza's appeal. The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals had earlier turned down the same appeal.

Deming currently has an appeal pending before the Supreme Court.

Otto Kuhn, 78, Frankfort, Ky., convicted with Deming and DiPiazza currently is serving a five-year penitentiary sentence.

JUDGE DANIELS TELLS OF PLAN

Change in Partin's Testimony Sought, Claim

A Baton Rouge city judge testified there were numerous efforts to get him to influence Edward Grady Partin, a Baton Rouge Teamsters Union official, to change Partin's federal court statements that were instrumental in convicting Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

Judge William Hawk Daniels' testimony was in a transcript filed Monday in the Louisiana Supreme Court of a closed hearing conducted by commissioner Michael M. Arwin in the state's suit to remove Judge Malcolm V. O'Hara from office.

Daniels said those involved in a plan to change Partin's testimony included, but were not limited to Pete Rotolo, contractor Wilson Abraham and James H. "Buddy" Gill, all of Baton Rouge, New Orleans attorney G. Wray Gill and Miami attorney Frank Magano.

Criminal District Judge O'Hara is being sued for alleged improper attempts to gather evidence to overturn federal court convictions of Hoffa and Zachary A. Strate Jr., former New Orleans builder now living in N. Miami Beach.

WIRE TAPPING

Much of the testimony centered on the presentation of an affidavit by Judge O'Hara to Partin in a Baton Rouge meeting. That affidavit stated Partin had knowledge of wire tapping by the government in the Chattanooga federal trial, a basis for overturning the convictions, but Partin refused to sign it.

Daniels said in the transcript he did not know O'Hara. Whenever it was suggested he try to change Partin's testimony, he said, there was always the suggestion it would be worth Partin's while and Daniels' too.

O'Hara testified he never had any business dealings with Strate, whom he said he met after Strate's 1964 federal conviction.

Early in 1967, the judge said, Strate asked if he knew anybody in Baton Rouge who knew Partin and could set up a meeting.

He continued that Strate asked him to take the affidavit about wire tapping to Partin in a meeting set up by James H. Gill in Gill's office.

GLANCED AT AFFIDAVIT
O'Hara said he only glanced at the affidavit and had no idea it contained allegations of government wire tapping.

He said Harold Brown, a Chattanooga defense lawyer in the Hoffa trial, had talked with Strate about wire tapping in Chattanooga and the gist was that it would be beneficial to all defendants in both Hoffa federal trials in Chattanooga and Chicago if evidence of wire tapping could be produced.

O'Hara said he did not discuss the proposed affidavit, but merely presented it to Partin, who said he could not sign it as it was untrue.

He said he did not bear anybody promise Partin any compensation to sign the statement.

MEETING SHERIDAN

O'Hara also told of accompanying Strate to the Bourbon Orleans Hotel to meet National Broadcasting Co. newsman Walter Sheridan.

He said he and attorney Edward Baldwin went to the bar for an hour while Sheridan talked at a table with Strate, and the conclusion he heard Sheridan tell Strate he wanted to help Strate in Chicago.

When recalled to testify later in the hearing, O'Hara said the campaign deficit he incurred when he ran against District Attorney Jim Garrison amounted to $25,000 to

He said he had no dealings with the Teamsters relative to the deficit.

Garrison testified that O'Hara, who waged a bitter campaign against his bid for reelection, was "a very competent criminal district judge."

AWARE OF ACTIVITIES

He said he was aware of activities complained of, and concluded no criminal aspects whatever existed.

Garrison said he had no complaints from members of his staff about the judge's operation of his court.

Another witness was James H. "Buddy" Gill, managing director of the Baton Rouge Industrial Contractors Association, who said he once told Partin he would be a "big fool" if he did change his testimony from the federal court. James Gill said he did not mention to Partin any reward or compensation for changing his testimony.

He quoted Partin as suggesting he go see Daniels and Baton Rouge District Attorney Sargent Pitcher, since they might have had some knowledge of government wire tapping.

Strate, he recalled, then asked him to talk to the two, but neither had such knowledge, James Gill said.

NO DEALINGS

James Gill said he had no financial dealings with O'Hara and that Partin once told him he had been offered $60,000 to sign an affidavit changing his testimony.

Pitcher told the commission hearing he was visited by James Gill, who told him he wanted to help Hoffa.

James Gill wanted him to call Partin and ask him to sign the affidavit, Pitcher said, but he said he told Gill he was not going to take any part in it.

Strate was an unexpected witness since he has moved to Florida and is out of the jurisdiction of the court on a civil matter.

The 48-year-old builder said he is constructing a condominium apartment building.

CONVICTED IN 1964

He said he was convicted in July, 1964, in federal court and later heard Partin wanted to help and that Partin had knowledge of wire tapping in Chattanooga.

He said he has been trying for years to obtain evidence of wire tapping.

He said he had no financial dealings with O'Hara, and offered no money to Partin to sign an affidavit. He said he heard while in federal court of a $200,000 reward offered by the Teamsters Union to get Partin to sign.

Calling television newsman Sheridan the "architect of my trouble," Strate said he met with him in the Bourbon Orleans because he felt he could obtain from him admission of wire tapping either in the Chattanooga or Chicago cases.

He did not explain how Sheridan allegedly caused his troubles, but added that a September, 1967, appearance before the federal grand jury here was to harass him.

Strate said "they" are trying to protect Partin in Baton Rouge "and that's why O'Hara is here" (in the removal suit).

FEDERAL CASE

Asked about the federal case involving him and Hoffa in Chicago, Strate explained there were 11 defense lawyers sitting in court and 28 "on hire."

"Twenty-eight available. That's why we got convicted."

He said O'Hara never helped in a legal way, and he never promised O'Hara anything.

A former assistant district attorney assigned to O'Hara's court, Ross T. Scaccia, testified he advised O'Hara that Strate was "too hot for you; you are a judge. Why don't you just drift away from him?"

Scaccia said he told the judge he didn't think it was his place to help Strate.

QUIZZED BY LAWYERS

As an assistant United States attorney, Scaccia said, he was called to Washington and Chicago for questioning on his knowledge of O'Hara by criminal division lawyers from the Justice Department.

He said they did not like his attitude and his boss, Louis Lacour, suggested it might be better if he resigned.

Filed with the record of the closed session was an affidavit in which Partin said he told O'Hara and James Gill that all of them would get into trouble if he changed his testimony.

In the affidavit, Partin told of the meeting set up in James Gill's Baton Rouge office for himself, Gill and O'Hara.

He said he recognized the affidavit as being the same one Morris Shiffer, a Hoffa lawyer, brought to him. The lawyer was sentenced to 90 days for contempt of court in the Chattanooga proceedings, Partin said.

It was the same affidavit that D'Alton Smith, former Governor's Assistant Aubrey Young and Shiffer tried to get him to sign in Young's house, and wanted him to swear that Sheridan came to him every night before he got on the witness stand in Chattanooga and gave him transcripts of telephone conversations made by Hoffa so he could testify about them during the next day, Partin stated.

SPECIAL PROSECUTOR

He said Sheridan at the time worked as a special prosecutor for the Justice Department.

Partin said O'Hara told him if he signed the affidavit, there would be witnesses to back up the substance of it. He explained this would be perjury because federal marshals were with him 24 hours a day in Chattanooga.

Partin said the judge asked if it could be reworded, but he told him it would still be perjury. Partin said at the end of the meeting, James Gill made a statement within the judge's hearing that $1 million would be nothing to them, presumably referring to Hoffa and the Teamsters.

He said James Gill explained the statement by saying if Hoffa could get a new trial, they could shake down "them" by not letting Partin testify until money was produced.

Argument on the suit will be heard by the Louisiana Supreme Court on May 3.

CARLOS MARCELLO

D. W. Ferrie Guatemala

On February 13, 1964, Raymond Comstock, New Orleans Police officer assigned to the District Attorney's office, advised that shortly after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy he was conducting an investigation to locate David W. Ferrie who was alleged to have been an associate of Lee Harvey Oswald. In connection with this investigation he attempted to locate Ferrie at his residence and in the course of his investigation at Ferrie's residence, 3330 Louisiana Avenue Parkway, he found the following material:

Two undated letters addressed to Mr. Jack Wasserman, Warner Building, Washington, D. C., Attorney signed D. W. Ferrie, bearing the return address of Room 307, Maya Excelsior, Guatemala. (It should be noted that the only difference in these letters is that one copy has handwritten corrections and notations on page 2);

An undated letter, addressed to Jack and signed Dave;

(b)(7)(c) An undated letter, addressed to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

First page of David W. Ferrie's bank book with the Whitney National Bank of New Orleans.

Mr. Comstock advised that this material was obtained without a warrant and the search was not conducted incidental to an arrest as Ferrie was not present at his residence and was not located until several days subsequent to his investigation at this address. Mr. Comstock advised that he made copies of above material which he made available on February 13, 1964.

CARLOS MARCELLO

David W. Ferrie is a former pilot for Eastern Airlines and according to Raymond Comstock is a notorious homosexual in the City of New Orleans. Ferrie was observed during the course of the trial of Carlos Marcello during the month of November, 1963, to be in frequent contact with defense attorneys G. Wray Gill and Jack Wasserman. Gill and Wasserman were Carlos Marcello's principal defense attorneys.

David W. Ferrie when interviewed by New Orleans FBI Agents in connection with another investigation on November 25, 1963, admitted that he has been employed by Attorney G. Wray Gill since March, 1962, and admitted working from August, 1963 to November, 1963 on the case involving Carlos Marcello who had been charged in Federal Court in connection with a fraudulent birth certificate.

Ferrie admitted visiting Guatemala on October 11, 1963, and departing Guatemala October 18, 1963, and entering Guatemala on October 30, 1963, and departing November 1, 1963. This information is confirmed by U. S. Passport number B085860 that Ferrie exhibited when being interviewed by Bureau Agents on another matter on November 25, 1963.

David W. Ferrie is identical with New Orleans Police Department number 107026. He was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on March 28, 1918, is 5'11", weighs 195 pounds. He is bald and wears a home-made wig. Ferrie's police Department record does not reflect a conviction.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Information concerning acquaintance of DOLAN with PAUL AUGUSTUS KING (FBI #2594295, now deceased) appears under "Personal History and Background", above. In interview with SA [REDACTED] Denver Office, July 21, 1951, KING advised that while in Phoenix, Arizona, DOLAN, although representing himself as a fight promoter, was quite obviously a gambler. He stated that on a number of occasions he observed DOLAN in company of [REDACTED] JAMES BRADLEY LEE and [REDACTED] identified by KING as gamblers and "con men". KING subsequently identified JAMES BRADLEY LEE as being identical with EUGENE H. BRADING, [REDACTED] who, with VICTOR EMANUEL PEREIRA, [REDACTED]

KING expressed his opinion that BRADING and PEREIRA, also known to KING, had initiated BOLAN into "con man" activities.

[REDACTED]

An extremely wealthy man in his late 40's, MYFORD IRVINE, died on 1/11/59 with two shotgun blasts in the belly and a .22 slug in the head. Officially, the death was ascribed to suicide, a decision which stands today on the record, despite misgivings of members of IRVINE's family, including the wife of Federal District Judge THURMOND CLARK and MYFORD's niece, Mrs. JOANNE IRVINE BURR, at whose insistence the body was examined many months later for pathological study. The consensus of pathologists was that the IRVINE wounds could have been self-inflicted.

On this verdict, the MYFORD IRVINE estate, which includes a big share in the 91,000 acre "Irvine Ranch" dominating Orange County, California, will probably go to MYFORD's widow who was reportedly either sleeping or sitting in the family home directly above the basement room where later that Sunday afternoon she discovered her husband's dead body.

ENCLOSURE

ack - 3-20-61/AA-pm

Tyler, Texas

February 27, 1961

TO ALL FEDERAL INVESTIGATIVE OFFICERS
FILING COMPLAINTS BEFORE U. S. COMMISSIONERS
IN THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS:

On February 26, 1961, the Bureau of Prisons, Department of Justice, inaugurated a new program for collecting statistical data and reporting prisoner status to the Bureau of Prisons. It may be that you are already familiar with this new record system, but we are enclosing a sample Form DJ-100 for your information. The United States Marshals are charged with retaining record responsibility of Federal prisoners during the pendency of their cases.

You will note from the card enclosed that the United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Texas at Tyler, Texas will need detailed information for each prisoner coming into his custody. We will have to depend upon your cooperation in order to insure the success of the program by your making an extra set of fingerprints for our use each time you bring a defendant before a U. S. Commissioner in the Eastern District of Texas where no Deputy Marshal is present. As you know, we no longer have Deputies in the field in the Texarkana, Paris, Sherman and Jefferson Divisions of the Court and our problems in obtaining all the necessary information for the cards will be greater here than in Tyler and Beaumont.

The set of fingerprints which you will send to the Marshal's headquarters in Tyler will determine the "prisoner number" under Item 6, which is essential in compiling the data and prisoner status reported to the Bureau of Prisons, and it will also serve as the local fingerprint number for identifying prints sent to the F. B. I.

We are herewith enclosing a small supply of self-addressed manila envelopes and fingerprint cards overprinted with the Marshal's identification, and we will appreciate very much your cooperation in supplying the fingerprint card when we are not able to have a Deputy at the arrest and arraignment.

62-10273-5

UNITED STATES MARSHAL
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
TYLER, TEXAS

Reurlet 3-13-61 concerning the new "Prisoner Record and Reporting System" inaugurated by the Bureau of Prisons. You enclosed a mimeographed letter dated February 27, 1961, which was addressed to all Federal Investigative Offices by James Crawford, Jr., U. S. Marshal, Eastern District of Texas. Mr. Crawford requests that an extra set of fingerprints be taken each time a defendant is brought before a U. S. Commissioner in his district where no Deputy U. S. Marshal is present; further, that these fingerprints be forwarded to his headquarters at Tyler, Texas. You asked to be advised if similar requests have been made by the U. S. Marshals in other districts and if so, whether the procedures are similar to those outlined by Mr. Crawford.

SAC, Louisville, wrote about the same problem 2-24-61. It seems there is no Deputy U. S. Marshal at either Paducah or Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and the U. S. Marshal at Louisville was concerned that Federal prisoners would be released by the U. S. Commissioner or a Federal judge prior to the U. S. Marshal taking custody.

The Bureau is of the opinion that Form DJ-100 need not be used by the Marshal unless he actually has custody of a prisoner. If this is true it would not be necessary for you to take two sets of fingerprints where no Deputy U. S. Marshal is present and forward one set to U. S. Marshal Headquarters at Tyler.

The Louisville Office was instructed to have the U. S. Marshal there refer his problem to the Executive Office for U. S. Marshals in compliance with page five of Department of Justice memo 289 dated 1-31-61. That memo was addressed to all U. S. Marshals and Bureau of Prisons Institutions concerning Prisoner Record and Reporting System. It was sent out in connection with DJ-100

The questions raised by you and Louisville have been orally discussed with Executive Office for U. S. Marshals and when a decision is reached you will be advised.

NOTE: Bureau of Prisons recently inaugurated a new system in connection with "movement of prisoners." It was explained in a letter addressed to all U. S. Marshals and Bureau of Prisons institutions on 1-31-61. FBI has agreed to accept part of Form DJ100 in lieu of our R-84 (Disposition Sheet) for a trial period of 90 days.

Letters have been received from U. S. Marshal, Louisville, and now Dallas that FBI take two sets of fpts whenever a person is released following an arrest prior to U. S. Marshal taking custody. Identification Division is opposed to this and has so advised Executive Office for U. S. Marshals. Matter is under consideration. Liaison with ~~U. S.~~ Executive Office for U. S. Marshals being handled by SA Supervisor Carl A. Harris.

Assistant Attorney General

NOTE: This responds to a 1/6/77 Departmental memorandum from Mr. Fuller to Mr. Adams, with attachments, setting forth information developed by IRS alleging contacts by Nelson Bunker Hunt with Jack Ruby, one Eugene Braden and Lee Harvey Oswald, shortly before the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on 11/22/63. This information was furnished to Dallas Division on 1/11/77 by facsimile and a search of its indices was requested. Dallas Supervisor Gerald L. Geary, on 1/12/77, advised that a search of Dallas indices and consultation with the former Dallas Case Agent in the John F. Kennedy assassination, former SA Robert P. Gemberling, disclosed no information pertinent to this matter. A review of Bufiles has failed to corroborate this information. On 1/13/77, Dallas advised that further review of this matter in Dallas indices has revealed that one Jim Braden also known as Eugene Brading and Gene Brading was in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository immediately following the assassination of President Kennedy on 11/22/63. SAC, Dallas being furnished a copy of this memorandum and enclosure in view of pending investigation at Dallas. Copy being furnished to Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, in view of pending investigation.

Information has been received disclosing that a 1971 Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) inquiry developed information alleging that Nelson Bunker Hunt had organized a "kill squad," that one Eugene Braden was connected with this activity and was in Hunt's office on November 21, 1963, and was at the assassination site on November 22, 1963, that Jack Ruby was also in Hunt's office on November 21, 1963, and that Braden's and Ruby's visits to Hunt's office could be verified by entries in a "sign out book." An IRS, December 9, 1976, memorandum included an attachment which purported to be a November 8, 1963, note written by Lee Harvey Oswald to a Mr. Hunt and it was stated that this attachment was received by IRS, Dallas on December 9, 1976, at which time IRS was informed that the original of the note was in the possession of the FBI.

Preliminary searches of FBI Headquarters and Dallas Office indices failed to disclose any indication that the FBI received the original or copy of such a note or information pertaining to the alleged presence of Jack Ruby and one Eugene Braden in the office of Nelson Bunker Hunt on November 21, 1963. Information has been located to verify that one Jim Braden, also known as Eugene Brading and Gene Brading, was in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository Building immediately following the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963.

DETAILS: By letter dated 12/30/76, IRS, Washington, transmitted to a 12/9/76, IRS, Dallas, memorandum of [redacted] enclosing a copy of a letter dated 11/8/63, allegedly written by Lee Harvey Oswald to a Mr. Hunt stating "I would like information concerning my position. I am asking only for information and suggesting that we discuss the matter fully before any steps are taken by me or anyone else." [redacted] stated that he had been informed that the original of this letter was in the FBI's possession. b7c

In his 12/9/76, memorandum [redacted] contended that he received a copy of this letter on 12/9/76, and that during a 1971 IRS inquiry he received information that Nelson Bunker Hunt had organized a kill squad and that Jack Ruby and a Eugene Braden had been in Hunt's office and signed a "sign out book" there on 11/21/63.

By memorandum dated 1/6/77, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, Jack W. Fuller, furnished the IRS information to the Bureau.

Upon receipt of this information in the Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU), General Investigative Division (GID), an immediate search of files was instituted. This search determined that a Jim Braden, aka Eugene Braden, was present in Dallas on 11/22/63, in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository Building, was interviewed by the Dallas Sheriff's Office on 11/22/63, and by Bureau Agents at Los Angeles, California, on 1/28/64. Information was also located that while in Dallas (11/63) Braden contacted United States Parole Officer Roger Carroll and indicated that he might or would contact H. L. Hunt. In addition, Braden was found to have a three page identification record under FBI Number 799 431, was convicted of Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property and Mail Fraud violations in 1952, was involved with criminal elements and was known to them as a con man. The search failed to corroborate the specific information received from IRS and no original or copy of the purported Oswald letter was located in Dallas or Bufiles.

On 1/11/77, information from IRS was furnished to our Dallas office in order that a thorough search of its files could be conducted. The Dallas search located information re Eugene Braden but no information that corroborated the IRS information.

Bureau letter and memorandum 1/14/77, advised the Assistant Attorney General (AAG), Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) of the file searches and that investigation was being conducted in an effort to resolve the IRS allegations. Between 1/12-14/77, contact was effected with the former Dallas case Agent in the John F. Kennedy (JFK) assassination, Robert P. Gemberling and former FBI document examiner, James Cadigan. Neither one recalled any information pertaining to a letter allegedly written by Oswald to a member of the Hunt family. Both insisted that the significance of such a letter, had it been brought to their attention, would have been immediately recognized and not forgotten.

An FOIA request made by Braden during 1976 disclosed an address of 3224 Peach Tree Road, Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia, which Atlanta Division has determined to be a mail drop or convenience address and the exact whereabouts of Braden at this time is unknown. b7c

On 1/19/77, Dallas interviewed [REDACTED] who would not furnish specific information and alleged that disclosure might be prohibited by the Tax Reform Act of 1976 (Section 6103 (I)).

On 1/21/77, Senator Gary Hart, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (SSC) initiated Committee Request Number 6250 asking for prompt access to FBI material on Nelson Bunker Hunt and Jim Braden. Committee staff members were granted access to material immediately available on 1/21/77, and were advised on 1/26/77, that additional material was available and had been prepared for access. This was confirmed by letter.

Memorandum (Mr. Gallagher
Re: Assassination of President John F. Kennedy

Prior to and following receipt of the results of the [redacted] interview on 1/19/77, the Office of Congressional Affairs (OCA), Legal Counsel Division, successfully initiated efforts (1) through the Deputy Assistant Attorney General (DAAG) Callaghan, OLA, to convince SSC that there was no need for independent inquiry by SSC into this matter as the FBI was already conducting active, expeditious investigation and would furnish results to the Committee in a timely fashion and (2) through DAAG Keuch, Criminal Division, to resolve any disclosure problems raised by IRS under the Tax Reform Act of 1976. b7c

At 5:00 p.m. on 1/26/77, DAAG Callaghan advised OCA that IRS would instruct [redacted] to supply all pertinent, non tax information in this matter to the FBI and that IRS would gather pertinent recorded information from its files to be available to the FBI.

In response to Bureau instructions, Dallas SAs [redacted] and [redacted] interviewed [redacted] on 1/27/77, after [redacted] received written confirmation of IRS Headquarters instructions. [redacted] stated he received a copy of the alleged Oswald letter from [redacted] on 12/9/76, who advised he received it from Earl Golz, "Dallas Morning News" reporter, who got it from a FNU Hernandez, Midlothian, Texas, who claimed to have sent a copy of the Oswald letter to the FBI in late 1974 and who claimed to have received the letter from a person in Mexico.

[redacted] stated the sources of his information during the 1977 inquiry were [redacted] and another source which he declined to identify since that source may still be close to the Hunt family. Following termination of the interview [redacted] recontacted the Dallas office and stated [redacted] had furnished copies of the Oswald letter, a transmittal letter in Spanish and the envelope. [redacted] stated that the addressee's name appeared on the letter and envelope but had been blocked out. [redacted] furnished these documents to FBI, Dallas, which submitted them to the FBI Laboratory for examination. The Spanish language transmittal letter is dated 8/18/75, and bears the initials "P.S." (apparent sender) and the address: "Insurgentes, Sur No. 30, Mexico, D. F., Mexico." (It is to be noted that the sender ("P.S.") indicates that he, not a "Hernandez," sent "a letter from Lee Oswald" to the FBI "at the end of last year" (1974)). b7c

Re: Assassination of President John F. Kennedy

[redacted] b7c
[redacted] speculated that [redacted] received these documents from Golz. Additionally, [redacted] stated he had received his 1971 records in this matter from the Federal Records Center and was reviewing same, but would require specific authority from IRS Headquarters for release of any non tax information.

A search of Bufiles disclosed information on 10/6/75, alleging that [redacted] and former [redacted] may have furnished documents to Golz during 1972 which came into [redacted] possession while in [redacted] (Bufile 62-109060-7376). Following receipt of this allegation [redacted] was interviewed by a Bureau Agent on 10/30/75, and furnished details concerning an 11/4/63, memorandum he had written concerning possible violence during the 11/22/63, JFK visit to Dallas. [redacted] b7c [redacted] stated his intention in writing the memorandum was to preclude Hunt family involvement in anti-Kennedy activities. Bufiles show that both [redacted] and [redacted] et al, were carried as victims in Bufile 139-3573 with Nelson Bunker Hunt and W. Herbert Hunt, et al, as subjects in an [redacted] investigation initiated in 1970. On 1/28/77, Dallas was telephonically instructed to interview [redacted] concerning his possession of documents which he may have furnished to Golz.

In Bufile 62-109060-7376, dated 10/6/75, the informant also advised that Golz was of the opinion, but never proved, that H. L. Hunt financed assassins including one Eugene Brady or Bradley who is alleged to have visited Hunt a few days before the JFK assassination.

Information pertaining to the 11/21/63, presence of Jack Ruby in the Mercantile Bank Building in Dallas, which also houses the office of Hunt Enterprises, has been located in Bureau files and was furnished to the Warren Commission where it appears as Warren Commission Exhibit Number 2, Volume XX, Page 41. It was ascertained that Ruby transported Connie Trammel, an acquaintance, to the Mercantile Bank Building where she had an appointment to see Lamar Hunt about a job. On interview, Ruby stated he had business with his attorney on that date in the same building.

Re: Assassination of President John F. Kennedy

By communication dated 2/2/77, the FBI Laboratory advised Dallas Division that the blocked out portions of the aforementioned transmittal letter to Midlothian, Texas, read "Penn Jones, Jr. Editor Midlothian Mirror."

Bufiles disclose that Penn Jones was the subject of Bufile 100-395874 wherein rumors accused him of [REDACTED] and he was also a victim in Dallas file 157-187 captioned "Unsub; Incendiary Device Thrown Into 'Midlothian Mirror,'" Midlothian, Texas, 4/30/62. In the book "The Scavengers and Critics of the Warren Report" by Richard Warren Lewis, Penn Jones is described as reportedly convinced that the JFK assassination involved 18 persons who are now dead and two riflemen firing simultaneously at JFK. Jones has also authored "Forgive my Grief" and lectured on his assassination theories. b7c

Dallas will submit results of interviews of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Golz and Jones.

Section That Cracks Kennedy Case

By JOHN MOULDER
Special Projects Editor

Two members of a sniper team who killed President John Fitzgerald Kennedy have been identified by a former Central Intelligence Agency operative. Named were Loran Hall, a sniffer figure with a background of intrigue, and Elaido del Valle, a Cuban congressman under the Batista Regime and later an underworld figure in the United States after Fidel Castro's rebel government took over the island republic.

The former CIA agent says several other persons who considered themselves "American patriots" helped plan the assassination and said the actual operation was ramrodded by Eugene Hale Brading, a member of a West Coast Mafia family. Elements within the CIA and the Mafia, financed by wealthy right-wing interests, planned and carried out Kennedy's assassination, according to the ex-agent.

Much of this information has been provided to governmental agencies investigating the CIA by W.R. Morris, a Lorretto, Tenn., author who has been probing the Kennedy case for a decade.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date July 10, 1973

Voluntarily appeared at the Waco Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and furnished the following signed statement alleging fraud against the Government commented by the Collins Radio Corporation of Dallas, Texas.

"I, [REDACTED] being duly sworn, hereby make the following free and voluntary statement to Special Agent [REDACTED] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"In 1966 a Federal contract was agreed upon with the Collins Radio Corporation to supply eight Air Force Bases with a Communication Network System. Tinker Air Force Base was designated as the base to handle spares provisioning, ordering and source coding of subsequent spare parts for support of the entire system. The initial contract called for the design, manufacturing and installation of the system; plus, adequate spares to maintain the system until the Air Force could get its initial spares order. I believe the initial cost for the entire system was eleven million dollars.

"In designing the system, and during installation the Collins Radio Corporation discovered that several particular parts would not work in the system. The Engineering Division of Collins sent design change notices to both the manufacturing division and the documentation department advising of the design changes. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] The provisioning conference was the conference where the Air Force made their initial order for spare parts.

"At the provisioning conference the Air Force ordered from the original parts list, which included several parts which had been changed or deleted from the system. The Air Force was never notified of the design change notices until after the conference.

"The Air Force was forced to pay a 'penalty fee' for cancellation of the order for parts not in the system when the initial order was made. In accordance with the contract, the Air Force had to pay a fee of seventeen dollars per change of design notice. Each notice involved one particular part or fraction thereof. In essence, the Air Force was knowingly given an inaccurate and false list by Collins Radio Corp. upon which the Air Force relied in making their initial order for spare parts.

Re San Antonio letter to Dallas 7/10/73.

A perusal of referenced letter and enclosure discloses complainant alleges that subject company withheld pertinent information at a provisioning conference with the Air Force, at which time the Air Force ordered spare parts necessary to maintain an Air Force base communication network system. Reportedly, subject company knew at the time of the conference that parts changes and modifications were necessary from the original parts list but did not make this fact known, which resulted in the Air Force ordering obsolete parts from the original parts list. It is necessary to know when and where the pertinent conference was held in order to establish venue and to determine if the State of Limitations has tolled. It would appear the Statute of Limitations may have run [REDACTED] b7c b7D

On July 16, 1973, the above situation was discussed with Supervisor [REDACTED] San Antonio Office, at which time [REDACTED] requested the desired information be dictated to his secretary and that he, [REDACTED] would reopen this matter in the San Antonio Office requiring the additional necessary investigation. The memorandum was dictated and requested investigation is being conducted at Waco. b7c

[REDACTED] voluntarily appeared at the Waco, Texas, FBI Office and lodged a complaint concerning a Federal contract between Collins Radio Corporation (CRC), Dallas, Texas and the United States Air Force. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and to the best of his recollection the contract was initially signed in 1966 and involved the design, manufacturing, and installation of a communication network for the United States Air Force to be used in eight Air Force installations. The Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma, was to be used as the supply base to handle the spare parts for the installation and maintenance of the system. b7c b7D

[REDACTED] alleges CRC withheld pertinent information at a provisioning conference with the Air Force, at which time the Air Force ordered spare parts necessary to maintain the communication network system. Allegedly, CRC knew at the time of the conference that parts changes and modifications were necessary from the original parts list, but did not make this fact known, which resulted in the Air Force ordering obsolete parts from the original parts list and being forced to pay a "penalty fee" for cancellation of the order for parts not in system when the initial order was made. [REDACTED] believes the conferences were held in Dallas, between August and October, 1967.

On August 8, 1973, this matter was discussed with Assistant United States Attorney, Northern District of Texas, Dallas, Mr. Harold Jaquet. Mr. Jaquet stated since the Statute of Limitations in this matter was five years and the Statute of Limitations has tolled, he declined prosecution.

House Select Committee on ASSASSINATIONS

PURPOSE: To advise that the U.S. House of Representatives has created a select committee to investigate the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The reported basis for the House investigation re Dr. King was previously investigated by the FBI in 1968 and 1969 and the results were furnished to the U. S. Department of Justice.

SYNOPSIS: This case pertains to the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on 4/4/68. James Earl Ray pled guilty to this murder and presently is in local confinement. As set forth in a J. S. Peelman to Mr. Gallagher memorandum dated 2/18/76, in February, 1976, "Newsday," a Long Island, New York, newspaper reported that Ed Redditt, the Memphis, Tennessee, City Detective guarding King was pulled from his post hours before King was assassinated and told the U. S. Secret Service had learned of a "contract" on his life. Redditt who protested his removal, reportedly had a "contingency plan" to apprehend any King assassin. On 2/17/76, this article furnished to the Civil Rights Division (CRD), U. S. Department of Justice (USDJ), which, at that time, had the FBI investigation of Dr. King under review, stating FBI was conducting no investigation re this article unless specifically requested by the CRD. Article in "Washington Post," 9/18/76 (copy attached) reported U. S. House of Representatives created a select committee to investigate assassinations of President Kennedy and Dr. King. Reported basis for House investigation re Dr. King deals with ordered removal of Redditt from King security on day of his death due to reported attempt on life of Redditt's family. Order for his removal attributed to Memphis Fire and Police Director Frank Holloman (retired)

RE: MURKIN

Special Agent of FBI). Reported basis also deals with "sudden transfer" of two black fireman, including Floyd Newsum, from firehouse across the street from motel where King was shot. The FBI civil rights assassination investigative file (Bufile 44-38861) reflects the CRD furnished a memorandum dated 9/23/68 containing results of interviews which J. Harold Flannery, Deputy Section Chief, Central Section, CRD, had with William Sartor, a contract writer for Time, Inc., who as a reporter had been inquiring into possible conspiracy to assassinate Dr. King. Sartor furnished various information, including the "Cosa Nostra" or "Mafia" could be involved, Redditt was moved from assignment at fire station, and two Negro firemen were moved from the station a day or two before the shooting. CRD requested FBI to "follow out" all of Sartor's indicated leads. FBI investigation in 1968 reflects that upon instructions from an Inspector of the Memphis Police Department (PD), Detective Redditt removed from guard duty due to information received from Senator McClellan's Senate Investigating Committee that a Negro detective was to be killed. Inspector believed this another threat against Redditt, who had been previously threatened, and removed Redditt for own protection. Memphis PD determined Negro fireman Floyd E. Newsum active in demonstrations by striking sanitation workers and closely associated with black militants. Newsum transferred to insure safety for Officers Redditt and another officer and to insure no information leaked to black militants. Another Negro fireman routinely reassigned due to manpower shortage. This investigation by FBI reported in Memphis letterhead memorandum (LHM) dated 11/21/68, disseminated to CRD 11/27/68, and by request also furnished to Office of Professional Responsibility Task Force, U. S. Department of Justice, on 6/4/76, which Office is presently reviewing the FBI investigation of Dr. King.

Bufile 44-38861 also reflects on 1/30/69 Rev. Ralph Abernathy, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, advised that Rev. James Lawson told him two Negro firemen, assigned to fire station across from King motel, were moved leaving fire station unmanned, and a Negro policeman was moved from beat of King's motel. (LHM reporting this furnished CRD 2/3/69). FBI investigation at Memphis PD reflected it had no officers assigned to "walking beat" on day King killed. Rev. Lawson interviewed by FBI on 2/11/69 and stated Floyd E. Newsum and another Negro fireman were transferred, and Detective Redditt was removed from fire station, and these occurrences may have some significance. This new select House Committee, to date, has made no requests of the FBI.

RECOMMENDATION: For information. The CRD is being advised, and the Task Force Leader of the Office of Professional Responsibility, U. S. Department of Justice, presently reviewing the FBI investigation of Dr. King will be advised of the location of this information in Bufile 44-38861.

DETAILS: This case pertains to the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on 4/4/68. James Earl Ray pled guilty to this murder and presently is in local confinement in Tennessee.

As set forth in a J. S. Peelman to Mr. Gallagher memorandum dated 2/18/76, a United Press International Wire Service article dated 2/14/76, stated the following:

"Garden City, N.Y. (UPI) -- The top law enforcement official in Memphis, Tennessee, removed a detective assigned to protect Martin Luther King hours before the Civil Rights leader was assassinated in 1968, Newsday reported Saturday.

In a copyrighted story in its Sunday edition, the Long Island newspaper said Ed Redditt, the city detective guarding King, was pulled from his post and told there was a plot to kill him.

The Memphis Public Safety Director did not replace Redditt after taking him off the assignment and allowed the detective to return to work three days after King was shot to death at the Lorraine Motel Newsday said.

It also said Redditt 'had prepared a contingency plan to enable the police department to apprehend an assassin should an attempt be made on King's life.'

'After Redditt was removed from duty, he was told at a meeting in police headquarters that the U. S.

Secret Service had learned of a 'contract' on his life,' Newsday said.

'Redditt protested, saying he wanted to return to his post, but the city's then Public Safety Director, Frank Holloman, insisted on the officer's removal,' the newspaper said.

'Enroute home with his police guard, Redditt heard over the radio that King had been shot by an assassin,' the story said.

'Three days later, the round-the-clock guard watching Redditt was removed and he was allowed to return to work. The police department never offered any further explanation of the 'contract' on his life,' Newsday said.

The story also said Holloman acknowledged the report of a threat on Redditt's life, but refused to say who had made the threat.

'Redditt's assassination contingency plan, according to sources, called for the entire four-block area around King's Hotel to be sealed off by patrol cars,' the article said."

On 2/17/76, this article was furnished to the CRD USDJ, which at that time had the FBI investigation of Dr. King under review, stating the FBI was conducting no investigation re this article unless specifically requested by the CRD.

On 9/8/76, an article appeared in the "Washington Post," (copy attached), reporting that the U. S. House of Representatives created a select committee to investigate the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
The reported basis for the House investigation re Dr. King deals with the ordered removal of Edward Redditt from King's security on the day of his death due to a reported attempt on the life of Redditt's family. The order for his removal was attributed to Memphis Fire and Police Director Frank Holloman (retired Special Agent of the FBI). The reported basis also deals with the "sudden transfer" of two black firemen, including Floyd Newsum, from the fire house across the street from the motel where King was shot.

RE: MURKIN

The FBI civil rights assassination investigative file (Bufile 44-38861) reflects the CRD furnished a memorandum dated 9/23/68 (serial 5197) containing results of interviews which J. Harold Flannery, Deputy Section Chief, Central Section, CRD, had with William Sartor, a contract writer for Time, Inc., who as a reporter had been inquiring into a possible conspiracy to assassinate Dr. King. Sartor furnished various information, including that the "Cosa Nostra" or "Mafia" could be involved. Departmental Attorney Flannery also reported that Sartor furnished him with the following two allegations:

1. "An unidentified Negro policeman was moved from his assignment at the Fire Station (and Police Tactical Unit Station) at about 5:00 p.m. on the day of the assassination. According to Sartor, the Dispatcher told the policeman to move two or three times during the afternoon, but he did not do so until explicitly advised to that effect by a superior. In August, Sartor identified the policeman as E. E. Redditt and said that Redditt had broken off an interview with Sartor after starting to discuss his move from the station."

2. "Two Negro firemen were moved from the station a day or two before the shooting. One of them has reportedly told friends that, two or three days before Dr. King was shot, a telescope or binoculars were set up on a tripod in the fire station and focused on the Lorraine Motel balcony. In August, Sartor said that one fireman left the Department or was suspended shortly after the shooting, and that he has been unable to locate either of them. He did not have their names."

The CRD requested the FBI to "follow out" all of Sartor's indicated leads.

By LHM, the Memphis Office of the FBI reported the results of the investigation re the above two items as set forth below (serial 5387):

RE: MURKIN

"In this regard, Inspector G. P. Tines, Intelligence Unit, Memphis Police Department, advised on 11/18/68, that on 4/3/68 he assigned Detective E. E. Redditt and Patrolman W. B. Richmond, Negro officers, both of whom are assigned to the Inspection Division of the Memphis Police Department, to a security detail at the Memphis Fire Station, Engine House #2, located at Butler and Main Streets. This location is approximately one block from the Lorraine Motel. The purpose of this assignment was to observe the activities of the "Invaders," local Black Power group at Memphis. A number of the "Invaders" were rooming at the Lorraine Motel at this time. These two officers were equipped with binoculars and were stationed in a room at the rear of the fire station with a view that included the room later occupied by the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.

In connection with this assignment, and prior to the time Officers Redditt and Richmond physically proceeded to this assigned location, it was determined by the Intelligence Unit of the Memphis Police Department that a Negro fireman stationed at the Fire Station and named Floyd E. Newsum had taken an active part in demonstrations by the striking sanitation workers in February and March, 1968, and had been closely associated with black militants connected with the strike. In order to insure security for Officers Redditt and Richmond, and to insure that no information regarding the Memphis Police Department Intelligence Unit's efforts to keep abreast of the activities of the "Invaders" was leaked to the black militants in Memphis, the Chief of the Memphis Fire Department was requested to temporarily transfer Fireman Newsum to another fire station. This was done on 4/3/68.

In addition, on 4/4/68, Negro Fireman Norvell E. Wallace was routinely assigned from Fire Station #2 to Fire Station #31, due to a manpower shortage at Fire station #31.

[REDACTED]

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

RE: MURKIN -

At approximately 4:15 p.m. on 4/4/68, Lt. E. H. Arkin of the Intelligence Unit of the Memphis Police Department, on instructions from Inspector Tines, proceeded to Fire Engine House #2 and removed Detective Redditt from this station, leaving Officer Richmond at this post. The reason for the removal of Officer Redditt was due to the receipt of a telephone call on the morning of 4/4/68 by Philip Manuel, Chief Investigator for Senator McClellan's Senate Investigating Committee, Washington, D. C., to the effect that information had been received by the Committee that a Negro detective on the Memphis Police Department was to be killed.

Due to Detective E. E. Redditt's activities in attending meetings of the striking sanitation workers in February and March, 1968, Redditt had been threatened on several occasions. Inspector Tines therefore believed the telephone call received by the McClellan Committee was another threat directed against Redditt. He therefore ordered Redditt removed from his lookout post at Engine House #2 for Redditt's own protection. A police guard of two officers was assigned to Redditt and his family as a result of this threat.

A review of the tapes of the Memphis Police Department radio transmissions for April 4, 1968, failed to reflect any transmissions from Police Dispatcher ordering Redditt to move from his observation post and, in fact, it has been ascertained that no radio equipment was maintained by the police officers at this observation post with which to receive radio transmissions."

This Memphis LHM also disseminated to the CRD on 11/27/68 and by request was also furnished to the Office of Professional Responsibility Task Force, USDJ, on 6/4/76, which office is presently reviewing the FBI investigation of Dr. King.

An LHM from the Atlanta Office of the FBI dated 1/31/69 (serial 5531) reflected that Rev. Ralph Abernathy, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was interviewed by the FBI on 1/30/69 and he advised that several months previously, Rev. James Lawson told him the day before the assassination of Dr. King that two Negro firemen, who had been assigned to the fire station across the street from the motel where Dr. King was killed, were moved to another fire station.

RE: MURKIN

According to Rev. Lawson that move left the fire station unmanned and they were moved to a station which was already fully manned and equipped. Also according to Rev. Lawson, a Negro policeman, who worked the beat which included the motel where Dr. King was killed, was moved off of that beat the day Dr. King was killed, April 4, 1968, but prior to the killing. This Atlanta LHM was furnished to the CRD on 2/3/69.

An airtel from the Memphis Office of the FBI, dated 1/31/69 (serial 5533) reflects information from the Memphis PD that it had no officers assigned to a "walking beat" in Memphis on the day Dr. King was killed.

An airtel from our Memphis Office dated 2/11/69 (serial 5557) reflects that Rev. Lawson was interviewed by the FBI on 2/11/69 and he advised he feels that certain occurrences may have some significance.

Rev. Lawson said that on about April 2 or April 3, 1968, a Negro fireman, Floyd E. Newsom, was transferred from the firestation near the Lorraine Motel to another station that was already fully manned. He also said that another Negro fireman, name unknown, was transferred from that same station to another station on either Tuesday or Wednesday night before King was murdered on Thursday afternoon. He said this second fireman was transferred in the middle of his shift and was transferred "out of rotation."

Rev. Lawson explained "out of rotation" as follows:

When a fireman is assigned to a piece of equipment he remains in that assignment until all the men already assigned to it have been transferred. In other words, the last man assigned is the last man transferred.

Rev. Lawson stated also that a Negro police officer, Detective E. E. Redditt, who had been assigned to the same fire station to provide protection for Dr. King, had been removed from the station sometime prior to the murder.

Rev. Lawson stated he has made no attempt to verify any of this information except for his interview with Floyd Newsom.

This new select House Committee, to date, has made no request of the FBI.

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Dr. King was shot to death by an assassin's bullet while standing on a balcony of a motel in Memphis, Tennessee, on 4/4/68. The U. S. Department of Justice requested the FBI to conduct an immediate Civil Rights investigation into this assassination which was confirmed in writing by a letter from Stephen J. Pollak, Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division, to the Director of the FBI, which requested a full investigation into a possible violation of Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 241, (possible conspiracy to violate the Civil Rights of Dr. King, namely, the right to travel interstate.)

The FBI conducted an extensive, exhaustive investigation into this assassination and James Earl Ray was identified as the assassin. Our investigative results were furnished to the Civil Rights Division, U. S. Department of Justice, and based upon the authority of the Department, certain pertinent investigative results were furnished to the appropriate local authorities in the State of Tennessee. On 3/10/69, in state court, Memphis, Tennessee, Ray entered a plea of guilty to charges of the murder of King and received a 99-year sentence. Ray is presently in local confinement.

By letter dated 12/4/75, the Attorney General of the United States advised that on 11/24/75, he directed Assistant Attorneys General J. Stanley Pottinger and Richard L. Thornburgh to review the files relating to Martin Luther King at once in the light of recent testimony, and make a recommendation as to whether the assassination case should be reopened. The Department had complete access to the Civil Rights assassination investigative file during its review.

On 4/29/76, the Attorney General of the United States issued the following news release:

"I have directed the Office of Professional Responsibility, headed by Michael Shaheen, to complete a review of all records in the Department of Justice concerning the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The Civil Rights Division, under the personal direction of Assistant Attorney General J. Stanley Pottinger, completed on April 9 a five-month preliminary review of files at FBI headquarters. As a result of this preliminary review, the Civil Rights Division has recommended that the review be carried forward to completion with an additional examination of records at FBI headquarters and field offices. It is believed that more than 200,000 documents may be involved.

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

On the basis of this preliminary review, Assistant Attorney General Pottinger stated that his tentative conclusions were (1) there was no basis to believe that the FBI in any way caused the death of Dr. King, (2) no evidence was discovered that the FBI investigation of the assassination of Dr. King was not thorough and honest, and (3) instances were found indicating that the FBI undertook a systematic program of harassment of Dr. King in order to discredit him and harm both him and the movement he led.

In ordering on April 26 the complete review by Mr. Shaheen, I directed that the investigation be completed forthwith and that answers to four specific questions be furnished to me and FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley on the basis of the review of all documents:

-- Whether the FBI investigation of Dr. King's assassination was thorough and honest;

-- Whether there is any evidence that the FBI was involved in the assassination of Dr. King;

-- Whether, in light of the first two matters, there is any new evidence which has come to the attention of the Department concerning the assassination of Dr. King;

-- Whether the nature of the relationship between the Bureau and Dr. King calls for criminal prosecutions, disciplinary proceedings, or other appropriate action.

Mr. Pottinger pointed out that the Civil Rights Division has been continuously investigating allegations concerning the assassination of Dr. King as these allegations come to the attention of the Department."

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

The Department's OPR still has this matter under review and has had complete access to the Civil Rights assassination investigative files both at FBIHQ and in all of our field offices.

The decision as to what access, if any, the Committee has to the FBI file on the Civil Rights assassination of Dr. King, therefore, rests entirely within the province of the Department of Justice. The Department should also be advised that in making its decision relative to Committee access, it should also consider the following:

(1) The Department should determine what authority the Committee has to request access to the Civil Rights assassination investigation of Dr. King. For example, is it requesting such access for a specific legislative interest? If not, such access by the Committee could be construed by some as an effort by a legislative body to act as a "grand jury" even though James Earl Ray has already been processed through the court system;

(2) The Department should determine what effect any such Committee access to our investigative results in the Civil Rights assassination investigation of Dr. King (including the physical evidence, FBI Laboratory and Identification reports, etc.) would have on the local prosecution of James Earl Ray and upon the rights of Mr. Ray, who has recently appealed his conviction to the U. S. Supreme Court. ("Washington Post" article re appeal attached). If necessary, the Department should resolve this with the State of Tennessee authorities and with Mr. Ray's counsel;

(3) The Department should determine what effect any such access would have on the privacy of those individuals who furnished information to the FBI in a criminal case the FBI was investigating (Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 241);

(4) If the Department grants access to the Committee, it should oppose disclosing the identity of any informants or persons who furnished information on an expressed confidential basis;

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

(5) If the Department grants Committee access, the Department should advise what action it intends to take to obtain third-agency clearance including obtaining authority from those foreign Governments which furnished investigative results, such as Canada (where Mr. Ray stayed and obtained a passport) and London (where Mr. Ray was captured);

(6) The decision to furnish [REDACTED] HSCA
[REDACTED] remains within the province of the Department. For instance, certain material was turned over to the State of Tennessee authorities based upon the authority of the Department and the Department would have to make a decision as to whether this itemization could be made available to the Committee. Other material from our files has also been made available pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act;

(7) The FBI has not prepared any summary of the Civil Rights investigation of the assassination of Dr. King. Neither the Civil Rights Division nor the OPR requested such a summary during its review. Each investigative report contains a summary (synopsis) page and a prosecutive summary report and a non-prosecutive summary report were also previously prepared. There is, of course, extensive public source information available concerning this matter;

(8) Inasmuch as any Committee access to the Civil Rights investigation of the assassination of Dr. King remains within the province of the Department, the Civil Rights Section of the GID recommends that no meeting be held re the Civil Rights investigation with staff members of the Committee until the Department makes its decision in this matter.

These comments of the Civil Rights Section of the GID are in no way intended to be obstructive but it is felt the Department must resolve these issues before it can make a determination as to whether or not it will grant Committee access to the Civil Rights investigative file on the assassination of Dr. King.

J. S. Peelman to Mr. Gallagher Memo
Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

The problem presented by the fact James Earl Ray was convicted of the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr., may be currently appealing his conviction is known to the Department, and Larry Callaghan, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legislative Affairs, has indicated this factor will not preclude committee access to the information involved.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the captioned Committee be granted access to the information they seek, governed by the agreement with the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities.

'Ray Appeals Conviction in King Murder

Associated Press

James Earl Ray, convicted killer of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., asked the Supreme Court yesterday to review his case, claiming he was "set up to take the rap for a crime he didn't commit."

Ray's appeal said he was "framed by the FBI and local police, and then coerced by his own attorney to plead guilty against his will."

James H. Lesar, the Washington attorney representing Ray, wrote in asking the court to review Ray's conviction: "The charge is that those who did kill Dr. King are still at large, protected in part by the unwillingness of the courts to face these unpleasant facts."

The petition did not mention an investigation recently begun by the House into the assassinations of King and President Kennedy.

King was killed by a rifle blast as he stood on a motel balcony in Memphis in 1968.

Ray was arrested in London and brought back to the United States to stand trial. He pleaded guilty.

In his petition, Ray, now an inmate serving a life term in the Tennessee state penitentiary, said a thorough review of his conviction is needed because potential conflicts of interest between two of his attorneys denied him "effective assistance of counsel." Ray was represented originally by attorneys Arthur Hanes and Percy Foreman.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Reference is made to Chairman Thomas N. Downing's request contained in his letter of November 2, 1976, addressed to the Attorney General, requesting certain information concerning the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

You referred the aforementioned request to the FBI for comments concerning access to FBI files. In this regard, I believe that this Committee should be granted the same degree of access for appropriately cleared personnel as was granted to the House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities (HSC) and the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities (SSC). I am taking the liberty of enclosing a copy of the agreement between the Attorney General and Chairman Frank Church of the SSC concerning access to FBI files.

I wish to advise you in connection with the FBI's investigation into the assassination of Dr. King that the news media has reported James Earl Ray who was convicted in that matter has petitioned the Supreme Court to review his case.

It would appear advantageous to meet with representatives of the Committee so that they might generally be informed as to the FBI's filing system and in a general fashion, concerning the FBI's investigations into the two assassinations identified in their letter so that the Committee might better understand what information is in the possession of the FBI.

DETAILS: The House Select Committee on Assassinations, formed in September, 1976, (House Resolution 1540) was mandated . . . "to conduct a full and complete investigation and study the circumstances surrounding the death of John F. Kennedy and the death of Martin Luther King." As you are aware, the FBI previously conducted extensive investigations concerning the assassination of Kennedy at Dallas, Texas, in 1963 and the assassination of King in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1968. Regarding the King assassination, James Earl Ray pled guilty to this murder in State Court in Tennessee and presently is in local confinement.

Attached is a copy of a "Report Together with Additional and Supplemental Views of the Select Committee on Assassinations, United States House of Representatives." In the beginning of this report Congressman Thomas N. Downing, Chairman of the Committee, states that "I am transmitting herewith to the House of Representatives the Report of the Committee representing the results of the Committee's investigation and study since its inception on September 17, 1976. The report includes the recommendations of the Committee with respect to continued investigation by the House of Representatives of the assassinations of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr." The report includes a budget recommendation of $6,531,050 for 1977.

Re Miami facsimile dated March 14, 1977, which enclosed a copy of a newspaper article captioned, "King Panel Might Call Miami Man," a copy of which is enclosed for Memphis. No information could be located in FBIHQ files reflecting receipt of the information allegedly furnished by William Somerset relative to his claim that he overheard a death threat at a union affair in Washington as set forth in referenced article.

Miami promptly review appropriate files to determine if there is any record of receipt of any such information allegedly furnished by Somerset. Also determine if your office has any knowledge of the statement of Charles Sapp, in this article that "I can't remember the exact day he called me, but I'm certain the FBI got an immediate report on the tip because the agents were in our office everyday, and they got the same information I sent on to the Chief." If your files do not reflect the receipt of any such information, determine if there are any Agents still on active duty in the Miami Office who would have had any such contact with the Miami Police Department, and recall the receipt of any such information. Do not conduct any active investigation concerning this newspaper article. SuLHM results.

Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

William Somerset is former [REDACTED] who subsequently became an informant for the Miami, Florida, Police Department. He was operated as an informant in criminal and racial matters from 1949 to 1961 when he was discontinued due to being indiscreet and unreliable. On 4/12/63, the Miami Police Department furnished a report containing information from Somerset which included an alleged program to assassinate persons throughout the United States (157-758-26). [REDACTED] (b)(2) (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] (b)(7)(D)
Serial 157-1167-3 reflects that on 11/27/63, Sergeant Charles Sapp, Intelligence Division, Miami Police Department, furnished a transcript of an interview between a detective of the Miami Police Department and Somerset. Somerset furnished information that an individual named Brown had attempted to kill King. File 62-106833-185 reflects a transcript of a conversation between Somerset and a J. A. Milteer on 11/9/63 at Miami, Florida, as furnished by the Miami Police Department. This conversation pertains to alleged threats on the life of John F. Kennedy and that Brown had tried to get King. (Brown appears identical to Jack W. Brown, Imperial Wizard, Dixie Klan, Chattanooga, Tennessee). Bufile 62-109060-1525 reflects Somerset furnished information to the Miami Police Department on 12/2/63 about attempts on King's life which fell through. Bufile 44-38861-4859 reflects that Somerset had made trips to Atlanta and Memphis at the request and expense of a Florida State Attorney's Office and the Miami Police Department to try to develop information re the King assassination. He did not indicate he had developed any unusual or pertinent information. On the basis of information heard on the "street", it was said that the chauffeur of King was suspected of "setting up Dr. King for the assassination," however, Somerset was unable to identify the source of this information.

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON ASSASSINATIONS

An article appearing in the "Miami Herald" newspaper, Miami, Florida, dated March 14, 1977, captioned "KING Panel Might Call Miami Man", is attached hereto.

In regards to certain allegations and statements contained in the "Miami Herald" newspaper article, the following is noted:

Miami Office files contain no reference reflecting receipt of the information allegedly furnished by WILLIAM SOMERSETT relative to his claim that he overheard a death threat at a union affair in Washington as set forth in said article.

In connection with the statement in the article by CHARLES SAPP, formerly of the Miami Police Department, a review of Miami files does not show the receipt of any information from CHARLES SAPP furnished to him by WILLIAM SOMERSETT.

On March 23, 1977, Supervisor LEONARD C. PETERSON of the Miami Office of the FBI, who was in periodic contact with personnel of the Miami Police Department, Intelligence Division, during 1968, advised that he did not receive and knows of no other FBI employee who received any information concerning a death threat against Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., during that period.

King Panel Might Call Miami Man

House Panel Contacts
Ex-Police Lieutenant

By JIM BUCHANAN

Herald Staff Writer

A former Miami police lieutenant said Sunday that he may be called to testify before a congressional committee about receiving a pre-assassination tip in 1968 that Martin Luther King might be killed.

Charles Sapp, the former policeman, said the information came in April 1968 from a Miami Police Department paid informant, Willie Somerset, who five years earlier had claimed advance notice of President John Kennedy's assassination.

"I've been contacted by a spokesman for the House Assassinations Committee," Sapp said Sunday, "and I've told them I'd be happy to testify as to what I know."

SAPP SAID he "can't recall the exact time element, but it was shortly before King was killed." King was killed on April 4, 1968.

Other sources told The Herald that the telephoned tip was received by the lieutenant April 3. Sapp, who retired in 1971, headed the department's intelligence-gathering unit.

Somerset, an admitted racist who then was trying to organize his own National Foundation of Labor, "claimed to have overheard the death threat at a union affair in Washington," according to Sapp.

"He said he overheard two men condemning King for meddling in union affairs. If you remember, King was helping the Memphis sanitation workers, who were out on strike," Sapp said.

"Somerset told me the men said they'd have to 'take care of King' or words to that effect."

"SOMERSET called me because he wanted me to know he was in Miami and shouldn't be suspected if something happened."

Somerset was once a member of the National States Rights Party and claimed to have heard, during a conversation 13 days before the Kennedy slaying, of plans to shoot him.

Sapp said Sunday, "I can't remember the exact day he called me, but I'm certain the FBI got an immediate report on the tip, because the agents were in our office every day, and they got the same information I sent on to the chief."

Sapp's distant connection with the King case came to light last September as part of a Miami magazine article dealing with the assassinations of King and Kennedy.

Two weeks ago, Sapp said, he was contacted by an investigator for the House committee.

"WE TALKED for a while, and he said they'd be in touch with me. But I haven't heard anything from them yet," Sapp said.

MAGAZINE

King Assassination:

FBI ignored its Miami informer

Told of information uncovered in our investigation, a Justice Department attorney — obviously taken aback — called the previously unpublished police memo 'as interesting a piece of information as I've ever heard'

By Dan Christensen

At 6:01 p.m. on April 4, 1968, a single shot rang out in Memphis, Tennessee. In that moment, the civil rights movement lost its greatest leader.

The assassin(s) who struck was not alone in knowing that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was destined for violent death. A Miami police/FBI informer had learned of a plot and warned his superiors the previous day.

This astonishing revelation is one of several previously unpublished facts contained in a series of 1968 Miami Police Department memoranda obtained by Miami Magazine in its probe of Dade County's link to the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Last month Miami Magazine exposed new evidence and raised new questions concerning the Kennedy killing. Much of our information came from materials provided to law enforcement agencies by professional informant and two-bit union organizer, Willie Augustus Somerset. In this report on King, Somerset, who died in 1970, is again the chief provider.

Copies of Somerset's debriefings, contained in police memos on King, were furnished us, almost as an afterthought, by Dade Circuit Judge Seymour Gelber while he was aiding our investigation of the Kennedy assassination. The Dade State Attorney's office cannot find its files on the matter, despite an exhaustive search undertaken several months ago at Miami Magazine's request. Miami police, through a public information officer, would only say, "We don't have any files on that subject at all. I don't know if it was destroyed or what."

Martin Luther King Jr. first went to Memphis in March, 1968 to help organize the 1,300 mostly black sanitation workers who had been striking since Feb. 12 for higher wages and better working conditions. While there, he led a parade on behalf of the strikers, represented by Local 1733 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Violence flared and one black youth was killed, 60 were injured and 200 arrested. Deeply disturbed, King suspended his activities, but promised to return to Memphis when the situation calmed.

Somersett's dour prediction in Miami came in a confidential memorandum dated April 25, 1968, written by former police Lt. Charles H. Sapp and addressed to Miami's late Chief of Police Walter E. Headley.

The memo begins:

"On Wednesday, April 17, 1968, informant '88' (Somersett's police code name) went to Atlanta, Ga. in an effort to find more information concerning the death of Martin Luther King. This informant remained in Atlanta until April 22 and returned to Miami on April 23, 1968. Informant contacted me (Lt. Sapp) and we met in the downtown area of Miami. This informant states that on April 1, 1968 he was in Washington, D.C., attending a (National) Labor Relations Board meeting, and when it adjourned he overheard a conversation between members of the Longshoremen's Union and the Sanitation Workers' Union in which they discussed the sanitation workers' predicament in Memphis, (the crisis that brought King to Memphis). One spokesman stated that 'when Martin Luther King returns to Memphis, we don't have any alternative but to kill him. He has stopped being a preacher and is interfering as a labor organizer and has caused one riot in Memphis and one man's death and that he is hurting the labor cause rather than helping it.'

"When the informant returned to Miami on April 4, he heard by the news media that Martin Luther King had in fact returned to Memphis and was going to lead a parade the following day. This informant feared that he might be a suspect and questioned concerning anything that might happen to Martin Luther King. He went to a filling station and garage operated by Mr. Frank Love, on the corner of NE 1st Avenue and 10th Street, and during a conversation, told him that he believed that Martin Luther King would be assassinated that night and stated his reasons for believing so. This statement was allegedly made in front of Frank Love (now dead) and two or three of his Negro employees at the garage. This occurred at approximately 4 p.m., after which King was murdered at approximately 7 p.m. (EST).

"On April 25 this reporter (Lt. Sapp) contacted Frank Love at his place of business and Mr. Love reluctantly verified the statements made by the informant. Also, one of the Negro employees, at this time known only as George, verified the informant's statement (George remains unidentified today)."

What Sapp doesn't say in the memo, but told me when I asked him was that Somersett had made the same

Seymour Gelber: initial leads prediction to him, as well, the day prior to the murder.

"He called me at my home the night before King was killed to let me know that if something happened he didn't want to be connected to it," Sapp recalled. (Apparently, Somersett feared his background as a KKK member and blatant racist made him a suspect.)

"I don't think that I told the FBI before Martin Luther King was assassinated because the information he gave me was so vague," Sapp continued, "but I know I definitely did (tell them) after. We also passed on all subsequent information developed."

Did Willie Somersett, a veteran FBI undercover informant, give the news directly to the FBI prior to the shooting? Says Sapp, "I couldn't even guess if he did... but he certainly was working for the FBI during that time, as well as with us."

Martin Luther King Jr. returned to Memphis on April 3, 1968, and along with his entourage, checked into the Lorraine Motel.

That night, in a fiery speech before 2,000 followers, King seemed to know what fate awaited him. "It really doesn't matter with me now," he shouted, "because I've been to the mountaintop! And I don't mind. Like anybody I would like to live a long life; longevity has its place. But I'm not concerned about that now. I just want to do God's will! And he's allowed me to go up to the mountaintop, and I've looked over and I've seen the promised land... So I'm happy tonight; I'm not

Sen. Kennedy's name pops up, too

An interesting sidelight appears in the April 25 memo in which Willie Somersett's prediction of Martin Luther King's assassination is recorded. In the fifth and final paragraph of that memo, Somersett speaks of another person who would soon be cut down by gunfire, Robert F. Kennedy.

The memo states: "Informant also learned that for some reason Senator Robert Kennedy is being 'guarded' by members of the KKK at all of his public appearances throughout his presidential campaign. At this time it is not known if Senator Kennedy is under surveillance for his own protection or for other motives."

Kennedy was shot to death on June 5, 1968, in the pantry of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles.

worried about anything; I'm not fearing any man!"

Within 22 hours this Nobel Peace Prize winner would be killed on the balcony of the Lorraine Motel by a sniper's bullet that would rip into his neck and jaw and sever his spinal column. He would die instantly.

Two months later, after an international manhunt, James Earl Ray — habitual criminal, penny-ante hood and escapee from the Missouri State Penitentiary — was captured at London's Heathrow Airport. On March 10, 1969, he pleaded guilty to first-degree murder in Dr. King's death and was sentenced to 99 years in jail. In what has come to be called his 'mini-trial,' Ray hinted of a conspiracy.

By 1968, Willie A. Somerset's relationship with the FBI had been a long and enduring one. Independent accounts given by his brother, Rufus, and Miami Detective Sgt. Sapp, indicate the relationship began in the early 1950s while Somerset served time for white slavery in a federal prison in Atlanta. In return for his good works as a stool pigeon on the inside, he was released early and continued to sing for the federals whenever they called. He later expanded his clientele to include the Miami PD, ostensibly, says Sapp, because he feared and mistrusted the Bureau.

Perhaps his most important role came on Nov. 9, 1963 when he and right-wing extremist Joseph A. Milteer were tape-recorded by Miami police undercover agents as Milteer described President Kennedy's impending murder in Dallas. Almost incidentally during that conversation, Milteer spoke of an earlier plot to kill King in Atlanta by one Jack Brown, a Klan member who reportedly died in 1965.

After King's death in 1968, this 1963 tape-recording would help trigger the Miami PD and Dade State Attorney's investigation into his death. Judge Gelber, then an assistant attorney general for Florida, says another reason was a similar threat made in May, 1964 by a former Miami housepainter, (name withheld), who Somerset reported, planned to kill King on May 17, 1964 in Mobile, Ala.

In a letter dated April 9, 1968 Gelber wrote then-U.S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark, telling him of these threats. A reply, sent the following week by one of Clark's aides, indicated the FBI had been informed of Gelber's statements. Gelber, however, never heard from either Clark or the FBI again.

Throughout the spring and summer of 1968, at the State of Florida's expense, Somerset continued to explore the King assassination in trips around the South. In the additional memos we have obtained (dated April 30, June 11, July 3, July 8 and August 29) no mention is ever again made of Somerset's prediction. The proposal for Somerset's undercover investigations, contained in the April 30 memo written by Sgts. Everett Kay and E.W. McCracken, simply refers to the 1963 Milteer tape as the basis for action.

"Informant '88' feels that by contacting such persons as the above (Milteer and Brown) information will be gained as to what extent these people, if any, are involved in this assassination."

The use of "concealed electronic devices" to tape-record Somerset's conversations also was suggested.

It appears that Somerset, out of contact with Milteer and Brown since the Kennedy assassination when they began to suspect he was an informant, did not know of Brown's death in 1965. Despite using the tape-recording as a rationale for investigating, there is no real indication that Somerset ever contacted Milteer on the Martin Luther King Jr. matter.

According to former Miami Police Sgt. Everett Kay, surreptitious taping was tried only once, in Atlanta, and failed to produce any results. No memorandum on this particular incident was ever located.

Perhaps Somerset's suspicions about Milteer were valid. In a trip to Milteer's home in Quitman, Ga., in late July, I found a letter dated April 19, 1968 written to Milteer by Woody Kerns, his close friend and political ally (they both belonged to the right-wing Constitution Party).

In the first paragraph, Kerns, a West Virginian, makes a cryptic reference, apparently to the King assassination.

"Looks as though you (Milteer) and the hunted suspect were in the capital area about the same time. They found a car there — they say." Kerns evidently was referring to Atlanta, where the FBI had recovered a car that purportedly belonged to King's killer.

That brief statement is the only reference to King's death found amid the detailed correspondence Milteer kept. More might have been expected because Milteer hated King. But no gloating . . . nothing.

June 11 memo describes trips he made to South Carolina, New Orleans and Alabama. In South Carolina, Somerset met with Belton Mims, whom he called the first assistant to the Grand Dragon of the South Carolina Klan. The memo indicates Mims said nothing of King, but did say a plot to kill the late Congressman Adam Clayton Powell was in the works, and suggested Somerset see Leander Perez, an extreme racist and political boss in Louisiana, while he was in New Orleans. When Perez, who died in 1969, couldn't be found, Willie Somerset moved on to Mobile, Ala., where he talked with the former Miami housepainter referred to earlier.

The painter didn't speak of King either, at this time, but did describe to Somerset some terrorist acts he claimed to have participated in recently. He also told Somerset plans were being formulated to kill Charles Evers, brother of the slain civil rights leader Medgar Evers.

In the July 3 memo, events turn once again to Martin Luther King Jr.'s killing. In it, "88" states that he traveled again as an agent of the Miami PD to Memphis on June 21 "and began circulating around in order to obtain information in regards to the assassination of Martin Luther King..."

"After getting settled in (a) room, I went to the neighborhood where King was killed and made friends with a number of people, both Negro and white, and had a few drinks with them and began discussing this incident along with other racial matters. I was introduced to a man by the name of Charles O. Stevens (sic) at Jim's Club... who said that he had been questioned with regards to the killing of Martin Luther King and he had lied to the police and FBI, saying he knew something about it, whereas he did not."

Charles Q. Stephens, to whom Somerset apparently referred, was one of the State of Tennessee's chief witnesses against James Earl Ray. Harvey Gipson, Stephens' lawyer, claims, "He is the only witness who can directly connect Ray to the crime. They couldn't have extradited Ray (from England) without Stephens' identification."

Somerset's statement severely impeaches Stephens' credibility, which has already been under attack by many critics because of his excessive drinking. If Stephens truly perjured himself, the already shaky case against James Earl Ray is further damaged. (As a result of his testimony, Stephens is currently fighting a legal

In the same July 3 memo, Willie Somerset also tells of side trips he made to Whitehaven, Tenn. and Southaven, Miss., suburbs of Memphis.

"I attempted to locate a fellow (name withheld) who works as a private detective and ham radio operator in Whitehaven, Tenn. and is supposed to be racially involved. I could not locate him, but my conversation with people around there made insinuations to the fact that this (man) and an unknown deputy sheriff may have been involved in jamming the radio somewhere in the Martin Luther King case."

Somerset was confused about this incident. The CB radios were not jammed after the shooting, rather false broadcasts were sent out which drew attention away from the south side of the city, where, Ray claims, he fled during his escape from the scene. (Perhaps it should be noted here that Ray, who has long since renounced his guilty plea, does not deny having been at the site of the crime. He contends that he was simply an unwitting accomplice and that he was later coerced by his attorney, the famed Percy Foreman (whom Miamians will recall from the sensational Candy Mossler murder trial here) to plead guilty. Ray's latest efforts to win a new trial have been quashed, and he has stopped appealing.)

Returning to the memos, we find that on the morning of July 8, 1968, Somerset received a call from the previously mentioned Miami housepainter. The painter spoke of his rage at the death of a young schoolteacher, Kathy Ainsworth, who was shot by police as she allegedly participated in an attempt to blow up the home of a prominent Jewish citizen in Meridian, Miss. Her companion, Thomas Albert Tarrants III, was wounded. "X (the housepainter) said that they are going to set up things in Mississippi and he is going to kill all the Jews, niggers and the policemen if they interfere. . . 'We will burn Mississippi if necessary,' " X raved. Tarrants is now serving a 30-year sentence in Mississippi.

In the final memo of August 29 Somerset describes a meeting with X in Mobile during which the Ainsworth-Tarrants incident was discussed. According to X, not only was Tarrants being held in the Mississippi bombing attempt, he also was being investigated in connection with the King murder. "X says that the car that was used to jam the police cars on relaying messages of the killing of King on Aug. 4 (sic) was a car used by Thomas Tarrants. X says that they have information from the police that Tarrants is talking to the FBI and it looks as if several people may be indicted by the federal government in connection with a bank robbery and murder in the state(s) of Mississippi and Tennessee, including himself, X, who allowed Tarrants to stay at his home a week or ten days after the killing of Martin Luther King." Miami Magazine has been unable to determine if X's information proved true.

In that same memo of August 29, Somerset also tells of a meeting with representatives of Jim Garrison, the New Orleans district attorney who gained notoriety for his sensational JFK murder conspiracy trial. Garrison's people were eager to obtain the fruits of Somerset's 1963 labors, but there is no indication that he ever cooperated with them.

As in the case in Miami Magazine's story last month on President Kennedy's assassination, we can only speculate on the real significance of all this. The list of specific questions raised is practically endless, but revolves around one central issue: What did the FBI do about this information?

There is no evidence, on the record or off, to indicate the FBI did anything, for no mention of these incidents has ever been made publicly before. When given the opportunity to comment on our findings, the FBI refused.

Thomas L. Wiseman, FBI special agent in Washington, "assigned in a supervisory capacity to the Freedom of Information-Privacy Acts section of the Records and Management Division," says, in an affidavit filed in response to a Freedom of Information lawsuit by assassination researcher Harold Weisberg, that "the only suspect in the Martin Luther King assassination was Eric Starvo Galt, subsequently identified as James Earl Ray."

How can this be? Willie Somerset was a long-time FBI informant and, according to declassified FBI documents, the G-men considered him "reliable." If so, how could FBI agents simply ignore the bombshells he was dropping in their collective laps? They claim, they conducted a thorough investigation. They must also have had grave doubts about the reliability of star witness Charles Stephens.

No one has been as accurate as Willie Somerset in predicting political assassinations since the Soothsayer warned Caesar to "beware the Ides of March" two millennia ago. The FBI knew this, but apparently did nothing about it.

Motivation for this non-action by the Bureau may have come from the late J. Edgar Hoover. It is no secret that Hoover despised King and used all the power in his command to try and thwart King.

This climate was hardly one in which to conduct an impartial investigation.

Because of the revelation of the attempts to harass Dr. King, the Department of Justice has been reviewing the files compiled on King both before and after his assassination. Until now, Justice officials have been saying that nothing has been uncovered which would suggest that the FBI's investigation of the assassination was less than thorough. Told of Miami Magazine's findings, most specifically about Somerset's prediction, Michael Shaheen Jr., the Department of Justice attorney in charge of internal investigations in Washington, was stunned.

"This is as interesting a piece of information as any I've ever heard," he said. "I am very interested in receiving it."

There are also other people who feel, for these and other reasons, that the King case should be fully and publicly reopened. The Rev. Bernard Lee, executive vice president of Dr. King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said, "We believe Ray is not the lone assassin and that Dr. King was the victim of a well thought-out conspiracy. We had hoped Ray would get a new trial, but that did not materialize. There should be some kind of new investigation."

Judge Gelber believes, "All the avenues haven't been explored in the King assassination. The investigation was cut short by Ray's guilty plea. There was no Warren Commission to publicly air the facts. What is necessary is a legislative investigation to satisfy the public that everything has been looked into."

Finally, State Attorney Richard Gerstein, who has spent several hours aiding us in our dual investigations, noted wryly, "I don't believe any person with even minimal intelligence believes Ray acted alone or without help."

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise of meeting with Staff Director of captioned Committee, Richard Sprague.

DETAILS:

At the request of Deputy Assistant Attorney General Robert Keuch, SA Paul V. Daly of this Division, accompanied Mr. Keuch to a meeting with Mr. Richard Sprague on 3/21/77. The subject of the meeting was to inform Sprague that Mr. Keuch was named by the Attorney General to handle liaison with captioned Committee and to raise in a general fashion some problems being encountered in responding to Committee request.

Keuch informed Sprague that it is his understanding that Chairman Louis Stokes of captioned Committee, in his discussion with the Attorney General had indicated that there was no concern by the Committee as to the FBI conducting investigations and examinations of evidence in the assassination matters. Sprague requested that the Committee, however, be advised of such examinations or investigations. Consistent with this position, Keuch asked Sprague to make arrangements for the FBI to conduct the firearms examinations of the bullet in its possession which must be compared with a sample bullet currently in the Archives. This examination has been thwarted by agreement with the Archivist. Sprague stated that the FBI cannot have access to the sample in question without some agreement with the Committee. In the same context, Keuch asked Sprague to furnish the FBI the tape and evidence surrounding a news allegation that the FBI had attempted to hire somebody to kill Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. News media accounts state the Committee has possession of this material.

Sprague stated that Stokes' statement was not entirely accurate and emphasized the need to guarantee the integrity of the evidence. He stated that he had no question that the FBI would in any way mishandle the evidence but was concerned that outside critics would make that allegation and Sprague would be faced with continually refuting it. Keuch asked in the alternative concerning the tape that if the original cannot be made available to the FBI that the FBI be furnished a copy. Keuch also informed Sprague that it was the Department's position that Justice Department personnel would be made available for interview only pursuant to a written request over the Chairman's signature which would state the topic of the interview and also a Departmental representative would be present during the interview. The representative present during the interview would be there not to represent the interviewee in a legal capacity but rather to advise the Agent or Department employee in what areas he should respond to questions and what areas he may not. Keuch also asked Sprague whether he was agreeable to the procedures which the Department had furnished the Committee for review on 3/18/77. Attached is a copy of these procedures, these are procedures which we are operating under at the present time in responding to captioned Committee and deals only with access to information in FBI space. There are no provisions for delivery. Delivery will be contingent on the Committee adopting rules to protect information it receives.

Concerning the procedures, Sprague stated that he could not agree to them, that it was his position that the Committee receive all information relevant to its inquiries without excision and would not agree to anything less. He also volunteered that anything the Committee might receive which was relevant, regardless ~~of its~~ ^{of} classification, would be disclosed by the Committee in a report or some other fashion. He also stated that he did not accept the procedures which PURPOSE: To recommend forwarding of attached memorandum to the Attorney General.

SYNOPSIS: Since the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr., the FBI has been investigating various new allegations and rumors concerning the assassinations. Results of these investigations have been made available to the HSCA. During HSCA review and investigation of these assassinations, it has been found in several instances that the HSCA is conducting independent and parallel investigation and has obtained evidence which it refuses to make available to the Department or the FBI. Prior memoranda to the Attorney General requesting the assistance of the Department has brought neither response nor resolution to these requests. To avoid duplication of investigative effort, it is recommended the attached memorandum be forwarded to the Attorney General advising him that, unless advised to the contrary, the FBI will refer all allegations relating to these investigations to the Department for consideration prior to the FBI conducting any active investigation.

RECOMMENDATION: That attached memorandum be forwarded to the Attorney General.

Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)

DETAILS: Since the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr., the Bureau has been investigating and reporting various new allegations and rumors concerning the assassination. The Bureau is currently making its investigative results of both these assassinations available to the HSCA through an agreement between the Department and the HSCA. During the HSCA review and investigations into these assassinations, additional allegations have been received. The Bureau has continued to attempt to investigate all of these additional allegations; however, has found in several instances the HSCA is conducting independent and parallel investigation. The HSCA has also obtained certain evidence which it has refused to make available to either the Department or the Bureau.

By memorandum dated March 11, 1977, we requested the assistance of the Department in obtaining the test bullets in the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation for comparison purposes which National Archives had denied the FBI at the request of the HSCA. This matter remains unresolved.

By memorandum dated April 5, 1977, we again requested the assistance of the Department in obtaining all information available pertaining to an allegation received by HSCA that unnamed FBI Agents and police officers offered a Louisville police officer $500,000 to kill Martin Luther King. This matter remains unresolved.

In order to avoid duplication of investigative effort, the Bureau proposes to refer all allegations relating to these investigations to Mr. Robert L. Keuch in the Department for departmental consideration as to whether any investigation is required of the FBI, prior to the FBI conducting active investigation. Additionally the Department is being requested to delineate the continuing jurisdiction of this Bureau in both the John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King assassination investigations. It is recommended the attached memorandum be forwarded to the Attorney General advising him of the Bureau's proposal.

Reference is made to my letter dated March 11, 1977, with enclosure, under the caption "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, November 22, 1963, Dallas, Texas," in which the assistance of the Department of Justice was requested in obtaining the test bullets from the National Archives for comparison purposes.

Reference is also made to my letter dated April 5, 1977, under the caption "Assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr.," in which the assistance of the Department of Justice again was requested in obtaining from the HSCA all information available pertaining to an allegation received by the HSCA from a former Louisville police officer who allegedly advised that he received an offer from FBI Agents and police officers to kill Martin Luther King, Jr., for $500,000.

The HSCA did not bring this allegation pertaining to Dr. King to the attention of the FBI or to the Department, nor has the result of its investigation been furnished to the Department. At the request of the Bureau, the Attorney General authorized the FBI to attempt to interview the individual who made these allegations. He refused to be interviewed and terminated contact by stating, "I'll say it all to the House Committee."

In refusing to make available the information received by the HSCA pertaining to this allegation, as has been requested by the Criminal Division, Department of Justice, the HSCA has again attempted to affirm its "primary investigative responsibility" in these assassinations.

The FBI continues to cooperate with the HSCA in making the investigative results of both of these assassinations available, with necessary excisions, to the HSCA based on an agreement reached between the Department and the HSCA. Material available to the HSCA includes access to those volumes containing current investigation in both assassination investigations.

Change by P.D. to file 5/1/77

The Attorney General

However, while the FBI continues to cooperate fully with the NSCA, both of these matters, as set out in the referenced letters, remain unresolved, continue to impinge upon our investigative responsibilities, and in essence, raise the question of this Bureau's continuing criminal jurisdiction in these investigations.

As you are aware, in November, 1963, the FBI initiated an immediate investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy based upon a request from President Lyndon B. Johnson to former Director John Edgar Hoover. Prior to the assassination, no Federal statute existed concerning the killing of, or assault on the President. Mr. Hoover, in testimony before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy (Warren Commission) stated that President Johnson communicated with him within 24 hours of the assassination and requested the FBI to investigate. (Hearings before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, Volume 5, Page 98.)

Although the Bureau's investigative responsibilities concerning the assassination of President Kennedy would have logically ended with the termination of the Warren Commission, Director Hoover, in his testimony before the Commission, agreed with a statement by a Commission Member, Representative Gerald R. Ford, that the responsibility to conduct the investigation is not an authority with a terminal point, but an authority that goes on indefinitely. (Hearings before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, Volume 5, Page 100.) The FBI has continued to investigate and report to the Department any new allegations or information received concerning the assassination.

In reference to this Bureau's criminal jurisdiction in the investigation of the assassination of Martin Luther King, by memorandum dated April 4, 1968, Assistant Attorney General Stephen J. Pollak, Civil Rights Division, requested that this Bureau conduct a full investigation into a possible violation of Title 18, Section 241, U. S. Code, in connection with the shooting of King in Memphis, on that date. (FBI jurisdiction was based on the possibility of a conspiracy to violate the civil rights of King, namely the right to travel interstate. King had traveled to Memphis, on April 3, 1968, from Atlanta, to take part in a demonstration scheduled for April 8, 1968.)

The Attorney General

On April 16, 1968, the Attorney General authorized the filing of a complaint charging Galt with violation of Title 18, Section 238, U. S. Code, for conspiring to interfere with the constitutional rights of King.

On April 17, 1968, Federal process was obtained and Galt was charged with conspiracy (Section 238) in that he and an individual whom he alleged to be his brother, entered into a conspiracy in Birmingham on March 29, 1968, by reason of their purchase of the rifle later used in the shooting of King.

On March 10, 1969, in State Court, Memphis, Tennessee, James Earl Ray entered a plea of guilty to charges of murder and received a 99-year sentence.

Federal process against Galt was dismissed on December 2, 1971, by U. S. Commissioner Mazy Taylor, Northern District of Alabama, based upon a motion filed by Ray's Attorney, Bernard Fensterwald, Jr.

In December of 1975, the Civil Rights Division began a review of the FBI's investigation of the King assassination and this review was recently completed by the Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR), U. S. Department of Justice. The OPR issued a report of its review and reported, among other things, that "... the sum of all the evidence of Ray's guilt points to him so exclusively that it most effectively makes the point no one else was involved..." (Report of the Department of Justice Task Force to Review the FBI Martin Luther King, Jr., Security and Assassination Investigations, Page 109.)

Since the time of the Kennedy and King assassinations, the FBI has continued to investigate various allegations concerning these assassinations and has furnished the results to the Department. No viable information has been developed to negate the original findings of the FBI or the subsequent conclusions of the Warren Commission or the OPR.

During the HSCA review and investigation into these assassinations, additional allegations regarding these assassinations have been received. The FBI has continued to attempt to investigate all of these additional allegations; however, the FBI has found in several instances that the HSCA conducted independent and parallel investigations, the results of which are not available to the FBI.

The Attorney General

While this Bureau remains unaware that the FBI's criminal jurisdiction pertaining to these two investigations has been abrogated, the position taken by the Department of Justice, in not obtaining authority for the FBI either to gain access to the test bullets in the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation or to obtain from the HSCA the information pertaining to the alleged involvement of FBI personnel in a conspiracy to kill Martin Luther King, appears to support the position of the HSCA that "primary investigative responsibility" rests with that Committee.

Therefore, in order to avoid duplication of investigative effort and the attendant problems between the FBI and the HSCA that could arise in the future, and until the jurisdiction of this Bureau in these investigations is delineated by the Department, unless you advise to the contrary, the FBI will refer all allegations relating to these investigations to Mr. Robert L. Keuch, Special Counsel to The Attorney General, for departmental consideration as to whether any investigation is required of the FBI, or whether the Department desires to furnish these allegations directly to the HSCA. Copies of communications concerning allegations regarding the King assassination will also be furnished to the Civil Rights Division and the OPR.

(2) In Section One, FBI letter to the Office of Security, Department of State, dated May 15, 1961. (Confidential) and in Section Two, report of SA [REDACTED], dated July 28, 1961, at Washington, D. C., (Secret) cannot be declassified because they contain classified information of the Department of State and Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), respectively. It was suggested to Mr. Keuch that the Department contact directly these agencies to determine if information in these documents warrants continued classification. Except for the State and CIA information, all other data is unclassified in these two communications. (b)(7)(C)

POTTINGER REPORT

This report enclosed a memorandum by Robert A. Murphy, Chief, Criminal Section, Civil Rights Division. Both of these documents, classified "Secret," contain results of the Civil Rights Division's review of our King investigation. At the time of delivery, Mr. Keuch marked in red pencil portions of this report which he felt should be excised prior to release to the HSCA.

Following classification review, it is recommended that the Pottinger report and its enclosed memorandum by Murphy be classified "Top Secret." The Pottinger report and its enclosure were returned to Mr. Keuch on May 31, 1977, and sections of the report warranting "Top Secret" classification were pointed out.

With regard to excisions prior to release to the HSCA, Mr. Keuch was advised that his recommended excisions are satisfactory to protect the primary Bureau sources reporting on King. Mr. Keuch was advised that additional excisions are believed necessary prior to release to the HSCA and that certain inaccuracies were present in the report of Murphy.

Mr. Keuch requested that these additional suggested excisions and inaccuracies be set forth by the Bureau in writing. In response to this request, suggested additional excisions and inaccuracies are as follows:

(1) In a number of places in the report and its enclosure, additional excisions are necessary to protect third agencies of the U. S. Government and foreign intelligence agencies. Such excisions will be consistent with the FBI's preparation of material for HSCA access, and for access to other congressional committees.

(2) Page 5, Paragraph 2, Murphy memorandum - states that the King investigation was continuously handled by SA [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C)
Actually, [REDACTED] supervision of the case ended [REDACTED]

(3) Page 34, Paragraph 1, Murphy memorandum - contains information regarding [REDACTED] which should be excised as a sensitive investigative technique. (b)(7)(E)

(4) Page 44, Paragraph 2, Murphy memorandum - states that former Assistant Director William C. Sullivan took the tapes and stationery and later gave [REDACTED] a package to deliver to SA [REDACTED] [REDACTED] has no knowledge regarding to whom this package was to be delivered. In addition, he was unaware of the package contents or the purpose of its delivery. (b)(7)(C)

(5) Page 46, Paragraph 1, Murphy memorandum - incorrectly states that SA [REDACTED] was the originator of the Lorraine Hotel "COINTELPRO activity." (b)(7)(C)

(6) Page 49, Paragraph 2, Murphy memorandum - contains information which should be excised in order to protect an individual who requested his identity be protected.

Mr. Keuch stated on May 31, 1977, that he will advise FBIHQ prior to the release of this material to HSCA, if in fact the Department determines to release this material to the Committee as the Committee has requested.

NOTE: Documents provided by the Department were reviewed for classification purposes by SA W. N. Preusse, Projects Unit, Records Management Division. 227

By memorandum J. S. Peelman to Mr. Fehl dated 5/5/77, receipt of these documents from the Department was recorded. The Ramirez file consisted of two volumes but only three FBI documents were classified. Mr. Keuch agreed to contact State and CIA concerning classification of information in two of these documents. Ramirez hijacked an airplane to Cuba in 1961 and was convicted for Air Piracy 3/4/76.

Although the Department requested review of the Pottinger report only for classification purposes, it is essential that we record our concern that this document should not be released to the HSCA without prior consultation regarding its inaccuracies and need for additional excisions. It is particularly important to call to the attention of the Department errors in the report which relate to FBI personnel. No copy of the Pottinger report is being retained in Bureau files.

The Civil Rights Division's review of our King investigation was ordered by the Attorney General in November, 1975. This review was continued by the Office of Professional Responsibility of the Department and terminated in January, 1977.

FBI representatives meeting with Mr. Keuch on May 31, 1977, were J. C. Lawn and J. T. Aldhizer of the Congressional Inquiry Unit.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Reference is made to a letter dated March 9, 1977, to the Attorney General from U. S. Congressman Louis Stokes, Chairman, HSCA. This letter requested access to certain material in possession of the FBI.

By letter and memorandum dated May 11, 1977, we responded to a portion of this request and advised that information concerning Willie Augustus Sommersett (true name William Augustus Sommersett), was being processed.

On June 24, 1977, Mr Robert L. Keuch, Special Counsel to the Attorney General, advised that, through consultation with Robert J. Lehner, Deputy Chief Counsel, HSCA, it was agreed that HSCA access to information on Sommersett would be limited to the period 1959 to present.

Enclosed are two copies of a memorandum advising that information concerning Sommersett has been processed in accordance with the above limitation, and is available at FBI Headquarters for HSCA review. It is requested you furnish a copy of the enclosed memorandum to the HSCA to serve as notification that this portion of their request is completed.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
 UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

RE: MARCH 9, 1977, REQUEST OF HSCA FOR INFORMATION IN POSSESSION OF THE FBI PERTAINING TO WILLIE AUGUSTUS SOMMERSETT

Reference is made to a letter dated March 9, 1977, to the Attorney General from U. S. Congressman Louis Stokes, Chairman, HSCA. This letter requested access to certain material in possession of the FBI.

As result of a meeting on April 14, 1977, between Steven J. Fallis and representatives of the Department of Justice and FBI, it was agreed that the FBI, in partial response to the March 9, 1977, request of HSCA, prepare for HSCA access all information retrievable in FBI Headquarters files concerning Willie Augustus Somerset (true name William Augustus Sommersett), John Larry Ray, Jerry William Ray, and W. Guy Banister. FBI memorandum dated May 11, 1977, advised that pertinent material regarding John Larry Ray, Jerry William Ray, and Banister was available for HSCA review and that information concerning Sommersett was being processed.

On June 24, 1977, Mr. Robert L. Keuch, Special Counsel to the Attorney General, advised that, through consultation with Robert J. Lehner, Deputy Chief Counsel, HSCA, it was agreed that HSCA access to information on Sommersett would be limited to the period 1959 to present.

Based upon a review of FBI Headquarters indices, information regarding Sommersett has been processed in accordance with the above limitation, and is available for HSCA review at FBI Headquarters. References to Sommersett in the FBI's investigations into the assassinations of Martin Luther King, Jr. (44-38861), and John F. Kennedy (62-109060), have already been available for HSCA review.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

NOTE: Sommersett was a Bureau informant from 1949-1961, reporting on criminal and racial activities. He was discontinued at the Bureau's direction due to evidence of indiscretion and poor judgment, and that he was under suspicion as an informant by various state and union officials. Following his discontinuance, Sommersett was used as an informant by the Miami Police Department for several years during which time he maintained periodic contact with the Miami Office, furnishing unsolicited information of interest to the Bureau. Sommersett is deceased.

In the King case, Sommersett furnished information regarding threats by white hate groups to kill King. After King was assassinated, Sommersett told our Miami Office that, as an informant for local law enforcement officials in Florida, he was directed to Memphis to develop information concerning the killing. Sommersett, as a Miami police informant, figured into the Kennedy case when the police recorded a conversation between Sommersett and J. A. Milteer wherein Milteer discussed killing Kennedy. This conversation took place prior to the assassination.

The informant file of Sommersett consists of five volumes, but with the 1959 cutoff date, HSCA access will involve only about 1 1/2 volumes. Except for normal excisions such as third and foreign agency material and identity of informants other than Sommersett, only Sommersett's symbol number will be excised from HSCA's access.

Articles appearing in the Fall 1976 issue of "The Miami Magazine" disclosed Sommersett worked as an informant of the FBI for about a decade. These articles advised that sources of information regarding Sommersett's relationship with the Bureau were Miami police officials and Sommersett's brother, Rufus. Sommersett was also identified as a Bureau informant in a "Washington Post" article by Jack Anderson on 1/19/77. Sommersett was known as a Bureau informant to the Florida State Attorneys Office and in 1964 Sommersett related in great detail his activities as an FBI informant to former Florida Governor Leroy Collins, who at that time was associated with the Community Relations Service, Department of Commerce.

It has not been our policy to permit HSCA access to informant files. However, in the case of Sommersett this can be done without establishing an undesirable precedent because, as illustrated above, he has been publicly identified PURPOSE: To advise of meeting on 1/13/78 with Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA), and his current requirements which will heavily task this Bureau's resources.

DETAILS: On 1/13/78 William Bailey, Deputy Assistant Director; Danny O. Coulson, Legal Counsel Division; George J. Foster, Unit Chief, Congressional Inquiry Unit; David Ryan, Section Chief, Document Classification and Review Section, and I met with Mr. Blakey in my office. Mr. Blakey indicated that while the Bureau has been prompt in handling requests from his committee, he wanted to emphasize that the "crisis" will be in the next 60 to 90 days and that prompt delivery of the material requested will be necessary since they will be conducting "grand jury" type hearings.

Mr. Blakey commented he has met with CIA officials regarding the need for expeditious delivery of material requested by the committee and the Agency has agreed to endeavor to make available such material within five days. To accomplish this deadline, the Agency has placed ten full-time employees on the project. Blakey expressed the opinion more material would be requested of the Agency than of the FBI.

When asked his estimate of the volume of material to be requested of the FBI, Blakey responded it would be somewhere in the vicinity of 500 volumes (100-150 pages per volume).

Blakey stated the four prime objectives of the committee are to determine (1) if Oswald was responsible for the assassination; (2) if Ruby was involved in a conspiracy; (3) if the Government agencies (FBI, CIA, Secret Service, Warren Commission, etc.) acted efficiently and properly; and (4) to prepare positive recommendations in accordance with the committee's mandate. He stated a key issue in the committee's endeavors relates to the credibility of the FBI and it was necessary for the Bureau to make full and complete disclosure. The same basic objectives follow as regards the Martin Luther King, Jr., assassination, with a prime issue being a determination as to whether James Earl Ray acted alone and independently.

While Mr. Blakey assured of his complete cooperation in pin-pointing areas of requests, there was no doubt the committee is going to be demanding on a highly expeditious basis a wide range of material which will severely task this Division's resources. Inasmuch as the Attorney General and the Bureau have pledged complete cooperation, we have no alternative but to comply with these anticipated requests. In fact, in order to handle the current requests, we have temporarily assigned four support persons from other Units in the Document Classification and Review Section to assist the Congressional Inquiry Unit. Further, we have assigned Records Branch personnel temporarily to expedite necessary Xeroxing. It is very probable we may have to rely upon Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts Branch personnel if the committee demands accelerate as Mr. Blakey has indicated.

C
PURPOSE: To set forth facts concerning a letter dated 1/27/78 from G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, to Mr. Bassett wherein the HSCA is complaining concerning the FBI response to their requests.

SYNOPSIS: Chief Counsel for HSCA, in letter to Mr. Bassett dated 1/27/78 (received 4:30 p.m., 1/31/78), mentions specific requests made by the Committee to this Bureau and lack of response by the FBI. We have attempted to respond to requests as expeditiously as possible and, where no deadline is given, give priority to those requests containing specific deadlines. Letter from Blakey was somewhat of a surprise since contact with personnel of the HSCA staff and our people gave no indication the Committee was experiencing problems as a result of Bureau's responding to their requests. Conference held with Blakey on 1/13/78 (not 1/3/78 as indicated by Blakey) indicated that the key period for expeditiously handling Committee requests would involve those received following meeting, not those already in our possession.

RECOMMENDATION: That the attached letter be sent to Mr. Blakey over Mr. Bassett's signature.

Re: House Select Committee
on Assassinations (HSCA)
62-117290

As an aside, it is observed that it was necessary to process 52 volumes of material on just one of the 13 individuals mentioned. To compound the problem, a KTF request dated 12/20/77 was received asking for information on nine individuals and delivery of the entire Jack Ruby file, consisting of 90 volumes, with a deadline of 1/13/78. Since this request contained a specific deadline, personnel were not available to handle the 12/16/77 request in order to handle one with a higher priority.

The 1/16/78 request has been handled and furnished to the Department who in turn has or will furnish it to the Committee in accordance with established procedures. The 12/22/77 request, which is voluminous in nature, has been partially responded to, but completion date at this point is not known. It is anticipated that the 12/28/77 and 1/18/78 requests will be completed by 2/10/78. The 1/10/78 and 1/24/78 requests are being worked on, but the extent of work involved is not known. We have no communication from the Committee of 1/9/78 relating to the Kennedy investigation.

With regard to the King Task Force requests of 12/13 and 30/77 and 1/17/78, they have all been completed and furnished to the Department under dates of 2/2, 2/2 and 1/31/78, respectively.

Blakey did not mention in his communication a request from the Committee dated 1/17/78, but in our opinion it is germane to the problem at hand. This is a 23-page request asking for delivery of a large number of serials in the Lee Harvey Oswald file. To comply with this request required the handling of most of the 238 sections of the Oswald file, and in many instances the documents requested were not properly identified or the serial numbers were incorrect. We have had pending before the Committee a proposition on our part to make available to them the entire file relating to the Kennedy assassination which has been processed and released in accordance with Freedom of Information Act requests

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE DIVISION

Supervision of the King security case began in 1962 in the Subversive Control Section of the DID. In late 1964 or early 1965 it was transferred to the Internal Security Section, DID, where it remained until approximately October, 1968, when the Racial Intelligence Section was formed. The case was supervised there until its conclusion in 1968 when King was assassinated.

The DID also afforded supervision of the FBI's Counterintelligence Programs (COINTELPRO). The first program (against the Communist Party) began in 1956 and was supervised in the Internal Security Section. Supervision remained there until programs were created which concerned other aspects of the DID's investigative work. These additional programs were supervised by the appropriate Section of DID responsible for that particular kind of work.

Referenced HSCA letter [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The below information describes the line of authority, duties, and responsibilities of these 12 individuals, plus those of Cartha D. DeLoach. The below was compiled through review of appropriate FBI personnel records and the recollections of personnel familiar with the DID during the pertinent period:

House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Reference is made to letter dated May 17, 1978, to Attorney General Bell from Louis Stokes, Chairman, HSCA, concerning the file destruction program of this Bureau as it relates to the Select Committee on Assassinations' investigation into the circumstances surrounding the deaths of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

On November 24, 1976, a teletype captioned "House Select Committee on Assassinations, U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)," was sent to all of our Field Offices and Legal Attaches advising of the formation of captioned Committee and the recipients of this communication were reminded "that, in accordance with our destruction of files and records program, records possessing evidentiary, intelligence or historical value, such as the Kennedy and King assassination investigations are excluded from the file destruction program and cannot be destroyed." A similar teletype dated January 5, 1977, captioned as above, was again directed to all Field Offices and Legal Attaches again setting forth instructions that the Kennedy and King assassination investigation files are excluded from our file destruction program.

Each Field Office and Legal Attache was advised by letter dated August 15, 1977, that the Attorney General, by letter dated June 6, 1977, informed this Bureau that the moratorium on file destruction had been lifted and indicated his approval for the FBI to resume the file destruction program. However, the Attorney General specifically instructed that all records in litigation and those records which the Select Committee on Assassinations has asked to be retained be preserved. FBI Headquarters identified the subjects involved and these were set forth in the above letter. Those subjects are as follows: House Select Committee on Assassinations; The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy; Lee Harvey Oswald; Marina Oswald; Jack Ruby; President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy (Warren Commission); Martin Luther King, Jr.; Martin Luther King, Sr.; Coretta Scott King; MURKIN;

Ralph David Abernathy; Stanley David Levison; James Earl Ray; Jerry William Ray; John Larry Ray; Communist Infiltration of the SCLC (Southern Christian Leadership Conference); Communist Influence in Racial Matters; Invaders; Sanitation Workers Strike, Memphis, Tennessee; Washington Spring Project, also known as Poor People's Campaign; Communist Party, U.S.A., Negro Question; and, any files reflecting threats against King and/or members of his family.

This Bureau received an HSCA request dated March 9, 1977, wherein HSCA desired information on a number of individuals, one of which was Willie Augustus Somersett. This request was processed in the usual manner, that is, only FBI Headquarters files were reviewed. At this time, there was no request for any review of a Field Office file pertaining to Somersett. Almost a year later, an HSCA request dated March 7, 1978, was received by this Bureau, wherein the Miami Field Office file pertaining to Somersett was requested. Our Miami Field Office advised on March 28, 1978, that the Somersett file in Miami was destroyed under the Bureau's routine file destruction program. However, the last section of this file inadvertently was not destroyed and therefore was made available to HSCA.

In regards to the Alton bank robbery file, an HSCA request dated August 9, 1977, was received desiring access to all investigative reports concerning our investigation in this matter. A subsequent HSCA request dated September 13, 1977, requested a copy of any and all materials or reports regarding the Alton bank robbery. On September 19, 1977, Mr. Robert Kauch advised that delivery should be limited only to investigative reports in the case. The above request did not mention Field Office files and, in accordance with our normal procedure in handling requests, only FBI Headquarters files were processed. The requested material was delivered to a representative of HSCA on September 19, 1977. Thereafter, in an HSCA request dated March 15, 1978, requested among other things was a photograph of [REDACTED] believed to be in the Springfield Field Office file of the Alton bank (b)(7)(c) robbery matter. When our Springfield Office was contacted on March 28, 1978, concerning their bank robbery file, they advised that their file was destroyed December 19, 1977, in accordance with our file destruction program. The Alton bank robbery was committed by two unknown males on July 13, 1967, and this investigation was closed unsolved in 1972. Investigative reports were submitted by our Springfield Office in accordance with the report writing rules of the Bureau in existence at that time and these reports would be in the FBI Headquarters file, which has been delivered to HSCA.

For your information, a teletype dated January 16, 1978, was sent to all Bureau Field Offices and Legal Attaches advising that due to certain pending litigation matters, file destruction in all security related classifications was to be immediately suspended until further notice. Each Field Office was again reminded of the above by communication dated May 8, 1978, stating that the moratorium on file destruction in all security related classifications was still in effect.

Many facets of the HSCA investigation are unknown to the FBI, particularly to our Field Offices. This prevents this Bureau from knowing the nature of the files that would be of potential interest to the HSCA. In the future, if the HSCA desires specific Field Office files be excluded from our file destruction program, this Bureau would appreciate being advised by the HSCA the subject and Field Offices involved so that appropriate measures can be taken to exclude these files from destruction.

Contained therein was a contact memorandum dated 3/19/74, which, in one paragraph, described a meeting between a St. Louis informant [REDACTED] and Beyers (later determined to be Russell George Byers) in the Fall of 1973. Byers told informant of a meeting with an attorney from St. Louis County and another unidentified individual during which an offer was made to Byers to kill Dr. King for $10,000 or $20,000. Byers stated to the informant that he refused this offer. RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS (HSCA)

DETAILS: The 7/26/78 edition of "The New York Times" contains an article by Nicholas M. Horrock, entitled "Report by a Missouri Man Suggests Plotters Sought Murder of Dr. King." This article sets forth information regarding an HSCA investigation into an allegation by Russell G. Byers that he was offered $50,000 to kill Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in 1966 or 1967 by two men from Imperial, Missouri. The article states that the FBI had discovered the information regarding Byers during a file review in the St. Louis Office, and this information was subsequently transmitted to the HSCA in March of this year. The article states that this information provided the basis for the HSCA inquiry.

The information alluded to in "The New York Times" article was discovered during a file review conducted in the St. Louis Office [REDACTED] (b)(7)(C)

[REDACTED] Byers was referred to in a contact memorandum dated 3/19/74, located in St. Louis file [REDACTED]. This memorandum, in addition to having information regarding several criminal matters, contained a paragraph in which it is reflected that Beyers advised [REDACTED] in the Fall of 1973, that he had met with an attorney from St. Louis County and an unidentified individual who offered him $10,000 or $20,000 to kill Dr. King. Byers told the informant that he rejected the offer. By teletype dated 3/13/78, the St. Louis Office advised FBIHQ that this information had been located and that there was no indication that it was ever disseminated. (b)(2) (b)(7)(D)

By airtel dated 3/13/78, the St. Louis Office transmitted an LHM to FBIHQ which set forth verbatim the above-mentioned paragraph. By letter from the Director, FBI, to Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Attention: Mr. Robert L. Keuch, dated 3/24/78, the information contained in the contact memorandum was furnished by LHM dated 3/13/78, for dissemination to the HSCA. In addition, an LHM dated 3/20/78 was attached which reflected background information regarding Russell George Beyers, which was telephonically furnished to FBIHQ by the St. Louis Office at the request of the Congressional Inquiry Unit, Records Management Division. This data was provided to facilitate the HSCA's evaluation of the information regarding Byers furnished by [REDACTED] St. Louis, in communications with [REDACTED] (b)(2) (b)(7)(D)

Keuch, Special Counsel to the Attorney General, to Director, FBI, dated 8/3/77. As set forth therein, without a specific request from the Department, the FBI is not to further investigate any allegations regarding the King or John F. Kennedy assassinations. No request has been received from the Department regarding this matter.

Report by a Missouri Man Suggests Plotters Sought Murder of Dr. King

He Tells of Spurning $50,000 Offer to Arrange Death and of Link to the Prison Where Ray Was Held

The following article is based on reporting by Nicholas M. Horvack, Anthony Morris and Wendell Rawls Jr. It was written by Mr. Horvack.

ST. LOUIS, July 25 — A 45-year-old man here has told the House assassination committee that late in 1966 or early in 1967 he turned down an offer of $50,000 to arrange the death of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr..

Russell G. Byers, a former auto parts dealer, acknowledged in an interview with The New York Times that he had told the committee that two men from Imperial, Mo., had offered him the money on behalf of a group of businessmen to kill the civil rights leader, who was assassinated on April 4, 1968. Both men have since died, but their wives said that they did not believe the story.

The account has spurred an intense inquiry by investigators for the committee, largely because Mr. Byers's brother-in-law, John Spica, was serving a murder term at the time of the alleged offer in the Missouri State Penitentiary, where James Earl Ray, later convicted of killing Dr. King, was also a prisoner. The committee plans to administer a post-mortem test to Mr. Ray as a result of the Byers report.

Says He Rejected Offer

Mr. Byers told The Times that he had rejected the proposal and had not informed Mr. Spica about it. But he said he had suspected that word of a bounty on Dr. King's life might have reached men inside the prison through other means.

A three-month investigation by the House committee, and an independent inquiry by a team of reporters for The New York Times, have uncovered a series of circumstantial connections leading from Mr. Byers and the two men from Imperial, Mo., into the state penitentiary, from which James Earl Ray escaped on April 23, 1967, almost a year before the fatal shooting of Dr. King in Memphis, Tenn.

Serving 99-Year Term

Mr. Ray is serving a 99-year prison term in Tennessee for the murder of Dr. King. Mr. Ray, who pleaded guilty to the murder, has more recently denied from time to time that he fired the fatal shot and has repeatedly requested a new trial, which he maintains would place the blame on others whose identity has not been disclosed so far.

Although no evidence has yet been produced that establishes a direct link between the alleged proposal to Mr. Byers and the death of Dr. King, this is the first of many conspiracy allegations that have drifted into the Missouri prison. At the prison, it was widely rumored in 1966 and 1967 that a conservative business group was willing to pay a large sum of money to anyone who would murder Dr. King.

House investigators are reported to regard this trail of evidence as one of the most tangible avenues of inquiry in their explorations into the deaths of Dr. King and President John F. Kennedy.

The investigators have declined to comment on the allegations of Mr. Byers, but it is clear, from interviews with some of the persons that they have questioned, and from some of the public records that they are known to have checked, that they are trying to determine whether the information adds up to a true conspiracy, or whether they have merely come across a chain of casual acquaintanceships in a criminal setting.

Mr. Byers, who has been granted immunity from prosecution in this case and has testified under oath in Washington, said he could give no reason why the two men from Imperial should have presented him with such an offer. He has given no documentary corroboration for his allegation, but acknowledged in an interview that 10 years ago he had told others about the alleged plot.

He said he had been so "shocked and surprised" by the offer that after Dr. King was shot he told two lawyers and other unnamed persons about it.

F.B.I. Withholds Comment

One of those he told, he said, was an informant for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and he said that the bureau had been given the details of the matter. Mr. Byers said the F.B.I. had never followed up on his report nor had anyone in the bureau talked to him about it. He said he expected that the F.B.I. would now be "embarrassed" by its failure to investigate the matter fully.

The F.B.I.'s chief spokesman, Homer Bowman, would not comment specifically on the allegations today, except to say, without identifying any of the parties involved, that "certain information" concerning the assassination of Dr. King was provided to the bureau's St. Louis office in 1972.

A bureau source, however, said that the agents who received the information had simply filed it under the name of the informant and under the name of Mr. Byers, and had never made it a part of the assassination case file, and had never questioned Mr. Byers about it. "It just sat there for the past five years," he said.

Came to Light in March

Mr. Bowman said that the information came to light in March of this year, when the files in St. Louis were being reviewed in connection with a separate matter. "It was forwarded to F.B.I. headquarters and to the Department of Justice for transmittal to the House Select Committee," he said.

He said the information was "limited in nature," and that, because of the way it had been filed in St. Louis, "it was not retrievable to anyone requesting information about Martin Luther King."

House investigators have been looking into the question of whether a plot was concocted to help Mr. Ray to escape and to finance his stalking of Dr. King in the months that followed.

Mr. Byers said he suspected that the offer to him had been an effort to recruit a duped man who would not actually commit the murder but who would be arrested for it. "They were looking for a pig," he said, suggesting that he suspected that the men who approached him were looking for someone to be slaughtered.

House investigators have also been trying to determine if Mr. Byers transmitted the offer to his brother-in-law, Mr. Spica, 40 years old, who in 1967 was serving a life sentence at the prison following his conviction in the contract killing in 1963 of a wealthy St. Louis real estate.

Mr. Spica reportedly occupied a cell near Mr. Ray's—it was six cells away—and at one point worked with Mr. Ray in the prison laundry.

Operates Fruit Stand

Mr. Byers said in an interview that he had not told Mr. Spica about the $50,000 bounty until "just a little while ago" and that there was no record of his visiting Mr. Spica in prison prior to Dr. King's death.

Mr. Spica, who was released on parole in 1973, now operates a fruit stand here. Last week reporters from The Times attempted to interview him about the matter, but Mr. Spica threatened: "I'll blow your legs off if they did not leave his store. He never decided to answer any questions."

Louis and an official of the Southern States Industrial Council, a conservative group. One legal colleague said Mr. Sutherland had been a segregationist but not a "violent man."

Associated in Business

Mr. Kauffmann and Mr. Sutherland were associated in the ownership of a small water company in Imperial and lived near each other in that small semi-rural community south of here.

Mr. Byers said that Mr. Kauffmann had not been involved in racial politics nor had been an outspoken segregationist. "His orientation was money," Mr. Byers said. He suggested that Mr. Kauffmann had been acting only as a go-between in this matter.

In 1967 Mr. Kauffmann was indicted and convicted on charges that he sold 100,000 amphetamine capsules to a Federal narcotics agent. He served a brief sentence at the Federal Medical Facility at Springfield, Ill.

His widow, Beulah G. Kauffmann, said in an interview that the first time she heard about the alleged murder plot was in May, when House investigators came to her home and questioned her. She said that it was "absolutely impossible" that her husband could have been involved in such a matter.

Charges Fabrication

She said that her husband had known Mr. Byers for nearly two decades and she believed that Mr. Byers had fabricated the allegation about her husband to "help himself get out of the art case." Mr. Byers was implicated as a buyer of stolen goods in an investigation involving the theft last spring of a well-known Frederic Remington bronze sculpture, the "Bronco Buster," but prosecutors later dropped the charges.

Mrs. Kauffmann said that one of her husband's closest friends had been Dr. Hugh W. Maxey, the chief physician at the Missouri penitentiary. She said that over the years her husband had had a "little rehabilitation program" at his motel in Imperial, and had provided work for former convicts. She said at least one of these convicts had been placed there by Dr. Maxey.

She also said that on at least one occasion in 1968, John Spica came to visit her husband with Mr. Byers. She said she remembered the incident because Mr. Spica made a rude remark about the difference between her age and that of her husband, and that a former convict working on the property had ordered Mr. Spica to leave. If Mrs. Kauffmann's memory of the date is correct, it would mean that Mr. Spica was able to make an out-of-prison social visit while serving a life sentence for murder. Mrs. Kauffmann said that convicts had told her that Mr. Spica was able to take "hurlights" on holidays.

Deborah Howe At

However, prison records show that Mr. Spica worked in the medical department of the prison from May 1964 until January 1966.

Published reports have contradicted one another on how James Earl Ray escaped from the prison on April 23, 1967. In one interview Mr. Ray said he had gone over the wall without assistance. But a report issued in January 1977 by the Department of Justice said that the most plausible escape story was that Mr. Ray had reached freedom with the help of accomplices by secreting himself in a breadbox and being lifted onto a prison truck that delivered food to outlying prison farms.

According to information obtained by House investigators, Mr. Spica and Mr. Ray worked together in the prison's food service section at one point in their prison careers. But prison records show that at the time of Mr. Ray's escape, Mr. Spica was assigned to the prison's maintenance department.

F.B.I. Admonished for Lapses

The Justice Department report in 1977 admonished the F.B.I. for its failure to develop fully whether James Earl Ray's family, his brothers John Larry Ray and Jerry Ray and his sister Carol Ray Pepper, had aided him in his escape or flight through the country. The members of the Ray family have denied any wrongdoing.

But House investigators are studying the relationship, if any, between Mr. Spica and the Ray family. Their attention centers on the Grapevine Tavern, a small neighborhood bar in South St. Louis, Mo., on which Mrs. Pepper held the license between November 1967 and December 1968.

In 1968 an employee of the tavern was Neoma Regazzi, according to sources familiar with the investigation. She is the former wife of Robert Regazzi, a seafood business operator from St. Charles, Mo.

Mr. Regazzi said in an interview that his son drowned in the Missouri River on July 23, 1968, and that during the search for the youngster's body, Mrs. Regazzi introduced him to her companion, John L.

Ray, and later introduced him to James Earl Ray's other brother, Jerry.

Mr. Regazzi said that at the time John Ray said that he did not believe that his brother had killed Dr. King, but Mr. Regazzi said there had not been an extensive discussion of the assassination.

Mr. Regazzi said he also knew John Spica, whom he had met years earlier when both were incarcerated at the St. Louis County jail at Clayton, Mo. But Mr. Regazzi said that he had never heard from any source that a $50,000 bounty had been offered to kill Dr. King. And he said that he had not discussed such a matter with Mr. Spica or anyone else and that he had had no part in such a plot.

Mr. Regazzi is on probation from Federal court on a charge of receiving stolen goods in connection with the theft of 35,000 pounds of pork. Mr. Regazzi said he did not believe that his former wife knew any details of the Ray escape. He said that he did not know her present whereabouts or her present married name, but he said that he had heard informally that she had been questioned recently by the F.B.I.

Thus, House investigators are pursuing a number of leads that suggest at least casual links between the persons who allegedly made the proposal to Mr. Byers and James Earl Ray. These leads suggest one possible route through which information about a bounty on Dr. King might have found its way into the prison.

Notation on Records

The man alleged to have made the proposal, Mr. Sutherland, died eight years ago of a heart attack, leaving an estate valued at several hundred thousands dollars. A note attached to the probate records in the Jefferson County, Mo., courthouse now reads: "Do not destroy this file — may be subpoenaed by Congressional Committee (Select Committee on Assassinations)."

Mr. Sutherland's widow, Anna Lee Sutherland, declined to be interviewed, saying through her attorney that she was cooperating with the House investigation, and that she believed that it would be improper to grant private interviews. She is reported, however, to have told committee staff members that she had never heard of the alleged plot before, and that she believed that it was impossible that her husband could have been involved in it.

One of Mr. Sutherland's former law partners, Philip B. Polster, said that although Mr. Sutherland had been a conservative on matters of race, he did not believe that Mr. Sutherland had the sort of "violent" personality that one would expect of a person making such a proposal.

As a patent lawyer in the Mississippi River city, Mr. Sutherland represented a

Mr. Boynton said that the information came to light in March of this year, when the files in St. Louis were being reviewed in connection with a separate matter. "It was forwarded to F.B.I. headquarters and to the Department of Justice for transmittal to the House Select Committee," he said.

He said the information was "limited in nature," and that, because of the way it had been filed in St. Louis, "it was not retrievable to anyone requesting information about Martin Luther King."

House investigators have been looking into the question of whether a plot was concocted to help Mr. Ray to escape and to finance his stalking of Dr. King in the months that followed.

Mr. Byers said he suspected that the effort to help him had been an effort to recruit a man who would not actually commit the murder but who would be arrested for it.

"I was looking for a pig," he said, suggesting that he suspected that the man who approached him was looking for someone to be slaughtered.

House investigators have also been trying to determine if Mr. Byers transmitted the offer to his brother-in-law, Mr. Spica, 40 years old, who in 1967 was serving a life sentence at the prison following his conviction in the contract killing of 1963 of a wealthy St. Louis real estate.

Mr. Spica reportedly occupied a cell near Mr. Ray's—it was six cells away—and at one point worked with Mr. Ray in the prison kitchen.

Operation Fruit Stand

Mr. Byers said in an interview that he had not told Mr. Spica about the $50,000 bounty until "just a little while ago" and that there was no record of his visiting Mr. Spica in prison prior to Dr. King's death.

Spica, who was released on parole in 1972, now operates a fruit stand here. Some time reporters from The Times attempted to interview him about the matter, Mr. Spica threatened: "I'll blow your legs off" if they did not leave his store. He refused to answer any questions.

According to what Mr. Byers told the House committee, whose official name is the House Select Committee on Assassinations, a friend and business associate, James H. Kauffmann, who was 61 years old in 1968, invited him to a meeting with John H. Sutherland, a prominent St. Louis patent lawyer. At the meeting, he said, Mr. Sutherland told him that a group of businessmen would pay $50,000 to help him escape from Dr. King.

The attorney of Mr. Kauffmann and Mr. Sutherland said that they knew nothing about the alleged plot until they were questioned by House investigators this year. They also said that the deal never involved their husbands could have been involved in such a plot.

Mr. Sutherland, who died in 1970, had been a member of Gov. George C. Wallace's American Independent Party, a leader of the White Citizens Council of St.

between in this matter. In 1967 Mr. Kauffmann was indicted and convicted on charges that he sold 100,000 "pharmaceutical capsules" to a Federal Reserve agent. He served a brief sentence at the Federal Medical Facility at Springfield, Ill.

Mrs. Kauffmann, said in an interview that the first time she heard about the alleged murder plot was in May, when House investigators came to her home and questioned her. She said that it was "absolutely impossible" that her husband could have been involved in such a matter.

Mr. Byers was implicated as a buyer of stolen goods in an investigation involving the theft last spring of a well-known Frederic Remington bronze sculpture, the "Bronco Buster," but prosecutors later dropped the charges.

Mrs. Kauffmann said that one of her husband's closest friends had been Dr. Hugh W. Mazy, the chief physician at the Missouri penitentiary. She said that over the years her husband had had a "little rehabilitation program" at his motel in Imperial, and had provided work for former convicts. She said at least one of these convicts had been placed there by Dr. Mazy.

She also said that on at least one occasion in 1968, John Spica came to visit her husband with Mr. Byers. She said she remembered the incident because Mr. Spica made a rude remark about the difference between her age and that of her husband, and that a former convict working on the property had ordered Mr. Spica to leave. If Mrs. Kauffmann's memory of the date is correct, it would mean that Mr. Spica was able to make an out-of-prison social visit while serving a life sentence for murder. Mrs. Kauffmann said that convicts had told her that Mr. Spica was able to take "furloughs" on holidays.

Doctor Mazy

Records at the Missouri penitentiary records indicate that Mr. Spica did not receive his first authorized "furlough" until 1972, but they also showed that he was in the Clayton County jail in Missouri, seeking a new trial, between October 1968 (nearly six months after Dr. King's death) and May 1, 1969.

Dr. Mazy, now 64 and totally deaf, said in response to written questions that he had had no involvement in a plot to kill Dr. King. He acknowledged that he had known Mr. Kauffmann and that he had often been a guest at Mr. Kauffmann's motel. He said that he had had only a brief acquaintance with Mr. Sutherland.

For medical reasons, The Times was allowed to interview Dr. Mazy for only 10 minutes. His answers indicate that he could not recall the name of John Paul Spica.

According to information obtained by House investigators, Mr. Spica and Mr. Ray worked together in the prison's food service section at one point in their prison careers. But prison records show it at the time of Mr. Ray's escape. Mr. Spica was assigned to the prison's maintenance department.

The Justice Department report in 1977 admonished the F.B.I. for its failure to develop fully whether James Earl Ray's family, his brothers John Larry Ray and Jerry Ray and his sister Carol Ray Pepper, had aided him in his escape or flight through the country. The members of the Ray family have denied any wrongdoing.

But House investigators are studying the relationship, if any, between Mr. Spica and the Ray family. Their attention centers on the Grapevine Tavern, a small neighborhood bar in North St. Louis Mo., on which Mrs. Pepper held the license between November 1967 and December 1968.

In 1968 an employee of the tavern was Neoma Regazzi, according to sources familiar with the investigation. She is the former wife of Robert Regazzi, a seafood business operator from St. Charles, Mo.

Mr. Regazzi said in an interview that his son drowned in the Missouri River on July 23, 1968, and that during the search for the youngster's body, Mrs. Regazzi introduced him to her companion, John L.

James Earl Ray, in a photo made last year in Tennessee prison.

Mr. Regazzi is on probation from Federal court on a charge of receiving stolen goods in connection with the theft of 25,000 pounds of pork. Mr. Regazzi said he did not believe that his former wife knew any details of the Ray escape. He said that he did not know her present whereabouts or her present married name, but he said that he had heard informally that she had been questioned recently by the F.B.I.

Thus, House investigators are pursuing a number of leads that suggest at least casual links between the persons who allegedly made the proposal to Mr. Byers and James Earl Ray. As a patent lawyer in the Mississippi River city, Mr. Sutherland represented a large number of corporate clients. At one point he was a local official of the Southern States Industrial Council, which was an outgrowth of lobbying organizations against the civil rights legislation of the 1960's.

Some sources familiar with the inquiry agree that Mr. Byers' allegation is uncorroborated and that the links into the prison may be no more than the casual relationships among persons who live in the same area, but they nonetheless argue that the situation merits the intense scrutiny that it is now receiving.

They also note that Mr. Byers did not offer, on his own, to cooperate, but waited only after the committee "tricked" him down. And they appear to believe that his account is buttressed to some extent by the fact that he said it to several persons at the time, and was not coming forward now, after the death of the person who allegedly made the offer.

Asked Reporter to Withdraw

When reporters from The Times first interviewed Mr. Byers on the campus of his home in Rock Hill, Mo., a St. Louis suburb, he refused to discuss the case with more than one reporter present. After one reporter had withdrawn, Mr. Byers told the other newsmen that the arrangement would allow him to deny that he had made any commitment. He discussed the case, then, for 45 minutes.

Later, however, Mr. Byers instructed his lawyers, Roy Walker Jr. and Terry B. Croppan, that he did not want to talk further on the matter. Mr. Croppan refused to confirm or deny any details of this matter and when reporters tried to question him he said he would "have to ask you to leave."

Several sources have said that the violence surrounding some figures in this matter might be intensified if its details were published.

In the recent burglary of the Remington sculpture, one of the suspects was mysteriously shot to death several months ago. Another source said the question of whether informants for the police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation might be exposed to jeopardy was "very real" in this case. The committee is expected to conduct a polygraph examination of Mr. Ray early next week. It has scheduled public hearings on the King assassination in August and additional hearings in November.

James Earl Ray: 10 Years of Notoriety and Protest

By WOLFGANG SAXON

From the time of the assassination of the Dr. Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. 10 years ago until this month, when the way was cleared for him to "go public" on Capitol Hill, James Earl Ray never allowed the public to get him out of mind for long.

Indeed, Mr. Ray continually made news with denials of his guilt, with his role as a figure in conspiracy theories and with a spectacular jail break just over a year ago from Brushy Mountain State Prison, where he is serving a 99-year term.

Over the years, Mr. Ray, now 39 years old, went through a succession of 11 lawyers, gave closed testimony to investigators of the House of Representatives and vainly pursued a quest for a new trial that, he insisted, would clear him of the accusation that he shot the civil rights leader in Memphis on April 4, 1968.

Twelve days ago, a Federal judge in Washington signed papers that would make it possible for Mr. Ray to be brought before the special House assassination committee. Members of the committee had previously questioned him behind closed doors in the Tennessee prison.

His most recent attorney, Mark Lane, said at the time that his client wanted to "go public" with his story. He immediately died for his committee.

Mr. Lane, a New York lawyer, is the author of a book on the King assassination. Mr. Ray engaged him last October while involved in preliminary proceedings before a Criminal Court judge in Tennessee in connection with his trial on charges stemming from his escape from the state prison.

Mr. Ray told the judge that he wanted Jack Kerenshaw of Nashville, his previous lawyer, relieved because he had become "deeply involved in conflict of interest." The basis for this assertion was an interview that Mr. Kerenshaw had given to Playboy magazine.

The interview included remarks of polygraph tests purporting to show that Mr. Ray had when he denied killing Dr. King as the civil rights leader stood on the balcony of a Memphis motel. Mr. Ray was accused of shooting Dr. King, acting alone, from a window of a nearby rooming house.

Mr. Ray was apprehended in London on June 8, 1968, two months after the assassination. In that time, he led the authorities on a 25,000-mile chase through three countries.

Among fellow prisoners, Mr. Ray had always been known as an escape artist constantly plotting ways to get out. He succeeded in 1967 by slipping out of the Missouri State Penitentiary at Jefferson City. Prison officials never figured out how he managed it.

Then, on the night of June 10, 1977, he and five other inmates bolted over the wall of the maximum-security prison in Tennessee, executing an ingenious escape plot attributed to Mr. Ray. All of those who escaped were recaptured within days. Mr. Ray was sent a few miles from the prison after 34 hours.

The State of Tennessee then wanted the Federal Government to take charge of Mr. Ray, but his attorney contended that Mr. Ray would be in "grave danger" from those who want to keep secret the details of the King assassination if he were transferred to a Federal institution.

Mr. Ray, along with the others who escaped, was put in solitary confinement at Brushy Mountain until January.

Also in January, the Federal Bureau of Investigation made public its conclusion that Mr. Ray had financed himself through a series of robberies in the two months as a fugitive after the King assassination. The F.B.I. files disputed assertions that he had been financially supported by co-conspirators.

The documents disclosed that Mr. Ray was preparing for a flight to South Africa just before he was seized at London's Heathrow Airport in 1968.

Reference is made to my letter dated March 11, 1977, with enclosure, under the caption "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, November 22, 1963, Dallas, Texas," in which the assistance of the Department of Justice was requested in obtaining the test bullets from the National Archives for comparison purposes.

Reference is also made to my letter dated April 5, 1977, under the caption "Assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr.," in which the assistance of the Department of Justice again was requested in obtaining from the HSCA all information available pertaining to an allegation received by the HSCA from a former Louisville police officer who allegedly advised that he received an offer from FBI Agents and police officers to kill Martin Luther King, Jr., for $500,000.

The HSCA did not bring this allegation pertaining to Dr. King to the attention of the FBI or to the Department, nor has the result of its investigation been furnished to the Department. At the request of the Bureau, the Attorney General authorized the FBI to attempt to interview the individual who made these allegations. He refused to be interviewed and terminated contact by stating, "I'll say it all to the House Committee."

In refusing to make available the information received by the HSCA pertaining to this allegation, as has been requested by the Criminal Division, Department of Justice, the HSCA has again attempted to affirm its primary investigative responsibility in these assassinations.

The FBI continues to cooperate with the HSCA in making the investigative results of both of these assassinations available, with necessary exceptions, to the HSCA based on an agreement reached between the Department and the HSCA. Material available to the HSCA includes access to those volumes containing current investigation in both assassination investigations.

However, while the FBI continues to cooperate fully with the HSCA, both of these matters, as set out in the referenced letters, remain unresolved, continue to impinge upon our investigative responsibilities, and in essence, raise the question of this Bureau's continuing criminal jurisdiction in these investigations.

As you are aware, in November, 1963, the FBI initiated an immediate investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy based upon a request from President Lyndon B. Johnson to former Director John Edgar Hoover. Prior to the assassination, no Federal statute existed concerning the killing of, or assault on the President. Mr. Hoover, in testimony before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy (Warren Commission) stated that President Johnson communicated with him within 24 hours of the assassination and requested the FBI to investigate. (Hearings before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, Volume 5, Page 98.)

Although the Bureau's investigative responsibilities concerning the assassination of President Kennedy would have logically ended with the termination of the Warren Commission, Director Hoover, in his testimony before the Commission, agreed with a statement by a Commission Member, Representative Gerald R. Ford, that the responsibility to conduct the investigation is not an authority with a terminal point, but an authority that goes on indefinitely. (Hearings before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, Volume 5, Page 100.) The FBI has continued to investigate and report to the Department any new allegations or information received concerning the assassination.

In reference to this Bureau's criminal jurisdiction in the investigation of the assassination of Martin Luther King, by memorandum dated April 4, 1968, Assistant Attorney General Stephen J. Pollak, Civil Rights Division, requested that this Bureau conduct a full investigation into a possible violation of Title 18, Section 241, U. S. Code, in connection with the shooting of King in Memphis, on that date. (FBI jurisdiction was based on the possibility of a conspiracy to violate the civil rights of King, namely the right to travel interstate. King had traveled to Memphis, on April 3, 1968, from Atlanta, to take part in a demonstration scheduled for April 3, 1968.)

The Attorney General

On April 16, 1968, the Attorney General authorized the filing of a complaint charging Galt with violation of Title 18, Section 241, U. S. Code, for conspiring to interfere with the constitutional rights of King.

On April 17, 1968, Federal process was obtained and Galt was charged with conspiracy (Section 241) in that he and an individual whom he alleged to be his brother, entered into a conspiracy in Birmingham on March 29, 1968, by reason of their purchase of the rifle later used in the shooting of King.

On March 10, 1969, in State Court, Memphis, Tennessee, James Earl Ray entered a plea of guilty to charges of murder and received a 99-year sentence.

Federal process against Galt was dismissed on December 2, 1971, by U. S. Commissioner Macy Taylor, Northern District of Alabama, based upon a motion filed by Ray's Attorney, Bernard Fensterwald, Jr.

In December of 1975, the Civil Rights Division began a review of the FBI's investigation of the King assassination and this review was recently completed by the Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR), U. S. Department of Justice. The OPR issued a report of its review and reported, among other things, that ". . . the sum of all the evidence of Ray's guilt points to him so exclusively that it most effectively makes the point no one else was involved . . ." (Report of the Department of Justice Task Force to Review the FBI Martin Luther King, Jr., Security and Assassination Investigations, Page 109.)

Since the time of the Kennedy and King assassinations, the FBI has continued to investigate various allegations concerning these assassinations and has furnished the results to the Department. No viable information has been developed to negate the original findings of the FBI or the subsequent conclusions of the Warren Commission or the OPR.

During the HSCA review and investigation into these assassinations, additional allegations regarding these assassinations have been received. The FBI has continued to attempt to investigate all of these additional allegations; however, the FBI has found in several instances that the HSCA conducted independent and parallel investigations, the results of which are not available to the FBI.

The Attorney General

While this Bureau remains unaware that the FBI's criminal jurisdiction pertaining to these two investigations has been abrogated, the position taken by the Department of Justice, in not obtaining authority for the FBI either to gain access to the test bullets in the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation or to obtain from the HSCA the information pertaining to the alleged involvement of FBI personnel in a conspiracy to kill Martin Luther King, appears to support the position of the HSCA that "primary investigative responsibility" rests with that Committee.

Therefore, in order to avoid duplication of investigative effort and the attendant problems between the FBI and the HSCA that could arise in the future, and until the jurisdiction of this bureau in these investigations is delineated by the Department, unless you advise to the contrary, the FBI will refer all allegations relating to these investigations to Mr. Robert L. Keuch, Special Counsel to The Attorney General, for departmental consideration as to whether any investigation is required of the FBI, or whether the Department desires to furnish these allegations directly to the HSCA. Copies of communications concerning allegations regarding the King assassination will also be furnished to the Civil Rights Division and the OPR.

PURPOSE: To advise that captioned Committee is expected to conclude its work regarding the John F. Kennedy-Martin Luther King, Jr., assassinations probe and cease operations on or about December 31, 1978. Additionally, this memorandum is being submitted in order to solicit responses from the Disclosure Section, Freedom of Information-Privacy Act (FOIPA) Branch, and Records Systems Section, Records Branch, regarding their respective positions as to the disposition of the voluminous material prepared for the HSCA.

DETAILS: The HSCA was formed in September, 1976, by the Ninety-fourth Congress to "study the circumstances surrounding the details of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr., and any others the Select Committee shall determine." Subsequent to the formation of the HSCA, the Congressional Inquiry Unit (CIU) was formed at FBI Headquarters to process requests submitted by the Committee for pertinent FBI material.

To date, the CIU has processed two hundred eighty-three (283) requests from the Committee providing them with both Bureau and field office material pertinent to these assassination probes. The material, which includes sensitive ELSUR logs, highly classified security files, appropriate tickler files and a separate index system, is currently stored in approximately sixty (60) file cabinets located within the CIU's secure but temporary office space in Room 8988.

Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, has advised the Committee will conclude its public hearings this November, issue its report soon thereafter, and, as mandated by Congress, will conclude its business on or about December 31, 1978. With the dissolution of the HSCA and the expected dissolution of the CIU, the subject of the proper disposition of the voluminous material prepared for the Committee needs to be addressed. Therefore, the CIU is setting forth the following recommendation.

Re: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

ADDENDUM: FOIPA BRANCH
RECORDS MANAGEMENT DIVISION

THB THB:tdp 10/31/78

An informal survey of the material prepared for the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) by the Congressional Inquiry Unit was conducted on 10/27/78 by Section Chief Bresson of Disclosure Section, FOIPA Branch, along with SAs John A. Hartingh and John C. Hall, Legal Counsel Division. It was observed the material includes voluminous records which are not pertinent to the Kennedy-King assassinations, i.e., extensive ELSUR logs and other file material concerning organized crime figures, as well as certain extremist organization files.

FOIPA Branch is currently involved in litigation regarding both the Kennedy and King cases. An issue concerning scope of our searches is still unsettled; however, with regard to King, the scope issue is about to become the focus of a hearing to be held soon in U.S. District Court, Washington, D.C. It is anticipated that Quinlan J. Shea, Director, Information and Privacy Appeals Office, Department of Justice, will furnish an affidavit in essence stating that his appeal review considered the scope issue and he is satisfied the searches conducted and records thereby retrieved for review are within the confines of the FOIA request.

On 10/27/78 the matter of our retention of copies of the material furnished HSCA was discussed with Shea. He is aware that a significant portion of record material furnished the Committee in response to specific inquiries has not been considered by us to be within the scope of the FOIA request. In this regard we have, in the past, made available to the FOIA litigant in this matter documents which were publicized by the Committee, and which would not have been included in the FOIA processed material. Shea concurs that production of records for the Committee does not, in itself however, bring those records within the scope confines of the FOIA litigation, and is prepared to uphold our FOIA searches which utilized the indices to retrieve the main case files regarding the assassinations and closely related main files both at FBIHQ and selected field divisions.

Reference is made to the letter to the Attorney General from G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, dated October 17, 1978, which requested certain information from the FBI concerning the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr.

Paragraph 1 of referenced letter requested [REDACTED]

HSCA

On October 30, 1978, Mr. Robert L. Keuch, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Department of Justice (DOJ), advised a representative of the FBI that the DOJ would handle response to this portion of the referenced HSCA request.

Paragraph 2 of referenced letter requested [REDACTED]

HSCA

On October 23, 1978, the Kansas City Office of the FBI advised that Kansas City file [REDACTED] was destroyed on January 7, 1978, since it was a criminal file and had been closed for more than five years. Destruction of this file was in compliance with mandated file destruction procedures outlined in FBI Headquarters letter to Albany dated October 28, 1977, captioned "Destruction of Field Files and Records." This letter advised all field offices that the National Archives and Records Services and the DOJ had granted approval for the FBI to reduce the retention period from ten years to five years for closed criminal files maintained in field offices. Special Agent in Charge, Bill D. Williams, now assigned to the Miami Field Office of the FBI, was the Kansas City official responsible for assuring that mandated file destruction was carried out consistent with existing instructions.

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
95TH CONGRESS

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise of receipt of a "Summary of Findings and Recommendations" of captioned Committee.

DETAILS:

On January 3, 1979, G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel, captioned Committee, caused to be delivered to the Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, a "Summary of Findings and Recommendations" of captioned Committee. SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
FINAL REPORT

PURPOSE: To advise of results of meeting between the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, and Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division, Department of Justice, and representatives of the Criminal Investigative Division, relating to the final report of the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) in which HSCA recommended that the Department of Justice initiate further investigation. FBI recommended at this meeting that any further analysis of scientific data gathered by HSCA be handled independent of the FBI since HSCA findings included alleged FBI deficiencies in investigating the possibility of a conspiracy in the assassination of John F. Memorandum to Mr. Mullen from J. C. Lawn
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Mr. Turner advised that the Civil Rights Division, based upon its review of the HSCA findings, will recommend to the Attorney General in writing that no further investigation is warranted into the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Mr. Keuch stated that further analysis of certain scientific data should be conducted as recommended in the HSCA final report.

Specifically, Mr. Keuch questioned whether the FBI Laboratory could subject the Bronson film to computer analysis and whether the photograph taken by Mary Moorman could be analyzed for further study.

(The Charles L. Bronson film depicted the Texas School Book Depository several minutes before the assassination of John F. Kennedy, including the 6th floor window from which the fatal shot was fired.

The Mary Moorman photograph, a Polaroid, depicted the grassy knoll area and was taken at the time the fatal shot was fired. This photograph was deemed by HSCA photographic experts as being of limited usefulness because of its poor quality and deterioration over the years.)

Mr. Keuch was advised that such photographic analysis involving computer analysis and enhancement could not be conducted within the FBI Laboratory, but would have to be handled by outside contract.

Mr. Keuch indicated that he planned to request in writing that the Technical Services Division review the scientific acoustical evidence which HSCA believed would support their findings of "... a high probability that 2 gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy." Mr. Keuch stated that after reviewing this material, he desired the FBI furnish recommendations as to whether there exists sufficient data to warrant further scientific testing as recommended by HSCA.

There was, however, no similar privilege covering the conduct of the FBI. HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

RE: INQUIRY CONCERNING PAGE 696 OF FBI, DALLAS
DIVISION REPORT OF SPECIAL AGENT (SA)
ROBERT P. GEMBERLING DATED DECEMBER 23, 1963.

On November 11, 1977, Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams met with Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, to discuss Committee matters, one of which involved the December 23, 1963, Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling captioned, "Lee Harvey Oswald . . ." (Bureau file 105-82555). The Committee was desirous of ascertaining why page 696 of the report was numbered similarly to page 672, whereas pages 673 through 701, exclusive of page 696, are numbered differently. Pages 672 through 701 relate to information derived from an address book found among the possessions of Lee Harvey Oswald. Page 696 is significant since it reflects information from the same page in the address book which also bears the name of SA James P. Hosty under the date of November 1, 1963, together with the address and telephone number of the Dallas Field Office and the incomplete license number of SA Hosty's Bureau car. The information regarding Hosty was not included in the December 23, 1963, Dallas report.

HSCA has recently interviewed and obtained testimony from SA John T. Kesler, Division 10, FBI Headquarters, and from former SA Robert P. Gemberling, Dallas, Texas, concerning this point. According to the Committee, these Agents can recall that page 672 is numbered differently because a 30-page

Dallas Office memorandum, prepared by SA Kesler, was converted to a report insert by SA Gemberling who recalled having the first page of the memorandum redone so it appeared as page 672 in the report. Neither Agent could recall what may have occasioned the redoing of page 25 of the Kesler memorandum which became page 696 of the report and which reflects the memorandum page number, "25," at the top left corner as does page 672, whereas all other pages from the original memorandum are numbered 1 through 30, exclusive of 1 and 25, at the bottom center, just above the report page numbers, 672 through 701.

On November 11, 1977, Mr. Adams instructed that research be undertaken to explain, if possible, why page 696 of the report is numbered in the same fashion as page 672.

Research to date has disclosed the following:

(1) Dallas Division has located a November 24, 1963, memorandum prepared by SA James P. Hosty setting forth some of the information appearing in the address book as it was made available to him on November 22, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department. This memorandum did not set forth the Hosty data appearing in the address book.

(2) Dallas Division has also located additional memoranda prepared by Hosty dated December 3, 1963, and December 20, 1963, which did set forth the fact that the Hosty data appeared in the Lee Harvey Oswald address book.

(3) By airtel of December 11, 1963, the Bureau furnished Dallas Division with photographs of the Oswald address book which Dallas Division had obtained from the Dallas Police Department on November 27, 1963, and submitted to the Bureau. These photos depicted the Hosty data appearing in the address book (Bureau file 105-82555-403).

(4) By airtel of December 19, 1963, Dallas Division furnished pages comparable to pages 672 through 701 of the December 23, 1963, report, except for the report page numbering, with the suggestion that these be provided to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) for review. The pages of this submission otherwise coincide with pages 672 and 696 of the December 23, 1963, report version. The Dallas dictator's initials are "WCD." (105-82555-1247)

(5) FBI Headquarters searches have located a tickler folder, last known to have been in the custody of the Intelligence Division, which includes a booklet containing pages comparable to those appearing as pages 672 through 701 in the December 23, 1963, report however, page 25, numbered according to what purports to be the original numbering of the Kesler memorandum and bearing the Dallas, Lee Harvey Oswald file number, 100-10461, and the dictator's initials "JTK," does reflect the SA Hosty data as they appeared in the address book.

(6) The tickler folder also contained an unidentified document which has now been located in Bureau files and identified as a CIA analysis of Russian data appearing in the address book. It was furnished to the Bureau by CIA letter of February 4, 1964, (105-82555-2864) and forwarded to Dallas Division by Bureau airtel of February 7, 1964, which bore the Bureau dictator's initials "REL." Bureau letter to CIA of December 31, 1963, furnished data derived from the address book and requested CIA to provide any information it might develop (105-82555-1204). It was explained that the data furnished to CIA was supplied by the December 19, 1963, Dallas airtel and the communication bore the Bureau dictator's initials "ETT."

(7) Dallas Division has located a January 25, 1964, memorandum in file prepared by Special Agent in Charge (SAC) Shanklin referencing a Bureau telephone call from Section Chief William A. Branigan wherein Branigan inquired why Hosty's name had not been included in the December 23, 1963, report. The Bureau interest was generated by an article appearing in "The Nation" alleging Oswald had the Hosty data in his possession.

(8) A January 27, 1964, J. Edgar Hoover letter to the Warren Commission advised of the appearance of the Hosty data in Oswald's address book (105-82555-1517). Bureau dictator's initials on this communication are "REL." This letter was based, in part, on a Dallas teletype to the Bureau dated January 25, 1964, which referred to W. A. Branigan's telephone call of January 25, 1964, and stated Hosty's name had been omitted since only information of lead value had been set forth (105-82555-1666).

(9) Dallas Division ultimately furnished, by report of February 11, 1964, the Hosty data, as well as other data, derived from the address book, but which had been omitted from the December 23, 1963, report for the stated reason that they were not of lead value.

(10) The December 23, 1963, (105-82555-1212) and the February 11, 1964, (105-82555-2027) Dallas reports were disseminated to the Warren Commission on January 13, 1964, and February 19, 1964, respectively.

(11) By airtel dated February 7, 1964, Dallas Division also furnished amended pages to the December 23, 1963, report which included pages 672 through 701 (105-82555-2098). Copies were also furnished to New Orleans Division which received an information copy of the December 23, 1963, report.

(12) A Bureau airtel dated February 14, 1964, advised Dallas and New Orleans that the amended pages were not to be inserted in the December 23, 1963, report since the changes were not substantive and dealt primarily with page numbering of the original address book. The amended pages did not include the Hosty data (105-82555-2021). The SAC of the New Orleans Division reviewed the New Orleans, Lee Harvey Oswald file on November 15, 1977 and advised that pages 672 through 701 conformed to Bureau files.

(13) Former SA Gemberling and SA Kesler furnished affidavits dated February 25, 1964, Bureau file 105-82555-2243 and 105-82555-2244 respectively, which essentially explained the conversion of Kesler's office memorandum to a report insert and stated that the Hosty data was omitted from both the memorandum and report since it was not of lead value. These affidavits were furnished to the Warren Commission by Bureau letter dated February 27, 1964, (105-82555-2240).

(14) A Special Agent of the Dallas Division, has conducted exhaustive searches to locate the original Kesler memorandum without success. (Gemberling, in testimony, hypothesizes that the Kesler memorandum may have been destroyed following, or as a result of being incorporated into the report.)

(15) Comparison of all four versions of pages 672 through 701 reflect the following:

(A) The December 19, 1963, version appears identical to the December 23, 1963, report version except for a minor pen change to a street number and the absence of the December 23, 1963, report page numbering.

(B) Only the tickler version contains the Hosty data.

(C) The tickler, report and amended page versions differ in many respects. For example, 25 pages of the tickler copy do not coincide with the 30 pages of the report version to include page 696 which pertains to the Hosty data.

(16) Stenographer's initials appearing on the tickler, December 19, 1963, Dallas submission, and the December 23, 1963, report versions of pages 672 through 701 are "gmf" and "mam." The stenographer's initials on the amended pages are "GJ." These initials appear to be identical to the following stenographers:

(A) "gmf" - Gloria M. Frigo who was assigned to Dallas from St. Louis from December 1, 1963, to January 4, 1964.

(B) "mam" - Martha A. McBride who was assigned to Dallas from New Orleans from November 25, 1963, to December 22, 1963.

(C) "GJ" - Gloria G. Jackson who was assigned to Dallas from Kansas City from December 1, 1963, to February 22, 1964.

On November 15, 1977, Mr. Adams met with Director Kelley, to advise him of findings to date. The Director approved further exploration of this matter proposed by Mr. Adams and authorized contact with HSCA in order to obtain the recent testimony of Messrs. Kesler and Gemberling before that Committee, as well as any other relevant information the Committee may be able to produce.

Accordingly, Mr. Adams contacted Chief Counsel Blakey, HSCA, on November 15, 1977, and advised him of the Bureau's intent to pursue this matter in an effort to resolve, if possible, the questions regarding page 696 of the December 23, 1963, report. Mr. Blakey advised Mr. Adams that should research or inquiry illumine any fact or circumstance that might refresh Kessler's and Gemberling's memory with regard to page 696 of the December 23, 1963, report, the Committee would welcome their reappearance to amplify or correct any previous testimony.

Contacts with HSCA staff members resulted in the November 22, 1977, interview of an HSCA senior staff counsel and staff researcher during which they presented the details known to them which occasioned the November 11, 1977, inquiry as follows:

House Select Committee on Assassinations

Date of transcription November 28, 1977

Michael Goldsmith, Senior Staff Counsel, and Robert W. Genzman, Researcher, Select Committee on Assassinations, U. S. House of Representatives, were aware of the personal and official identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the inquiry which pertained to certain Committee staff members' concern over an investigative report prepared by the Dallas Field Office of the FBI, dated December 23, 1963. Mr. Goldsmith was the principal interviewee and he advised as follows:

Certain Committee staff members were concerned that page 696 of the December 23, 1963, report by former Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling, titled "Lee Harvey Oswald . . .," appeared to have been redone during preparation in order to exclude the name of FBI Special Agent James P. Hosty, his office address, telephone number and official vehicle license number which did appear in an address book identified as the property of Lee Harvey Oswald. Since pages 672 through 701 of the report purported to set forth the contents of Oswald's address book, it was felt that page 696 of the report should have reflected the Hosty data since other data from the same page in the address book appeared there.

Committee staff research had disclosed that Gemberling previously explained to the FBI and ultimately to the Warren Commission by affidavit dated February 25, 1964, that he utilized a 30-page office memorandum prepared by SA John T. Kesler in order to set forth the address book data in the December 23, 1963, report. Gemberling explained he had redone the first page of Kesler's memorandum in order to convert the memorandum to a report insert which appeared in the report as report pages numbered 672 through 701. This conversion resulted in the original memorandum numbering of 2 through 30 appearing on the bottom of pages 673 through 695 and 697 through 701 just above the report page numbering. Page 672 bears a page number "1" in the upper left corner and page 696 bears a page number "25" in the upper left corner.

by Special Agent [REDACTED] Date dictated November 28, 1977

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Committee staff members have hypothesized that since a previous Gemberling admission explained the redoing of page 1 of the original memorandum, it stands to reason that page 696 was also redone, possibly to omit the Hosty data which may have appeared in the original memorandum. To explain this and other matters, the Committee staff requested the appearance of former Special Agent Gemberling and Special Agent Kesler.

Former Special Agent Gemberling was interviewed by Committee staff members on November 8, 1977, but the inconsistency with regard to page 696 was not specifically addressed at that time. At the conclusion of the interview, former Special Agent Gemberling was advised that questioning would address the issue of page 696 during his formal testimony on November 9, 1977. To prepare Gemberling, Committee staff members provided him with copies of pertinent pages from the December 23, 1963, report, the February 11, 1964, report which did report the Hosty data from the address book, the affidavits executed by Kesler and Gemberling on February 25, 1964, and a Xeroxed copy of the address book. Upon presentment of these items, Gemberling volunteered to Committee staff members that he noticed the difference in numbering on page 696.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that during testimony on November 9, 1977, Gemberling recalled as follows:

During December, 1963, FBI Headquarters furnished the Dallas Field Office with photocopies of the address book and translations of the Russian language entries and instructed Dallas to transcribe the Oswald address book and set out investigative leads on all parties mentioned. Gemberling then instructed Kesler to identify every entry, the significance of which was unknown, in order that leads might be set out based on such entries. Gemberling did not feel that the wording in the December 23, 1963, report gave rise to an inference that the complete contents of the address book were listed in that report. He maintained that the only reason the Hosty data did not appear in the report was because Kesler had not included it in his original memorandum. Had Kesler included it, Gemberling probably would not have noticed it during his preparation of the report. The reason Kesler did not include the Hosty data was simply because it was of no lead value.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mr. Goldsmith advised that in an effort to pursue the "lead value" notion he asked Gemberling if the FBI knew the significance of the Governor Connally, Ruth Paine, Robert W. Oswald and Mrs. M. Oswald entries by December 23, 1963. When Gemberling replied in the affirmative, he was then asked why these names were included in the December 23, 1963, reporting of the address book, whereas the Hosty data were omitted. Gemberling seemed to recall that perhaps this occurred because addresses or telephone numbers in connection with those persons may have required checking out. When asked why address book entries such as "Book 1984 - Oswald" or "Socks - 25," "Hat - 56," "Shoes - 40-41" and "Shirts - 37" were included in the report, Gemberling responded that these may have been some code or were of unknown significance and, therefore, Kesler included them because he was not sure.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he questioned Gemberling about his affidavit of February 25, 1964, and asked why the affidavit specifically mentioned the redoing of page 1 of Kesler's memorandum, but no mention was made of redoing page 25 of that memorandum. Gemberling replied that he wished the record to show that he had no intention to mislead and he did not recall why page 25 may have been redone. Gemberling admitted that page 25 (696) appeared to be an inconsistency, that the Hosty data would have appeared on page 25 (696) and that the bottom margin on page 25 (696) was greater or wider than other pertinent pages. Gemberling denied that he discussed the omission of the Hosty data with Kesler or any other Agent prior to December 23, 1963. Referring to Gemberling's affidavit, he was asked how he was able to assume that Kesler knew all about Hosty and, therefore, did not include the Hosty data, whereupon Gemberling replied that he arrived at this conclusion because Kesler and Hosty worked in the same room at the Dallas Field Office. Gemberling also advised that he was aware that all reports were being disseminated to the Warren Commission and furthermore that the inclusion of the Hosty data in Oswald's address book was known to the media in December, 1963, whereupon Mr. Goldsmith informed him that this information was not known to the media until approximately January 1, 1964, when it appeared in a "Houston Post" article.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he directed Gemberling's attention to the February 11, 1964, report where the Hosty data were reported and asked if Gemberling thought the Hosty entry in the address book was significant at that time. Gemberling replied in the negative and when asked why he mentioned this fact in the synopsis of the February 11, 1964, report he then contradicted himself and said it would have been significant for him to mention it in the synopsis.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that Gemberling agreed that his and Kesler's affidavits of February 25, 1964, contained common language but Gemberling denied that he prepared Kesler's affidavit, although he may have called Kesler to refresh Kesler's memory. Gemberling stated that he may have read his affidavit to Kesler over the telephone since Kesler could not be expected to remember all the details, however, Gemberling could not otherwise recall this incident specifically.

Mr. Goldsmith advised as follows with regard to Special Agent John T. Kesler:

Kesler was interviewed by Committee staff members on November 8, 1977, and testified on November 10, 1977. After his interview, and in order to refresh his memory, Kesler was provided with the same material as was Gemberling. The Committee staff chose to interview Kesler because it wished to avail itself of his perspective on the FBI's investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy. Certain Committee staff members were dissatisfied in Kesler's testimony since they perceived that Kesler was not at all candid in his responses. In this regard, they found it hard to believe Kesler when he denied that FBI Agents working on the assassination case ever discussed possible conspiracy theories among themselves. In addition, Kesler seemed angered by Committee staff questioning and was reluctant to provide his personal opinions or impressions of matters under discussion.

Kesler reiterated the "lead rationale" that caused him to omit the Hosty data from his memorandum. Upon further questioning, he stated that while he knew Hosty was the Agent handling the Oswald case, he did not know Hosty by sight. Kesler did state that upon noting the Hosty data in the address book, he verified the office telephone number and the automobile license number. When asked about the inclusion of other entries from the address book that might not have been of lead value, he stated that he included all entries which were of unknown significance to him. Kesler was asked why he did not attempt to verify such entries as Mrs. Ruth Paine as he did with Hosty, whereupon he replied that such a procedure would have been too time consuming. Kesler reiterated that if he did not know the lead value of an entry, he certainly included it and where he knew it was of no lead value, he excluded it. He was then asked about certain entries that he excluded and was forced to admit that he did not know the significance of some of the entries he omitted.

Kesler recalled that his affidavit of February 25, 1964, was probably prepared as a result of talking to someone in the Dallas Field Office, but not necessarily Gemberling, and he admitted both affidavits contained some identical language.

Further questioning caused Kesler to admit that the Hosty data may have been significant since supervisors in the FBI chain of command may have wished to follow up on the possibility that Hosty was involved in a conspiracy to assassinate the President or that Hosty had been identified as a target by Lee Harvey Oswald.

Mr. Goldsmith stated that this line of questioning apparently irritated Kesler to the extent that he exited the Committee hearing room while the Chairman was still in the process of excusing him.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he would attempt to secure Committee approval to furnish Committee transcripts of the Gemberling and Kesler testimony to the FBI.

Additional research through files at FBI Headquarters and the Dallas Division of the FBI has thus far failed to produce any information that would explain the redoing of page 696.

On November 28, 1977, Mr. S. Robert Blakey advised that he was attempting to secure permission from the Committee Chairman to furnish the FBI with the transcripts of the testimony given to the Committee by SA John T. Kesler and former SA Robert P. Gemberling

On December 1, 1977, Congressman Louis Stokes, Chairman, HSCA, provided the transcripts of Kesler's and Gemberling's testimony to the FBI with the proviso that they were only for the internal use of the FBI and the U. S. Department of Justice and were not to be made public. A review of these transcripts discloses that they substantially agree with the information provided by Committee staff members on November 22, 1977.

On December 5, 1977, the Dallas Division located a "Houston Post" article which appeared on January 1, 1964, and did allege that Oswald had the Hosty data in his possession.

SCOPE AND DISPOSITION OF THE RESULTS OF THE NOSENKO INTERVIEWS.

THE TEN INTERVIEWS WITH NOSENKO WERE WIDE RANGING, ENCOMPASSING ALL THOSE SUBJECTS, INCLUDING OSWALD'S ACTIVITIES, WHICH WERE OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INTEREST TO THE FBI. THE PRODUCT OF THIS EFFORT WAS EMBODIED IN A VOLUMINOUS SERIES OF LETTERHEAD MEMORANDA WHICH WERE RETAINED IN TWO VOLUMNS OF A SUB FILE OF NOSENKO'S MAIN FILE AT WASHINGTON FIELD. WITH REFERENCE TO TAPES AND TRANSCRIPTIONS, IT WAS NOT UNTIL OCTOBER, 1967, WHEN THE [REDACTED]

AND DISSEMINATE INFORMATION. IT WAS NOT UNTIL DECEMBER, 1968, THAT SA'S AT WASHINGTON FIELD FORMERLY JOINED WITH THE CIA IN THIS ENDEAVOR, THAT IS, INTERVIEWS WERE CONDUCTED WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH THE AGENCY AND THE BUREAU PRESENT WITH THE OBJECTIVE OF ESTABLISHING NOSENKO'S RELIABILITY. CONCLUSIONS.

1. TAPES WERE MADE OF SOME OF THE TEN FBI INTERVIEWS OF NOSENKO FROM FEBRUARY 24, 1964, TO APRIL 3, 1964. (S)

2. THE TAPES WERE NEITHER RETAINED NOR DESTROYED. WHY? THREE REASONS. ONE. GIVEN THE PENCHANT OF THE FBI TO RECORD THE DISPOSITION OF SIGNIFICANT MATERIAL, IT WOULD SEEM INCONCEIVABLE THAT THE AGENTS WOULD DISPOSE OF ITEMS DEEMED SIGNIFICANT WITHOUT RECORDING EITHER THEIR RETENTION OR DESTRUCTION. THE FACT THAT THE AGENTS TOOK "EXTENSIVE NOTES" DURING THE INTERVIEWS HAS LED THE REVIEWERS TO CONCLUDE THAT THE TAPES WERE USED AS INVESTIGATIVE AIDES TO VIEW THE VERACITY OF THE AGENTS NOTES. TWO. THERE WAS NO IMPELLING LEGAL REASON TO RETAIN THE TAPES. THEY WERE NOT RECORDED SURREPTIOUSLY BUT WITH THE FULL KNOWLEDGE OF THE INTERVIEWEE.

IN SUMMARY, WASHINGTON FIELD'S SEARCH INDICATES THAT TAPE RECORDINGS WERE MADE OF AT LEAST SOME OF THE INTERVIEWS REQUESTED BY THE HSCA; HOWEVER, THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE THAT THE TAPES WERE EITHER RETAINED, TRANSCRIBED, OR DESTROYED. [THE PROBABLE REASON FOR NOT RETAINING THE TAPES WAS THAT THE FBI AT THAT TIME INTERVIEWING NOSENKO NOT TO ESTABLISH HIS BONA FIDES BUT FOR THE COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INFORMATION HE COULD PROVIDE, CLUES TO UNRESOLVED ESPIONAGE CASES AS WELL AS ESPIONAGE CASES OF WHICH THE FBI WAS NOT PREVIOUSLY AWARE.] (S)(u) THE OBJECT WAS TO OBTAIN THE INFORMATION AND REDUCE IT TO A FORM FOR DISSEMINATION AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE SO THAT FBI AGENTS IN THE FIELD COULD BEGIN IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION.

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

In response to the request of HSCA concerning tapes or verbatim transcripts of interviews of Yuri Nosenko on February 26-27, 1964; March 3, 4, 6, 1964; and undated information appearing in an August 13, 1970, communication, all of which pertain to Oswald or the assassination of John F. Kennedy, an exhaustive search of the files of the Washington Field Office (WFO) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), was conducted. The results of the search failed to disclose the existence of the tapes or transcripts for the relevant period. The scope of the search, which involved the use of thirty-three Agents and two clerical employees, included all those files pertaining to Nosenko, Kennedy, and Oswald; the Washington Field Tape Library, the Tape Destruction and Retention File of Technical and Microphone Surveillances; the Nosenko Index; as well as the safe of the Special Agent in Charge.

Results of Search

The search did indicate that from February 24, 1964, until April 3, 1964, a series of ten interviews of Nosenko were conducted in English and Russian by Special Agents of the Washington Field Office [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] There were scattered references in the files (S-1)(C) reviewed that at least some of the interviews were taped. Specifically, in a memorandum dated March 26, 1964, the writer stated as follows: "During the interview of the (S-1) subject by Bureau Agents on February 24, 25, 26, 27, 1964, tape recordings of the conversations were made. There are a total of ten tapes covering these interviews. It is believed these should be retained for an indefinite period until subject's reliability has been properly established." However, there was no indication that this recommendation was ever acted upon. Further, there were no references in any communication coming out of the interviews that the tapes were either retained, transcribed, translated, or destroyed. It was noted in these communications that extensive notes were taken by the interviewing Agents.

SCOPE AND DISPOSITION OF THE RESULTS OF THE NOSENKO INTERVIEWS.

The ten interviews with Nosenko were wide ranging, encompassing many counterintelligence subjects, some of which referred to Oswald's activities. The product of this effort was embodied in a voluminous series of letterhead memoranda which were retained in two volumes of a sub file of Nosenko's main file at Washington Field. With reference to tapes and transcriptions, it was not until October, 1967, when the [REDACTED] CIA took over Nosenko [S-][C] debriefings, that a clearly defined systematic method was developed to interview, tape, transcribe, and disseminate information. It was not until December, 1968, that Special Agents at Washington Field formerly joined with the CIA in this endeavor, that is, interviews were conducted with representatives of both the Agency and the Bureau present with the objective of establishing Nosenko's reliability. (X) s-1

CONCLUSIONS

1. Tapes were made of some of the ten FBI interviews of Nosenko from February 24, 1964, to April 3, 1964.

2. The tapes were neither retained nor destroyed. Why? Three reasons. One, given the penchant of the FBI to record the disposition of significant material, it would seem inconceivable that the Agents would dispose of items deemed significant without recording either their retention or destruction. The fact that the Agents took "extensive notes" during the interviews has led the reviewers to conclude that the tapes were used as investigative aids to review the accuracy of the Agent's notes. Two, there was no compelling legal reason to retain the tapes. They were not recorded surreptitiously but with the full knowledge of the interviewee. Lastly, the FBI was not involved, at that point in time, in establishing Nosenko's bona fides, a responsibility of CIA, but rather, the FBI was most definitely interested in extracting the counterintelligence information Nosenko had to offer. The veracity of the information he provided would subsequently be established through investigation and thus was independent of the need to establish the reliability of the source. (S) (u)

(S) (u) In summary, Washington Field's search indicates that tape recordings were made of at least some of the interviews requested by the HSCA; however, there was no evidence that the tapes were either retained, transcribed, or destroyed. The probable reason for not retaining the tapes was that at that time the FBI interviewed Nosenko not to establish his bona fides, but to extract the counterintelligence information he could provide, clues to unresolved espionage cases as well as espionage cases of which the FBI was not previously aware. (S) The object was to obtain the information and reduce it to a form for dissemination as quickly as possible so that FBI Agents in the field could begin immediate investigation. Once this was done, the tapes and notes were disposed of as there was no compelling reason to retain either notes or tapes.

The material appearing in the April 13, 1970, communication did not contain any substantial information which was not previously furnished to the Bureau. Further, it was noted that the information pertaining to the Oswald and Kennedy assassination recorded on FD-302s for the dates February 26-27, 1964; March 3, 4, 6, 1964, was compared against information contained in Letterhead Memoranda furnished to the Bureau for the same dates. This information was found to be essentially verbatim.

Dear Dr. Peterson:

I have reviewed a copy of the document identified as having been originated by Mr. Walter Jenkins for the President of the United States on November 24, 1963. It bears the time 4:00 P.M. and purports to set forth the conversation of former FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

With the exception of the last paragraph on page 2, ending on line 13, page 3, which should be classified Secret, I find the other paragraphs are not classifiable.

Of particular concern in the classifiable paragraph is the language beginning with the word [REDACTED] b1

[REDACTED] (S) This language raises matters tending to disclose intelligence sources or methods, the continued protection of which is essential to national security and, therefore, such information is exempt from the General Declassification Schedule as provided under Executive Order 11652.

Your courtesy in bringing this matter to our attention is greatly appreciated. I am enclosing a copy of the document appropriately marked for classification and would ask that you ensure that the original document is protected accordingly.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover said as follows:

There is nothing further on the Oswald case except that he is dead. Last night we received a call in our Dallas office from a man talking in a calm voice and saying he was a member of a committee organized to kill Oswald. U

We at once notified the Chief of Police and he assured us Oswald would be given sufficient protection. This morning we called the Chief of Police again warning of the possibility of some effort against Oswald and he again assured us adequate protection would be given. However, this was not done. U

They brought him out of the City Jail and were taking him to the County Jail when a man stepped out and shot him in the stomach. This man was arrested at once. He goes under the name of Jack Leon Ruby but his real name is Rubenstein. He runs two night clubs in Dallas and has the reputation of being a homosexual. Immediately after the shooting, he (Oswald) was moved to Parkland Hospital and died about 45 minutes ago. We had an agent at the hospital in the hope that he might make some kind of a confession before he died but he did not do so. U

Ruby says no one was associated with him and denies having made the telephone call to our Dallas office last night. He says he bought the gun about three years ago and that he guessed his grief over the killing of the President made him insane. That was a pretty smart move on his part because it might lay the foundation for a plea of insanity later. U

might stop the Chief of Police and his staff from doing so damned much talking on television. They did not really have a case against Oswald until we gave them our information. We traced the weapon, we identified the handwriting, we identified the fingerprints on the brown bag. u

We were able to identify the bullets as coming from that gun. All the Dallas Police had was three witnesses who tentatively identified him as the man who shot the policeman and boarded a bus to go home shortly after the President was killed. He got on a bus to go home to get a shirt and the bus conductor tentatively identified him as the man who boarded the bus. u

Oswald had been saying he wanted John Abt as his lawyer and Abt, with only that kind of evidence, could have turned the case around, I'm afraid. All the talking down there might have required a change of venue on the basis that Oswald could not have gotten a fair trial in Dallas. If they keep on talking, perhaps the same will be true of Ruby. u

Chief of Police Curry I understand cannot control Capt. Fritz of the Homicide Squad, who is giving much information to the press. Since we now think it involves the Criminal Code on a conspiracy charge under Section 241, we want them to shut up. Furthermore, I have ordered the evidence be secured by the Police Department. We sent most of the evidence back to them. We still have the bullets that were fired and will keep them. u

The thing I am concerned about, and so is Mr. Katzenbach, is having something issued so we can convince the public that Oswald is the real assassin. Mr. Katzenbach thinks that the President might appoint a Presidential Commission of three outstanding citizens to make a determination. I countered with a suggestion that we make an investigative report to the Attorney General with pictures, laboratory work, etc. Then the Attorney General can make the report to the President and the President can decide whether to make it public. I felt this was better because there are several aspects which would complicate our foreign relations. [REDACTED] u

[REDACTED]

And since this has nothing to do with proof that Oswald committed the murder, I made the suggestion to Mr. Katzenbach that instead of a Presidential Commission, we do it with a Justice Department report based on an FBI report.

Oswald having been killed today after our warnings to the Dallas Police Department, was inexcusable. It will allow, I am afraid, a lot of civil rights people to raise a lot of hell because he was handcuffed and had no weapon. There are bound to be some elements of our society who will holler their heads off that his civil rights were violated -- which they were. U

We have no information on Ruby that is firm, although there are some rumors of underworld activity in Chicago. Of his two night clubs, one is a strip tease joint and the other is a liquor place. U

NOTE: The HSCA request of 3/17/78 deals primarily with information provided to us by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The bulk of the material prepared for HSCA access was reviewed by the CIA and, at their request, all CIA documents and information contained within our reports have been deleted. However, an oral briefing was also recommended in order to reasonably respond to this request. This briefing was conducted and, as a result, on 8/16/78, Miss Jacqueline Hess, HSCA, requested that the FBI respond in writing to the enumerated items set forth in the request of 3/17/78. This response was furnished on 8/30/78. The enclosed responds to the HSCA request of 12/4/78, which requests delivery of the material prepared in response to the 3/17/78 request, and additionally responds to the four enumerated questions regarding the delivered material. The enclosed is classified "Secret" as the original serials from which the information is derived are so classified.

This responds in full to a November 3, 1978, HSCA letter of request to the Attorney General signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Staff Director, HSCA.

In his letter, Mr. Blakey stated "... prior to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy,

Mr. Blakey then asked "What effect, if any, would a report of the above detailed information prior to the assassination have had on the manner in which the Federal Bureau of Investigation handled the Lee Harvey Oswald case?"

A retrospective review of the information revealed in your letter by personnel currently assigned to the Intelligence Division of FBI Headquarters, as well as a retrospective review by the same personnel of the conduct and supervision of the 1963 Oswald investigation, causes the current personnel to believe that a report of such information to the FBI, prior to the assassination, would not have had any significant effect on the manner in which the FBI handled the Oswald case in 1963.

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Based on a review of retrievable information in Bureau files and in coordination with the Intelligence Division, the fundamental reasons for our response, as presently set forth, are as follow:

(1) The FBI knew of Oswald's affiliation with the pro-Castro Fair Play for Cuba Committee by 4/21/63. It is the current opinion of the Intelligence Division that knowledge of further proclivities on Oswald's part toward Castro or Cuba would not necessarily have had a material or significant effect on the pre-assassination investigaiton. (U)

(2) ~~Prior to the assassination on 10/10/63, CIA~~
~~did advise the Bureau of Oswald's visit to the Soviet Embassy~~
~~in Mexico City.~~ ~~7/1/63~~ is the current opinion of the Intelligence Division that this classified information is the most significant of Oswald's contacts in Mexico City and was known by our case Agent in Dallas, Texas, on 10/18/63, however, he elected to hold the investigation in abeyance after 11/5/63, since he felt Oswald was employed in a non-strategic position with no access to sensitive information. (S)(U)

(4) The above information is contained in documents which have either been delivered to the HSCA or to which the HSCA has been granted in-house access. (U)

(5) Our answer is restricted solely to the elements of information which the HSCA seeks. No rationale is set forth in the letterhead memorandum (LHM) because the HSCA does not state a desire for same. In past request letters, the HSCA has explicitly indicated when it desired reasons for our answers. (U)

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

RE: INQUIRY CONCERNING PAGE 696 OF FBI, DALLAS
DIVISION REPORT OF SPECIAL AGENT (SA)
ROBERT P. GEMBERLING DATED DECEMBER 23, 1963.

On November 11, 1977, Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams met with Mr. G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, to discuss Committee matters, one of which involved the December 23, 1963, Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling captioned, "Lee Harvey Oswald . . ." (Bureau file 105-82555). The Committee was desirous of ascertaining why page 696 of the report was numbered similarly to page 672, whereas pages 673 through 701, exclusive of page 696, are numbered differently. Pages 672 through 701 relate to information derived from an address book found among the possessions of Lee Harvey Oswald. Page 696 is significant since it reflects information from the same page in the address book which also bears the name of SA James P. Hosty under the date of November 1, 1963, together with the address and telephone number of the Dallas Field Office and the incomplete license number of SA Hosty's Bureau car. The information regarding Hosty was not included in the December 23, 1963, Dallas report.

HSCA has recently interviewed and obtained testimony from SA John T. Kesler, Division 10, FBI Headquarters, and from former SA Robert P. Gemberling, Dallas, Texas, concerning this point. According to the Committee, these Agents can recall that page 672 is numbered differently because a 30-page

Dallas Office memorandum, prepared by SA Kesler, was converted to a report insert by SA Gemberling who recalled having the first page of the memorandum redone so it appeared as page 672 in the report. Neither Agent could recall what may have occasioned the redoing of page 25 of the Kesler memorandum which became page 696 of the report and which reflects the memorandum page number, "25," at the top left corner as does page 672, whereas all other pages from the original memorandum are numbered 1 through 30, exclusive of 1 and 25, at the bottom center, just above the report page numbers, 672 through 701.

On November 11, 1977, Mr. Adams instructed that research be undertaken to explain, if possible, why page 696 of the report is numbered in the same fashion as page 672.

Research to date has disclosed the following:

(1) Dallas Division has located a November 24, 1963, memorandum prepared by SA James P. Hosty setting forth some of the information appearing in the address book as it was made available to him on November 22, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department. This memorandum did not set forth the Hosty data appearing in the address book.

(2) Dallas Division has also located additional memoranda prepared by Hosty dated December 3, 1963, and December 20, 1963, which did set forth the fact that the Hosty data appeared in the Lee Harvey Oswald address book.

(3) By airtel of December 11, 1963, the Bureau furnished Dallas Division with photographs of the Oswald address book which Dallas Division had obtained from the Dallas Police Department on November 27, 1963, and submitted to the Bureau. These photos depicted the Hosty data appearing in the address book (Bureau file 105-82555-403).

(4) By airtel of December 19, 1963, Dallas Division furnished pages comparable to pages 672 through 701 of the December 23, 1963, report, except for the report page numbering, with the suggestion that these be provided to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) for review. The pages of this submission otherwise coincide with pages 672 and 696 of the December 23, 1963, report version. The Dallas dictator's initials are "WCD." (105-82555-1247)

This folder, which was 54 pages, dated 7/20/63, was not with the way with which it was written in that it does not reflect the SA Hosty data as they appeared in the address book.

(5) FBI Headquarters searches have located a tickler folder, last known to have been in the custody of the Intelligence Division, which includes a booklet containing pages comparable to those appearing as pages 672 through 701 in the December 23, 1963, report however, page 25, numbered according to what purports to be the original numbering of the Kesler memorandum and bearing the Dallas, Lee Harvey Oswald file number, 100-10461, and the dictator's initials "JTK," does reflect the SA Hosty data as they appeared in the address book.

REL. Long with an "REL" stamp in the Long to Dallas in my file

(6) The tickler folder also contained an unidentified document which has now been located in Bureau files and identified as a CIA analysis of Russian data appearing in the address book. It was furnished to the Bureau by CIA letter of February 4, 1964, (105-82555-2864) and forwarded to Dallas Division by Bureau airtel of February 7, 1964, which bore the Bureau dictator's initials "REL." Bureau letter to CIA of December 31, 1963, furnished data derived from the address book and requested CIA to provide any information it might develop (105-82555-1204). It was explained that the data furnished to CIA was supplied by the December 19, 1963, Dallas airtel and the communication bore the Bureau dictator's initials "ETP."

(7) Dallas Division has located a January 25, 1964, memorandum in file prepared by Special Agent in Charge (SAC) Shanklin referencing a Bureau telephone call from Section Chief William A. Branigan wherein Branigan inquired why Hosty's name had not been included in the December 23, 1963, report. The Bureau interest was generated by an article appearing in "The Nation" alleging Oswald had the Hosty data in his possession.

1111 address "Lead value" slip and my note "There is a lead value" in Hosty name in the address book. I did not know it was in the address book. I did not know it was in the address book. I did not know it was in the address book.

(8) A January 27, 1964, J. Edgar Hoover letter to the Warren Commission advised of the appearance of the Hosty data in Oswald's address book (105-82555-1517). Bureau dictator's initials on this communication are "REL." This letter was based, in part, on a Dallas teletype to the Bureau dated January 25, 1964, which referred to W. A. Branigan's telephone call of January 25, 1964, and stated Hosty's name had been omitted since only information of lead value had been set forth (105-82555-1666).

(9) Dallas Division ultimately furnished, by report of February 11, 1964, the Hosty data, as well as other data, derived from the address book, but which had been omitted from the December 23, 1963, report for the stated reason that they were not of lead value.

(10) The December 23, 1963, (105-82555-1212) and the February 11, 1964, (105-82555-2027) Dallas reports were disseminated to the Warren Commission on January 13, 1964, and February 19, 1964, respectively.

(11) By airtel dated February 7, 1964, Dallas Division also furnished amended pages to the December 23, 1963, report which included pages 672 through 701 (105-82555-2098). Copies were also furnished to New Orleans Division which received an information copy of the December 23, 1963, report.

(12) A Bureau airtel dated February 14, 1964, advised Dallas and New Orleans that the amended pages were not to be inserted in the December 23, 1963, report since the changes were not substantive and dealt primarily with page numbering of the original address book. The amended pages did not include the Hosty data (105-82555-2021). The SAC of the New Orleans Division reviewed the New Orleans, Lee Harvey Oswald file on November 15, 1977 and advised that pages 672 through 701 conformed to Bureau files.

(13) Former SA Gemberling and SA Kesler furnished affidavits dated February 25, 1964, Bureau file 105-82555-2243 and 105-82555-2244 respectively, which essentially explained the conversion of Kesler's office memorandum to a report insert and stated that the Hosty data was omitted from both the memorandum and report since it was not of lead value. These affidavits were furnished to the Warren Commission by Bureau letter dated February 27, 1964, (105-82555-2240).

(14) A Special Agent of the Dallas Division, has conducted exhaustive searches to locate the original Kesler memorandum without success. (Gemberling, in testimony, hypothesizes that the Kesler memorandum may have been destroyed following, or as a result of being incorporated into the report.)

(A) "gmf" - Gloria M. Frigo who was assigned to Dallas from St. Louis from December 1, 1963, to January 4, 1964.

(B) "mam" - Martha A. McBride who was assigned to Dallas from New Orleans from November 25, 1963, to December 22, 1963.

(C) "GJ" - Gloria G. Jackson who was assigned to Dallas from Kansas City from December 1, 1963, to February 22, 1964.

On November 15, 1977, Mr. Adams met with Director Kelley, to advise him of findings to date. The Director approved further exploration of this matter proposed by Mr. Adams and authorized contact with HSCA in order to obtain the recent testimony of Messrs. Kesler and Gemberling before that Committee, as well as any other relevant information the Committee may be able to produce.

Accordingly, Mr. Adams contacted Chief Counsel Blakey, HSCA, on November 15, 1977, and advised him of the Bureau's intent to pursue this matter in an effort to resolve, if possible, the questions regarding page 696 of the December 23, 1963, report. Mr. Blakey advised Mr. Adams that should research or inquiry illumine any fact or circumstance that might refresh Keeler's and Gemberling's memory with regard to page 696 of the December 23, 1963, report, the Committee would welcome their reappearance to amplify or correct any previous testimony.

Contacts with HSCA staff members resulted in the November 22, 1977, interview of an HSCA senior staff counsel and staff researcher during which they presented the details known to them which occasioned the November 11, 1977, inquiry as follows:

Michael Goldsmith, Senior Staff Counsel, and Robert W. Genzman, Researcher, Select Committee on Assassinations, U. S. House of Representatives, were aware of the personal and official identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the inquiry which pertained to certain Committee staff members' concern over an investigative report prepared by the Dallas Field Office of the FBI, dated December 23, 1963. Mr. Goldsmith was the principal interviewee and he advised as follows:

Certain Committee staff members were concerned that page 696 of the December 23, 1963, report by former Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling, titled "Lee Harvey Oswald . . .," appeared to have been redone during preparation in order to exclude the name of FBI Special Agent James P. Hosty, his office address, telephone number and official vehicle license number which did appear in an address book identified as the property of Lee Harvey Oswald. Since pages 672 through 701 of the report purported to set forth the contents of Oswald's address book, it was felt that page 696 of the report should have reflected the Hosty data since other data from the same page in the address book appeared there.

Committee staff research had disclosed that Gemberling previously explained to the FBI and ultimately to the Warren Commission by affidavit dated February 25, 1964, that he utilized a 30-page office memorandum prepared by SA John T. Kesler in order to set forth the address book data in the December 23, 1963, report. Gemberling explained he had redone the first page of Kesler's memorandum in order to convert the memorandum to a report insert which appeared in the report as report pages numbered 672 through 701. This conversion resulted in the original memorandum numbering of 2 through 30 appearing on the bottom of pages 673 through 695 and 697 through 701 just above the report page numbering. Page 672 bears a page number "1" in the upper left corner and page 696 bears a page number "25" in the upper left corner.

Interviewed on November 22, 1977 Washington, D. C.File # 62-100060by Special Agent [REDACTED]Date dictated November 28, 1977~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

House Select Committee on Assassinations

Committee staff members have hypothesized that since a previous Gemberling admission explained the redoing of page 1 of the original memorandum, it stands to reason that page 696 was also redone, possibly to omit the Hosty data which may have appeared in the original memorandum. To explain this and other matters, the Committee staff requested the appearance of former Special Agent Gemberling and Special Agent Kesler.

Former Special Agent Gemberling was interviewed by Committee staff members on November 8, 1977, but the inconsistency with regard to page 696 was not specifically addressed at that time. At the conclusion of the interview, former Special Agent Gemberling was advised that questioning would address the issue of page 696 during his formal testimony on November 9, 1977. To prepare Gemberling, Committee staff members provided him with copies of pertinent pages from the December 23, 1963, report, the February 11, 1964, report which did report the Hosty data from the address book, the affidavits executed by Kesler and Gemberling on February 25, 1964, and a Xeroxed copy of the address book. Upon presentment of these items, Gemberling volunteered to Committee staff members that he noticed the difference in numbering on page 696.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that during testimony on November 9, 1977, Gemberling recalled as follows:

During December, 1963, FBI Headquarters furnished the Dallas Field Office with photocopies of the address book and translations of the Russian language entries and instructed Dallas to transcribe the Oswald address book and set out investigative leads on all parties mentioned. Gemberling then instructed Kesler to identify every entry, the significance of which was unknown, in order that leads might be set out based on such entries. Gemberling did not feel that the wording in the December 23, 1963, report gave rise to an inference that the complete contents of the address book were listed in that report. He maintained that the only reason the Hosty data did not appear in the report was because Kesler had not included it in his original memorandum. Had Kesler included it, Gemberling probably would not have noticed it during his preparation of the report. The reason Kesler did not include the Hosty data was simply because it was of no lead value.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that in an effort to pursue the "lead value" notion he asked Gemberling if the FBI knew the significance of the Governor Connally, Ruth Paine, Robert W. Oswald and Mrs. M. Oswald entries by December 23, 1963. When Gemberling replied in the affirmative, he was then asked why these names were included in the December 23, 1963, reporting of the address book, whereas the Hosty data were omitted. Gemberling seemed to recall that perhaps this occurred because addresses or telephone numbers in connection with those persons may have required checking out. When asked why address book entries such as "Book 1984 - Oswald" or "Socks - 25," "Hat - 56," "Shoes - 40-41" and "Shirts - 37" were included in the report, Gemberling responded that these may have been some code or were of unknown significance and, therefore, Kesler included them because he was not sure.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he questioned Gemberling about his affidavit of February 25, 1964, and asked why the affidavit specifically mentioned the redoing of page 1 of Kesler's memorandum, but no mention was made of redoing page 25 of that memorandum. Gemberling replied that he wished the record to show that he had no intention to mislead and he did not recall why page 25 may have been redone. Gemberling admitted that page 25 (696) appeared to be an inconsistency, that the Hosty data would have appeared on page 25 (696) and that the bottom margin on page 25 (696) was greater or wider than other pertinent pages. Gemberling denied that he discussed the omission of the Hosty data with Kesler or any other Agent prior to December 23, 1963. Referring to Gemberling's affidavit, he was asked how he was able to assume that Kesler knew all about Hosty and, therefore, did not include the Hosty data, whereupon Gemberling replied that he arrived at this conclusion because Kesler and Hosty worked in the same room at the Dallas Field Office. Gemberling also advised that he was aware that all reports were being disseminated to the Warren Commission and furthermore that the inclusion of the Hosty data in Oswald's address book was known to the media in December, 1963, whereupon Mr. Goldsmith informed him that this information was not known to the media until approximately January 1, 1964, when it appeared in a "Houston Post" article.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he directed Gemberling's attention to the February 11, 1964, report where the Hosty data were reported and asked if Gemberling thought the Hosty entry in the address book was significant at that time. Gemberling replied in the negative and when asked why he mentioned this fact in the synopsis of the February 11, 1964, report he then contradicted himself and said it would have been significant for him to mention it in the synopsis.

Someone else prepared Hosty?
Mr. Goldsmith advised that Gemberling agreed that his and Kesler's affidavits of February 25, 1964, contained common language but Gemberling denied that he prepared Kesler's affidavit, although he may have called Kesler to refresh Kesler's memory. Gemberling stated that he may have read his affidavit to Kesler over the telephone since Kesler could not be expected to remember all the details, however, Gemberling could not otherwise recall this incident specifically.

Mr. Goldsmith advised as follows with regard to Special Agent John T. Kesler:

Kesler was interviewed by Committee staff members on November 8, 1977, and testified on November 10, 1977. After his interview, and in order to refresh his memory, Kesler was provided with the same material as was Gemberling. The Committee staff chose to interview Kesler because it wished to avail itself of his perspective on the FBI's investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy. Certain Committee staff members were dissatisfied in Kesler's testimony since they perceived that Kesler was not at all candid in his responses. In this regard, they found it hard to believe Kesler when he denied that FBI Agents working on the assassination case ever discussed possible conspiracy theories among themselves. In addition, Kesler seemed angered by Committee staff questioning and was reluctant to provide his personal opinions or impressions of matters under discussion.

See p 9
Kesler reiterated the "lead rationale" that caused him to omit the Hosty data from his memorandum. Upon further questioning, he stated that while he knew Hosty was the Agent handling the Oswald case, he did not know Hosty by sight. Kesler did state that upon noting the Hosty data in the address book, he verified the office telephone number and the automobile license number. When asked about the inclusion of other entries from the address book that might not have been of lead value, he stated that he included all entries which were of unknown significance to him. Kesler was asked why he did not attempt to verify such entries as Mrs. Ruth Paine as he did with Hosty, whereupon he replied that such a procedure would have been too time consuming. Kesler reiterated that if he did not know the lead value of an entry, he certainly included it and where he knew it was of no lead value, he excluded it. He was then asked about certain entries that he excluded and was forced to admit that he did not know the significance of some of the entries he omitted.

Kesler recalled that his affidavit of February 25, 1964, was probably prepared as a result of talking to someone in the Dallas Field Office, but not necessarily Gemberling, and he admitted both affidavits contained some identical language.

Further questioning caused Kesler to admit that the Hosty data may have been significant since supervisors in the FBI chain of command may have wished to follow up on the possibility that Hosty was involved in a conspiracy to assassinate the President or that Hosty had been identified as a target by Lee Harvey Oswald.

Mr. Goldsmith stated that this line of questioning apparently irritated Kesler to the extent that he exited the Committee hearing room while the Chairman was still in the process of excusing him.

Mr. Goldsmith advised that he would attempt to secure Committee approval to furnish Committee transcripts of the Gemberling and Kesler testimony to the FBI.

Additional research through files at FBI Headquarters and the Dallas Division of the FBI has thus far failed to produce any information that would explain the redaction of page 696.

On November 28, 1977, Mr. S. Robert Blakey advised that he was attempting to secure permission from the Committee Chairman to furnish the FBI with the transcripts of the testimony given to the Committee by SA John T. Kesler and former SA Robert P. Gemberling.

On December 1, 1977, Congressman Louis Stokes, Chairman, HSCA, provided the transcripts of Kesler's and Gemberling's testimony to the FBI with the proviso that they were only for the internal use of the FBI and the U. S. Department of Justice and were not to be made public. A review of these transcripts discloses that they substantially agree with the information provided by Committee staff members on November 22, 1977.

On December 5, 1977, the Dallas Division located a "Houston Post" article which appeared on January 1, 1964, and did allege that Oswald had the Hosty data in his possession.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

In response to the request of HSCA concerning tapes or verbatim transcripts of interviews of Yuri Nosenko on February 26-27, 1964; March 3, 4, 6, 1964; and undated information appearing in an August 13, 1970, communication, all of which pertain to Oswald or the assassination of John F. Kennedy, an exhaustive search of the files of the Washington Field Office (WFO) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), was conducted. The results of the search failed to disclose the existence of the tapes or transcripts for the relevant period. The scope of the search, which involved the use of thirty-three Agents and two clerical employees, included all those files pertaining to Nosenko, Kennedy, and Oswald; the Washington Field Tape Library, the Tape Destruction and Retention File of Technical and Microphone Surveillances; the Nosenko Index; as well as the safe of the Special Agent in Charge.

Results of Search

The search did indicate that from February 24, 1964, until April 3, 1964, a series of ten interviews of Nosenko were conducted in English and Russian by Special Agents of the Washington Field Office.

There were scattered references in the files (S-1)(C) reviewed that at least some of the interviews were taped. Specifically, in a memorandum dated March 26, 1964, the writer stated as follows: "During the interview of the () subject by Bureau Agents on February 24, 25, 26, 27, 1964, tape recordings of the conversations were made. There are a total of ten tapes covering these interviews. It is believed these should be retained for an indefinite period until subject's reliability has been properly established." However, there was no indication that this recommendation was ever acted upon. Further, there were no references in any communication coming out of the interviews that the tapes were either retained, transcribed, translated, or destroyed. It was noted in these communications that extensive notes were taken by the interviewing Agents.

SCOPE AND DISPOSITION OF THE RESULTS OF THE NOSENKO INTERVIEWS.

The ten interviews with Nosenko were wide ranging, encompassing many counterintelligence subjects, some of which referred to Oswald's activities. The product of this effort was embodied in a voluminous series of letterhead memoranda which were retained in two volumes of a sub file of Nosenko's main file at Washington Field. With reference to tapes and transcriptions, it was not until October, 1967, when the [REDACTED] CIA took over Nosenko [S-7] [C] debriefings, that a clearly defined systematic method was developed to interview, tape, transcribe, and disseminate information. It was not until December, 1968, that Special Agents at Washington Field formerly joined with the CIA in this endeavor, that is, interviews were conducted with representatives of both the Agency and the Bureau present with the objective of establishing Nosenko's reliability. (X) s-1

CONCLUSIONS

1. Tapes were made of some of the ten FBI interviews of Nosenko from February 24, 1964, to April 3, 1964. S;

2. The tapes were neither retained nor destroyed. Why? Three reasons. One, given the penchant of the FBI to record the disposition of significant material, it would seem inconceivable that the Agents would dispose of items deemed significant without recording either their retention or destruction. The fact that the Agents took "extensive notes" during the interviews has led the reviewers to conclude that the tapes were used as investigative aids to review the accuracy of the Agent's notes. Two, there was no compelling legal reason to retain the tapes. They were not recorded surreptitiously but with the full knowledge of the interviewee. Lastly, the FBI was not involved, at that point in time, in establishing Nosenko's bona fides, a responsibility of CIA, but rather, the FBI was most definitely interested in extracting the counterintelligence information Nosenko had to offer. The veracity of the information he provided would subsequently be established through investigation and thus was independent of the need to establish the reliability of the source. (S) (u)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON ASSISINATIONS HSCA

(S-1) (u) In summary, Washington Field's search indicates that tape recordings were made of at least some of the interviews requested by the HSCA; however, there was no evidence that the tapes were either retained, transcribed, or destroyed. The probable reason for not retaining the tapes was that at that time the FBI interviewed Nosenko not to establish his bona fides, but to extract the counterintelligence information he could provide, clues to unresolved espionage cases as well as espionage cases of which the FBI was not previously aware. (S) The object was to obtain the information and reduce it to a form for dissemination as quickly as possible so that FBI Agents in the field could begin immediate investigation. Once this was done, the tapes and notes were disposed of as there was no compelling reason to retain either notes or tapes.

The material appearing in the April 13, 1970, communication did not contain any substantial information which was not previously furnished to the Bureau. Further, it was noted that the information pertaining to the Oswald and Kennedy assassination recorded on FD-302s for the dates February 26-27, 1964; March 3, 4, 6, 1964, was compared against information contained in Letterhead Memoranda furnished to the Bureau for the same dates. This information was found to be essentially verbatim.

CONCLUSIONS.

1. TAPES WERE MADE OF SOME OF THE TEN FBI INTERVIEWS OF NOSENKO FROM FEBRUARY 24, 1964, TO APRIL 3, 1964. (S)

2. THE TAPES WERE NEITHER RETAINED NOR DESTROYED. WHY? THREE REASONS. ONE. THE FACT THAT THE AGENTS TOOK "EXTENSIVE NOTES" DURING THE INTERVIEWS HAS LED THE REVIEWERS TO CONCLUDE THAT THE TAPES WERE USED AS INVESTIGATIVE AIDES TO VIEW THE VERACITY OF THE AGENTS NOTES. TWO. THERE WAS NO IMPELLING LEGAL REASON TO RETAIN THE TAPES. THEY WERE NOT RECORDED SURREPTIOUSLY BUT WITH THE FULL KNOWLEDGE OF THE INTERVIEWEE.

Dear Dr. Peterson:

I have reviewed a copy of the document identified as having been originated by Mr. Walter Jenkins for the President of the United States on November 24, 1963. It bears the time 4:00 P.M. and purports to set forth the conversation of former FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

With the exception of the last paragraph on page 2, ending on line 13, page 3 which should be classified Secret, I find the other paragraphs are not classifiable.

Of particular concern in the classifiable paragraph is the language beginning with the word [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] (S) This language raises matters tending to disclose intelligence sources or methods, the continued protection of which is essential to national security and, therefore, such information is exempt from the General Declassification Schedule as provided under Executive Order 11652.

Your courtesy in bringing this matter to our attention is greatly appreciated. I am enclosing a copy of the document appropriately marked for classification and would ask that you ensure that the original document is protected accordingly.

Very truly yours,

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover said as follows:

There is nothing farther on the Oswald case except that he is dead. Last night we received a call in our Dallas office from a man talking in a calm voice and saying he was a member of a committee organized to kill Oswald. U

We at once notified the Chief of Police and he assured us Oswald would be given sufficient protection. This morning we called the Chief of Police again warning of the possibility of some effort against Oswald and he again assured us adequate protection would be given. However, this was not done. U

They brought him out of the City Jail and were taking him to the County Jail when a man stepped out and shot him in the stomach. This man was arrested at once. He goes under the name of Jack Leon Ruby but his real name is Rubenstein. He runs two night clubs in Dallas and has the reputation of being a homosexual. Immediately after the shooting, he (Oswald) was moved to Parkland Hospital and died about 45 minutes ago. We had an agent at the hospital in the hope that he might make some kind of a confession before he died but he did not do so. U

Ruby says no one was associated with him and denies having made the telephone call to our Dallas office last night. He says he bought the gun about three years ago and that he guessed his grief over the killing of the President made him insane. That was a pretty smart move on his part because it might lay the foundation for a plea of insanity later. U

might stop the Chief of Police and his staff from doing so damned much talking on television. They did not really have a case against Oswald until we gave them our information. We traced the weapon, we identified the handwriting, we identified the fingerprints on the brown bag. U

We were able to identify the bullets as coming from that gun. All the Dallas Police had was three witnesses who tentatively identified him as the man who shot the policeman and boarded a bus to go home shortly after the President was killed. He got on a bus to go home to get a shirt and the bus conductor tentatively identified him as the man who boarded the bus. U

Oswald had been saying he wanted John Abt as his lawyer and Abt, with only that kind of evidence, could have turned the case around, I'm afraid. All the talking down there might have required a change of venue on the basis that Oswald could not have gotten a fair trial in Dallas. If they keep on talking, perhaps the same will be true of Ruby. U

Chief of Police Curry I understand cannot control Capt. Fritz of the Homicide Squad, who is giving much information to the press. Since we now think it involves the Criminal Code on a conspiracy charge under Section 2-11, we want them to shut up. Furthermore, I have ordered the evidence be secured by the Police Department. We sent most of the evidence back to them. We still have the bullets that were fired and will keep them. U

The thing I am concerned about, and so is Mr. Katzenbach, is having something issued so we can convince the public that Oswald is the real assassin. Mr. Katzenbach thinks that the President might appoint a Presidential Commission of three outstanding citizens to make a determination. I countered with a suggestion that we make an investigative report to the Attorney General with pictures, laboratory work, etc. Then the Attorney General can make the report to the President and the President can decide whether to make it public. I felt this was better because there are several aspects which would complicate our foreign relations. U

Oswald having been killed today after our warnings to the Dallas Police Department, was inexcusable. It will allow, I am afraid, a lot of civil rights people to raise a lot of hell because he was handcuffed and had no weapon. There are bound to be some elements of our society who will holler their heads off that his civil rights were violated -- which they were. U

We have no information on Ruby that is firm, although there are some rumors of underworld activity in Chicago. Of his two night clubs, one is a strip tease joint and the other is a liquor place. U

Dear Dr. Peterson:

In response to your inquiry of August 29, 1978, and with reference to my letter of July 18, 1978, I have again reviewed the document identified as having been originated by Mr. Walter Jenkins for the President of the United States on November 24, 1963.

Please refer to the copy of the document previously furnished which was appropriately marked for classification. Additionally, please note the vertical line appearing in the left margin, next to the classified paragraph. As I previously advised, the language beginning with the words b1 (S) [REDACTED] is of particular concern for the reasons stated. This language must remain classified and its 'Secret' classification is not negotiable. I have further taken the liberty of confirming this classification with the originator of a part of the protected language.

Accordingly, you may consider the first four sentences of the questioned paragraph on page 2 and the last sentence of the questioned paragraph on page 3 as unclassified.

Thank you for your continued interest and cooperation. Since Deputy Assistant Attorney General Robert L. Keuch is the Department of Justice official cognizant of matters relating to the House Select Committee on Assassinations, I am forwarding a copy of this response to him.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Blakey then asked "What affect, if any, would a report of the above detailed information prior to the assassination have had on

A retrospective review of the information revealed in your

D. Ryan to Mr. Bassett
RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Based on a review of retrievable information in Bureau files and in coordination with the Intelligence Division, the fundamental reasons for our response, as presently set forth, are as follow:

(1) The FBI knew of Oswald's affiliation with the pro-Castro Fair Play for Cuba Committee by 4/21/63. It is the current opinion of the Intelligence Division that knowledge of further proclivities on Oswald's part toward Castro or Cuba would not necessarily have had a material or significant effect on the pre-assassination investigation. (U)

classified in 1978-1988 or 1964*

(2) ~~Prior to the assassination on 10/10/63, CIA~~
did advise the Bureau of Oswald's visit to the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City. ~~It is the current opinion of the Intelligence~~ Division that this classified information is the most significant of Oswald's contacts in Mexico City and was known by our case Agent in Dallas, Texas, on 10/18/63, however, he elected to hold the investigation in abeyance after 11/5/63, since he felt Oswald was employed in a nonstrategic position with no access to sensitive information. (S)(U)

(3)

(4) The above information is contained in documents which have either been delivered to the HSCA or to which the HSCA has been granted in-house access. (U)

(5) Our answer is restricted solely to the elements of information which the HSCA seeks. No rationale is set forth in the letterhead memorandum (LHM) because the HSCA does not state a desire for same. In past request letters, the HSCA has explicitly indicated when it desired reasons for our answers. (U)

RE: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

(6) Since the HSCA does not explicitly request our rationale, it is the opinion of the Congressional Inquiry Unit, Records Management Division, and Section CI - 1, Intelligence Division, ~~that~~ ^{that} an exposition of the classified information involved in this rationale is not warranted at this time. APR 12 1978

The Honorable Harold Brown
Secretary of Defense
Washington, D. C. 20301

Attention: Mr. John G. Kester
Special Assistant to the Secretary

Dear Mr. Secretary:

In connection with its investigation of the death of President John F. Kennedy, the Select Committee on Assassinations requests access to any and all records, including classified material, concerning or referring to investigations into Lee Harvey Oswald's background by the 112 Military Intelligence Group, headquartered in San Antonio, Texas, and commanded by Lt. Col. Robert E. Jones, U.S.A. (social security number: 413-12-6382; date of birth: November 6, 1920). These investigations, conducted circa 1963, dealt with, among other things, Oswald's military background, defection to the Soviet Union, marriage, return to the United States, and addresses, and included a personality profile and an "after action" (summary) report.

In addition, the Committee requests that the Department of Defense provide the following information:

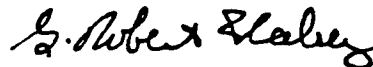

1. A detailed written statement explaining why a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald that is in the possession of either the Office of Naval Intelligence or the Office of Naval Investigations is contained in an envelope marked "REC'd 14 Nov 63" and "CIA 77978."

It is the Committee's belief that the photograph was taken by the United States Marine Corps upon Oswald's induction into the service in 1956. The envelope is in fact marked "Date of photo 28 Dec 56."

Your statement should address the following questions: Did the Central Intelligence Agency request this photograph? If so, when and under what circumstances? Was the photograph ever sent to the CIA? If so, when and under what circumstances? If the photograph was requested but was not sent, please explain the circumstances.

2. A written list of those persons at the Office of Naval Intelligence and at the Office of Naval Investigations who were either connected with, responsible for, or knowledgeable about files pertaining to Oswald.
3. A detailed written statement explaining why Oswald's September 4, 1959 passport application (labeled Commission Exhibit No. 1114 by the Warren Commission) makes reference to Oswald's inactive military identification card ("MCR/Inactive I.D. Card #N4,271,617 SUBMITTED") which, according to military records (Commission's Folsom Ex. 1, pp. 10, 66), was not issued to Oswald until September 11, 1959.

THE RECORDS RETENTION PLAN AS PROJECTED BY THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS SERVICE

Foreword

Authority. Retention Plans are prepared under the authority contained in Section 505(b) of the Federal Records Act of 1950. This Act directs that the "Administrator of General Services shall establish standards for the selective retention of records of continuing value, and assist Federal agencies in applying such standards to records in their custody; ..." See Federal Property Management Regulations (Title 41, Code of Federal Regulations, Subchapter B—Archives and Records. Subpart 101-11.4—Disposition of Federal Records, Sec. 101-11.403-2, Records retention and disposal standards.

Purpose, Importance and Use. This plan is designed to help you in disposing of your agency's records. Its primary purpose is to designate records that have enduring archival value, in order to ensure their preservation. Once such records have been identified, the disposition of all other records will be made easier and faster.

The plan is in two parts. In Part I the National Archives and Records Service has established standards for the selective retention of records for permanent preservation in relation to the agency's functions and has designated the classes of records under each function that should be preserved.

In Part II the agency records officer will identify the specific series, or segments of series of records that fall within the classes designated in the first part.

When completed, the plan will provide you with the basis for a comprehensive records disposition program.

It can be used to effect the orderly segregation and retirement of your records of enduring value.

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It can be used to obtain authority to dispose of all your other records, which may be listed on Requests for Disposal Authority (Standard Form 115) in whatever way suits your needs.

It will be used by NARS in evaluating records listed on your Requests for Disposal Authority.

It will also be used by NARS in surveying the records disposition activities of your agency.

An approved Retention Plan can be revised cooperatively by the agency and NARS if there are significant changes in the agency's functions and organization that affect the established standards.

Introduction

Although the post of Attorney General has existed since September 24, 1789 and the Department of Justice since 1870, and funds have been provided for the "detection and prosecution of crimes against the United States" since March 3, 1871, it was not until July 26, 1908 that the Attorney General directed that all requests for investigations be referred to the Chief Examiner, who was also charged with keeping the records of the special agents on their investigations. The next year this administrative unit was formally designated the Bureau of Investigation. On July 1, 1932 it became the United States Bureau of Investigation. By Executive Order 6166, effective August 10, 1933, the Division of Investigation was created in the Department of Justice, absorbing the United States Bureau of Investigation and the Prohibition Bureau. In 1935 it became the Federal Bureau of Investigation by Congressional enactment.

The Bureau handles some 181 fact-finding investigative areas including Federal Criminal violations, internal security matters, and civil inquiries in which the Government has an interest, and performs other duties specifically imposed by law, Presidential directive, or under instructions by the Attorney General.

The present organizational structure of the Bureau includes a central office and numerous field offices. The central office in Washington, D.C., consists of an Office of the Director and the following divisions: Administrative, Crime Records, Domestic Intelligence, Files and Communications, General Investigative, Identification, Inspection, Laboratory, Special Investigative and Training. All investigative work is handled by the 59 field offices, each headed by a Special Agent in Charge (except for New York headed by an Assistant Director), with over 500 Resident Agencies (suboffices) in the United States and in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

[REDACTED] (C) (b)(1)

Rationale of NARS Recommendations

The recommendations made in Part I of the Records Retention Plan are standards established by the National Archives and Records Service in relation to the functions and activities of the Bureau. The standards represent decisions concerning the extent to which the functions should be documented permanently for archival purposes. The standards set forth under Functions 1 and 2 identify those records that contain information about the organizational structure and functions of the Bureau. The preservation of such documents is required under Section 506 (a) of the Federal Records Act of 1950, which specifies that "the head of each Federal agency shall cause to be made and preserved records containing adequate and proper documentation of the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, and essential transactions of the agency. . . ." With specific reference to the Bureau, these standards are applicable to the records documenting the organization and functions of antecedent units as well.

The bulk of the central files maintained at the FBI headquarters in Washington, D.C., are those produced in the execution of its investigative functions in the field offices, in response to communications or upon order of the President or the Attorney General. These records have long-term administrative value to the Bureau but most of them do not contain sufficient information of enduring value for secondary research, that is private research or research for nonadministrative purposes. Moreover, much of the information of research value contained in these and other records received from citizens and Federal, State and local governmental agencies has been extracted in statistical or narrative form and is available in general and special publications, the Bureau Annual Reports, and the monthly Uniform Crime Reports. Some of the records, however, have been designated for retention primarily because they document various aspects of the Bureau's operations.

Ordinarily the records of a Federal agency that are worthy of permanent retention amount to a rather small percentage of the total volume of records generated. Many of the records produced by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, however, relate to a number of controversial if not important aspects of the history of the United States, particularly to the role of the Federal Government in its relation to its citizens. To be sure, many years will pass before these records can be made available to the public for historical and other serious research. Nevertheless, the archival value of these records will not decrease nor will interest in them dissipate.

Between February and October 1920 the FBI correspondence and other records documenting the activities of the agency personnel, was filed (temporarily) in the classified Central Files of the Department of Justice, that had been organized six years earlier. Since 1924 the FBI has maintained its own similarly classified central subject file. The same class number frequently covers the same subject area in both central files. For example classes 23, 25, 26, 28, 31, 40, 45 and 46 are the same subject in the Department and Bureau Central Files. On the other hand, administrative matters are under different class numbers as are also many subject areas.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The FBI adds new class or subject numbers as additional responsibilities are assigned to the Bureau by the President, the Congress or the Attorney General. There have been 181 class numbers established to date, seventy-seven percent of which are still in use. Two subclass numbers bring together general material. Subclass "0" is used for general inquiries or complaints in a subject area. No specific incident or item is mentioned, or the FBI does not have jurisdiction in the matter mentioned in the document and no investigation is undertaken by the FBI. Subclass "00" is used to bring together policy and procedural material in the subject area. This material, however, may be scattered throughout the class files.

Each document carries a classification number and a file number assigned in sequence, many of which are now six-digit numbers. A General Index of subject matter and cross reference cards now contains some 54 million entries. In addition, an abstract of the contents of each document is filed by source and numbers.

In view of the fact that the field office records consist of copies of monthly administrative reports and reports on investigations carried on in the field and forwarded to FBI Headquarters (with the exception of related backup material), the field records generally are not complete and need not be retained any longer than administrative needs require access to the backup material. Administrative or instructional material sent to the Field Office from FBI Headquarters will also be a matter of record at the source. If, however, any portion of the field records is, or becomes, unique and if they fall into any of the categories described in Part I of this Plan, they, too, may be considered for preservation in lieu of those identified for preservation at headquarters.

Much of the documentation identified for preservation under

Items 5 and 6 has evidential and/or informational value to the specialized searcher who will be using these records in the distant future.

Although the indexes, both vertical and horizontal, are not itemized in this plan, it should be noted that the index cards or slips which serve as finding aids to the records selected for preservation should be retained with the archives to which they relate. Consequently, when the time comes for retiring the records of enduring value from those chiefly of administrative value, the appropriate index cards and cross references should also be segregated and retained for convenience in use.

House Committee on Assassinations

MAY 11/77

Many coincidences arise between the three major assassinations of the sixties, those of John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King and Robert F. Kennedy. In all three the possibility of a conspiracy was never allowed to arise. After John F. Kennedy's murder the white house press secretary immediately announced that it was the "work of one lone madman". At this time, he was aware of the CIA's attempts to murder Castro and of Castro's threat to retaliate. Also, James Earl Ray was a "loner" as was Sirhan Sirhan. Ramparts Magazine reported during the Robert Kennedy investigation that the authorities would like to "bury" the conspiracy theory". Investigators in this matter were given the message "cool the conspiracy". Yet, Sirhan Sirhan not only had communist associates but had in his possession at that time a book, "History Will Absolve Me", by Fidel Castro. A stamp inside the front cover indicated it came from the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee."

This committee was organized and controlled by C.P. and S.W.P. members in the early 1960's. Funds sponsoring its activities came directly from the Cuban government. It dissolved in the United States in 12/63 because of bad publicity it received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by Lee Harvey Oswald. Lee Harvey Oswald was an active leader and organizer in the F.P.E.C. Although it dissolved in the United States, a branch remained active in Toronto, Canada through 1968. James Earl Ray fled to Toronto immediately after the King assassination, where he had previously met with "Raoul", a mysterious latin. Raoul, according to Ray, directed King's assassination. Canadian officials recently expelled Cubans for recruiting mercenaries for Rhodesia. James Earl Ray was headed for Rhodesia at the time of his arrest in London.

62-117290-191-1 XEROX

Lee Harvey Oswald and James Earl Ray were both known to have been in Mexico a short time prior to the killings. Oswald was in Mexico City during September and October, 1963. He was at both the Cuban and Russian Embassies and met with Valeri Vladimirovich Kostikov, the Soviet's second secretary.

Kostikov was not only a member of the KGB, but assigned to its secret Executive Action Department. The KGB (Komitet Gosudartrennoy Bezopasnosti) or the Committee for State Security, is the Soviet Secret Police which has always ruled the Soviet Union and sought to rule others. Its Executive Action Department has been responsible for political murders, kidnappings and sabotage throughout the world. These actions are called "Wet Affairs" by the KGB because they often call for the spilling of blood. In 1963 the KGB reportedly made a drastic change in its assassination policies and decided that political assassinations should not be handled by Soviet personnel, but foreign criminals or agents of other nationalities. This type should be hired, as they could not be easily linked to the Soviet Union.

It is obvious to any interested reader of history that the findings of the Warren Commission were incomplete and that this apparently occurred because of guidance from the white house.

The international situation was such at the time that the president feared a nuclear war if all the facts were known. Thus it was felt that it was in the best interests of the people of the United States and of the world, the Warren Report reached the conclusion it did, that being: Oswald acted alone.

Certainly, there was a conspiracy connected with James Earl Ray's escape from the Missouri State Penitentiary. His brother visited him the day before his escape and knew he was coming out in the bread truck. Fellow prisoners working in the bakery loaded the bread box with him in it onto the truck which was to go to Renz prison farm. He purchased a small radio at the prison commissary the day before his escape to listen to news broadcasts while fleeing. ^{THIS RADIO WAS FOUND IN MEMPHIS.} A Wanted notice was sent out to other law enforcement agencies by Missouri State Penitentiary after Ray's escape. This was prepared by prisoners working in the Print Shop. Although it contained Ray's picture and stated he was wanted for escape, the fingerprints and F.B.I. number were not identical with his.

AN Authority on James Earl Ray, a man who wrote his life story, George McMillan, is married to a Priscilla Johnson. In 1959 as a reporter, she interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald in Moscow, Russia during his defection there. She also was a confidant of Marina Oswald after her husband's death, and given exclusive rights to her story. A STORY NEVER PUBLISHED.

IRONICALLY The first time the names of ^{KENNEDY} ~~Ray~~ and King were linked was in October, 1964 when J. Edgar Hoover called a press conference to defend the Bureau's actions in the President Kennedy assassination. At this conference Hoover called King the most "notorious liar" in the United States.

I could continue on — certainly Castro favored racial unrest in the U.S. — but most information has been made public — I am also willing to assist the House Committee in any manner.

going to have any more protection than he had.

██████████ said that RUBINSTEIN was a man who according to the newspapers had been inviting these policemen to his night-club. She wondered why RUBINSTEIN was in that police station.

██████████ said he was a local figure in Dallas. (b)(7)(c)

██████████ said she thought rubinstein was implicated some way, and she hoped they get to the bottom of it.

██████████ guessed there were two or three involved. She said she felt that no one ever should get to the hate where one gets killed.

It should be noted that the above listed items in the subject's address book with the legible addresses written in the English language have been set forth above. There were as many items written in the Russian language which could not be readily copied.

In the subject's effects there were also the following items:

A pamphlet from the New York School for Marxist Studies, Fall term, 10/11-25/63.

A study of USSR and Communism by ALFRED J. RIEBER and ROBERT C. NELSON, published by Scott Forman & Co.

The subject's effects also had an application for a Texas Driver's license. In addition to the known descriptive data he listed his occupation as photographer and under the box for race he had a capital "C", which normally stands for colored.

NOTE: Information set forth above regarding the HSCA request was furnished by SA Danny O. Coulson, Legal Counsel Division. No written HSCA request has been received as yet. Bureau indices do not reflect an informant file on Pena; however, information in Bureau file 105-130460 indicates Pena did furnish information to the New Orleans Office. SAC, New Orleans, has previously contacted former SAC DeBrueys on other matters. Although Bufiles reflect no informant file on Pena, an April 6, 1961, airtel from New Orleans to the Bureau on another subject [REDACTED] characterizes Orestes Pena as a confidential source of the New Orleans Office. Enclosed are an original and two copies of a memorandum responding to HSCA letters of May 16, 1978, and June 13, 1978, which respectively asked for access, ... to

Reference is made to my letters of March 8 and 17, 1978, among others, which responded to HSCA requests. Together, these responses provided access to retrievable material on Items 1 and 2 of the May 16, 1978, letter. Retrievable material on Item 3, is now available for Committee access at FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ).

On June 13, 1978, G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA, advised that he particularly desired to obtain tapes or verbatim transcripts recording interviews of Nosenko that dealt with Lee Harvey Oswald or the assassination of President Kennedy. He advised that Nosenko has told the Committee that he recalls being recorded by the FBI during interviews in 1964 and later.

Retrieval efforts at FBIHQ have failed to locate tapes or verbatim transcripts of Nosenko interviews which pertain to the items of information the Committee has enumerated. Therefore, an exhaustive search of records was initiated in the FBI Washington Field Office (WFO) involving 33 Agents and two support personnel, since Bureau Agents from that office were involved in the original interviews of Nosenko. This search also failed to locate any recordings or verbatim transcripts of the pertinent interviews.

Thus far, research indicates that Nosenko was interviewed regarding Oswald or the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on February 26 and 27, 1964, March 3, 4 and 5, 1964, and on an unspecified date, the results of which were reported in a 1970 document.

A document located in the WFO files indicates that tape recordings for the March 26 and 27, 1964, interviews existed for a limited duration, but no trace of the recordings or any verbatim transcripts can be found.

It is speculated that a recorder may have been used on some of the 1964 Nosenko interviews by FBI Agents as a means of checking the accuracy of their notes. There is no indication that any verbatim transcripts were prepared from such tapes.

The HSCA is being advised that the results of the five dated interviews were available for its access on March 8, 1978, and were actually delivered to HSCA on March 21, 1978.

You are requested to furnish a copy of this memorandum to the HSCA.

NOTE: This response has been coordinated with [redacted] (S) (b)(1)
[redacted] Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Legal Counsel Division and WFO. Director FBI teletype to WFO dated June 14, 1978, captioned "House Select Committee on Assassinations, U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)" requested that WFO conduct a search to locate any recordings or transcripts for the pertinent Nosenko interviews. [redacted] (S)

[redacted] (S) WFO (b)(1)
teletype to Director dated June 16, 1978, captioned "House Select Committee on Assassinations, U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)" set forth details and results of requested WFO Search. No tapes or verbatim transcripts were found in WFO. WFO did locate a March 26, 1964, intra office memorandum by SA Donald E. Walter which stated that Nosenko was recorded on February 24, 25, 26 and 27, 1964. However, no indication as to the disposition of these mentioned recordings was found. WFO speculates such tapes were merely used as aids to check the accuracy of Agents' notes and were later discarded as Walter's memorandum bears no action notations.

(b)(1)

With regard to the May 16, 1978, letter, Items 1 and 2, retrievable documents indicate that Nosenko was interviewed on February 26 and 27, 1964, and on March 3, 4 and 6, 1964, concerning Lee Harvey Oswald or the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. In response to a prior request, the Committee was advised by memorandum dated March 8, 1978, that material containing the results of these interviews was available for its access. It should be noted that these same documents have resided in general material available for Committee access during the past year. In addition, the Committee received delivery of the documents containing the results of these interviews on March 21, 1978. The Committee may refer to document 108-82555-2463 classified "Confidential".
An undated reporting by Nosenko about Oswald has also been located and will be available for access and, if necessary, for delivery as specified in the June 13, 1978, HSCA letter.
It is, of course, understood that any documents or material delivered in accordance with the specifications set forth in the June 13, 1978, HSCA letter will not be copied in any manner while in the custody of the HSCA.

With regard to the June 13, 1978, letter, records searches have not located any extant recordings or verbatim transcripts of the interviews with Yuri Nosenko that concerned Lee Harvey Oswald or the assassination of President John F.
Kennedy.

A document has been located which indicates that FBI Agents did record the February 26 and 27 interviews of been located, it can be assumed that the recordings were used by the interviewing Agents to check the accuracy of their notes

Upon verifying the accuracy of resultant transcriptions, examples of which the Committee can view in document 105-82555-2463, it is a further, logical assumption that the recordings were disposed of since they had served the purpose for which they were made, although no record of such disposition can be found.

DEBRUEYS ADVISED THAT HE HAD RECEIVED NO INSTRUCTIONS FROM FBIHQ PERSONNEL PRIOR TO HIS APPEARANCE BEFORE THE HSCA; HOWEVER, HAD RECEIVED THESE INSTRUCTIONS PRIOR TO HIS TESTIMONY BEFORE A SENATE COMMITTEE HOLDING HEARINGS ON THE ASSASSINATION APPROXIMATELY TWO YEARS AGO. HE STATED THAT THIS WAS IRRELEVANT AS HE WOULD NEVER REVEAL TO ANYONE THE IDENTITY OF A BUREAU INFORMANT.

DEBRUEYS REITERATED THAT HE WHEN QUESTIONED BY GENZMAN AND ON THE FOLLOWING DAY BY THE FULL HSCA ON BOTH OCCASIONS CATEGORICALLY DENIED THAT PINA WAS AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI, AND FURTHER ADVISED THAT HE DID NOT KNOW PINA'S ADDRESS IN NEW ORLEANS AND THEREFORE COULD NOT HAVE FURNISHED SAME TO THE HSCA OR TO GENZMAN.

DEBRUEYS DID STATE THAT DURING HIS INTERVIEW WITH GENZMAN AND BEFORE THE FULL HSCA HE ATTEMPTED TO DEFINE THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN AN INFORMANT, A CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE AND A SOURCE OF INFORMATION, WITH PARTICULAR STRESS ON THE DEFINITION OF A SOURCE OF INFORMATION. AS HE RECALLS HE WAS

Enclosed for the Bureau is one copy each of a letter to the Director from former SAC (retired) WARREN C. The enclosed material was made available to ASAC THEODORE M. GARDNER, New Orleans by DeBRUEYS on 6/14/78.

Inasmuch as former SAC DeBRUEYS furnished his recollections of his testimony before the HSCA as an enclosure to a personal letter to the Director, this material is not being furnished to FBIHQ in letterhead memorandum format. It should be noted that in the last paragraph of page 4 of his letter to the Director, DeBRUEYS makes a request of the Bureau to permit him to review those reports he wrote under the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) caption as well as those written under the caption "Lee Harvey Oswald" in 1963 by former SA MILTON R. KAACK and possibly others. He advises this review would enable him to supplement his testimony before the Sub-committee by informing the Sub-committee in writing of the full nature and extent of the Bureau's and his pre-assassination inquiry involving OSWALD. He stated he considers this to be essential to a complete and fair understanding of the Bureau's pre-assassination investigation.

Former SAC DeBRUEYS repeatedly expressed concern that the HSCA was attempting to establish the proposition that the Bureau's pre-assassination inquiries of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were not as probative as they should have been, and that appropriate FBIHQ personnel and the Director should be made aware of the HSCA's predilections in this regard.

Pursuant to former SAC DeBRUEYS' request, a copy of the enclosed material is being maintained in the New Orleans file.

Dear Mr. Webster:

Enclosed is a summary of my testimony before the House Subcommittee on the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy held on the morning of May 3, 1978. The contents of the enclosure is a summary of information I was able to recall some four or five hours after the hearing.

When viewed in retrospect, some questions posed by Congressman Christopher J. Dodd left me with the distinct impression that he may have been attempting to establish the proposition that the Bureau's pre-assassination inquiries of Lee Harvey Oswald were not as probative as they should have been. His specific inquiries of me as to the details of my investigation of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) as they related to Oswald could not be fully answered in view of the passage of some fifteen years since I performed that investigation. This was explained to him along with the fact that I believe I had some 40 to 60 other cases assigned to me at the same time. Again, in retrospect, I gather that he misconstrued that response as an excuse for some possible omissions in my handling of that case rather than my attempt to present a factual picture. I did emphasize that while I did not recall every facet of my inquiry, I nonetheless could state that as in all investigative matters handled by me, my inquiry of Oswald in the FPCC case was both thorough and more extensive than circumstances required.

If my premise or supposition as cited above is accurate, it may be well to mention that shortly after my assignment to FBI Headquarters as a supervisor in 1967, several Bureau supervisors expressed their gratitude to me for the extensive nature of my inquiry in the FPCC case involving Oswald. They explained that in the main, full-field investigation of Oswald of the New Orleans Division in 1963 which had been assigned to Special Agent Milton R. Kaack, there had been some alleged deficiencies for which they were to be censured. However, these supervisors had been able to show that the so-called deficiencies in Kaack's investigation under the individual caption of Lee Harvey Oswald (possibly with the Character of "Is-R" or "Foreign Agents Registration Act") had been more than adequately covered in my FPCC investigation in the New Orleans Office during the same period.

I cite the foregoing as it is entirely possible that the Sub-Committee may ask for Bureau reports and if they merely review the main case investigation on Oswald in the New Orleans Office in 1963, their review of Kaack's reports will not give the complete picture. It is essential for them to review both the security case on Oswald by Kaack and my collateral inquiry of Oswald under the FPCC caption. It would have been an inefficient duplication of effort for S.A. Kaack to have duplicated what I may have done regarding Oswald. Additionally, the Sub-Committee should review the Dallas Office reports as Oswald did not remain in New Orleans long after his arrest by New Orleans Police in August brought him to the attention of the New Orleans Division. He departed for Dallas the next month in September, 1963.

Another point of interest of the Sub-Committee was Orestes Pena, who in recent years has commented publicly he had seen Oswald in my presence prior to the assassination. This is an unmitigated fabrication, which, based on an article in the San Antonio Light, a San Antonio, Texas newspaper, under date 4/29/78, has grown to the point where Pena now is quoted as stating to French film director, Jean-Michel Charlier, that he and Oswald frequently made reports together to the FBI, adding that the agent who handled both of them was I. Pena, to my knowledge, made no statement to the Warren Commission indicating he ever saw Oswald in my company. Also Pena apparently was embarrassed in having to admit in a Bureau interview in 1964 that he never made a statement to Carlos Bringuier that Oswald had been in his bar, the La Habana Bar in New Orleans during the summer of 1963. I believe that my persistence in interviewing him about that alleged statement which resulted in his denial has been a source of irritation to Pena -- hence, the possible basis for his wild utterances in the last two or three years. As stated in the enclosure, I never personally met or saw Oswald except for photos of him after his arrest in New Orleans in August, 1963.

C O

During the hearing I was asked if Pena had been an informant of the FBI, and I responded with a categorical "no". Further questions were asked such as could he have been a "source of information?" I explained a source could be anybody, such as a shopkeeper, accountant, business employee, who may have given information in the past in response to inquiry. I answered that possibly Pena may have been a "source for information," but quickly added that it was my recollection that he was not the type of person I would have been inclined to develop as an informant simply because he was not disposed to furnish any data of significance at any time and it seemed that what he did furnish was quite limited in response to specific inquiry.

It should also be mentioned that prior to the Executive Session hearing on 5/3/78, I had been interviewed on 5/2/78 by staff counsellor, Robert Genzman. After about 2½ hours of interrogation on the morning of 5/2/78, Genzman got to the Pena subject at which time I informed him Pena was never to my knowledge an informant of the FBI. After asking that question he told me I didn't have to appear before the Sub-Committee on 5/3/78 adding that I could merely furnish him with a sworn signed statement incorporating all the answers I had given that morning. I declined to do so, indicating that I had taken the trouble to travel to Washington to appear before the Sub-Committee and I intended to do so. I explained that there are a lot of misconceptions about the Bureau's investigative effort and I thought I may be able to clarify a lot of misunderstandings by answering the Sub-Committee's questions and volunteering data where necessary to disabuse them of any ill-conceived ideas or conclusions that might surface during the hearing.

Also at the staff interrogation on 5/2/78 I was asked by Sub-Committee counsel, Robert Genzman, wasn't the job of Special Agent in Charge of the San Juan Division of the FBI a plush job highly sought after by qualified Bureau agent personnel. I responded that such was not the case and that the job of SAC for that Division to my knowledge had been offered to several qualified Bureau agents who turned it down before I was assigned to that position having learned thereof for the first time by medium of a routine letter of transfer. The implication in this question that could be inferred is that I was being "paid off" by the Bureau possibly because Oswald had been my informant which the Bureau did not want revealed and for that reason I had become an "untouchable".

This latter reasoning, of course, is pure speculation on my part, but the questions posed by the Sub-Committee's Staff Counselor and by the Sub-Committee has given some credence to the ridiculous allegation that Oswald had been an informant of the FBI and mine in particular.

Perhaps another set of circumstances that has been seized to support the wild allegation that Oswald had been an FBI informant was the fact that some years after the assassination a number of FBI agents were asked to submit an affidavit that Oswald was not an informant of the FBI. For some strange reason, perhaps because I was assigned overseas and inadvertently passed over, I did not receive such a request. This possibly gave credence to the speculation that I was purposely not asked to sign such an affidavit. If I remember correctly, that was corrected two or three years ago when I believe I was asked to sign an affidavit and did so readily.

Given the foregoing indications as evidence of the Sub-Committee's apparent predisposition to pursue suppositions that the Bureau knows to be completely erroneous, the possibility that the Sub-Committee could err grossly in evaluating the Bureau's pre-assassination investigation can no longer be considered remote. If such a travesty of reasoning were to evolve it would be damaging to the Bureau's reputation and conceivably to mine as well. Accordingly, as a party of interest, I request the Bureau to permit me to review those reports that I wrote under the FPCC caption as well as those written under the caption of "Lee Harvey Oswald" in 1963 by Special Agent Milton R. Kaack and possibly others. With the Bureau's permission I would then be able to supplement my testimony before the Sub-Committee by informing the Sub-Committee in writing of the full nature and extent of the Bureau's and my pre-assassination inquiries involving Oswald. Such information would be accompanied by those comments and explanations which I, as a party familiar with relevant circumstances and conditions at the time the reports were written, consider to be essential to a complete and fair understanding of the Bureau's pre-assassination investigation. Any sterile report review by the Sub-Committee without such additional relevant data would be inadequate and susceptible to faulty analysis.

Cordially yours,

TESTIMONY BEFORE THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE ASSASSINATION OF
OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

May 2 and 3, 1978

Set forth below is a summary of data furnished during an Executive Session of the House Sub-committee on Assassinations on 5/3/78. Present were Congressmen Richardson Preyer (North Carolina), Chairman; Harold S. Sawyer (Michigan); and Christopher J. Dodd (Connecticut). The staff Counselor, who posed a majority of the questions, was Robert Genzman, a graduate of Cornell Law School.

It should be pointed out that on the previous date, May 2, 1978, I was queried by Counselor Genzman between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and Noon and between 2:00 P.M. and 4:00 P.M. It is possible, hence, that some of my answers given on that date may be recorded from memory as given during the Executive Session. However, I am certain that for the most part, what follows was given before the House Sub-committee on May 3, 1978.

At the outset, I was asked to furnish background of my FBI career, and I provided the following information:

I entered the Bureau in August of 1950 as a Special Agent and retired on May 6, 1977. Sometime during the questioning, if not entirely at the outset, I traced my career in the Bureau, including my assignments in the Newark and New Orleans Divisions and overseas, as well as my assignment at FBI Headquarters, and temporary duty assignments in Santo Domingo during the revolutionary crisis in The Dominican Republic and in Dallas, Texas during the Kennedy Assassination investigation.

In response to the type of work I was doing in New Orleans in 1963, I mentioned my work primarily involved security-type investigations. Either on 5/3/78 or during the Staff Counselor's inquiry on 5/2/78, I had estimated that I probably was assigned to security matters commencing possibly in 1958.

Asked about my Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) investigations, I explained that I had apparently worked on the FPCC case intermittently for sometime before Oswald came to the attention of the New Orleans FBI office. I explained that as FPCC headquarters were in New York, the FBI's New York office was considered the Office of Origin of the FPCC investigation. I added that based on information received from sources of the New York office who had knowledge of certain FPCC activities, leads involving the territory covered by the New Orleans Division were received from time to time from the New York office. My recollection is that such leads were limited to the identification of the person(s) or group(s) residing in the New Orleans office territory who probably had been in contact with FPCC headquarters. Additionally, address and employment data were developed concerning individuals. It is my recollection that such leads were submitted to field offices from the New York office in a form letter which would simply identify such persons or groups in touch with FPCC and would instruct the particular office involved to conduct a limited inquiry in accordance with a specific section of the Manual of Instructions. Once that limited data (described above) was obtained, a communication would be sent to the New York office setting forth the results of such limited inquiry. If there were no additional leads outstanding, the communication would be marked "RUC." "RUC" is the abbreviation for "Referred Upon Completion to the Office of Origin." Actually, that was tantamount to closing a case in an auxiliary office.

I then commented that while I had the FPCC case assigned to me, it may be that I had 5, 6, or more leads submitted to me by the New York office over an extended period of time. Accordingly, I assume that the FPCC case in the New Orleans office had been opened and "RUC'd" (closed) in as many times.

I am presuming that when word was received at the New Orleans Division of the FBI that Lee Harvey Oswald was endeavoring to open a FPCC Chapter in the New Orleans area, it was at that time it became necessary for me to establish the identity and employment of Oswald and furnish pertinent data regarding his identity and activities as a FPCC member in New Orleans to the New York office and possibly to FBI headquarters. I informed the Sub-committee that I was not able to recall whether the individual case on Lee Harvey Oswald, probably under the character of "Internal Security-R" or "Foreign Agents Registration Act" and assigned to another agent, had been opened before I conducted leads relative to Oswald's activities involving the FPCC. At any rate, with the opening of the subject case on Oswald, the latter matter took precedence over the FPCC case in so far as the investigation of Oswald was concerned. The individual case under the caption of Lee Harvey Oswald was assigned to another agent and was, in effect, a full-field type of investigation whereas my inquiry of Oswald was limited to his alleged activities in connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. I reiterated to the Sub-committee members that all of the foregoing and what follows must, of necessity, be characterized as "recollection." I explained that I do not have access to FBI files and particularly to the reports that I had written pertaining to matters in which the Sub-committee has exhibited an interest.

In response to specific inquiry, I narrated the extent of my investigation involving Oswald under the FPCC caption. I explained that I could not at this late date (some 15 years subsequent to my investigation) recall the identities of specific sources contacted by me. I did say that obviously I would have contacted a large number of Cuban sources and had acquired information concerning Oswald's employment, residence, and general activities. I mentioned that it would have been equally logical for me to have utilized any information pertinent to the FPCC investigation involving Oswald that may have been in the individual case under the "IS-R" or "FARA" caption assigned to SA Milton R. Kaack. I am certain that there was included a copy of the Interview Report Form setting forth the interview of Lee Harvey Oswald by SA Jack Quigley. When pressed for the identities of sources, as stated above, I could not say with any certainty at this time who they were by name, but that I probably contacted quite a number of people including numerous anti-Castro Cubans who conceivably would be aware of Oswald's pro-Castro activities and when pressed for names, I suggested I may have talked to Carlos Bringuier, Frank Bartes, Arnesto Rodriguez and others and may have checked at the Post Office concerning his Post Office Box, but at this late date I could not be certain about the details. I reminded the Committee members that there was no point in my conducting investigation already conducted by SA Kaack in handling his investigation of Oswald. Congressman Dodd, at that point, made some comments that could be interpreted that my investigation may have been limited considering the importance of the investigation. He then said that Oswald had been a known defector to the Soviets and had been pandering the FPCC. I then stated I had no way of detailing the amount of investigation I conducted simply because too many years have passed since I conducted that inquiry. I mentioned that if I had access to pertinent FBI files, I could give a specific answer. Without such material, I could only state that as was my custom all my investigations were thorough and my investigation had been more than adequate and covered the matter in every detail. I mentioned that having a large number of cases assigned to me which numbered perhaps, between 40 and 60 cases at the time I was handling the FPCC matter, it was my custom to handle each matter thoroughly and completely.

I also mentioned that having been reminded through Committee Counselor Genzman's questioning that Oswald was arrested by New Orleans Police on August 9, 1963, that I would assume that my investigation probably commenced on that date or shortly thereafter, or if it had already been active, it would probably not have been in effect for too long a period prior to August 9, 1963. I reminded the Committee that Lee Harvey Oswald moved from the New Orleans area in September of 1963 and established a new address in the Dallas, Texas area. Hence, any information developed pertinent to our investigative interests was recorded in the communication to the New York office, and the Dallas Division would have been advised of Oswald's travel to Dallas. I mentioned that it would have been incumbent upon the case agent handling the "IS-R" or the "FARA" case to have taken the steps to change the Office of Origin to Dallas whereas the FPCC case would have remained with the New York office as the Office of Origin. Hence, the FPCC case, in so far as the Oswald investigation was concerned, was a secondary matter, the other described case assigned to SA Kaack being the primary investigation of Oswald.

In response to specific inquiry by the Staff Counselor, I mentioned that Oswald was reported to have passed out hand bills in front of the International Trade Mart Building in New Orleans. That information, to the best of my memory, had been furnished to the FBI by Jesse Core. The Staff Counselor had indicated that that event took place on the 16th of August, 1963. At that time, Oswald was allegedly accompanied by a young man who helped him distribute such hand bills. I mentioned that it was my recollection that the latter individual was determined to have been nothing more than a helper who had no interest in the FPCC. I added that such information, to the best of my recollection, had been developed by some other agent(s) and was not the result of my specific inquiry.

Congressman Dodd wanted to know if pro-Castro informants were contacted as well as anti-Castro informants. To the best of my memory, I could not recall whether there were any active pro-Castro groups positively identified at that time in the area, and it is my recollection that there were none. I believe I did explain that among anti-Castro Cubans, there were quite a number who specialized in trying to identify pro-Castro Cubans.

I believe that I reiterated the difficulty of responding with specificity to such questions without an opportunity to refresh my memory through file reviews.

I was asked if I saw the report of Jack Quigley. I qualified the term "report" to mention that if they were referring to Quigley's Interview Report Form, which I believe is also referred to as a "309 Form", I was certain that I did read that report as I seemed to recall that I had probably included it in my report along with a copy of a transcript of Oswald's TV/Radio debate with an anti-Castro Cuban which took place in New Orleans, I believe, after his arrest for an altercation with anti-Castro Cubans on August 9, 1963.

* Interview Report Form

In response to a specific question, I replied it was not unusual for someone in a district jail to ask to see an FBI agent. The Staff Counselor inquired if someone were arrested on a misdemeanor, would they logically ask to see an FBI agent? As he was referring to Lee Harvey Oswald's arrest on a misdemeanor, I pointed out that the major point was not the misdemeanor charge, but the fact that there was information that he had been engaged in distributing the leaflets on behalf of a foreign nation or a foreign group which made him of interest to the FBI. I also mentioned that if Oswald had been in the 1st District Police Station simply because he were a missing person, it is possible if he were aware that the officers involved in bringing him there had information about his distributing "Communist" literature, it was not unreasonable to surmise that he may have felt uncomfortable in perhaps believing the police were "red necks" and could be hostile to someone handling such subversive literature. If such were the case, it would appear logical to ask to speak to an FBI agent. Here again, I emphasized that the "misdemeanor charge" seemed to have no bearing on whether or not he had asked to see an FBI agent.

As I recall the sequence of questioning, I am aware now that the questions had been posed previously by the Staff Counselor as to why would Lee Harvey Oswald have asked to talk to an FBI agent. Initially, my response was that I could not personally know what was on the mind of Oswald, but as a matter of speculation, I mentioned that he may have been concerned about being in custody of the local police and perhaps thought it would be safer if the "Feds" were aware of his being incarcerated. I emphasize that this was speculation only as I had no specific knowledge as to why he would ask to talk to an FBI agent.

Inquiry was then made of me as to whether Jack Quigley had checked the indices before going to the 1st District Police Station to interview Lee Harvey Oswald. I responded that I had no idea whether he had or had not checked the indices. I was then asked if it were not unusual for an agent to go on Saturday to interview Lee Harvey Oswald. I outlined the long standing policy of the New Orleans office of the FBI to respond to any request for an agent from anyone incarcerated in the local jails. It was also the policy to handle such requests promptly. I added that the Committee had enlightened me when it mentioned that SA Quigley had conducted the interview on a Saturday, because I had not recalled on what day the interview had been conducted. Having been so informed, I also mentioned that I recalled that when I acted as a "Saturday Supervisor", one of the first things I would do upon arriving at the office in the morning was to contact every police district station to ascertain if they had anyone in custody that was of possible interest to the bureau. If a positive answer were received, then an agent was dispatched to conduct appropriate interviews.

Asked if I thought it unusual that Oswald had been interviewed by Quigley, I mentioned that I thought it unusual that a non-security-type agent would have interviewed him, and I simply added that it probably would have been better for a security agent to have conducted the interview. I then mentioned that after intensive questioning on the day before (May 2, 1978) by the Staff Counselor as to whether SA Quigley had discussed the interview with me and I could not really recall. However, later on the evening of 5/2/78, I tried to refresh my memory and had been able to vaguely recall that I was surprised to learn that Quigley had interviewed a security subject without Bureau headquarters' approval. However, it seems that if my memory serves me correctly, I later learned that Quigley had said that Oswald had asked to speak to an agent and for that reason there was no technical violation of the Bureau's regulation against interviews of security subjects without prior Bureau authority. At any rate, I mentioned to the Committee all that was involved, had Oswald not asked to see an agent, would have been an infraction of Bureau administrative regulations which possibly could have resulted in a reprimand or possibly a letter of censure.

During the questioning, some surprise was exhibited by the Subcommittee that Oswald had not been interviewed by agents handling the investigations of him. Here again, I explained that the Bureau had determined it to be sound policy that a security subject not be interviewed until the investigations were completed and fully reported, at which time it would have been customary to submit a separate communication along with the closing report formally requesting in writing Bureau authority to interview such a subject and spell out cryptically what the agent expected to gain by such an interview.

Some concern was expressed as to why such a long interview was conducted of someone in jail on a local charge. I responded that I could not answer such a question, except to suggest that the length of the interview would depend on several factors, including the content of the data furnished by the party being interviewed. Additionally, I surmised it was possible that Agent Quigley perhaps felt that the subject would be released shortly since the charge was only a misdemeanor and that he may not have another opportunity to elicit pertinent data from him under favorable circumstances. I added, in response to further questioning, that I did not know why SA Quigley went to the 1st District Station, except that he was undoubtedly assigned to Saturday duty, and perhaps the case agent (Mr. Kaack) was out of town. I mentioned that SA Kaack liked to fish and may have been unavailable on a Saturday fishing trip. Of course, all of the foregoing is speculation. In any event, Saturday duty agents were usually obliged to handle interviews of people in district jails who were involved in matters that may bring them within the purview of the Bureau's investigative interests.

Inquiry was made of me as to the manner in which I had determined that Hidell was non-existent. I responded that this was merely a logical conclusion after extensive investigation failed to reveal the existence of anyone by the name of Hidell. I commented that this question triggered my recollection that during my special assignment in Dallas after the assassination of President Kennedy, I had on one occasion accompanied Russian-speaking Bureau agent, Anatole Bogaslav (ph) in an interview of Oswald's widow. I asked her if she knew the "Hidell" who was supposed to have been the sole member of the New Orleans Chapter of the FPCC aside from Lee Harvey Oswald. She responded that "Hidell" was a figment of Lee's imagination. She hastened to explain that Lee had admired Fidel and picked "Hidell" as he felt it rhymed with Fidel. She had attested, in her comments, to the fact that there was no one by the name of "Hidell". I mentioned that I had recalled that an FBI source, who was knowledgeable of FPCC activities at that organization's headquarters, had obtained a copy of a letter written by Lee Harvey Oswald to FPCC headquarters, the content of which made it clear that Lee really did not know anyone within the FPCC, but in his letter was making overtures to FPCC headquarters to permit him to open a Chapter in New Orleans.

I was asked when was it that I knew that Oswald went to Mexico. My answer was that too much time has elapsed to permit me to place that event in any form of time perspective. I did comment that I thought I had learned of that information before the assassination but, here again, could not be certain. At any rate, my recollection is that the trip was made subsequent to his departure from New Orleans after giving up his residence in that city to move to Dallas. I added that probably his travel to Mexico would have been something pursued by SA Kaack who had the case file on Oswald. I was then asked if SA Kaack had known of Oswald's trip to Mexico before the assassination, would such information have been a factor to encourage him to intensify his investigation. My answer was, "possibly", but I mentioned that I thought possibly as far as the New Orleans office was concerned that Oswald's trip to Mexico, had it been made after giving up his residence in New Orleans, would have been a matter that would have been of primary concern to the new Office of Origin, Dallas. Here again, the passage of some 15 years without a chance to review the files precludes a definitive answer.

I was asked if I personally met Lee Harvey Oswald, and my answer to that question was a categorical "no". I stated that I had not knowingly spoken to Lee Harvey Oswald by phone. I was then asked how many times I had contact with Orestes Pena, and I responded by a rough guess of a minimum of 6 to a probable maximum of 12 times. I was asked if Orestes Pena had been an informant or a PSI of the New Orleans office of the FBI. My response again was a definite "no". Asked if he may have been a source of information, I responded that possibly he may have been listed on a card in our office as a source of information. I then explained a source could be anyone who has been contacted previously particularly in a given field, who may have responded to inquiry by furnishing information. I mentioned that Orestes Pena, to my knowledge, had never initiated a flow of information to the FBI. My recollection of him is that he was not the type of person I would have been inclined to develop as an informant simply because he was not inclined to furnish data freely or voluntarily. In fact, I could not recall him having furnished any data of significance at any time and it seems that what he did furnish, was quite limited in response to specific inquiry.

It was then asked why would Orestes Pena have made a statement that he had seen me with Lee Harvey Oswald. I reminded the Committee it was my belief that such a statement by Pena was not supplied by him to the Warren Commission. In fact, I suspect that the first time he made such a statement was not more than a year or two ago. I then said that the accusation was an unmitigated and bare-faced lie. I had not given much thought until in the recent past when a Canadian Broadcasting system representative had posed the question during a recorded interview. Because his question was asked several times, I gained the impression that he was trying to ascertain if I thought Pena was trying to cloud the issue by suggesting my association with Lee Harvey Oswald, and in effect, possibly was inquiring whether I thought Pena could be in the service of some foreign group or some subversive club. I commented that this line of questioning triggered my recollection that Pena had traveled to Europe in 1964, and that in view of the foregoing thoughts, it may be that his activities after the assassination should bear more scrutiny.

I commented that I was prompted by such inquiries to give that aspect of the Kennedy assassination investigation some additional thought. I thereafter reached the conclusion that Bringuier's statement after the assassination to the effect that Orestes Pena had told him that he had seen Lee Harvey Oswald in his (Pena's) bar during the summer of 1963, really placed some question on Pena's credibility. In retrospect, it was apparent that my persistence in trying to elicit from Pena during attempted interviews in early '64 the details relative to his comment to Bringuier undoubtedly were disturbing to Pena. The Committee is aware that Pena finally acquiesced in an interview by me and another agent in the presence of his attorney late in the first half of 1964. If my memory serves me correctly, Pena finally admitted that he had not made such a statement to Bringuier. I would suspect that admission may have been humiliating to Pena. As I had been the "instrument" of his grudging revelation, it may very well be the basis for his antagonism towards me which resulted in his commenting that he had seen me with Oswald before the assassination. In short, an attempt to embarrass me or to make life difficult for me.

I thought it pertinent to mention to the Committee that heretofore I have never disclosed hearsay comments concerning Pena, which I think ought to be considered by the Committee. I mentioned that several sources had commented, in approximately 1963, that Pena was an undesirable individual; a pervert who allegedly engaged in unnatural acts with females, and who had the reputation of often bullying some of the seamen who patronized his bar. These same sources, whose identities I no longer recall, had also commented that he had beaten some of his clientel with a pool stick, that he felt that he could get away with almost any activity as he had contacts within the New Orleans Police Department. I reiterated that as those statements were hearsay, I would not ever have made them as a matter of record. Nonetheless, in view of Pena's wild accusation made against me, I did feel compelled to at least mention the type of reputation he had among different people with whom I spoke who knew him, if for no other reason than to give some perspective to the Committee's evaluation or as a basis for further inquiry by the Committee. I commented that Pena, being an operator of a bar for seamen, had obviously made enough money to permit him to take a trip to Europe in 1964. Again, I said I was impressed that he was trying to gain an aura of importance and respectability by becoming an officer in one or more of the anti-Castro organizations in the New Orleans area. The foregoing would be important in understanding why his recorded denial of having made a statement to Bringuier that he had seen Oswald in his bar in the summer of 1963 could have been extremely embarrassing to this individual who apparently was trying so hard to be important in the Spanish-speaking community in New Orleans. I then commented that my subsequent inquiry of employees of Pena's establishment known as the Habana Bar, namely Evaristo Rodriguez and his brother, Ruperto Pena, and a barmaid did not in fact truly confirm the presence of Lee Harvey Oswald in Pena's bar in the summer of 1963. Once again, I had to say that too many years had passed since that event to be able to be definite about any statement I made without an opportunity of reviewing pertinent Bureau files.

I was asked if I knew about Garrison's investigation before I left on transfer from New Orleans to the Bureau. I recall that I departed New Orleans in my personal car on March 1, 1967. My response was that I was not aware of his interests in me or of his investigation at that time. The first time I became aware of such an interest in me was when I was notified through channels of the Justice Department in Washington, D. C. that Garrison had issued a subpoena for me to testify in his investigation of the assassination of former President Kennedy. My recollection was that the U. S. Department of Justice had informed me that it had decided it would not honor the subpoena, and I was left with the definite impression that the rationale for that decision was that the investigation of the assassination of the President of the United States was primarily a Federal matter, and accordingly, the Department of Justice would have been disinclined to permit Garrison to pre-empt Federal responsibility.

I was then asked why would Garrison want to subpoena me. I responded that I did not know specifically. However, it was my recollection that Garrison had been quoted as saying in one of his books or in one of his many interviews that when Lee Harvey Oswald left New Orleans for Dallas, de Brueys followed him; and after the assassination, de Brueys returned to New Orleans. I pointed to that remark as a sample of Garrison's use of half-truths to distort reality. I commented that I had never been in Dallas, Texas prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. I added that on the day following the assassination I had been assigned to assist in the investigation being conducted by the Dallas Division and had remained there for approximately two months, returning to New Orleans some time during the last few days of January, 1964. I mentioned that those were the facts. Hence, Garrison's statement that "after Oswald left New Orleans for Dallas that I had followed him there, and after the assassination had returned," if loosely read, could be considered by some to be factual. Oswald left New Orleans in September, 1963 for Dallas. I departed the day after the assassination. Hence, Garrison's statement that I "followed" Oswald to Dallas, while a half-truth is misleading and confusing to people who read it, and his statement conveys ideas that are completely inaccurate. The only other conclusion I can make is that Garrison's sources or his intelligence was extremely poor and hence, if that were true, this may explain the above quoted comment which is typical of his prolific flow of inaccuracies, at least as best as I can discern it.

I was then asked whether I knew about Cuban training camps in the New Orleans area. I commented that there were numerous rumors that the Federal Government had such camps in the New Orleans area, but I had never really confirmed their actual existence. I added that I had not conducted any investigation concerning the alleged establishment of the U. S. Government of camps in the area as I felt that one agency of the Federal Government should not investigate the alleged official activities of another (CIA) unless specifically instructed to do so for suitable reasons by higher authority.

I was then asked if I knew of the raid conducted in the New Orleans area on one of those camps or training sites. My response was "no". I then added that I had personally conducted a search warrant of an unoccupied summer home located on the other side of the lake from New Orleans and had found and seized a large number of cases of dynamite, percussion caps, napalm powder, wiring and some gutted aerial bombs. I then said that the owner of the house was present during the execution of the search warrant as a result of our efforts to contact him. I believe his name was McIlheney (ph), who was a gambler who had previously operated in Cuba. I indicated there was no raid by FBI on any training camp.

I do not recall the ensuing discussion emanating from one or more of the Committee members, but whatever it was it prompted me to make comments, the gist of which would be as follows:

I believe I suggested there were other types of theories compounded by various individuals as to how the assassination occurred, many of which supported the theory of a conspiracy and none of which, to my knowledge, was based on hard evidence. I then commented that whatever I did in the form of investigation and analysis pertaining to Oswald or the FPCC prior to the assassination as well as my efforts after the assassination all were performed in a probative manner with a considerable amount of forethought, and after the assassination, under conditions of high stress, adding that at times I worked as many as 40 hours without sleeping during my special assignment in Dallas after the assassination. I stated that subsequent to my 2-month assignment in Dallas, approximately between November 24, 1963 and January 24, 1964 I recalled having conducted only about a half-dozen or so leads in the New Orleans office related to the assassination. I emphasized that the major portion of my work after the assassination and after my return to New Orleans from my special assignment in Dallas, involved other matters. I explained that I continued to carry a high case load and spent a good portion of my time as a relief supervisor on the SAC's desk.

I mentioned that prior to my transfer from New Orleans to Washington in March of 1967, I had spent 6 to 7 months on special assignment in the Dominican Republic during the revolutionary crisis in that country; that my thoughts during that period had nothing to do with the assassination investigation; that after March 1, 1967, I had been assigned to four different divisions at FBI headquarters, and subsequently spent some seven years in assignments outside of continental United States in South America and San Juan, Puerto Rico. I mentioned, particularly, that during my five years in South America there was little or no time spent in conversing about the assassination investigation and, hence, I was less able to recall specifics than I would have, had I remained in the New Orleans office and had had matters pertaining to the assassination consistently brought up and reviewed.

Additionally, I explained that as a dedicated public servant, I felt it was my duty to perform the various responsibilities that were assigned to me in the numerous posts I held subsequent to the assassination and to perform those tasks to the best of my ability. Accordingly, there will be any number of people outside the Bureau who may have made a fetish of studying the assassination investigation, many of whom are perhaps more familiar with many of the facts developed in the assassination investigation than I would be at this time. However, I wanted to remind the Committee that such people, even those on the Committee, will lack the perspective that can only be obtained by having been present on the scene at the time of the assassination investigation which would have given them a fuller appreciation of the sequence of events and the mechanics of the Bureau's operation that had proved efficient and successful over the years. Nor would they have been aware of the pandemonium that existed at the time of the assassination. The Dallas Police Department by law had primary jurisdiction of that investigation.

C D

With the foregoing in mind, I then mentioned that all of the speculation and the wild theory advanced by writers and investigators, after the fact, usually has one outstanding weakness, and that is that their conclusions are not based on fact, but primarily on conjecture and speculation. Accordingly, and here again based solely on my recollection, the following "facts" stand out in my mind as overriding any theory or speculation:

Prior to the assassination of former President John F. Kennedy, Oswald was not happy with his job in the Texas School Book Depository. FBI investigation, if I remember correctly, established that Oswald had been making inquiries about employment elsewhere in the Dallas area.

Secondly, Oswald and his wife, Marina, resided with a Quaker couple by the name of Payne (ph) in Irving, Texas. A neighbor of the Payne's, who was also employed at the Texas School Book Depository, would drive Lee Harvey Oswald from the Payne residence to the Texas School Book Depository every Monday. During the remainder of the week, Lee Harvey Oswald would live in his apartment in the general downtown area of Dallas. On each Friday after work, Oswald would ride home with the School Book Depository worker and neighbor of the Payne's in that person's car and would return as stated with the neighbor on Monday morning to work. To the best of my knowledge, our FBI investigation revealed that Oswald did not return to the Irving residence at any other time during the week. Oswald used to spend Monday thru Thursday nights at his downtown Dallas apartment. Eventually, Oswald and Marina got into a heavy argument and became estranged one from the other. Thereafter, Oswald spent all of his time in his downtown apartment. I do not recall at this late date whether that estrangement occurred two or three or more weeks prior to the assassination, but it would seem that several weeks had elapsed before the assassination since the time of that estrangement. On the day before the assassination, there appeared for the first time in the Dallas press public notice of the parade route that President Kennedy's motorcade would take on the following day. If my memory serves me correctly, there had been no prior public notice of the President's procession route. Accordingly, it was only when Oswald went out to lunch on that day before the assassination that obviously he discovered that the President's car was going to pass right in front of the Texas School Book Depository. Again if I recall correctly, it was after lunch that he contacted the neighbor of the Payne's, who worked in the School Book Depository, and told him that he wanted to ride home with him on that Thursday night for the purpose of picking up some curtain rods for his downtown apartment. I reminded the Committee that unless my memory is incorrect, this is the first time he had gone home on a Thursday night in the neighbor's car or at anytime other than the previously outlined schedule. My recollection is that upon reaching the Payne's house, his conversation with Marina was limited. And, the following morning, he brought back the rifle that he used to kill the President on that same day. I told the Committee that these are the facts that hardly indicate any long-range or short-range planning or any semblance of a conspiracy.

Assuming that I had narrated these facts correctly from memory, anyone would be hard put to conjure up wild speculation to controvert the logical conclusion that the shooting of President Kennedy by Oswald was anything more than a spontaneous, albeit warped, reaction of the same sick mentality that prompted him to take a shot at General Walker previously, as has been indicated by investigation.

It is because of the foregoing that it is my personal opinion that the assassination was the act of a lone individual; a loser, who so dearly wanted to be somebody in this world. However, he otherwise lacked the ability or the drive to become somebody and accept the standards of the society in which he lived. It was my belief that he was the product of a very strange mother. I added that that may explain his study of Communism while in the military, the idea being that if he could become an expert in an area that was little understood by his associates, he could in his own warped mind have both the feeling of importance and superiority, which he seems to have needed. I told the Committee that I recall asking Marina how much Oswald knew about Communism, and she said laughingly that he really understood very little about the system. I asked Marina if she knew whether Oswald liked Russia better than the U.S., and I recall her saying, "Lee no like Russia. Lee no like United States. Lee no like Cuba. Lee like Moon." Marina spoke in faulty English, and what I gathered that she was trying to say was that Lee didn't like anything in this world. She also spoke disparagingly of his ability to speak Russian.

I also spoke, at the conclusion of my testimony, about the extensive work performed by the FBI in covering thousands of leads in an inexhaustible fashion; about the Bureau conducting leads that obviously originated in demented minds, and yet for the sake of thoroughness, had nonetheless carried our probative inquiries. I reminded the Committee that Congress had failed to anticipate the need for a statute placing the primary investigation of the killing of a Chief Executive of the United States within the authority of a Federal investigative agency, but I stated it was commendable that the deficiency was rectified by making such a crime a Federal violation within the primary investigative jurisdiction of the FBI. I commented that it is important to remember the amount of tension and chaos that existed immediately after the assassination, citing many of the acts carried out by people involved in the President's party. Hospital attendants and doctors acted primarily to save the President. No thought was given to the preservation of evidence or doing that which would look good in an investigative report after the assassination. I added that such things as the hurried and undoubtedly thorough surgical effort performed to save the President and the subsequent written report of surgery performed again was not done with the idea in mind of looking good in the courtroom, but was done in response to the overriding desire to do what was necessary at the time to save the President. It is those critical things done immediately after the assassination that are pointed to now by critics as saying that it is unfortunate that it was not done in a different fashion and these are the same deficiencies from an investigator's and lawyer's standpoint, that seem to raise questions of doubt in post-assassination speculation as to whether there was a conspiracy involved.

I reminded the Committee that while the FBI did participate in making inquiry after the assassination, that by law the Dallas Police Department had the primary investigative jurisdiction in conducting the investigation. With no intent to malign the Dallas Department's work in the assassination investigation, it must nevertheless be recognized that this small urban police department was ill-equipped to handle such an historic and important investigation. These factors account for the circus-like atmosphere that prevailed after Lee Harvey Oswald's arrest. Here again, this is no criticism of the fine efforts made by the Dallas Police Department's personnel but simply that the efforts were so involved as to overwhelm a police system designed to handle matters of considerably less importance than a President's assassination.

The Committee should remember in it's analysis of the assassination investigation, that the FBI really did not assume primary jurisdiction until (if I remember correctly) ordered to do so after Oswald was killed by Ruby. Such a situation, prompted primarily by Congress' lack of foresight in providing the necessary legislation to avoid such confusion, was destined to breed questions that could never be answered with certainty. I suggested that the Committee endeavor to understand the true sequence of fast moving events that unfolded immediately after the assassination in their quest for factual data and truth.

I also mentioned some time during the testimony that the following experiences may give perspective to the Committee's understanding of the Bureau's investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy:

I mentioned that within a few days after my arrival in Dallas to take part in the investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy after having worked since approximately 6:00 A.M. or 7:00 A.M., I was told about 5:00 P.M. on the afternoon of the same date that the President wanted a report about Lee Harvey Oswald. I remained on duty without sleep from 5:00 P.M. until the next morning about 9:00 or 10:00 A.M. during which time I supervised the compilation of a report on the background of Lee Harvey Oswald. This required assembling of the results of investigations from not only the Dallas office, but from a number of other field offices including Legal Attache Offices of the FBI overseas. This extensive task was performed under pressure approximately between the hours of 5:00 P.M. and 8:00 A.M. of the following morning. The net result was a report of over 800 pages. This required the assembling of each investigative interview and report under proper headings as well as an understanding of those contents in order to prepare a synopsis and provide accurate data for the cover and administrative pages of that report. As an example of the massive nature of the task involved, I mentioned that the mere numbering of the pages after the report was assembled in order to be done accurately and uniformly, took more than an hour. The perforating of several 800-page reports, in the absence of present day equipment, required the greater part of another hour. In summary, I tried to impress the Committee that here was a report of more than 800 pages compiled, in a sense, overnight by agents who had not slept since approximately 6:00 A.M. the day before, and under stress, but with a penchant for accuracy and legibility. The effort included approximately 20 agents and a large number of stenographers and clerks and that report will have to stand the scrutiny for the rest of history as to accuracy--scrutiny by critics who will have no mercy and no sensitivity as to the conditions of stress and speed under which it was performed. In the quiescence and protracted calm of months and even years of scrutiny, any critic could obviously come up with some type of complaint about the manner in which that report was compiled. Strangely enough, to my knowledge to date, I have heard of no significant criticism of that first report produced by the FBI Division in Dallas after the assassination of President Kennedy. I reiterated to the Committee that it is important to have perspective in criticizing the FBI's work under those arduous conditions. This is the reason for my earlier comment that critics and investigators can review reams of material on the assassination and never have a true appreciation of what occurred unless their investigation includes a complete understanding of the Bureau's methods and mechanics of investigation as well as a true understanding of the commendable efforts made by hundreds of FBI investigators and employees who gave unselfishly of their service during the post-assassination period.

I also made mention during the testimony of another instance where I spent approximately 38 hours without sleep carrying our responsibilities after the assassination. I narrated to them that Bureau headquarters had wanted the property of Oswald that had been seized by the Dallas Police Department catalogued and sent to Bureau headquarters. Again, this request, which required all the technicalities of preserving evidence be adhered to, came in the late afternoon. It seems that it must have been about 3:00 P.M. that I arrived at the Dallas Police Department to arrange for the transfer of such material from the Dallas Police Department to the Bureau. The atmosphere at the Police Department was humming as it was the scene of activity that hardly made it conducive to an analytical survey of Lee Harvey Oswald's property. I might add that included in Oswald's property seized by the Police Department were a number of items belonging to the Payne's that had been co-mingled with Oswald's property. Included in several cartons among his possessions were a diary involving his activities in Russia, an address book, numerous photographs and a multitude of other things. In fact, the items were so numerous that I was able to convince the property custodian, a Dallas Police Captain, that logic would dictate it prudent for us to carry the material to the FBI office where I could find a quiet room to compile an inventory. He agreed, and it was not until very late in the afternoon that he and I actually began the laborious task of cataloguing each and every item contained in those boxes. It was not until near midnight before I was able to give the hard-working and patient police captain a complete inventory and receipt for the property, which he had turned over to the FBI. At that point, it became incumbent upon me to initial each item and photograph each item to insure the preservation of evidence contained among the various articles in Oswald's property.

As this process was done in a careful and thorough manner, the job was not complete at 8:00 the next morning. I was then instructed by the Inspector-in-Charge to accompany the material to Washington, D. C. In short, the material was personally brought to the laboratory at the FBI headquarters, where I explained the work that had been done and described material that had not been processed in accordance with FBI regulations in handling evidential material. Here again, I did not return to the hotel until after 10:00 P.M. after having been awake and working since 6:00 A.M. of the previous day. The above was given as an example of effort made by Special Agents of the FBI in the first week after the assassination. It was an effort to demonstrate that things handled after the assassination at the demand of the Presidency or some other high authority in the United States were performed under conditions of unusual stress. How easy it is for a critic who can with unlimited time and in an atmosphere of calm and extended analysis scrutinize every jot and tittle of intense accelerated of investigator effort as well as report writing performed with deliberate speed under stress, yet with great concern for accuracy as well as detail.

Also to explain circumstances that have been the subject of some criticism, I mentioned to the Committee that I recall that some writer had criticized me, as an experienced investigator, for not having conducted properly a certain investigation involving the statement of a car salesman in Dallas who had given information after the assassination to the effect that Oswald had gone into the showroom of his company to buy a car sometime prior to the assassination. I think that the same writer had asked the questions why had the man not been permitted to view Oswald in a police lineup. In order to show the origin of some criticism as being based on a lack of knowledge of the mechanics of FBI investigation as well as true and proven police techniques particularly those involving thousands of interviews, I made the following statement:

I mentioned to the Committee that I had arrived in Dallas on the Saturday after the assassination and either on that Saturday or on the following Sunday morning, I had been approached by an agent, whose name I recall as Clements (ph), to accompany him on an interview of a salesman, whose name I am reminded was "Hobart." The Committee was reminded that the other agent had studied the matter and was prepared for the interview of the salesman, and my presence was primarily that of a witness to what information this man furnished. The interview was conducted and I do not at this date recall whether I had any additional questions to ask the witness, but the important factor is that Clements continued his inquiry based on the information furnished by that man, and I went on to assist other agents in other matters. It should be remembered that this interview was conducted either on Saturday or early on Sunday, the day on which Oswald was killed. Bear in mind also that any number of persons interviewed would have furnished information that would possibly have made it logical for them to view Oswald under secure conditions in a lineup. However, the critic who made the complaint forgets that Oswald was killed on the very next day. He took no cognizance of the fact that the Police Department had primary jurisdiction and was snowed under with investigative requests and media inquiries. Accordingly, logic would have required that the FBI, in an expeditious manner, review the results of hundreds of interviews and then on a daily basis in liason with the Police Department at a time that would fit in with the other responsibilities of the Police Department, provide a lineup not only for the Police Department's witnesses, but for whatever FBI witnesses were available. Anybody who has any perspective would have recognized the difficulty of having all the logical witnesses view Oswald in the lineup consistent with the security of Oswald's safety in a 24-hour period subsequent to the assassination.

I also mentioned that I recalled, some time during my first days in the Dallas office, a conversation among various Special Agents in the FBI, the identities of none of whom I can recall now, but wherein mention was made that it was going to be necessary to interview all of the people in Oswald's address book. Someone said, "Well, here's Agent Hosty's name. There's no need to put his name down as a lead to be interviewed as we already know who he is." Also as Hosty had been assigned to the case on Oswald before the assassination and had attempted to interview Oswald's wife, if my memory serves me correctly, it is understandable why his name would be in Oswald's address book. Although some of those remarks are quoted, it is but a general recollection of what was said. As simple as the statement may sound to the Committee, I do think the remark is important to demonstrate that the omission of Hosty's name in Oswald's notebook in preparing our investigative report obviously was not done for any sinister purpose, but was omitted during a period of feverish effort in trying to get a report compiled by some agent(s) of the Dallas Division.

I thought it was also pertinent to mention the great concern about the note that Oswald had personally brought to the Dallas FBI office in which he said something to the effect that he would do something drastic to Special Agent Hosty if he did not stop bothering his wife with questions. It was the type of thing that an agent would expect to happen from time to time. I mentioned an agent would expect to have someone threaten or complain about his investigations. The normal response of an agent would be to ignore the threat and go out and confront the subject, as the agent has a legal right to conduct the investigation about which such a subject may be complaining. Hence, while I think, in retrospect, it was not smart to destroy the note, I am convinced that the note had no significance other than the fact that Oswald was irate and was trying to intimidate the agent and the agent simply wasn't impressed with Oswald's intimidation. It would be a natural reaction, based on my previous comments. In summary, I don't think that too much should be made about the note and the foolish things that may have happened resulting in its destruction, but I do suspect that a lot of agents have torn up similar notes because they were really made in the heat of passion and were not really significant to the investigation of cases that were being handled. While the destruction of the note and the failure to record it might seem unusual, I don't think that most agents view it as such. I do believe, in retrospect, that most agents agree it was unfortunate that the note was destroyed.

The foregoing is a summarized compilation from memory of what I said before the Committee on 5/3/78. However, I should reiterate that there is a possibility that some few statements made herein above may have been made to the Staff Counselor on May 2, 1978 and since this interview lasted from 9:00 A.M. to Noon and again from 2:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. and that of the Committee lasted three hours, during which time no notes were taken by me, it was just not possible to be certain in each case that everything stated above was said on May 3, 1978 before the Committee.

Dear Warren:

Director Webster has asked me to respond to your letter of June 12, 1978, with enclosure. It was thoughtful of you to write and provide us with the summary of your testimony before the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA), as well as your comments on the direction of some of the questions you were asked.

As you may be aware, approximately two years ago, when the HSCA came into existence, the Bureau organized a unit to respond to Committee requests for information from our files. That unit is under my direct supervision, and I can assure you that, in addition to making past and present Bureau employees available for interview or testimony, in accordance with a Memorandum of Understanding, we have granted access to or delivery of the vast amount of FBI documents appropriately excised as required, which are directly or indirectly related to the assassination of President Kennedy. These documents have included those which pertain to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and other matters you raised.

While I can appreciate your motivation in requesting permission to review certain FBI files, so as to develop a written supplement to your testimony, I must decline permission for such a review at this time. The Committee has assured us that we will be afforded an opportunity to review its report prior to publication. At that time, hopefully, we will be able to clarify misinterpretations of past Bureau efforts, should any arise.

You may also be interested to know that Bureau policy in these matters has been that former and current Bureau employees should appear before the Committee and testify only from their personal recollections and not from any recent review of files conducted for the purpose of refreshing memories.

NOTE SAC, NEW ORLEANS: Since former SAC de Brueys may communicate with the HSCA or may testify again, you are requested to utilize a secure means and caution Mr. de Brueys about information he set forth on Page 7, Lines 27 through 32, of the enclosure to his letter to the Director. He may refer to Commission Exhibit 833, Page 5, Volume XVII, of the "Hearings Before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy," for an example of how this type of information was and should be made public. He erred in stating a source "obtained a copy of a letter" because such a statement tends to signify a sensitive technique. He may have stated that the source provided us information based on statements Oswald made in a letter to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Mr. de Brueys may recall that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee openly furnished copies of Oswald's letters to Federal authorities. In short, while Mr. de Brueys is essentially correct in his statement, the Bureau would request that he express the information differently.

Mr. Warren C. de Brueys

NOTE: New Orleans airtel to the Bureau, dated 6/15/78, captioned "House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA)," furnished Mr. de Brueys' letter to SAC, New Orleans, and his four-page letter to Director Webster, with a 20-page enclosure. This response has been coordinated with Legal Liaison and Congressional Affairs Unit, Legal Counsel Division. Since the HSCA called the first former and current Special Agents approximately nine months ago, it has been Bureau policy that Agents (present or former) are to testify only from personal recollection and not from a review of files. Since former SAC de Brueys states he would write a supplement to his testimony based on a review of files, the review cannot be permitted at this time, as it would contravene past and current policy. All critics have raised questions and allegations about different aspects of the Bureau's investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy. Therefore, Mr. de Brueys is no more a party in interest at this time than any other Agent involved in one of those questioned aspects. Bureau teletype to New Orleans, dated 6/2/78, and New Orleans response dated 6/9/78, both captioned "House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA)," adequately resolved the matter raised by an HSCA staff member that Mr. de Brueys may have identified a Bureau informant during his testimony. Mr. de Brueys categorically denied doing so. SAC, New Orleans, is being requested to caution Mr. de Brueys about his error in mentioning a letter sent by Oswald to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee in New York. Dallas Field Office document 100-10461-37 shows transmission of this information from New York to Dallas. The information is classified as it involves a sensitive technique. The letter was and has continued to be made public by virtue of fact that it was publicly furnished by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee to Federal authorities.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

This responds in full to the following enumerated interrogatories submitted for consideration in a letter, dated September 5, 1978, to the Attorney General and signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA. (U)

"1. On what dates and for how long was Kosenko questioned by the FBI about Lee Harvey Oswald—from 1964 to present?"

The files of the FBI indicate that Yuri Ivanovich Kosenko was interviewed regarding Oswald and/or the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on February 26 and 27, 1964, and on March 3, 4 and 6, 1964. The FBI files do not record the specific duration in whole or in part as to topical discussions, of those five interviews; however, summary communications indicate the February 27, 1964 interview was conducted on the afternoon of that date and the March 4, 1964 discussion of Oswald occurred at the outset of an afternoon interview on that date. (U)

"2. When Kosenko was questioned by the FBI about Lee Harvey Oswald, who did the questioning?"

The FBI interviews of Kosenko, during which he was questioned about Oswald and/or the assassination of President Kennedy, were conducted by Special Agents (SAs) Alexee

Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

Poptanich, Maurice A. Taylor and Donald E. Walter on February 26 and 27, 1964; by SAs Poptanich and W. Marvin Cheesling on March 3 and 4, 1964; and by SAs Poptanich, Taylor and Walter on March 6, 1964. (U)

"3. What background, if any, did the interrogator have in interrogations? What knowledge did the interrogator have with respect to Goualdi's background?"

There are no retrievable FBI statistics upon which to base a quantification of the interrogatory experiences of the SA personnel who interviewed Rosenko on the five pertinent occasions. Suffice it to say, the techniques of cooperative and hostile interrogations are integral aspects of the training and almost daily duties of SA personnel. In that regard, it is noted that during the February and March, 1964 interviews SA Poptanich had almost 13 years of SA experience; SA Taylor had over 31 years of SA experience; SA Walter had completed almost 17 years of SA experience; and SA Cheesling had over 13 years of SA experience. Further, their respective personnel files disclose the followings: (U)

SA Poptanich was then fluent in the Russian language (Rosenko's native tongue). The Annual Report of Performance Rating, dated March 31, 1962, noted that SA Poptanich, during the previous twelve months, had participated in the interrogation of a Soviet defector and his knowledge of the Russian language and mores of the Russian people proved most helpful relative thereto. (U)

SA Taylor, on September 11, 1962, received an incentive award in recognition of the superior fashion his responsibilities were discharged over an extended period of time. The Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the Washington Field Office, in submitting a recommendation for the incentive award, commented that SA Taylor had demonstrated exceptional ability in the interrogation and debriefing of three Soviet defectors, all of whom were intelligence officers. SA Taylor's Performance Rating for the period April 1, 1963—March 31, 1964, noted he was recognized as the finest interrogator on the Soviet espionage squad in the Washington Field Office, which accounted for his assignments to interview Soviet defectors. (u)

SA Walter was the recipient of a personal letter of commendation, dated October 3, 1963, from the Director, FBI, for his superior work in the handling of a very sensitive, complicated, fast moving, and highly publicized espionage case. Previously (on November 7, 1954), he had received a meritorious salary increase for his outstanding work on another espionage case, successful interrogation being the key aspect of that investigation. (u)

SA Cheesling, at the time of the pertinent Rosenko interviews, served as a Supervisor at FBI Headquarters and had considerable experience in espionage, intelligence and counterintelligence investigations. SA Cheesling supervised the field investigation of Oswald (from the latter's return to the United States on June 13, 1962 until September, 1962, and from November 22, 1963 through mid-1964). He was assigned exclusively to supervisory responsibilities relative to the assassination of President Kennedy. (u)

While the specific knowledge of Oswald's background, possessed by these SAs at the time of the Rosenko interviews, can be answered only by the SAs themselves, SA Cheesling's prior assignment to supervision of the Oswald investigation would tend to indicate that he, at least, was quite knowledgeable of data contained in FBI files concerning Oswald. (u)

"4. On the dates that Rosenko was questioned about Oswald, does there now exist or did there ever exist:

- a. a tape of the questions asked and Rosenko's answers;
- b. a transcript of the questions asked and Rosenko's answers;
- c. a summary of the questions asked and Rosenko's answers?"

Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

As noted in FBI memorandum dated June 19, 1978, captioned as above, and which was prepared in response to HSCA letter, dated June 13, 1978, to the Attorney General, FBI records searches have not located any extant tape recordings or verbatim transcripts of FBI interviews with Rosenko that concerned Oswald and/or the assassination of President Kennedy. A document has been located which indicates that FBI personnel did record the February 26 and 27, 1964, interviews of Rosenko, among others. Since no recordings or transcripts have been located, it can be assumed that the recordings were used by the interviewing SAs to check the accuracy of their notes prior to dictating the results of the interviews. It is further assumed that, upon verifying the accuracy of summary reportings of the interviews, the recordings were disposed of since they had served the purpose for which they were made, although no record of such disposition can be found. Summary reportings of the five pertinent interviews are extant, and were delivered to the HSCA on March 21, 1978. (U)

- "3. What criteria, if any, was used to determine
a. what subjects to question Rosenko about;
b. how much time to devote to each subject?"

FBI files do not contain a specific enumeration of criteria used to determine the particular subjects Rosenko was to be questioned about nor the amount of time to be devoted to each subject in the questioning. (U)

- "4. What significance -- with respect to possible foreign involvement in the assassination as well as to the issue of Rosenko's bona fides (sic) -- did the FBI attach during the years 1964-1968 to Rosenko's statements about Oswald?"

The FBI, during the years 1964-1968, considered Rosenko's statements about Oswald to be very significant elements of his initial reportings, the veracity of which had to be assessed in relation to the totality of information furnished by him. The FBI perceived Rosenko's statements about Oswald, depending upon a subsequent, definitive resolution of Rosenko's bona fides, to be the most authoritative information available indicative of a lack of Soviet governmental involvement in the assassination of President Kennedy. Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

Q7. What significance -- with respect to possible foreign involvement in the assassination as well as to the issue of Nosenko's bona fides (cia) -- does the FBI attach today to Nosenko's statements about Oswald?

The FBI does not perceive any significant evidence of foreign involvement in the assassination of President Kennedy, nor does the FBI perceive any credible evidence that Nosenko's defection was a Soviet ploy to mask Soviet governmental involvement in the assassination. Therefore, the FBI is satisfied that Nosenko reported the facts about Oswald as he knew them. (u)

Q8. If the answer to question 6 is different from the response to question 7, when did the change occur and why?

*See addendum to ask on same letter
(under Washington)*

The FBI had no direct access to Nosenko from April 3, 1964 until April 3, 1969, and therefore was not in a position to make an objective assessment of his bona fides nor of the veracity of information furnished by him. Thus, information provided by him, in early 1964, was accepted at face value and qualified in terms of the source and the conditions under which it was received. On October 1, 1968, the FBI advised the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) that, based upon a review of material provided by CIA, the FBI found no substantial basis to conclude that Nosenko was not a bona fide defector; however, the FBI did not reach any overall, definitive conclusions regarding his bona fides because of a lack of access to Nosenko and all collateral information pertinent to such an assessment. Effective May 11, 1977, the CIA and FBI concurred that Nosenko was a bona fide defector, based upon an assessment of the totality of information furnished by him. (u)

Q9. What was the FBI's position from 1964 to 1968 on the question of whether Nosenko is bona fide (cia)?

~~SECRET~~

Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

The FBI, from 1964 to 1968, characterized Nosenko as a Soviet defector whose bona fides had not been established. (S)(U)

"10. What is the FBI's position today on the question of whether Nosenko is bona fide (sic)?"

The FBI currently characterizes Nosenko as a former Soviet Committee for State Security (KGB) officer who has furnished reliable information in the past, and considers Nosenko to be a bona fide Soviet defector. (S)(U)

"11. If the answer to question 9 is different from the response to question 10, when did the change occur and why?"

The answer to question 9 is considered responsive to question 11. (U)

"12. What was the FBI's position from 1964 to 1968 on whether Nosenko was telling the truth in the statements he made to the FBI about Osvald?"

The FBI did not take a position, from 1964 to 1968, on whether Nosenko was telling the truth in the statements he made to the FBI about Osvald. The statements were accepted at face value and qualified in terms of the source and the conditions under which they were received. (U)

"13. What is the FBI's position today as to whether Nosenko was telling the truth in the statements he made to the FBI about Osvald?"

The FBI is satisfied that Nosenko truthfully reported the facts about Osvald as he knew them. (U)

"14. If the answer to question 12 is different from the response to question 13, when did the change occur and why?"

~~SECRET~~

Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations
U. S. House of Representatives (HSCA)

As indicated in the responses to questions 7 and 8, the FBI, as of October 1, 1968, found no substantial basis to conclude Nosenko was not a bona fide defector. As of May 11, 1977, accepted a CIA assessment that Nosenko was a bona fide defector. [S]and has not perceived any significant evidence, from 1968 to date, that Nosenko reported other than the facts about Oswald as he knew them. (S)(u)

"13. Did either the FBI or the CIA have primary responsibility for investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald? If neither had primary responsibility, was there any division of responsibility?"

The FBI had primary responsibility for investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald that pertained to his (Oswald's) activities in the United States, including the assassination of President Kennedy. [X]The CIA had primary responsibility for investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald's activities abroad. [X] (u)

"14. What communication, if any, existed between the FBI and CIA with respect to evaluating and/or investigating Nosenko's statements about Oswald?"

The FBI forwarded a letter, dated March 6, 1964, from the Director, FBI, to the Director, CIA, enclosing memoranda dated February 28, 1964, and March 4, 1964, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald," which summarized the results of FBI interviews of Nosenko regarding Oswald on February 26 and 27, 1964, and March 3 and 4, 1964. [X]The results of a CIA interview of Nosenko on January 23, 1964, regarding Oswald were furnished to the FBI in a letter from the CIA dated April 28, 1964. [X]These particular pieces of correspondence, while not setting forth any specific requests or investigative leads, were furnished for purposes of evaluation. (u)(u)

Where information is not provided, it is either not retrievable from FBI Headquarters files or is not being furnished pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding. (u)

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Former Inspector James R. Malley advised he had been contacted by Mike Ewing on Friday, September 8, 1978, and a tentative date of Friday, September 15, was set for a deposition to be taken from Malley by the HSCA.

On September 11, Ewing again called and advised Friday would not be a convenient date for the Committee and set a date of September 13 at 2 P.M. for a deposition. When arriving for this interview, Ewing stated the plans had been changed and no deposition would be taken and, at that time, there would merely be an interview between Mike Ewing and Malley.

Ewing requested Malley to relate, as near as possible from memory, all circumstances surrounding his being assigned to handle the Kennedy assassination matter. He wanted information at the time the actual assassination occurred until Malley had been sent to Dallas; what occurred in Dallas; and any special instructions given before he arrived there, after he arrived in Dallas and after he returned to Washington, D. C. He asked numerous questions concerning what action was taken by Malley immediately upon arrival in Dallas. Information was furnished to him concerning instructions received from former Assistant Director Allan Belmont regarding interviews with former District Attorney Henry Wade, Chief of Police Jesse Curry and Sheriff Decker. Ewing wanted details as to what approach Malley used in talking to these three individuals relative to seeking their cooperation in not making rash statements concerning the assassination. Ewing was advised that, not having been acquainted with any of these individuals and never having talked to them on the phone, an approach was made solely on the basis that Malley, as a representative of the Bureau, had been instructed to seek their cooperation and that these instructions were issued to the Bureau by then President Lyndon Johnson. He had just been sworn in three days before.

U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

~~SECRET~~

Following a recital of the above, Ewing produced a letter, which was sent to the State Department by the Bureau in 1960, referring to a report of former Special Agent John Fain, which contained information relating to an interview with Lee Harvey Oswald's mother. This letter contained a sentence in which the Bureau suggested to the State Department that they might consider the possibility that someone was impersonating Lee Harvey Oswald.

Based on information set forth in the letter to the State Department in 1960, plus the fact that the information furnished to the Bureau by a source, Ewing again raised the question that there did seem to be some positive indication of an impostor using Oswald's name. The above matters were discussed in great detail by Ewing, attempting to have Malley say that the Bureau was deficient in handling this in that they apparently, from a review of the Bureau material, had not considered and fully explored in more detail the possibility of an impostor, which could have brought about a possible conspirator with Oswald. Malley made no comments whether he agreed or disagreed, but merely stated the fact that Bureau personnel were under the instructions from Director Hoover to fully explore every possibility of a conspiracy and fully investigate every matter that came to their attention. There was also considerable discussion of what appeared to be a letterhead memorandum dated November 23, 1963, which covered in considerable detail, approximately five pages, a summary of the information that had been gathered by the Bureau from the time of the assassination on November 22 up to the time this memorandum was prepared. In examining this memorandum, it was noted that there were no initials identifying the individual who prepared the memorandum (this could possibly indicate that the memorandum was prepared for dissemination). During this discussion, Malley mentioned to Mr. Ewing that when he had been previously interviewed by the Church Committee relative to the Kennedy assassination, he recalled a letter dated November 23 that he had been shown, which was sent to the White House and possibly, according to Malley's memory, the Attorney General. Ewing was told that the letter he had recalled seeing contained similar information to that which was in the memorandum of November 23, but was in much less detail. In connection with this memorandum, Ewing again indicated there was some information that there was a possibility there was an impostor using Oswald's name.

In the discussions with Ewing, he referred frequently to the fact that it was most difficult for the Committee to fully understand the manner in which the Bureau handled the assassination case in that criminal matters were handled by the General Investigative Division and the security aspects by the Domestic Intelligence Division, and the investigation relating to Oswald being killed by Jack Ruby handled by the Civil Rights Section of the General Investigative Division. He questioned Malley whether it would not have been better for the murder of Oswald by Jack Ruby to have been handled by the Special Investigative Division, which handled organized crime matters. Ewing's comments then dealt with the fact that this investigation brought out information showing that Jack Ruby had made a number of telephone calls to various well-known hoodlums that have since become much better known as being affiliated with the Mafia. He mentioned Sam Giancana and Santo Trafficante. Ewing commented that with such contacts as these on several occasions, it certainly appeared to the Committee that Ruby did have contacts that were more significant than the Bureau attached to them and the Committee did not feel there was a sufficient amount of investigative attention

~~SECRET~~

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

ordered to the possibility that these individuals could have had some connection not only in the slaying of Oswald but also of the President. It was pointed out to Ewing that at the time Oswald was killed by Ruby, there was no information available then to show that Ruby had any close connections with any one crime figure outside the Dallas area or any Mafia connections anywhere. It was also pointed out that from a practical standpoint, the Bureau had little jurisdiction to enter this murder investigation of Oswald as it was a state murder case. We did have instructions from President Johnson to handle all aspects of the Kennedy assassination and we did enter the case involving Oswald's death on that basis, plus using the Federal statute relating to civil rights. Ewing, nevertheless, persisted in comments to the effect that if the Bureau supervisors handling organized crime matters had supervised the Oswald killing, there would have been more investigative attention afforded to Ruby's connection with Mafia and other crime figures.

Moving away from the actual investigations relating to the assassination of Kennedy and the killing of Oswald, Ewing went into some detail on several administrative matters which are as follows:

He referred to the inquiry that was made by former Assistant Director James H. Gale, which he made at the Director's instructions relative to the handling of this case in various Field Offices and at the Seat of Government. Gale's memorandum reflects, according to Ewing, that a total of 17 individuals, who worked at one time or another on this case, were criticized or reprimanded in some manner. He questioned Malley concerning his familiarity with this memorandum and why it had not been made available to the Warren Commission. Malley advised Ewing that he knew that Gale had been instructed to make such an inquiry, that he had talked to him at one time on the phone and that he did not necessarily agree in full with Gale's comments relative to possible action that should be taken concerning Bureau personnel. He also told Ewing that he was not involved, to the best of his recollection, in any decisions that were made at the Seat of Government relating to whether this information would or would not be passed on to the

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

Warren Commission. Ewing indicated that the Committee had been in touch with J. Lee Rankin, who headed up the Warren Commission inquiry, and several other people connected with the Warren Commission relative to this administrative memorandum of Gale and all of these individuals that were contacted felt that the Bureau had held out vital information that should have been made available to them. He indicated these individuals felt that Bureau personnel who had been reprimanded were continuing to handle matters on the assassination case after being criticized for their previous actions on the matter and that this seemed to the Committee to be a definite shortcoming of the Bureau. Ewing attempted to have Malley make some comments which would indicate that he agreed that this had been a shortcoming. Malley answered Ewing by saying that this was an administrative matter relating to Bureau personnel and that, as he recalled, not having participated in the discussion as to whether it would or would not go to the Warren Commission, he was not in a position to answer. He also commented to Ewing that while someone might be accused of handling one matter incorrectly, it did not mean the man was incapable of performing adequately in other aspects of this investigation. He also commented that he did not feel there would be many individuals who had worked, over a period of years, on investigative matters and had not made a slight slip and this did not mean they were incapable.

Ewing questioned Malley as to whether he was aware that dossiers had been compiled by members of the Bureau on the Warren Commission and personnel that worked for the Warren Commission. Malley said he could not recall any direct knowledge, but would not be surprised that an investigation would have been made relative to all individuals assigned to this matter. Ewing then questioned Malley as to whether he was aware that instructions had been issued for Bureau personnel to conduct surveillances and obtain photographs, if possible, that would show derogatory activities on the part of Warren Commission personnel. Ewing was advised that Malley had no such information.

He then questioned Malley as to whether he was aware of any such activities of a derogatory nature relating to critics of the Warren Commission. Malley advised him, without indicating the name, that he did know of one individual that was a lawyer and an author that had allegedly engaged in activities that would be considered by many people to be derogatory. (This refers to attorney and author Mark Lane.) Ewing, without naming anyone, commented the Committee was well aware of this individual's abnormal behavior, of his troublesome activities and that he had been a constant source of trouble to the Committee since the day they started their operation. Ewing then questioned Malley as to whether he was familiar with instructions that had been issued by the Seat of Government to attempt to obtain derogatory information on any of the critics the Bureau had relative to the Kennedy case and he insisted that specific instructions were given and that they were handled at a rather high level in the Bureau. Malley told Ewing that to the best of his recollection, he could not recall any information setting forth such instructions or setting forth any requests as a result thereof.

Ewing then directed his conversation toward activities of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and questioned Malley as to whether he had knowledge of CIA activities dealing with individual Mafia members in trying to set up activities against various world-known leaders. He was advised that Malley had never been aware of any such activities being made known to the Bureau. He stated, however, that he did recall seeing information, but did not know if it was in Bureau files or in a newspaper since he left the Bureau, concerning CIA contacts with Robert Mahen, a former Bureau Agent who was subsequently an aide to Howard Hughes. Mahen, supposedly, had contacted Roselli, the hoodlum figure that was supposed to arrange for the killing of Fidel Castro.

The above lasted 4 hours and 15 minutes, and, at the conclusion, Mr. Ewing indicated that, undoubtedly, the Committee would request Malley to appear at a public session of the Committee, possibly on September 20, 21 or 22, and he would advise later of the correct date.

SUBJECT: HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

PURPOSE: To record details of the FBI's review of material furnished by captioned Committee in accordance with the 10/5/77 Memorandum of Understanding (MU) between the Department of Justice and the HSCA.

SYNOPSIS: The HSCA material (approximately 4,463 pages) was received by the FBI on 6/12/79 and reviewed in accordance with the 10/5/77 MU. Review by FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ) Records Management Division (RMD), Intelligence Division (INTD), Criminal Investigative Division (CID), Laboratory Division (Lab), Technical Services Division (TSD), and Legal Counsel Division (LCD) was completed on 6/15/79. Items of information to be disclosed which constituted permissible objections under the MU or factual errors were discussed with HSCA former Chief Counsel G. Robert Blakey on 6/15/79. Blakey resolved the matters raised by accepting certain alternative language. Any objections or suggestions rejected by Blakey did not go to the merit of a permissible objection under the MU. Details of the matters discussed with Blakey are set forth. Certain matters were coordinated with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) as required. The Department of Justice (DOJ) was advised by letter on 6/18/79 that the FBI review had been completed and that Blakey had resolved the permissible objections by accepting certain changes. The FBI review, just concluded, concentrated on information constituting a permissible objection under the MU or a substantive, factual error. This memorandum should not be construed as a definitive commentary on the HSCA material. Committee praise for the 1978 FBI leadership is set forth, as well as two Committee quotes from Director Webster's testimony before the HSCA.

RECOMMENDATION: For information.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

3. That which "...is classified information designated for protection from unauthorized disclosure by the Attorney General or an other properly designated official that identifies peculiarly sensitive foreign intelligence sources..."

Personnel currently and formerly assigned to CIU reviewed the HSCA Report and Appendices, not only to identify objectionable information in accordance with the MU, but also to detect factual errors based upon past knowledge of both cases.

Responsibilities for review within CIU were assigned as follows: SA John T. Aldhizer, Report-MLK; SAs Tron Brekke and Aldhizer, MLK Appendix-Volume XIII; SA John S. Giaquinto, JFK Appendices-Volumes VI - X, inclusive; SA Drew J. Clark, Report-JFK and JFK Appendices-Volumes XI and XII.

Division coordinators assigned to this project by their respective Assistant Directors were: SA Edwin Yee, INTD; SA Joseph Domzalski, CID; SA Cornelius G. McWright, Lab; SA Steve Killion, TSD; SA Ronald Heller, LCD; SA Francis M. Leapley, Identification Division, who resolved the factual matter involving fingerprint evidence in Appendix-Volume XIII-MLK.

The division coordinators and personnel from SA William A. Harwood's Projects Unit, RMD, reported the results of their respective reviews by 2:10 p.m., 6/15/79. Responses from INTD, Lab, TSD, and LCD indicated no permissible objections under the MU. CID reported one substantive objection involving source information-MLK to SA Aldhizer. FBIHQ division responses are attached as enclosure 5 (to file original only).

At approximately 2:30 p.m., 6/15/79, a conference call was initiated to include FBIHQ personnel, HSCA former Chief Counsel G. Robert Blakey from Cornell Law School, Ithaca, New York, and Mr. Blakey's editorial staff, House Annex 2, Washington, D. C. The following permissible objections and substantive factual matters were presented to Mr. Blakey at that time.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

RE JFK ASSASSINATION MATERIAL

Item 1: Report page 14, DII-PATS, states, "The FBI did attempt to alleviate the 'problem.'" In a report dated September 26, it produced the story of Loran Eugene Hall who claimed he had been in Dallas in September, 1963. . ."

Objection: To say "produced the story" tends to connote a fabrication, which is not the case according to Bureau files.

Recommendation: Language change to "In a report dated September 26, it reported the interview of Loran Eugene Hall. . ."

Action: Mr. Blakey accepted the recommendation.

Item 2: Report page 50, DII-PATS, states, "Third, shortly after the assassination, Dallas FBI Agent Hosty destroyed a note that had been delivered to his office allegedly by Oswald, shortly before the assassination. When that conduct was finally made public in 1975, it aroused great suspicions, especially since it had been previously revealed, even to the Warren Commission."

Objection: Bureau files disclose this information had not been disseminated to the Warren Commission because it was not known at FBIHQ in 1963 and 1964. It did not come to the attention of FBIHQ until 1975.

Recommendation: Language change to: ". . . especially since it had not been previously revealed, . . ."

Action: Mr. Blakey accepted the recommendation.

Item 3: Report page 58, DII-PATS, states ". . . approximately 2 or 3 weeks before the assassination of President Kennedy, Oswald allegedly delivered a note addressed to Hosty at the FBI office in Dallas. . . Between 1963 and 1975, the existence of the note and its destruction were kept secret within the Bureau."

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

Objection: Such language connotes an institutional cover-up of the information. This directly opposes a correct interpretation of the recorded facts which indicate the secret was kept only in the Dallas Office by certain individuals, including SA Hosty, until 1975.

Recommendation: Language change to "... kept secret within the Dallas Office."

Action: Mr. Blakey accepted the recommendation.

Item 4: Report pages 263 and 264, DII-PATS:
Action: Mr. Blakey confirmed that the difficulty with regard to continuity on pages 263 and 264 is eliminated by renumbering so that page 264 becomes 263 and vice versa.

Item 5: Report page 10, DADE-PATS:
Action: Mr. Blakey confirmed that the Gale to Mr. Tolson memoranda of 12/10/63 and 9/30/64, Committee JFK Exhibits F460 and F461, will be published in an expurgated form. The names of Special Agents disciplined in 1963 and 1964 will be deleted, according to Mr. Blakey.

Item 6: Page 64, Appendix-Volume XI, speaks of the FBI's surveillance of Marina Oswald from 2/29/64 to 3/12/64 and states, "No indication was found that the Warren Commission staff members were ever informed of the FBI's electronic surveillance of Marina Oswald."

Objection: The above language connotes a Sub Rosa operation by the FBI when, in fact, the surveillance (physical and technical) was instituted following a request of the Commission, which was also furnished the results of the surveillance. The Attorney General's Office approved the telephone surveillance. See Bureau file 105-126032-66 and following.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

Action: Mr. Blakey agreed to substitute the following language: "Nevertheless, the Committee learned that the results of the surveillance, which was, in fact, requested by the Commission, were given to the Commission Chief Counsel and senior staff members.

Item 7: Page 426, Appendix-Volume XII, sets forth the Committee's interview (testimony) of Marina Oswald Porter, wherein the following question is asked of her by Committee counsel: "Q. You stated on one occasion you saw Lee discuss with Mr. Hosty outside the house for at least one-half an hour information, have a discussion that lasted at least one-half hour. What could have been discussed for that length of time if Lee was not giving information to Mr. Hosty?"

Objection: Bureau files record that Oswald was not interviewed by Hosty until after his arrest by the Dallas Police Department on 11/22/63.

Action: Mr. Blakey advised that this was an unfortunate error that could not be corrected since it was already a part of the official record of the Committee's interview of Marina Oswald Porter.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

SA Aldhizer discussed the following matters with Mr. Blakey:

Item 1: On page 156, paragraph 5, the report states, "...the committee was able only to review the files of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP)." [REDACTED] (C) Mr. Blakey agreed to the following revised wording: "...the committee was able only to review the files of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), obtained by committee subpoena from local authorities."

Item 2: On page 159, paragraph 6, the report states, [REDACTED] (C) (b)(1)

The FBI objected to this passage because it tended to identify an FBI informant. Mr. Blakey agreed to the revised wording of "In a conversation with an acquaintance, Jerry's general response to a question concerning his brother's involvement in the assassination was:"

Item 3: On page 195, line 2, it is stated that [REDACTED] (b)(1)

[REDACTED] (C) (26)
The FBI objected to this passage because it tended to identify FBI informants.

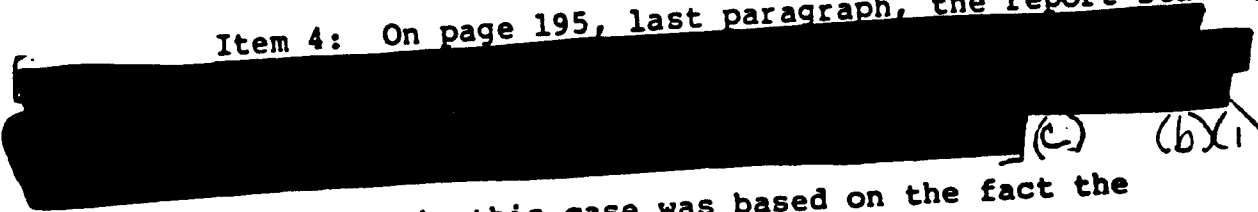

Mr. Blakey agreed to a substitution of this sentence, which is as follows: "The informants were either unavailable or uncooperative. (26)"

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

Item 4: On page 195, last paragraph, the report states,
 (c) (b)(1)

Objection in this case was based on the fact the passage tended to identify an FBI informant.

Mr. Blakey agreed to revised wording, which is as follows: "... Shelton advised that in August, 1968, the defense was in need of money for Ray's defense. Shelton inquired whether Klan members would be willing to donate money for Ray's defense."

Item 5: On page 196, paragraph 1, the report states,
 (c) (b)(1)

The FBI objected to wording in these two paragraphs because it tended to identify FBI informants.

Mr. Blakey agreed to revision of these two paragraphs as follows: "Shelton added that he intended to review the jury list in Ray's case when it was available" and "Source B learned that a UKA board meeting was held in mid-1969 and attended by Hanes and Melvin Sexton, the UKA secretary who handled Klan finances, among others."

Item 6: On page 213, paragraph 2, the report refers to an article in the "Miami Magazine" in October, 1966. It was pointed out to Mr. Blakey that this date should be October, 1976. Mr. Blakey agreed to make this change as an error in fact.

Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

Item 7: On page 217, small paragraph numbered 4, the report states, "The committee identified the FBI informant in SCLC without the assistance of the FBI. He acknowledged his former informant status in a committee interview in which he was also asked about the nature of his relationship with the Bureau."

The FBI objected to this wording because it implied that the HSCA learned of informant's identity through a review of FBI files.

Mr. Blakey agreed to a revised wording of this sentence, which is as follows: "The committee learned of the identity of the FBI's SCLC informant when he acknowledged his former status in a committee interview. He was asked about the nature of his relationship with the Bureau:"

Item 8: On page 240, paragraph 7, the report states that the FBI's conduct was "morally reprehensible, illegal, felonious, and unconstitutional." The FBI objected to this statement in discussing the FBI Counterintelligence Program because the HSCA, in its report, failed to point out sufficient evidence to warrant such language. Mr. Blakey refused to make any change in this statement.

Item 9: On page 247, paragraph 1, the report states,

[REDACTED] (b)(1) (c)(127)

[REDACTED] (b)(1) (c)

Mr. Blakey agreed to revise wording in this paragraph, which is as follows: "Washington requested Canadian authorities to review Canadian passport records. (127)"

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

Appendix-Volume XIII - MLK

Item 1: On page 117, last paragraph, the panel report, in paragraph 32, lists the results of fingerprint comparisons on numerous photographs. In paragraph 33, the panel report states that the HSCA panel, in examining these reports, agreed with earlier findings of the FBI. However, the report stated that "In addition, the panel determined that the previously unidentified photograph 115, developed from a coupon from Eric S. Galt to Modern Photo Bookstore, bears an impression made by the left thumb of James Earl Ray."

It was pointed out to Mr. Blakey that this sentence is misleading and incorrect in view of the fact that the FBI initially identified photograph 115 as an impression of Ray's left thumb, and therefore the HSCA only confirmed this finding.

Mr. Blakey agreed to make the following changes in the report: (1) On page 116, under photograph 115, the Q number of 326 was added in parentheses following the word "Store"; (2) on page 117, information concerning the identification of photograph 115 would be listed in the correct chronological order under paragraph 32; (3) the sentence in the last paragraph on page 117, in paragraph 33, beginning with "In addition," would therefore be deleted.

Item 2: On page 127, bottom of the page, under item (c), there appears the sentence [REDACTED] (c) (b) (1)

(c) [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Mr. Blakey agreed to delete this (b)(1) sentence.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

In addition to the above matters, SA Clark contacted Mr. Russ Holmes, CIA, during the review, concerning Report page 99, DII-PATS, which refers to an 11/23/63 FBI letterhead memorandum. This document and language extracted from it is classified "Confidential" in Bureau files. It was so classified because it contained information derived from CIA. Mr. Holmes advised that CIA has declassified that information and so notified FBIHQ by a 4/20/78 CIA communication, CIR 316/01647-78, sent to the attention of SA Giaquinto. Mr. Holmes, also, was put in touch with SA Richard Davidson, Projects Unit, RMD, to discuss this matter.

On 6/18/79, Mr. Holmes advised that although JFK Appendix-Volume X, page 57, states "The CIA cited 2 FBI memorandums as support," he wished to point out that CIA always exerted special care so as not to disclose FBI documents to the HSCA. In this instance, Mr. Holmes was concerned that the Committee language indicated the contrary. Mr. Holmes advised that the proper meaning of this sentence should be that CIA referred the Committee to 2 FBI memoranda which the HSCA was, of course, free to obtain directly from the FBI.

A 6/18/79 Bureau letter to the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, DOJ, attention Mr. Robert L. Keuch, advised that the Bureau had completed its review of the HSCA material and had no permissible objections to raise under the MU since all such objections had been made to Mr. Blakey on 6/15/79, at which time he accepted alternative language that resolved the objections.

It should be noted that the time constraints imposed by the MU necessarily narrowed the scope of review afforded the HSCA material. Primarily, attention was devoted to detecting information constituting a permissible objection under the MU and correcting factual errors, particularly those that unjustifiably reflected adversely upon the Bureau.

Therefore, this memorandum should not be construed as a definitive or exhaustive commentary on the HSCA material reviewed as it is likely that FBIHQ substantive divisions may wish to challenge certain Committee language as may be required in the future.

Memorandum D. Ryan to Mr. Bailey
Re: House Select Committee on Assassinations

It is noted that the Report, page 53, DII-PATS, states the following:

"The leadership of the FBI, as of 1978, was deserving of credit, in the committee's estimate, for its efforts to find the truth about the Hosty entry in Oswald's address book. The committee doubted that the tickler copy of the December 23 memorandum would have been found if FBI officials had not been interested in resolving the issue."

On Report page 260, DII-PATS, the Committee stated, ". . . While a general Federal homicide statute raises the specter of a Federal police agency to enforce it, FBI Director William Webster testified:"

(A)ll of us have, today, intense sensitivity to people who are injured or killed in the exercise of civil rights or in the assertion of civil rights or in encouraging others to assert legitimate civil rights. It is a special kind of area where we think the Federal Government has such an interest in seeing that constitutional rights are protected."

Also, on renumbered Report page 264, DII-PATS, the Committee stated: ". . . Declaring 'martial law' is not 'acceptable,' (72) Webster stated:"

"While it is a traumatic experience for anyone to live through the assassination of a President, it ought not to be the predicate for an investigative conduct which in essence is the declaration of martial law. I just simply do not believe that we ought to  suspend everything that was put in place to protect the rights of citizens. (73)"
